We of these January and June Classes of 1947 are glad "Thesaurus" means a storehouse of collected treasures. People have so many precious possessions they store away, so much in the way of tangible value which they treasure. However, the intangible — the memories of happy school days, the indelible portraits of friends — the associations these recall — these are the most prized wealth of most people.

Rejoicing in the possession of memories of friends, of school activities, we visualize these as the separate parts of a rocket which bursts in all its beauty of design and color, shedding its myriad stars upon us. As the rocket gleams for us, we revel in its inexhaustible memories, and dream of its separate stars.

*"An apple for the teacher," and gratitude we bring,
For kindness, patience, understanding, when
Our minds would wander to some far-off corner of the globe,
And have to be recalled and made alert again.*

MISS MARY L. PITKIN
Principal

Miss Pitkin, our ever fair and friendly principal, is a graduate of New York State College for Teachers at Albany with post graduate work at Columbia University. She is especially interested in mathematics and likes to travel. We feel that she is always interested in us and anxious to make our problems hers.

MR. WILLIAM J. KRUM, JR.
Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Krum was graduated from Hamilton and has had three years of graduate work at Columbia University. Mr. Krum is a Rotarian, is interested greatly in community and school cooperation, and stands "for democracy in school administration." His friendly interest and efficient management have already won him respect from teachers and pupils.

MR. DEWITT S. WOODARD
Associate Principal

Mr. Woodard is a graduate of St. Lawrence University. His understanding and congenial manner have won for him many friends in the two years that he has been at U-E. His outside interest lies in church work.

"Where, oh where, are the verdant Freshmen?"

THE FRESHMAN CLASS

By this time we, the Freshman class, have adjusted ourselves to high school. The halls that once looked so forbidding and gloomy now echo the happy voices of our new-found friends. We have found teachers to be always understanding and willing to help us over the "rough spots." There are countless new activities in which we engage. Many of us belong to band and orchestra; some of our boys have gone out for football and basketball, and the glee club claims several of our group. Assemblies are new and different. As we peer at them from our high pedestal in the balcony, we think and long for the day when we are seniors and can hear them too. We have become loyal defenders of our school and know that we shall always remember the happy days we have spent as Freshmen at U-E.

THESE TALENTED SOPHOMORES

We'd like to give congratulations to the Honor Roll, of course,

But we'd like to give out other honors, too,
To the people, who we're very sure have helped not only us,
But will also gain well-won applause from you.

We have often found amusement in the joyful
escapades

That "Hibbard, Clark & Company" provide,
And the many Sophs who helped produce the "U. E. Talent Shows",

Their abilities and skill worked side by side.

There are artists and musicians, who will make their dreams come true,

And those who'll write and sing tomorrow's song,

And to these people, one and all, and many others too,

We'd like to pass congratulations along.

"Where, oh where, are the jolly Juniors?"

FUN AND FROLIC . . .

CORRIDOR COURTSHIP . . .

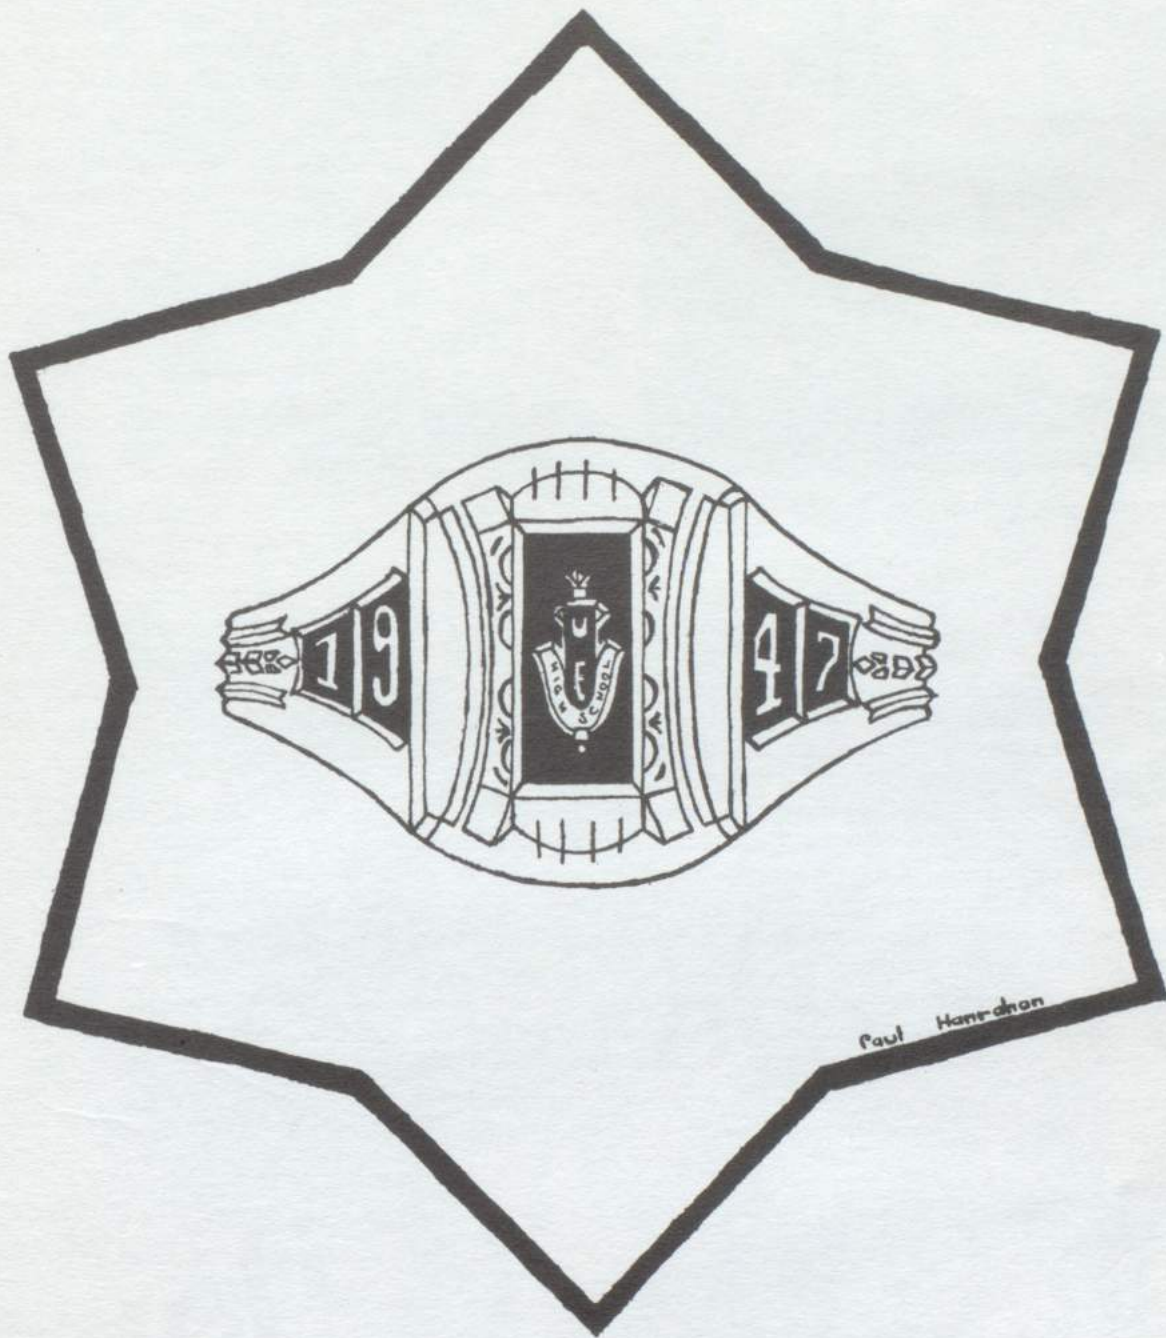

MEN AT WORK . . .

