September Virtual Classes at the GFJ Tech Center!

During these classes, you will be able to chat with our Tech Center staff as they present a live, online class. The Zoom classes allow for more participants, use of videos in presentations, in-class polling, and closed captioning.

Ancestry.com for Beginners Thursday, 9/9 at 3:00 Ancestry is the world's most popular consumer online genealogy resource. Users can search the U.S. Census records, Social Security records, birth and death records, immigration records, military and other vital records. This workshop is targeted to BEGINNERS.

Discover Windows 10 & 11 Friday, 9/10 at 3:00 In this class we discuss what we know about Windows 11, but then turn our attention back to Windows 10 for those who will keep Windows 10 or use it as a stepping stone for Windows 11. Please bring questions to help the presenter tailor the class to what you need to know about Windows.

Meet LIBBY Wednesday, 9/15 at 3:00 & Friday, 9/17 at 11:00 Libby is a free app, built by Overdrive, which helps you borrow ebooks, digital audiobooks, and magazine with a Four County Library Card number and PIN. There are thousands of titles available for reading on all your mobile devices.

Tips and Tricks to be More Secure Online Wednesday, 9/22 at 3:00 & Tuesday, 9/28 at 11:00 Internet security is something everyone should prioritize. Find out how to protect your important information while browsing web sites, reading email, shopping online, or using social media.

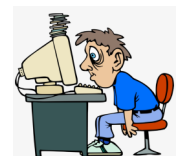

How Can We Know if What We Read Online is True? Thursday, 9/30 at 3:00 Anyone can post information on the Internet, but how can we tell what is true, and what is a scam? This class will explore and discuss tips and tools that we can use to help verify information on the Internet.

GFJ LIBRARY SCHEDULE OF EVENTS FOR SEPTEMBER 2021

Children & Teen Events

Thank you to all our participants in the Summer Reading Program! We loved seeing your families in the library and we so enjoyed your Silly Stories, Created Creatures, BINGO games and the results of your Endicott Scavenger Hunts. We hope you had fun, too.

As summer winds down, please remember that we have a huge collection of wonderful books, CDs and DVDs for borrowing year-round and we hope to see you in the library again soon.

Adult Events

Adult Summer Reading Club

Thanks to all who participated in the Adult reading club—we had 80 participants and over 500 books were read! Keep on reading!

GFJ Book Club will meet via Zoom on Wednesday, September 22 @ 1p.m. to discuss: The Last Romantics by Tara Conklin. For more information contact en.cathy@4cls.org.

When the renowned poet Fiona Skinner is asked about the inspiration behind her iconic work, The Love Poem, she tells her audience a story about her family and a betrayal that reverberates through time. It begins in a big yellow house with a funeral, an iron poker, and a brief variation forever known as the Pause: a free and feral summer in a middle-class Connecticut town. Two decades later, the siblings find themselves once again confronted with a family crisis that tests the strength of these bonds and forces them to question the life choices they've made and ask what, exactly, they will do for love.
