THESAURUS STAFF OF THE UNION-ENDICOTT HIGH SCHOOL
Endicott, New York

MISS MARY L. PITKIN
Principal

DEDICATION

We are very proud in our dedication of this book to Miss Mary L. Pitkin, our principal.

Miss Pitkin, starting as a student in the grades in the Union Graded School was graduated from the high school (in the George Washington school building) and, after college training at Albany State Teachers College, has been consecutively, teacher, vice-principal and then principal of our present high school.

We appreciate her kindly interest in each student, her generous and fair decisions, and her breadth of understanding that has directly or indirectly reached every one of us.

Therefore, we hope to show our appreciation by dedicating to her, this, our yearbook.

1948 THESAURUS

The Gibson Girl, the sweetheart of the Gay Nineties, now becomes Thesaurus 1948. As the "old look" becomes the "new look," we go forth from U-E High with our never-to-be-forgotten memories — of teachers, friends, proms, basketball and football games, concerts and plays.

With the Gibson Girl and Gay Nineties theme, we shall try to connect the past with the present where this linking of the two might be of especial interest. We have harked back to some early beginnings in our town and school life in this year's Thesaurus. All dates do not go back to a fifty-year period, for, for Endicott, that would be impossible.

So much can happen within the space of time; in three or four years or in fifty years. So many changes can take place; so many opportunities for growth can be utilized or lost. Only so many achievements can be recorded. We believe that our theme will fit in with modern trends and will record not only our three or four years of high school but will record also the era of the "old look," to be remembered by us, as styles and music fashion the "old look" to become the "new."

As the lady in the moon (always recognized as a Gibson Girl) looks down on her modern counterpart, we, the Thesaurus Staff, proudly present the 1948 yearbook.

IN THE GIBSON DAYS

In 1898 there were 1,000 inhabitants in the village of Union. Endicott was named and incorporated in 1906. Washington Avenue was plowed and graded in 1901.

The school in Union in the 90's was "The Union Graded School with Academic Department," the Academic Department of which was organized in 1891. The first school building is now an apartment house across from the George Washington School on Loder Avenue. In 1897-1898 there were 189 pupils in the school, 38 of which were above eighth grade.

An exceptionally well-built farmhouse with fireplaces in practically all the rooms stood at the turn of the century where the Union-Endicott High School now stands.

Mrs. Earl L. Barnes and Mrs. Franklin Hunt lived in the farmhouse when their father, James Armstrong, farmed the land for the Endicott Land Company. Mrs. Raymond Conrad lived there later when her father, Jonas Gates, took over the farm work.

A photograph of part of a herd of cows on the farm. They were pastured from the farm buildings to beyond what is now Jackson Avenue.

Faculty

*These, the faculty, see the old leave,
The new come in, and from the very first day,
Cultivate and create character.*

MR. WILLIAM J. KRUM, JR.
Superintendent of Schools

A graduate of Hamilton with three years of graduate work at Columbia University, Mr. Krum has a well-prepared background for his work with many organizations which aim toward school and community cooperation. Though a newcomer to this school last year, he has become well acquainted with the problems of the system and is constantly striving to solve them.

His interest in community affairs is evidenced by his memberships in the Rotary Club, Chamber of Commerce, Boys' Club of Greater Endicott, and the Broome County Council Against Discrimination.

Mr. Woodard, a graduate of St. Lawrence University, is one of our most helpful leaders. His efficient management and friendly attitude have secured our deep respect. He participates in many social and church activities.

Seniors and Underclassmen

*We pass in the halls; we gather in the classrooms;
We share in sweet romance; then we are graduated.
"We part, only to meet again."*

JANUARY CLASS, 1948

SENIOR OFFICERS

Standing: Donald Bradley.

At the first meeting of the January graduates, James Barton was elected class President. The other officers chosen to serve with him were Donald Bradley, Vice-President; Josephine Matolka, Secretary; Nancy Frey, Treasurer.

The class colors chosen were forest green and white. The flower was gardenia. The motto, a quotation from Thomas J. Watson, was, "There is no saturation point in education."

The first of the social activities was the senior play, "A Date With Judy," presented under the direction of Miss Barbara Thayer. The leads were taken by Sybil Chatham and William Strusz.

The banquet was held at Holiday Inn in Vestal. Climaxing the activities, the Senior Prom was held on January 31 at George Washington Junior High School.

Commencement was held on February 2, at the high school. Essays were given by the honor students, Carolyn Kjelgaard, Sybil Chatham, Janet Forbes and Nancy Frey.

An alumni prize of $5 was presented to Sybil Chatham for maintaining the highest average for four years. Sybil was also given an award for the highest average in American History by the Kiwanis Club. She received a $5 prize for mathematics honors.