FRIENDS AT PLAY . . .

It's been a whole year of being Jolly Juniors and all that the name implies . . . that important feeling of being upperclassmen without having to assume the full-fledged dignity of Seniors . . . the time for strengthening ties and cementing friendships . . . and finally, sharing the joys of the homeward stretch with mingled feelings of regret, for, in truth, we were just beginning to like the place.

" Where, oh where, are the wise old Seniors? "

*When time shall play on all of us its merry trick,
What fun 'twill be to hunt these pictures through and pick
The one with whom we fell in love, the one most likely to succeed,
The one to whose marks we always gave most heed.*

JANUARY CLASS, 1947

SENIOR OFFICERS

At a Senior meeting held in the large auditorium, Joseph John Makar was elected president of the January class of 1947. His aid as vice-president was Mary Louise Crane, Ethel Galgocy and Michael Bundas were elected secretary and treasurer respectively. Blue and white were later the chosen colors and the white carnation was the favored flower of the one hundred seniors. "Live and Learn" was selected for their motto.

A program of social activities was started. First on the agenda was the Senior play. The stage play, "The Fighting Littles," was presented under the efficient direction of Miss Barbara Thayer, U-E's dramatics instructor.

Next, came the banquet which was held at the Holiday Inn in Vestal.

For assembly, a Senior Class day program was presented.

As a climax to the fun, on January 31, the Senior Prom was held at the George Washington Junior High School, with music furnished by the Hi-Club orchestra.

February 5, when the commencement exercises were held at eight o'clock Irene Lisak, Irene Kushner and Joseph John Makar, honor students, gave essays.

When Miss Pitkin awarded the prizes, a prize of $5 was awarded to Elaine Biseo by the Woman's Club for maintaining the highest average in English for four years. Also, to Elaine was awarded the first prize by the Commercial Club for holding the highest average in 6 and 1/2 units of business.

Second prize given by the Commercial Club went to Irene Lisak. An alumni prize of $5 was given to Irene for the highest average in all school subjects for four years.

The Commercial Club awarded its third prize to Rosalie Cannavino for a high average in 5 and 1/2 units of business subjects.

A prize of $5 was given to Frances Popular by the Kiwanis Club for the highest average in American history.

John Shatz received the mathematics prize of $5 for mathematics honors. For the highest average in science and mathematics combined, he was awarded the R.P.I. Medal.

The Bausch and Lomb Science Award was given to Ernest Sochor.

Then, after receiving their diplomas, as the graduates passed through the doors of the auditorium, they entered a strange but challenging world.

JUNE CLASS, 1947

We are proud of our class of June 1947 which is comprised of approximately 260 members. It would not be possible to enumerate each one's interest in activities but certain pupils should be named as having been chosen by fellow students or the faculty for outstanding positions.

Among these is the president of the Student council, Arthur Stenberg, who, with Marilyn Lewis, was chosen as our Senior class representative on the council. Donald Mastro has distinguished himself by being elected captain of both the football and basketball teams this year. Catherine Chubinsky was crowned the Queen of U E at the annual Thanksgiving dance.

Several seniors were elected presidents of the various clubs. Included in this list are: Fannie Longo, who heads the Tri-Hi Club; Doris Borromei, Italian Club; Patricia Fallon, Library Club; and Elwood Hendrick, Technical Club.

In the literary field, Anne Forde and Lillian Skumanich were selected as co-editors of the "Tiger." These two girls along with William Smith are co-editors of the "Thesaurus." Marilyn Allen is the leader of the Creative Writing Club.

A chapter of The Future Homemakers of America was organized last semester. This club has as its president Lois Messersmith. The Future Farmers of America have as their president Karl Spencer.

Not to be omitted are Mary Janecek and Donald Mastro who were chosen by faculty members and fellow classmates as representatives of the student body on the Athletic Advisory Board.

Our honor group, consisting of twenty-five people, is large in respect to the total number of people in the class.

All in all, this has been a year that will be remembered by the class of 1947. The officers — President, Arthur Stenberg; Vice-President, Mary Janecek; Secretary, Lillian Mrkus; Treasurer, George Bachura — have been well chosen and one cannot help but think that if ten years from now, we all were to attend an alumni banquet, we should find that the class of '47 had become successful doctors, lawyers, teachers, nurses, technical workers and, yes, housewives.

In a world that needs educated people, may we go out to do our best, making our hopes and dreams of today the reality of tomorrow.

SENIOR HONOR ROLL CEREMONY

Each year the graduating June seniors who have maintained an average of at least eighty-nine and one-half per cent throughout the four years of high school are honored at an annual candlelight ceremony. Each senior is escorted to the stage by a junior honor student where he or she receives an orange and black robe to wear. When all are assembled on the stage, each senior's name is read. He or she proceeds to the center of the stage where there is a burning candle representing the light of knowledge and wisdom. Each graduate lights his candle from the burning candle and signs his name on the permanent record of all students maintaining honor averages. The quiet simplicity of our traditional Candle-lighting Ceremony leaves a marked impression on both the participants and the audience.

ATHLETIC ADVISORY BOARD

Besides presenting student athletes with their letters, sweaters, and gold footballs, the Athletic Advisory Board has, as its chief function, the problems of maintaining athletic facilities and purchasing athletic equipment. The board, consisting of our superintendent, principal, a faculty member and two athletic directors, meets with two senior students and two junior students to discuss any athletic problems that arise in games and athletic events.

1946 CANDIDATES FOR TRACK

Although the 1946 track team did not win a third leg on the "Binghamton Press" Trophy, they did admirably represent the Orange and Black with their "feats."

CROSS COUNTRY TRACK

Kneeling: Bill Mitchell, Don Bradley, Mario Lozzi, John Fiorini, John Kotsubka.

Standing: Mr. Henry White, James MacPherson, Joe Cunningham, Jack Lozzi, Bob Conti, Rudolph Podest, Hal Oliphant.

Cross-country track, a growing sport in U-E, gives the Orange harriers a chance to show their capabilities. Coached by Henry C. White and Assistant Coach Hal Oliphant, the hill and dale men continue in traditional U-E winning.

