Harry Potter Book and Movie Club

February 29 @ 3 p.m.—Harry Potter and the Sorcerer’s Stone

Join us on February 29 for a Harry Potter movie and book discussion. This is the first meeting of a Harry Potter book and movie club that will run from February to August of this year. To correspond with the book of the month we will have a viewing party of the movie adaption, plus ways to discuss and share ideas with fellow Harry Potter fans.

All programs are free and open to teens and adults.

Screenings located in the Scott Room.

No registration required.

Everyone Belongs @ GFJ!

We welcome individuals with disabilities and their caregivers to join us for crafts, coloring, puzzles, games, and more!

This relaxed program is largely self-directed and has something for a variety of interests and ability levels.

Friday, February 28 @ 10:00- 11:00 a.m. in the Scott Room of library.

Elements of Drawing— lessons 6-10 with Richard Henry

March 6—April 3, 10-12 in the Scott room.

Students will work on learning to draw objects, learn to see relationships to size and some general rules of perspective. Some previous drawing knowledge is beneficial. Richard Henry will guide you through each lesson plan and answer questions you may have.

Materials will be provided to use during these class sessions and a fee of $5.00 will be required to cover supplies.

Registration begins on February 3. Register online @ www.gfjlibrary.org, click on calendar, click on date of first class and register. You may also register on the phone—607 757-5350.

Become a Census Taker

Census Workers are needed for the 2020 census. If you are interested in becoming a census taker, join us for an information session on Feb. 7, 1-3 p.m., in the Scott Room of the library. The pay is $20.00/hour. Stop by anytime between 1-3 p.m. to learn how you can help.

AARP Tax-Aid volunteers

INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY

If the Union-Endicott Schools are closed due to weather, the library will open at 11 am.

This is for the safety of our staff, patrons, and the village workers trying to clear the roads and parking lots.

If it is determined that the library will remain closed for the entire day, we will post it on social media and our website as soon as possible.