Janet Forbes was given the Bausch and Lomb award. She also received $10 from the Woman's Club for maintaining the highest average in English for four years.

Elaine Conklin was awarded the Commercial Club prize for the highest average in all business subjects.

For the highest average in science and mathematics combined, Edward Zigata received the R.P.I. medal.

At the close of commencement the diplomas were presented to the graduates by J. Maxwell Clouse, President of the Board of Education. And so another class was launched on its journey.

JUNE CLASS, 1948

SENIOR OFFICERS

Seated: Billie Wildow, Walter Leahy,
Dorothy Packard

Standing: Robert Conti

Colors: Forest green and white

Flower: White carnations

Motto: "We part only to meet again"

The members of the June class of 1948 have gained many honors in this, their last year at U-E. To name all of the activities of the Seniors in a brief summary would be impossible. However, several members of the class have gained recognition by being chosen or elected to head the various student organizations or have received other honors.

Our class officers—President, Walter Leahy; Vice-President, Dorothy Packard; Secretary, Billie Wildow; Treasurer, Robert Conti—have filled their offices well in directing our class through graduation plans.

In an assembly for honor students held on March 10, Virginia Ogden was named valedictorian, while Betty Jean Eldredge was salutatorian of the class. There are 27 graduates in our honor group.

From approximately 311 members of the class the following were elected presidents of the various clubs: June Ann Lyons, Tri-Hi Club; Richard Taylor, Technical Club; Billie Wildow, Commercial Club; June Messersmith, Spanish Club, and Ramon Alderman, Future Farmers of America.

Dorothy Packard was elected President of the Student Council. June Ann Lyons is the Senior class representative on the council.

Marian Bloom and Eugene Chandler were elected by their fellow classmates and faculty members in their Junior year to serve as representatives on the Athletic Advisory Council. Alice Sprague was named editor-in-chief of the yearbook. At the "All U-E Night" dance, Dorothy Packard was crowned the Queen of U-E.

This year has been a successful one in the eyes of the 311 graduates. As we go forth into a world, lacking in peace, we shall strive to maintain our goals in life to make our plans of today the actuality of the future, and in our small way help a troubled world.

JUNE SENIOR HONOR STUDENTS

From each year's graduating class those who have maintained at least an eighty-nine and one-half per cent average throughout the four years of high school are honored at an annual candlelight ceremony. Each senior, wearing a black robe with an orange collar, is escorted to the stage by a junior honor student. When all seniors are seated on the stage, each senior's name is read. The senior then proceeds to the center of the stage where there is a burning candle representing the light of knowledge and wisdom. Each graduate lights his candle from the burning candle and later signs his name on the permanent record of all honor students. In this traditional ceremony, the senior realizes that his high marks have not passed unrecognized.

Second Row: Elizabeth Fawcett, Shirley Boyd, Pauline Matola, Joan Biseo, Barbara Patch, Shirley Camp, Janet Driscoll, Alice Carpenter, Donna Worden.

Top Row: Ardaleen Mosher, Mary Novicky, Wilma Green, Mary Jane Corkran, Carol Thompson, Joyce Tanzini, Delores Bowen, Elizabeth Kelm.

We, the Freshman Class of '47 and '48, want to express our deep-felt thanks to you teachers and upper classmen for the helpful spirit with which you have welcomed us here in the Union-Endicott High School.

Perhaps we don't realize the full extent of your thoughtfulness now, but we sincerely believe that in the future we shall look back to our first few high school days and see through the dim clouds of time your faces lighted anew with friendly interest in our progress.

With saucer eyes projected on the various fields of endeavor offered at U-E and our lower lip gently drooping, we slipped past the gates of higher education (U-E to us) in the hope of evading some lipstick-happy upper classman.

Our heads are now carried high. With a stiff upper lip we are projecting our eyes upon one goal—the future.

Music

*The beauty of the masters,
The rhythm of the moderns,
Flow in graceful harmony

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club has grown through the years until now it is becoming a major organization in Union-Endicott's music curricula. The Glee Club participated in the Christmas Concert and the annual Spring Concert. Their lighted procession to the auditorium balcony while singing Adeste Fidelis was one of the most effective parts of the Christmas Concert.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

The A Cappella Choir, which meets twice a week, is made up of one hundred talented vocalists under the able direction of Mrs. Ruth Edson. The choir has successfully presented several concerts this year including the Christmas Concert, the annual Spring Concert and a program given before representatives of several Kiwanis Clubs. The choir has also sung at the Sunday afternoon services held for the January and June graduates, at the district meeting of school supervisors and principals, at the dedication of the plaques for Servicemen, and at the "Open House" for parents, February 12. Each appearance of the A Cappella Choir was a welcome and enjoyable event.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra holds a well-deserved and established place in the prestige of U-E. Its programs have come to be a recognized part of assemblies, senior plays, graduation services and sermons to graduates. The fifty-piece organization is directed by Mr. Crawford Stahl.