FOOTBALL

VARSITY CHAMPIONS

King Football really kicked the ball around this football season by producing a Triple Cities Championship Team. He started the season in a mild way with a thrilling battle with North High's Indians in which the Cobblers emerged victoriously with a 12-0 score. . . Watertown's Purple eleven practically put him on ice in a vicious, suspense-packed contest with our Orange Tornadoes. The Orange and Black, by virtue of Cardone's talented toe, put themselves in the winners' bracket, by slamming out a close 20-18 victory.

Against Johnson City, a 1945 conqueror, King Football regained his footing and rolled to a 25-0 victory over the Maroon Wildcats. . . Union-Endicott proved to be poor playing hosts to visitors from Lawrence High, Long Island, by fighting to a 27-6 conquest and avenging another '45 defeat.

The temporary success was a trifle too much for King Football to take as he ran into a stubborn Elmira aggregation who battled to a 14-14 deadlock with the favored Orangemen. Ithaca provided no competition to a thoroughly chastened U-E squad who proceeded to run away with a game that ended in their favor with 46-6 as a score.

Reported to be a threat to the 5 game, 1 tie record the Cobb gridders boasted of, the Scranton Tech eleven from Pennsylvania met and left the Tornadoes with a surprisingly easy 39-0 triumph.

King Football ended his glorious and bruising campaign on Southern Tier gridirons at the Turkey Day Classic at the Union-Endicott Stadium between the Orange "Tornadoes" and the Binghamton Central eleven. The 33rd year of Thanksgiving Day competition saw the "Tigers" register the greatest victory in Triple Cities Football History by running over the Central "Bulldogs" to establish a record breaking 34-0 conquest.

CHEER LEADERS

As the smoke of the elimination battle for positions on the cheering squad cleared away, Joan Bennett, Lucille Chura, Sybil Chatham, Jack Mayers and Vince Putrino along with 1945 hold-overs, Toni Salamida, Doris Friedli, Anne Marie Crane and Almondo Fiori were the ones chosen to cheer the football and basketball squads to victory.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

It is because of these boys that we had such a successful football season. We are highly gratified and appreciate their efforts to help condition the Varsity eleven. The "JV's" go to practice every night and pound away at scrimmage with their larger team mates without any glory whatever. With Ted Conwicke, their coach, we pay tribute to the "little big boys" who have pounded out a Triple Cities Championship Team for U-E.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Kneeling: Jim Backes, John Baron, Don Mastro, Paul Yurko, Walt Shonosky.

Standing: Joe Sementelli, Andy Sepelak, Caesar George, George Bachura, John Hrustich, Fred Jaros, Dick Marino.

Although they did not win a championship this year, we feel the Orange "Hurricanes" have contributed their share to the U-E tradition of fine performance and clean sportsmanship. Likewise, the Junior Varsity, "Little Breezes," who play the preliminary games, have presented themselves admirably.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

J. Armstrong, J. Clune, H. Durfee, J. Fortino, A. Hudanich, R. Kotsubka, R. Mandyck, Joe Miner, John Miner, D. Moore, R. Rommell, P. Saddlemire, R. Simpson, J. Shea, R. Thomas.

1946 BASEBALL TEAM

TEAMS IN ACTION

GIRLS' SPORTS

With our minds concentrating on the boys' sports, we sometimes neglect to recognize the girls as sport-enthusiasts. Nevertheless, they are.

In 1945, the girls who participated in sports, sponsored their first dinner in honor of alumnae who have taken part in after-school sports. Since then, this dinner has been an annual event. Alumnae are awarded numerals, letters and sweaters according to the points they have earned in their years in high school. For each game played, each squad made, each championship attained, etc., a certain number of points is given. Any girl obtaining 100 to 120 points, earns numerals; 120 to 140, letters; 140 or more, a sweater.

This year Rachel Burton and Norma Jean Ayer received numerals; Helen Grecko received letters; Eleanor Breno, Jean Courtright and Rose Greco, sweaters.

"Record breaking" is exactly how to describe Rita Gimmie's achievement in sports as she is the first girl to have attained 200 points. The girls' athletic department is very proud of her. She well deserves her sweater.

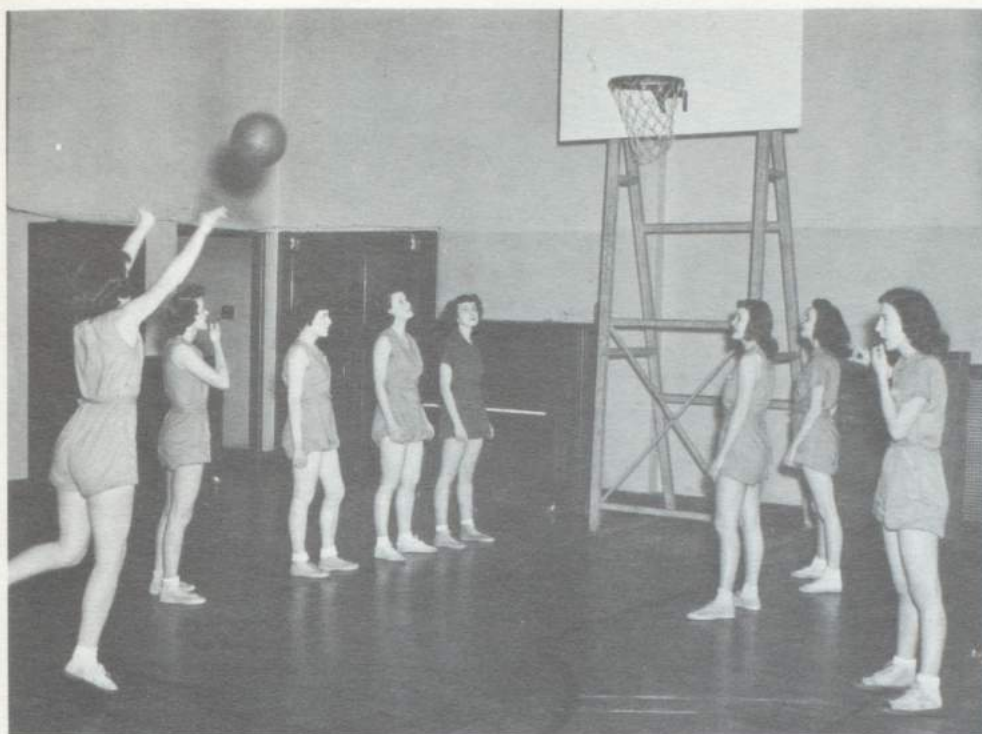

Through the annual dinners a closer relationship between all classes is achieved. The girls have fun and anxiously wait for the next "get-together."

The activities, shown on the following pages, are indicative of the sports that are offered to the girls.