The repertoire used throughout the year and at the annual Spring Concert, chosen from many well-loved orchestral selections, included "Waltz of the Flowers" from "The Nutcracker Suite," by Tschaikovsky; "Themes" from Rachmaninoff's "Piano Concerto No. 2," and the mysterious, throbbing "Marche Slaves," by Tschaikovsky. To add a lighter touch, the orchestra performed Gershwin's "The Man I Love."

CONCERT BAND — 1947-1948

The 84-piece Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Acton E. Ostling, strives to bring "good" music to the ears of listening students and Triple Cities audiences. Included in the well-rounded programs for which they are noted, are Sousa marches, operatic selections, noted symphonies and modern pieces incorporating the boogie-beat with concert style. The band played its annual concert on May 21 this year, and also took part in civic parades, assembly programs and the dedication ceremonies of the Plaques in commemoration of the Servicemen of World War II. Newly inaugurated this year, was the practice of giving concerts in Endicott grade schools. In May, the band took part in the May Music Festival which is held to raise funds for college music scholarships.

FIFE AND DRUM CORPS

The low rumble of drums—the shrill pipe of the fifes—the call to arms! That's what the Drum Corps meant to people long ago. But now when students hear this call, they cheer to urge our determined football team on to victory.

Besides the splendid job the Drum Corps is doing at football games, it has also entered many contests, parades, played at May Festivals, and competed in the annual State Contest. The boys always return home with many prizes to their credit.

Much of the success of this organization belongs to the Director of Music, Mr. Acton E. Ostling. His able assistants this year are Robert Carman, Drum Major, and Mathias Burgher, Drum Sergeant.

The Colonials are still marching on!

DANCE BAND

The dance band is the newest organization in our music system. This fourteen-piece band is directed by Mr. Leonard Panaro, with Rudy Janasak as student director. The band played at all school dances, including the annual Football dance, the Christmas and Spring formals and the January Senior Prom.

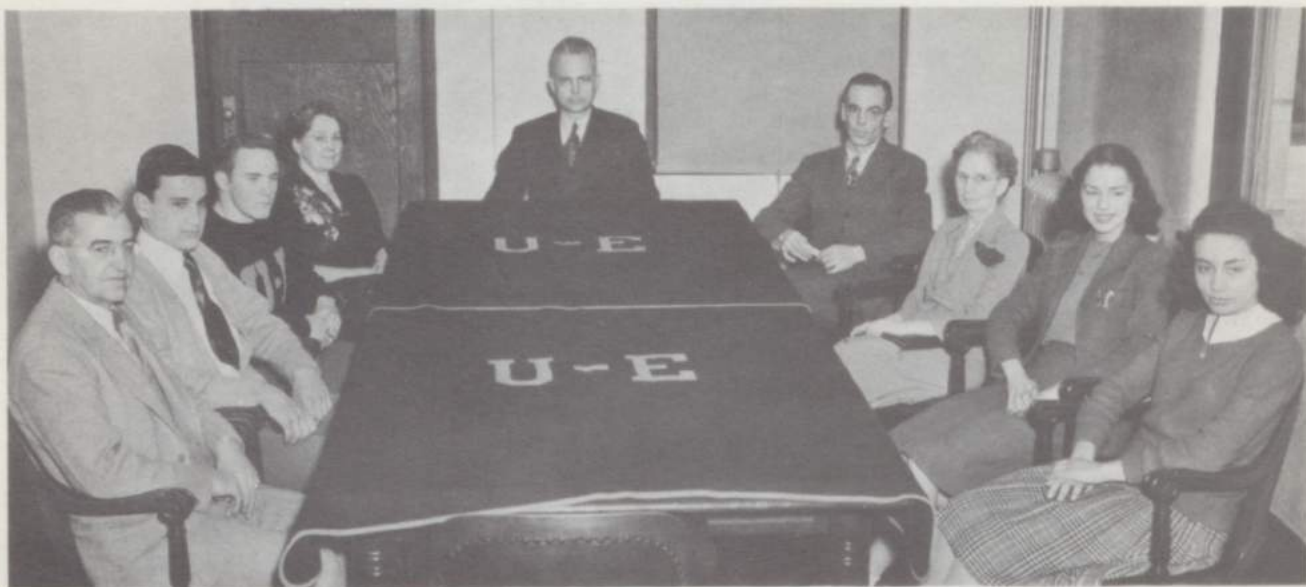

Athletics

*There is nothing that can take the place
Of a rousing cheer,
a victory well-won,
Or even a defeat, nobly accepted,
When backed by the spirit of U-E.*

ATHLETIC ADVISORY COUNCIL

Left to Right: Mr. Harold V. Cobb, Andrew Theodore, Eugene Chandler, Miss Mary L. Pitkin, Mr. William Krum, Mr. George Forbes, Miss Elizabeth J. Smith, Marian Bloom, Mary Jane George.