MANAGERS OF GIRLS' SPORTS

VOLLEY BALL PRACTICE

SQUARE DANCING

CALISTHENICS

*Rumbling, roaring, booming drums,
Give us a spirit theme for life.
Let us hear the piccolo dance
And listen as the trombone sings.
Violin, awaken memory and call
Those fleeting days of youth to us.*

CONCERT BAND

The members are: FLUTE: Jeanne Story, Rita Register; OBOE: June Ferguson; Eb CLARINET: Ruth Gutgesell; Bb CLARINET: William Smith, Joseph Tedeschi, Marilee Kramer, Herbert Kline, Richard Rude, Edward Zigata, Dolores Whitaker, Dolores Brown, Marlene Covert, Gerry Occhiato, Anthony Diorio, Polly Conwicke, Vincent Putrino, Mary Wright, Ellen Van Dusen, Mary Reardon, Delores Chandler, Norma Cochran, Jean Picciano, Hermina Bilek, Eben Bonear, Salvatore Rizzi; BASS CLARINET: Lois Griffith; Eb SAXOPHONE: Reeve Copp, Rita Antonette, Rudy Janasak, William Palombo; TENOR SAXOPHONE: Robert Emerson, Phyllis Rudler; BARITONE SAXOPHONE: Roger Varga, Richard Battista; BASSOON: Robert Quinn, Rose Marie Giordano; CORNET: Robert Ferraris, Willard Davis, Thomas North, Glenn Watrous, Leonard Fontana, Donald Covert, Jack Pitkin, John Marko, Eugene Iannone, Richard Taylor, Beverly Wayda, June A. Lyons, Eleanor Bierly, Margaret Brain, Donald Juckett; FRENCH HORN: Helen Gould, Rita Jones, Betty Hackbart, Thomas Carlton, Peggy Waterman, Jane Hetzel, Gloria Reynolds, Nancy Maney; BARITONE: Muriel Burnett, Clair Waterman, Floyd Mosher, Richard Adams; TROMBONE: Carl Gillespie, Mary Polisensky, Vivian Corneby, Dorothy Whitesell, Carol Compton, Beverly Stewart, James Johns; BASS TUBA: Ronald Avery, Clarence Plummer, Paul Brewer, James Splain, William Norton, Leo Morris; TYMPANI: Bradford Burgher; DRUMS: William Closs, William Rogers, Robert Picciano, Donald Topping, Douglas Macdaid.

The 84-piece Concert Band, under Mr. Ostling, has accomplished much this year. Besides playing for several special assemblies, it has played before a Civic Forum program and participated in Johnson City's gigantic celebration for her World War II veterans.

The band's program at the annual Spring Instrumental Concert consisted of: "The Lithuanian Rhapsody," by A. Louis Scarmolin; the second movement of Franz Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony in B Minor"; Bach's immortal "Komm, Susser Tod" ("Come, Sweet Death"); the overture to "The Student Prince," by Sigmund Romberg; a cornet trio, "The Three Solitaires," by Victor Herbert; and a march, "The Third Alarm," by Edward F. Goldman.

SENIOR ORCHESTRA

FIRST VIOLINS: Janice Woodard, Virginia Ogden, Jeanne Story, Lucille Chura, Iva Letson, Gloria Reynolds, Marjorie Mann, Grace Hulslander. SECOND VIOLINS: Marilyn Mohney, Catherine Chomack, Roberta Collett, Jane Hetzel, Alice Cederborg, Donna Pickering. CELLOS: Eleanor Boyles, Marjorie Tritschler. STRING BASS: Ada Temple, Emma Jean Frazer. OBOE: June Ferguson. FLUTE: Rita Register. CLARINETS: Joseph Tedeschi, William Smith, Dolores Whitaker, Delores Chandler. BASSOON: Robert Quinn. TROMBONES: Carl Gillespie, Dorothy Whitesell. BASS TUBA: Ronald Avery. TYMPANI: Bradford Burgher. DRUMS: William Closs, Nick Salemme.