We pay tribute to the Athletic Advisory Board for their hard work and keen interest in sports at Union-Endicott High School. Their efforts to secure the best possible equipment and come to the best possible solution in a sports problem have caused the standard of U-E sports to stay up high where it rightly belongs.

FIRST U-E H. S. FOOTBALL TEAM, 1903

Second Row: Ned Lincoln, Dave Brimmer, Oliver Johnson, Arthur Robinson, Clarence Westcott.

Third Row: Fayette Brimmer, William Struble, Frederick Thayer, Fay Pitkin, Harry Brown.

Fourth Row: Ralph Lusk, Archie Frame.

We are fortunate in securing a picture of the first U-E H. S. Football Team, organized in 1903. We have also found that the baseball team which was organized earlier won 21 out of 22 games in '96 and 13 of 15 games in '97. Our present athletic spirit seems to be inherited.

Second Row: Dick Thomas, Walter Shonasky, Tony Fiacco, Joe Gimmie, Rudy Kotsubka, Walter Homa, John Mrva, John Homa, Andy Theodore.

Last Row: Renaldo Paparella, Frank Longo, Mario Battaglini, Mickey Arcangeli, Lynn Tewksbury, Ken Bowen, Gene Chandler.

Football took on a New Look on the Southern Tier gridirons as Ty Cobb's gridiron greats went roaring into a rugged seven-game schedule of a new Southern Tier Football Conference.

As the smoke of the bruising battle cleared away, a thrilling contest between the Tigers of U-E and the invading Indians of North found the Orange gridders on the short end of a hotly-contested 19-18 score.

An underdog Watertown Purple eleven entertained the visiting Orange men by banging out a 0-0 deadlock in a bruising, muddy game. Back in home territory, the Orange powerhouse finally got rolling by blasting out a 13-7 triumph over the favored Johnson City Wildcats.

The Cobbmen took to the road again to journey to White Plains, New York, to pull the surprise of the year. The entertaining Tigers found the invading Tigers from Endicott tougher than the 25-point underdog rating the newspapers gave them, when they were forced to struggle for a 13-7 victory; 19 points less than expected.

Elmira provided no competition for a now highly regarded eleven as the Tornadoes pounded out a 26-0 victory over the Elmiraans.

With snow up to their ankles, the Orange Tornadoes went to Ithaca to smash out a 14-0 score over the Little Redmen in a muddy, snowy, sloppy contest.

The annual Turkey Day Tilt between the Cobbmen and Central Bulldogs failed to materialize this season due to the terrible weather conditions. The week earlier date found the visiting Orange engaging the Binghamton Central eleven in a bruising, bitter battle with years of tradition behind it. Duplicating last year's feat, the Cobbmen held the Bulldogs scoreless while blasting and smashing out a 19-0 triumph.

Second Row: Dick Darby, Don Burch, Charles Terwilliger, Bruce Clark, Sam Gasbarra, Clark Vallequette, Andy Theodore, Nick Dranchak.

Ted Conwicke's "Battling Breezes" felt the loss of his services when he was forced to spend weeks in a hospital, so they went out and battled, banged, and smashed their rugged way to the top by retaining the Binghamton Press Trophy, rolling over any and all competition and being crowned "Kings of the Triple Cities' Junior Varsities." Their record of 82 points to 18 for their opponents is a good prediction of what we have in store for next year.

BASKETBALL VARSITY

Dick "Ace" Heichemer

Seated: Dick Mandyck, Joe Fratino, Andy Sepelak, captain; John Baron, Joe Miner.
Standing: Eddie Koban, Dick Heichemer, John Hrustich, Jerry Clune.

Height was too much for the Orange "Hurricanes" this year in Southern Tier competition. They did not win any trophies, but, if a trophy were given for the gamest team in competition, we have no doubt that the Hurricanes would be entitled to it. We salute our Basketball Varsity for their splendid performances and their loyal endeavor to be a good winner and a better loser for U-E.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS

Seated: Bob Picciano, Mickey Frey, Mario Cianciosi, Dick Rommel, Frank Desko, Andy Hudanich, Bob Sirko.
Standing: Jim Smith, Bill Armstrong, Bob Simpson, Dick Felter, John Owen, Joe Sventek, Francis Frisk.

It seems as though this was Junior Varsity year as the Orange's "Little Breezes" breezed through their season by winning the Southern Tier Conference J.V. Championship. With most of the fellows returning for competition next year, our basketball future at U.-E. indeed seems bright.

CHEER LEADERS

Kneeling: Vince Putrino, Leo Brady, Jack Mayers.

Standing: Natalie Perl, Marguerite Powell, Lucille Chura, Agnes Kostyun, Joan Bennett, Sybil Chatham.

Marian Ball left the Cheering Squad of U-E and Natalie Perl came in to take over in her place to assist the other cheerleaders in cheering our teams to victory. We were sorry to see Marian leave and we sincerely thank Natalie for substituting so capably.

1947 BASEBALL TEAM

In Front: Jim Smith, Paul Hanrahan, managers.

Second Row: Bob Emerson, Don Mastro, Art Stenberg, Nick Dranchak, George Bachura, Walt Shonosky, Bill Closs, Dick Felner, Steve Pavlovich.

GOLF TEAM 1947

Standing: George Babuka, Walt Homa, Charles Baron, Andy Theodore, John Hrustich, Bill Armstrong.

Coach Nick Di Nunzio's course-trampers went driving and putting on Triple Cities' golf courses to establish a season's record of which we all can be proud. Though fairly young in U-E, golf has seemed to take a definite hold on Union-Endicott and with the marvelous golfing facilities so close at hand there seems no reason why it will not be a major sport in the near future.

COACHES FOR BOYS' SPORTS

Under the able guidance of the staff of coaches making up the Union-Endicott Boys' Sports Organizations, Union-Endicott has never been and probably never will be represented by teams of low caliber. The coaches' abilities are seen in the fine athletic record possessed by Union-Endicott, and their ability as molders of men is recorded through the history of athletes who have gone into life, men with high ideals formed at Union-Endicott. We wish to pay a special tribute to Ted Conwicke, likeable, amiable Junior Varsity coach whose effect on his players produced a winning eleven.

CROSS COUNTRY TRACK TEAM

Standing: Mr. White, Remo Mastrogiacomio, John Barno, Joe Rossi, Jim McPherson.

Coach Henry C. White closed the books on another successful year of competition between his Orange hill-and-dalers and the other Southern Tier teams. Though cross-country is still a minor sport at Union-Endicott, the winning ways of the boys can certainly make us feel proud of their achievements.

1947 TRACK

1947 seemed to be a hard-luck year for the U-E track activities as the 1947 tracksters dropping a thrilling Triple Cities' meet at MacArthur Stadium in Binghamton by $\frac{1}{2}$ point. It was a hard pill to swallow, but, true to U-E traditions, good, clean sportsmanship prevailed.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

This season the ever-popular athletic schedule mapped out for the girls has been more than filled. A new sport, ice skating, was added to the regular sports — volleyball, basketball, baseball, and track. Skating fans were allowed to ice skate during their regular Physical Education periods.

At the annual Sports Dinner, all girls who had participated in sports this year and the girls who had earned special awards last year, were entertained.

Among these award winners were: Theresa Colonna, Fannie Longo, and Lillian Mrkus; who were awarded sweaters. Ethel Galgocy, Josephine Iannone, Delores Isabella and Virginia Kucera received letters. Numerals were presented to Virginia Lozzi and Isabelle Springer. Kathryn Sochor was honored with a gold medal, presented to her for attaining the highest number of points for the 1946-1947 season.

A DATE WITH JUDY

The play, "A Date With Judy," taken from the popular radio show of the same name, was the presentation of the January 1948 Senior class. This play, the story of Judy Foster's struggle to become queen of the high school prom, is laugh-provoking as Judy becomes involved in many trying situations before her aim is finally achieved. Sybil Chatham very successfully took the part of Judy. Others in the cast were: William Strusz, Salvatore Schiappa, Robert Quinn, Shirley Stamm, Norma Stack, Margaret O'Brien, James Barton, Thelma Thompson, Amelia Rondini, Mary Lou Harbst, Loretta Volosevich, Larry Welch, and Mary Dougher.

CAST OF BARRIE'S "QUALITY STREET"

"Quality Street," a play by James Matthew Barrie, is the first costume play presented in U-E for several years. One of Barrie's best-known plays, "Quality Street" is a comedy of the Napoleonic War period. The play involves the delightful love story of Phoebe Throssel and Valentine Brown.

CAST OF CHRISTMAS PLAY

Scenes from Dickens' "Christmas Carol" were successfully staged, under the direction of Miss Barbara Thayer, just before school closed for the Christmas holidays. Gabriel Ciccirelli was a most effective Scrooge, while Susie Melazzo portrayed the lovable Tiny Tim.

Seated: Miss Barbara Thayer, director; Beatrice Biondi, Barbara Hammond, Paul Hanrahan.