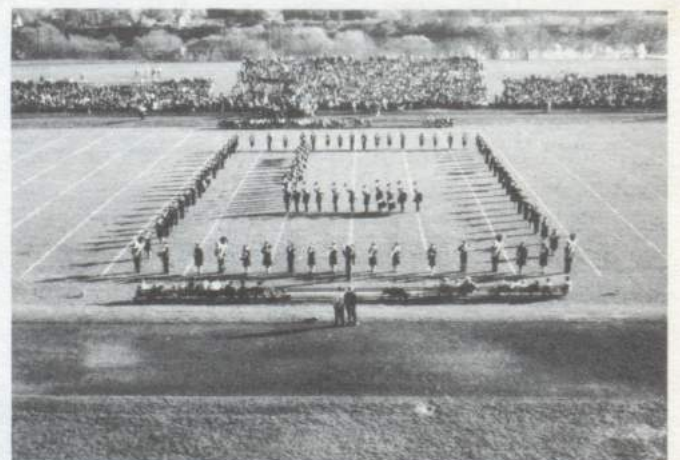

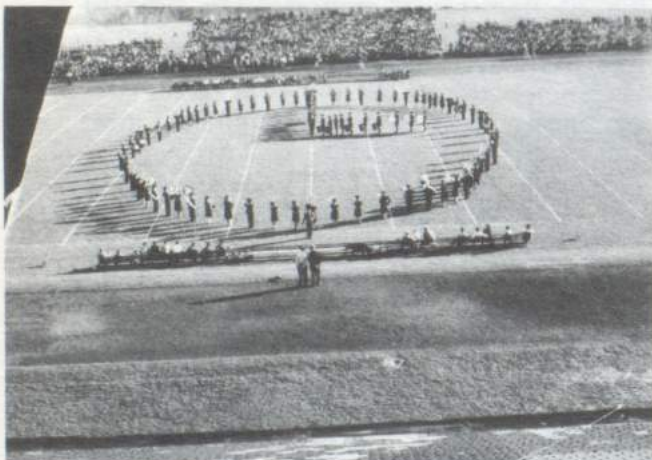

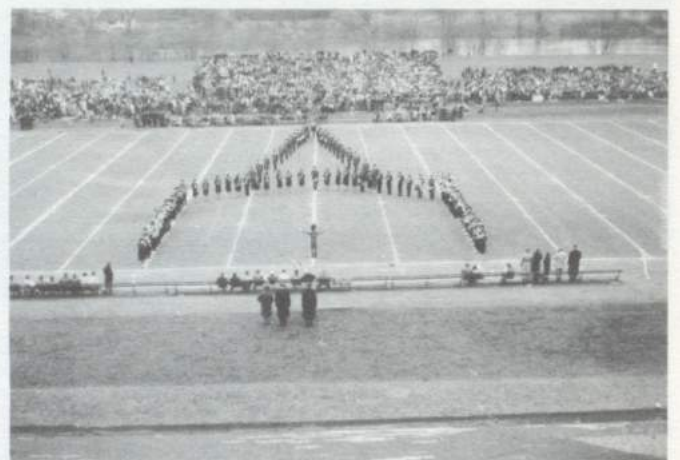

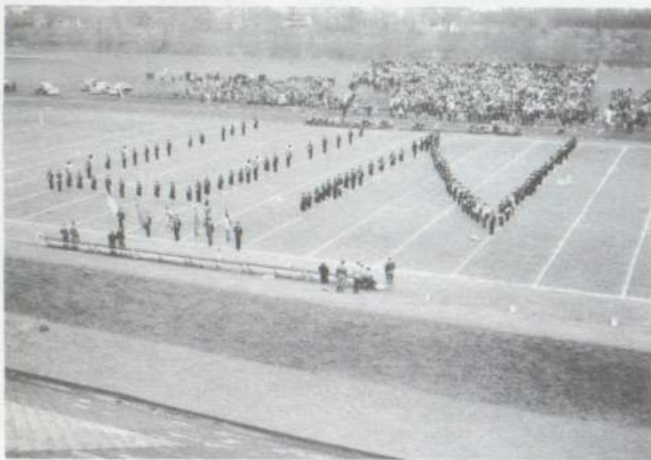

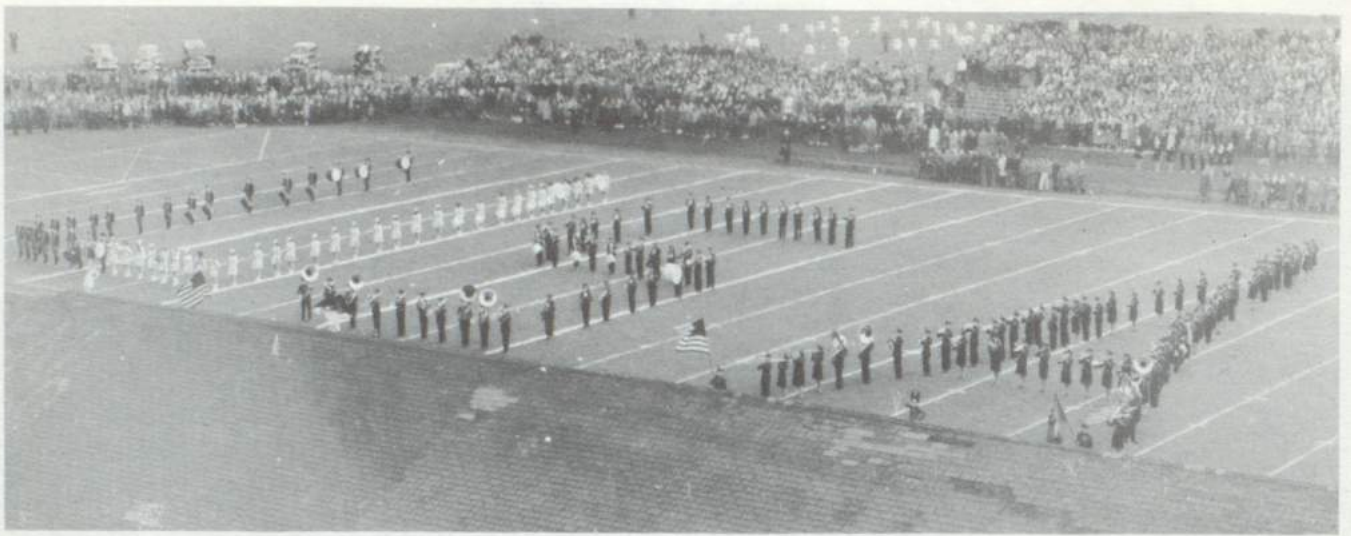

Under the capable direction of Mr. Stahl, the 40-piece senior orchestra has risen to a high rank. Last August (1946), the orchestra was called upon to give a concert for a meeting of the World Education Conference held at the I.B.M. In addition to playing for most of our assemblies, the orchestra has played for the Senior Play, Sermon for the graduates, and for graduation exercises. It has also played for the Parents' Night program and presented a short concert before a Civic Forum program.

As usual the orchestra opened the annual Spring Instrumental Concert, playing Mozart's overture to "Cosi Fan Tutte" and Beethoven's lovable "Andante Cantabile Movement" of his "First Symphony." It also played a fantasy based upon shepherd themes, entitled "Roumanian Fantasy" by Carol Velska; Ponchielli's "Dance of the Hours" and a violin ensemble "Fugato" by St. Jacome.

DRUM MAJOR: Richard Mietus.

FIFES: Ernest Bryant, Robert Humphreys, Sanford Sallerson, Robert Fitch, Gary Little, John Mihok, John Bundas, Rudy Janasak, Frank Janeczek, Charles Komar, Robert Fallon, Michael Ripic.

SNARE DRUM: Bradford Burgher, Douglas Macdaid, Frank Mingarelli, Stephen Samsonik, Donald Topping, Constantine Tzivanis, Robert Picciano, Carl Gillespie.

BASS DRUM: Roger Varga, George Valenta, Paul Ives, Robert Cerwonka, Frank Allio, and Goode Cheatham.

Did you know that a colonial drum corps is the slowest marching organization in the world? Its cadence is one hundred ten steps a minute. Did you know the colonial drum corps dates back to the Revolution when troops of the continental army marched mile after mile to the beat of drums? The oldest corps in the United States today is the Mattatuch Drum Band of Waterbury, Conn., dating back to 1767.

The U-E Colonials were organized in the fall of 1935 and became one of the outstanding junior corps of New York State. The colonials have held the distinction of New York State Junior Champions during the years 1936-'37-'38-'39 and '41. Through these contest years, the "Colonials" have collected twenty-seven cups and trophies.

As for our uniforms, we wear the traditional continental dress uniform, which is very colorful with its cut-away coat, breeches, long flowing bow-ties and leggings. To this add a three-cornered hat and you have a picture of an early American.