TEACHERS DO HAVE FUN

TEACHERS' HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Endicott Teachers' Association planned, through committees, an evening of fun as a fitting 1947 Halloween celebration.

Each school in the system was asked to contribute a skit toward the general entertainment. The High School represented a typical children's grade program to which each pupil (teacher) contributed. Mr. Mulholland acted as teacher.

Standing: Ellen Van Dusen, Janet Harris, John Homa, Rudy Kotsubka, Edward Maxfield, Richard Taylor, Fred Becker, Alice Sprague, Janet Driscoll, Eleanor Corwin.

The Student Council, the members of which represent the four classes and all accepted student organizations, promotes a closer relationship between the students and the faculty. The council is a member of the National Association of Student Councils. Delegates from U-E Council attend two meetings each year of the Southern Tier Student Councils. This year the constitution was revised and a merit system for future years was introduced. A school dance band was organized under the auspices of the Student Council.

The Advisory Council, made up of representatives from each homeroom, acts as an advisory board for the Student Council. The Advisory and the Student Council have the same officers and the same faculty adviser, Mr. Mulhollen.

Third Row: Vinnie Giallo, Marilyn Mitchell, Gloria Lee, Frances Lippolis, Eleanor Boyles, Joyce Haskell, Concetta Argento, Eleanor Corwin, Jean Babbitt, Vilda Wyatt, Jina Zimbaro.

The Commercial Club of the Union-Endicott High School, which all business students are eligible to join, is under the supervision of Miss Ruth Kniskern.

The members learn much about the business world through lectures and tours through local business concerns. Speakers have come to club meetings from International Business Machines and Endicott-Johnson to tell members about the activities carried on in large manufacturing companies and to give the fine points on interviews.

Included in the places the group has visited this year are: International Business Machines, Endicott-Johnson, Radio Station WENE, Endicott Daily Bulletin, Endicott Telephone Office, the Post Office, and the Endicott Trust Company. Other places which will be of interest to members as they start out into the business world were added to the list during the year.

CHRISTMAS FORMAL

Admiring the sleighs are Dave Allen, Eleanor Corwin, Bernard Daily and Nancy Lew Brown.

The Tri-Hi Club was organized 17 years ago under the guidance of Miss Gladys Mer-serau. This seventeenth year has been another successful one to add to the previous years.

This year the club, comprised of 280 members, sponsored the annual Christmas and Spring formals. Tri-Hi joined with the Hi Club to hold the annual "All U-E Night Dance" on the evening of the Binghamton Central vs. U-E football game. A pancake breakfast and a Kiddie Party were two other highlights of the club activities.

The Tri-Hi Club also sponsors the Girls' Bowling Team, which is under the supervision of Miss Johnson and the Knitting Club, directed by Miss Ball. Swimming at the "Y" is another important club activity.

This year's members sent money to support a Czechoslovakian girl under the Foster Parent Plan. They also collected money to send Christmas packages to Europe.

The club awards two prizes at graduation. A fund has been established by Tri-Hi whereby it helps former members through college, by loaning them money without interest until the girls have been out of college for two years.

Names of Officers: Richard Taylor, president; Alan Wright, treasurer; David Wilson, vice-president and secretary. Committees: Movies, Jerome Wilson and Rudy Janasak; Correspondence, Clarence Plummer and Bob King; Publicity, Paul Ives and Bill Forde.

Among this year's activities:

An alumni party was held in the high school cafeteria. Members of the club and alumni of the technical course were invited. The program included fellowship, movies and refreshments.

At a Hi-Club football dance, members of the club served refreshments, including cider pressed by the members at Wright's farm.

We enjoyed plant visits to Union Forging Company, Sweet's Foundry, The Ithaca Gun Company, and Morse Chain Company. On our Ithaca trip, we had dinner at Willard Strait Cafeteria and were conducted through the college testing laboratories where a tension test was demonstrated.

The annual picnic is the Technical Club's big social event.

OUTING AT CHENANGO VALLEY STATE PARK

CREATIVE WRITING CLUB

Standing: Polly Conwicke, Mary Jane Mills, Beatrice Bates, Donna Croman.

Not Present: Mary Massi, Frances Kissel, Florence Nestor, Richard Battista.

The members of the Creative Writing Club, which is under the direction of Mrs. Edna Finch, strive not only to better their own literary efforts, but to interest the student body in creative writing. They welcome new members who have gained recognition in a Scholastic Contest, have a recommendation from an English teacher, or are willing and able to submit writings for critical analysis.

Besides entering the annual Scholastic Writing Awards contest, the club presented an added incentive to the student body. It sponsored a successful humor contest and offered cash prizes.

This year's officers were: Polly Conwicke, president; Joan Babbitt, vice-president; Jane Stump, secretary; Richard Kropp, treasurer.