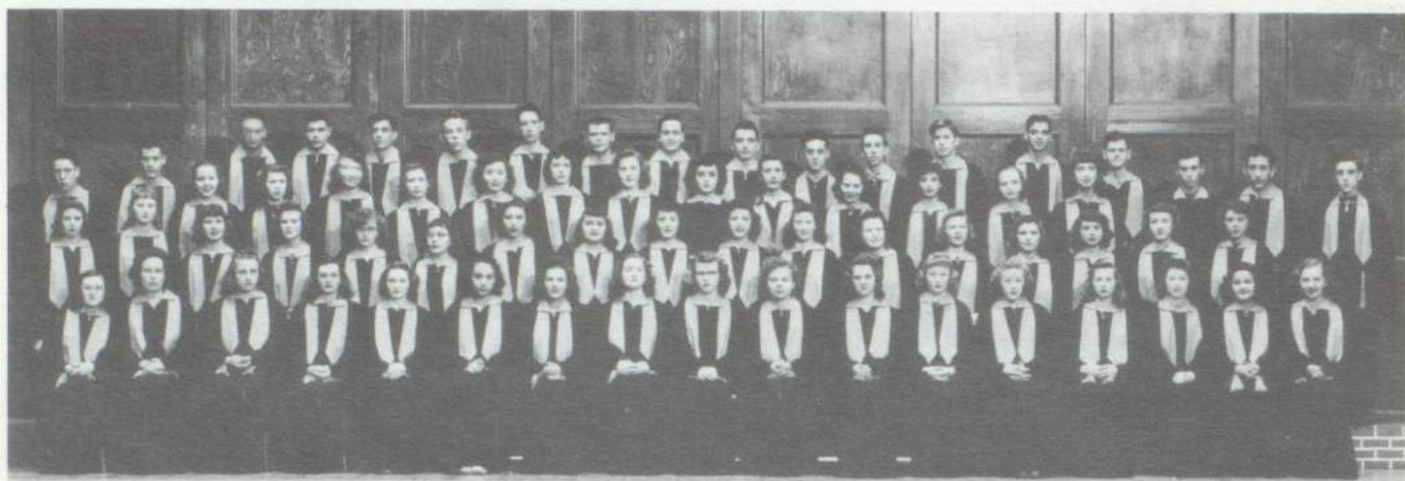

Our music is that which has been handed down from one generation to another. Some of it dates back to the Revolution. A good example of this is "White Cockade" and "Yankee Doodle." "Yankee Doodle," an English Air, was played by colonial fifers to ridicule the British after some American had set the time to the words which we know today.

These tunes, our spread-out manner of marching, and our colorful uniforms make quite a contrast with the average drum corps today. If you will notice, our American flag suggests the early American era. Yes, it's the "Betsy Ross."

The long roll, one of the twenty-seven rudiments, was used as a signal to bring the defenders of America together. Whenever they heard its low rumble, they would leave their work and come running with their flintlocks. Thus drummers played an important part in America's fight for freedom.

U-E should be proud of its Colonial Drum Corps. It takes a lot of work on both the teacher's and pupils' part to organize such a group. U-E is fortunate in having Mr. Ostling who is quite a drum corps enthusiast.

The A Cappella Choir is made up of ninety-four of the most talented vocal students at U-E. In past years the choir has won award after award in state contests. This year's choir has given concerts at both junior high schools: Henry B. Endicott and George Washington. The group provided musical background for the Christmas Play and, along with the Glee Club, gave a Christmas Concert. They sang for the Sermon for the graduates and for several of our assemblies. Being a favorite musical group of I.B.M. music lovers, the A Cappella has given concerts for that corporation at various times during the year. To close each season, the entire A Cappella Choir holds an outing.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club this year has advanced. Instead of being just a preparatory organization for the A Cappella Choir, it has made its own way to become an important part of our music system. At the Christmas concert, Mrs. Edson led the Glee Club in a brilliant performance. The Glee Club shared in the program for the Vocal Concert this spring.

STUDENT COUNCIL

At Table: Bob Conti, Treasurer; Marilyn Lewis, Vice-President; Arthur Stenberg, President; Mary Janecek, Secretary; June Ann Lyons, Reporter.

The Student Council, duly elected from all four classes, Tri-Hi and other accepted clubs, takes an active part in the activities of U-E, especially those creating better cooperation and promoting a closer relationship between the students and faculty, promoting general welfare of the school, and inspiring better citizenship. It is the Student Council's special duty to act upon suggestions given by the Advisory Council. Their advisor is Mr. Mulhollen.

ADVISORY COUNCIL

Sitting: Josephine Iannone, Virginia Kucera, Virginia Mandyck, Dorothy Ann Packard, Jacqueline Atwood, Mary Janecek, Helen Banič, Donna Croman, Margaret Seversky, Margaret Kerekanich, Lois Parrish, Billie Wildow, Margaret Brain.

Second Row: Anthony Vetrano, Marilyn Lewis, Martha McManis, Betty Jean Eldredge, Ellen Van Dusen, Elaine Bonazzi, Violet Pucek, Agnes Sochor, June Ann Lyons, Lois Dunn, Lillian Mrkus, David Allen.

The Advisory Council, which is now in its second year, was set up to help gather in the opinions and suggestions of the students for action by the Student Council; and to give the students a closer contact with the Student Council, as each home room has a chairman. The Council has the same officers as the Student Council and is under the same faculty advisor, Mr. Mulhollen.

TRI-HI CLUB

OFFICERS

THANKSGIVING QUEEN AND FOOTBALL CAPTAIN

Under the guidance of Miss Gladys Mersereau since its organization in 1931, the Tri-Hi Club has added another successful year to its history.

The 272 members have put on sport dances, annual Christmas and Spring formals, and a carnival. The annual "All U-E Night Dance" was held Thanksgiving night by the Tri-Hi and Hi Clubs. Some girls formed a bowling group while another group enjoys weekly dips at the "Y."

The girls participated in the selling of Marine tags. They also collected gifts and donations for the World Christmas Festival which sends packages to unfortunate children in Europe.

An annual graduation prize is awarded for French. The Tri-Hi Club has also established a fund whereby former members may borrow money to be used for a college education. No interest is charged until the girl has been out of college for two years.

OFFICERS

About ten years ago, Mr. Russell Norris started a Technical Club here at U-E, a club which since has been quite active. Educational and social activities for technical students furnish the purpose for the organization.

The club has educational movies and lectures pertaining to the technical course and has visited during the year the local industries.

This year, the boys are working toward a fund for sweaters, with insignia on each, for every member. The club ends its activities each year with an outing.

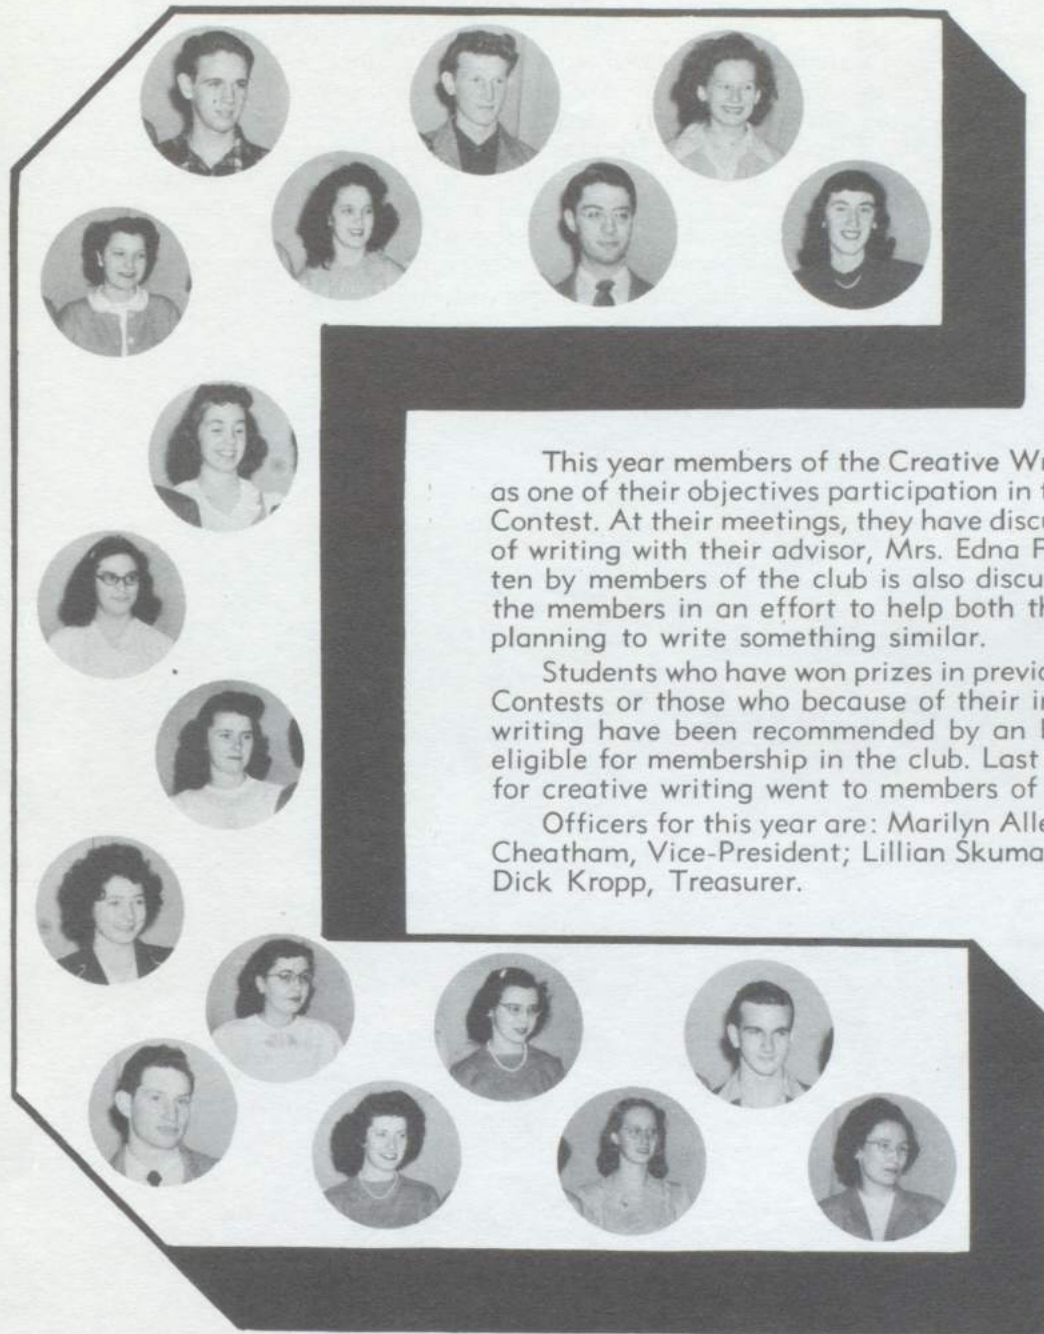

The present officers are as follows: President, Elwood Hendrick; Vice-President, James Barton; Secretary, Gerald Fitch; Treasurer, Richard Taylor.

The faculty advisors, who have aided the club greatly, are Mr. Klett and Mr. Evans.

OUTING AT CHENANGO VALLEY STATE PARK

CREATIVE WRITING CLUB

This year members of the Creative Writing Club have had as one of their objectives participation in the Creative Writing Contest. At their meetings, they have discussed different types of writing with their advisor, Mrs. Edna Finch. Material written by members of the club is also discussed at meetings by the members in an effort to help both the writer and others planning to write something similar.

Students who have won prizes in previous Creative Writing Contests or those who because of their interest or quality of writing have been recommended by an English teacher, are eligible for membership in the club. Last year, twelve awards for creative writing went to members of the club.

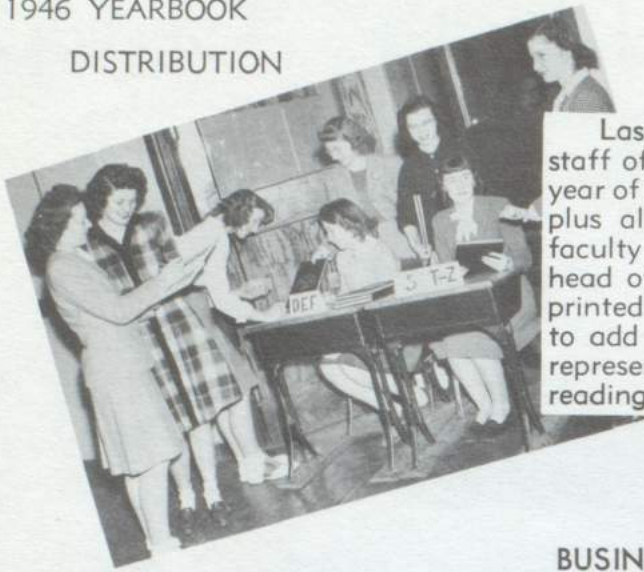

Officers for this year are: Marilyn Allen, President; Goode Cheatham, Vice-President; Lillian Skumanich, Secretary; and Dick Kropp, Treasurer.

CREATIVE WRITING CLUB MEMBERS

Marilyn Allen, Beatrice Bates, Ann Bierly, Bradford Burgher, Paul Brewer, Patricia Cederborg, Goode Cheatham, Douglas Clark, Carol Compton, Polly Conwicke, Donna Croman, Vivien Curry, Anne Forde, Dick Kropp, Rosemary Lewis, Martha McManis, Veronica Mekucky, Paul Prentice, Lillian Skumanich, and Alice Sprague.

THESAURUS

1946 YEARBOOK DISTRIBUTION

Last year's THESAURUS was a success. The Thesaurus staff of '47 hopes to keep up the good record in this second year of publication. As is customary, part of the "Tiger" staff, plus all other interested students, join either Mrs. Finch, faculty head of the editorial staff, or Miss Hollister, faculty head of the business staff, to bring the students of U-E a printed record of their senior year. It has also been their aim to add as many other student activities as possible and to represent the other years of high school, to make enjoyable reading for the undergraduate classes as well.

BUSINESS STAFF

Second Row: Marjorie Allen, Ann Bierly, Marilyn Allen, Martha McManis, Janice Woodard, Lois Parrish, Patricia Cederborg.

Second Row: Alice Traver, Margaret Clegg, Eleanor Corwin, Betty Root, Lillian FeDora, Joyce Towsand, Lucille Bruce, Lillian Fedones.

Third Row: Elgie Traver, Theresa Zimbaro, Mary Parkolap.

Fourth Row: Vinnie Giallo, Joyce Haskell, June Messersmith, Beverly Stewart, Katherine Hoag.

Other Members: Marjorie Allen, Rose Marie Hanley, Iva Harrington, Joyce Nichols, Shirley Stamm, Phyllis Stanko, and Mary Beggy, who was graduated in January.

Under the supervision of Miss Kniskern, the Commercial Club this year has made many interesting field trips to obtain first hand information about commercial and business enterprises of our community. The club is made up of ambitious future business people and these activities give to the members a glimpse of the commercial work they are taught in class, in actual use and practice.