SPANISH CLUB

Standing: Janet Jones, Edythe Faust, Athalia Thompson, Jane Hetzel, Bonnie Shalkowski, Jean Ann Ogden, Mary Ann Cocetti, Irene Copeland, Mary Ella Moore.

Under the guidance of Mr. Zonio, members of the Spanish classes have organized a club and drawn up a constitution.

The purpose of the club is to learn about the social life of our South American neighbors through conversational records, lectures, music, and movies.

Since some members find it inconvenient to remain after school for meetings, plans have been made to hold meetings at the members' homes.

The officers of the club this year are: President, Anna Gianfrate; Vice-President, June Messersmith; Secretary, Judy Mandyck; Treasurer, Rae Lutke.

ITALIAN CLUB

The Italian Club, which meets every two weeks, is this year under the guidance of Mr. Carl Zonio.

At the organization meeting in the latter part of September, these officers were chosen: Josephine Matolka, president; Josephine La Fortezza, vice-president; Mary Rizzi, secretary; and Louise Nirchi, treasurer.

The highlight of one of the meetings was a short Italian skit, which was produced by Vinnie Giallo and Josephine Matolka. Mary Wright and Marion Bottino added a musical touch to the program.

A spring dance and the production of an Italian play have been planned. This year the members are wearing attractive club pins for the first time.

Standing: Katharine Zicari, Loretta Di Paolo, Vinnie Giallo, Pauline Mastrogiamaco, Dorothea Shearer, Leandra Mastrogiamaco, Marie Rano, Dorla Felter, Patricia Lane, Carl Zonio, adviser; Clara Montabone, Rosemary Graziano, Barbara Hammond, Rosemarie Giordano, Marion Bottino, Anito Pisani.

LIBRARY CLUB

Standing: Nancy Lo Bello, Margaret Stickler, Frances Kisling, Joan Musa.

There is no glamour connected with membership in the U-E Library Club. In reality—the library club is a service club, designed to help the students, the library, the school, and the librarian.

Prerequisites for membership are: scholarship, aptitude, and personality. The in-service training of club members provides the necessary technical information for their work.

Along with the impressive fact that a library club member is a library assistant, he or she must acquire, or be blessed with, certain important personal qualities. He or she must have a warm and open personality, a quick, responsive mind, tolerance, flexibility, and an interest in books. Not to be ignored, either, are that stimulating asset, curiosity (plus perseverance and patience to satisfy it), initiative, and executive ability.

BOYS' BOWLING TEAM

Standing: Elwood MacBeth, James McPherson, Russell Henneman, Douglas Shultz, John Dutkowsky, Douglas Williams, Lawrence Welch.

As usual, our U-E bowling teams had two matches with each of the four local high schools in the Triple Cities and two with Norwich. On the eve of meeting Johnson City, the varsity was in second place with only Vestal remaining on the regular schedule. On March 9, the Jayvee team was also in second place.

The varsity squad consisted of Robert Mosher, Larry Welch, Douglas Williams, Douglas Shultz, John Dutkowsky, George Huopana, James Balles and Harold Durfee.

Both varsity and junior varsity were entered in the tournament at Binghamton's State Alleys on March 20. In this contest 32 teams were enrolled.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The agricultural department had an outstanding judging team this past season. A team composed of Ramon Alderman and Edward Maxfield finished second out of thirty-two teams from all over the state in the annual contest held at the Morrisville Agricultural Institute.

A team, composed of Ramon Alderman, Clyde Avery and Edward Maxfield finished fourth at the Canton Agricultural Institute among twenty-two teams.

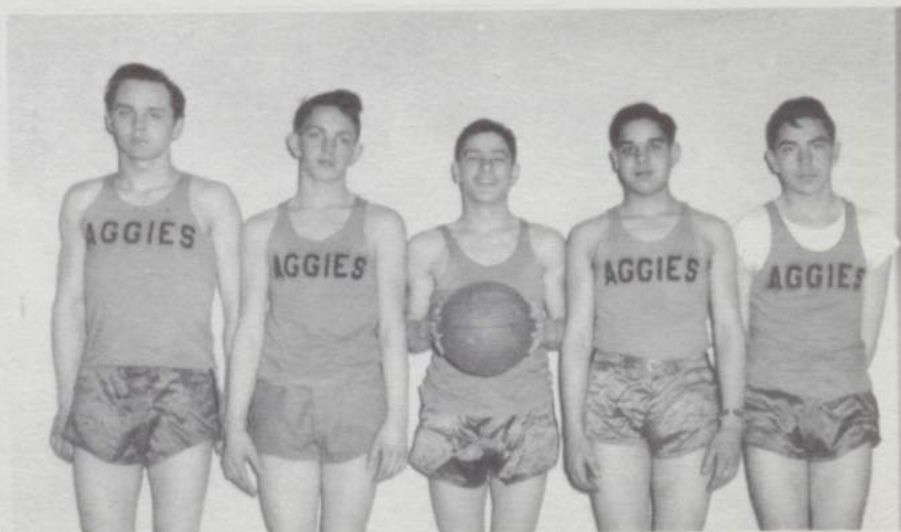

The mid-winter district rally was held at Endicott and in the twelve-man contest, Endicott finished well out in first place.