Visiting the telephone exchange proved very interesting. Here, the girls learned many of the intricacies and operations which go on in the telephone exchange.

During the visit to the post office, the procedure for outgoing and incoming mail, registered letter service, special delivery, and parcel post were explained.

Another very informative visit was made to the Endicott-Johnson Sales Building. The students were taken into the different departments and shown the work of each.

Miss McCullough of the I.B.M. Personnel Office gave a talk recently about personal interviews. She explained the correct procedure of an interview, how to dress and act, and just what is expected of an applicant.

The reason the club takes these trips and has executives and employees from different fields of business talk at meetings is to acquaint the members with business activities of the community, for the only way we can appreciate the everyday services given us is by seeing them in operation.

Officers of the club this year are: Billie Wildow, President; Mary Beggy, Vice-President; Betty Jean Eldredge, Secretary; Eleanor Snyder, Treasurer.

ITALIAN CLUB

Seated: Fannie Longo, Treasurer; Doris Borromei, President; Mrs. Marie McCarthy, Faculty Adviser; Theresa Colonna, Vice-President; Dolores Isabella, Secretary.

Standing, First Row: Josephine LaFortezza, Louise Nirchi, Julia Parisi, Catherine Zicari, Filomena Rano, Dolores Petrilli, Pat Lane, Rita Bottino.

Second Row: Catherine Coppola, Mary Rizzi, Marion Bottino, Vinnie Giallo, Inez Nogaret, Josephine Matolka, Dorla Felter, Angelina Antonelli.

The Italian Club, under the supervision of Mrs. Marie McCarthy, has completed by far its most successful year.

It sponsored a sport dance at the beginning of the season, which was followed by a banquet for club members. A tea was given later in the season for parents. At the tea a skit and recitations were presented. The annual Christmas issue of "Circolo Italiano" was again edited by pupils of the Italian classes. This magazine contains articles written in Italian. A movie, "Soli, Soli Nella Notte," starring Gino Becchi, opera star of La Scala di Milano, was sponsored by the Italian Club at a midnight performance in the Lyric. Proceeds — $225 — were sent to the Italian War Orphans' Fund.

Club officers are: Doris Borromei, President; Teresa Colonna, Vice-President; Dolores Isabella, Secretary; and Fannie Longo, Treasurer.

LIBRARY CLUB

Seated: Mary Komar, Patty Fallon, Marguerite Harding.

Standing: Shirley Eldredge, Audrey Keeney, Dick Mead, Audrey Cambers, Nancy LoBel'o.

The members of the U-E Library Club spend one period each day working in the library. They render valuable service to the school, the library and the librarian. In return the members receive an intimacy with the library, as well as an understanding of how to use the resources in connection with their studies. This experience will carry over to their use of the public and college libraries.

The Club meets one period each week in a seminar group for instruction and training. Lessons are worked out on the unit plan. After beginning work on the unit each student must rely on himself to follow directions on the lesson sheet, asking help from the librarian only after he has tried every resource available for finding the material himself.

Prerequisites for club membership are aptitude, scholarship, and dependability.

Other Members: Alice Clark, Agnes Clark, Dorothy Emerson, Priscilla Huffcutt, Anna Marie Krall, Josephine Colapietro, Eleanor Lemoncelli, Janet Copp, Rosita Sgobba, Theresa McQuade.

INITIATION CEREMONY

What was formerly the Dom-Econ Club of U-E has taken on a new name, the Future Homemakers of America, and is now affiliated with the state organization of the same name. The above picture shows their first formal initiation ceremony characteristic throughout the state.

Under the direction of Miss Coveney and Miss Saltsman, the members of the club acquire useful knowledge and experience for doing things in the home and in the community. Making toys for children, planning parties to be held in the home, learning to refinish furniture, making slip covers and dressing tables, knitting socks and mittens and doing things for community organizations are some of the projects of the club this year.

The officers of the club are: Lois Messersmith, President; Dorothy Emerson, Vice-President; Jean Weber, Secretary; Laura Zenger, Treasurer; Barbara Saddlemire, Reporter.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Founded in Endicott, New York, by Stephen O. Salmon in 1922, "The Future Farmers of America" now has over three hundred chapters in New York State. To be eligible for membership, one has to be enrolled in the agricultural course. Our local U-E group has about thirty-five members.

Under the direction of Mr. Henry C. White, faculty advisor, the group has been rapidly progressing and is now collecting money for the new State Future Farmers' camp, situated in the heart of the Adirondack Mountains.

With one thousand acres of land for hiking and camping and three lakes for boating and swimming, Camp Oswegatchie will soon be ready to house seventy-five boys a week in its two hotels and fourteen cottages. During the week, the boys will take courses in training for rural leadership and hear lectures from various celebrities on various subjects.

During the winter the U-E Aggies had a basketball team which belonged to the Tioga-Chemung County League.

The year's officers are: Karl Spencer, President; Tom O'Rourke, Vice-President; Herb Yoder, Secretary; Ramon Alderman, Treasurer; William Rogers, Reporter; Leonard Pembridge, Watch Dog.

THE U-E "TIGER"

Fourteen years ago, our school published its first edition of the "Tiger." Since then, the "Tiger" has become a familiar landmark, rolling off the press three or four times a year, supported and paid for entirely by the student body and its competent business staff. In 1938, it won the Quill and Scroll first place international award and has won honors in the Columbia Press Association. Due to the scarcity of paper and high prices only one issue of the "Tiger" was published this year. However, next year, with more normal conditions in publishing, the "Tiger" will again keep busy its junior and senior literary and business staffs under Mrs. Finch and Miss Hollister.

SENIOR LITERARY STAFF

JUNIOR LITERARY STAFF

Goodbye

Every line a thought; every thought a paragraph; every paragraph a memory! Each page is a delightful reflection of past happenings or sorrowful contemplation of silly failures. We gaze at the THESAURUS with its memorable treasures. The rocket, our heavenly symbol; the Thesaurus, our earthly reality. Each picture a spark, each section a beam, the book a flaring rocket! Its beauty, a record of the best years of our life. Classroom incidents, hallway conversations, oral reports, vocabulary tests, basketball and football games, track meets, dances, friends, formals, assemblies, faculty members — thoughts of all these flash through our minds. But now as graduation has come, we sadly realize that it is time for farewell to Alma Mater; and hello to the mysterious aftermath of the rocket.

Hold High the Torch of American Freedom

THE task ahead for all of us is to rebuild the world and to renew the strength of America.

How this is done will largely be determined by the young men and women from our schools who are now seeking specific opportunities for self-expression, for service to their fellowmen and for those satisfactions for which our brave men fought and served from 1941 to 1945.

The hope of the world—everlasting peace—and everything we cherish: All depend upon our youth of today! And American youth will meet that challenge, as it has met every challenge down through the glorious history of this nation.

The Binghamton Press

The Binghamton Press is on constant guard against any infringement of the rights of free men . . . ready to fight those forces that would threaten our Democracy and American Way of Life.