The boys are looking forward to the Spring Rally to be held at Newark Valley.

BASKETBALL TEAM

The Endicott Aggie basketball team finished the season in second place, being beaten by a strong Waverly team. The defeat came in the last half minute of play when a lucky mid-court long shot won the game for Waverly, for the championship. This was the first defeat in the Broome-Chemung-Tioga district. The boys are looking forward to a championship next year.

This year's team was composed of Merton Ketchum, captain; Pat Bowen and James Rosengrant, forwards; Doug Bowen, Nelson Furman, guards; Maxfield, Simpson, and Soroichinsky in reserve.

A BACKWARD GLANCE

In 1898, the "Academic Department" had two clubs—a debating club for boys, organized in '96, which at its organization was made up of sixteen members; and a "Ladies Literary Society" for High School girls.

GIBSON GIRL ASSEMBLY

A Gibson Girl Assembly under the direction of the Yearbook Staff was presented to introduce the Gibson Girl as the theme of the 1948 Thesaurus. The following songs were used in the musical production: "When You Were Sweet Sixteen," "I Had a Dream, Dear," "While Strolling Thru' the Park," "Shine on Harvest Moon," and "My Sweetheart's the Man in the Moon." Group singing followed this program. The cast pictured above included: Jack Caprio, Barbara Hammond, John Hart, Patricia Lane, Amando Ciacelli, Marian Brown, June Ann Lyons, Dawson Herbaugh, Ann Knickerbocker, Dorothy Packard, Mary Wright, Patricia Hammond, Eleanor Hospodor, Jerry Clune, Kay Kavanagh, Richard Battista.

Dawson Herbaugh and Richard Battista were student directors.

FAREWELL

We, the graduates of 1948, as the Gibson Girl, now go forth into the future. We are to become just another group of the alumni of our beloved U-E High. As we go out into the businesses and colleges of the world, leaving behind many of the friends we have made, we take with us the memories of our association with friends, as well as recollections of assemblies, faculty members, basketball and football games, track meets, conversations in the corridor, romances that have passed, formals and classes. All these, once taken for granted, are now about to end as we, the Seniors of yesterday, become the alumni of tomorrow at our commencement on June 31.

The time has come for us to say goodbye to our Alma Mater and for us to go on to greater heights, as did the many Gibson Girls, to seek to achieve the one aim in life, success and happiness.

THE FUTURE OF AMERICA RESTS WITH ITS YOUTH

Today we see the world torn by many philosophies and ideologies, some of which actually threaten the very foundation of our American ideals and way of life. They would destroy our most sacred principles; among them the rights of the individual in a free society.

For the cause of a free society, mankind has been striving and dying since the beginning of history. Thousands of men and women have suffered and died for the freedom we Americans enjoy today—and take so easily for granted.

Our ancestors have left us the finest form and degree of freedom the world has ever known. If this precious heritage is lost all that is worthwhile is lost.

As long as you, the youth of our land, remember that here in America we have the greatest plan of living conceived by man—the nation shall be secure and shall advance to greater fulfillment of the American way of life, liberty and happiness.

The opportunities are greater than ever before—let us use them!
The future depends on you!

"Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty," and the free, unfettered press of America is the watchdog guarding the rights and interests of the people.

"IT IS my view that the gravest problem (rapidly becoming imponderable) which confronts the provident head of an American family is how to leave his dependents any sort of a safe minimum subsistence. High income taxes (inevitable for years) and low yields upon investment (also inevitable for years) hereafter more or less preclude the accumulation of dependable estates. "The answer obviously is life insurance."

—ARTHUR H. VANDENBURG, Senator from Michigan

One of my policyholders has a friend, who told him that he and his wife spent practically his entire income and really enjoyed life, BUT, he had $200,000 of life insurance.

A LIFE INSURANCE ESTATE is immediately created, eliminating the time element necessary to accumulate one.

A LIFE INSURANCE ESTATE does not have to be probated with the attendant costs.

A LIFE INSURANCE ESTATE will provide guaranteed incomes.

A LIFE INSURANCE ESTATE will provide tax free incomes.

No wonder, right thinking men are adopting this form of investment and philosophy of living.
