WE DEDICATE THIS ISSUE

To peace among nations, praying that some day this old green earth of ours may know, not war, but brotherhood; not hatred, but kindness and eternal loyalty; not greed, but understanding; not bloodshed, but in its place a love and fidelity to both God and country.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Seated: Mrs. John Eggleston; Mr. J. Maxwell Clouse, president; Mrs. Anthony Christina.
Standing: Mr. Carroll Waterman, Mr. George H. Nichols.

THE SECRETARIAL STAFF

Seated: Miss Jessie Brainerd, Mrs. Georgia Bolton, Mrs. Helen Cobb, Miss Julia Petrak.
Standing: Miss Raymeta Chaffee, Mrs. Belle Barney, Mrs. Genevieve Roberts.

FACULTY

They taught us all, of all creeds and kinds,
To respect our friends, each others' minds;
To us they were a guiding light.
Through which to see a future—bright.

DR. WILLIAM J. KRUM, JR.
Superintendent of Schools
Hamilton College, A.B.
Teachers College, Columbia
University, M.A.
Columbia University, Ph.D.

If we are to have permanent world peace, we must learn to love rather than to hate; we must be ready to talk rather than to fight; we must cultivate patience rather than impatience; we must learn to compromise with honor rather than for the sake of expediency.

Peace, like war, begins in the minds of men. It is, therefore, of the utmost importance that each of us learn the skills of peace and practice them in our daily relations with others. This we can do at home, at school, in our vocations, or in our community activities, and by so doing we can make an effective start down the long road to world peace.

WM. J. KRUM, JR.

TO THE 1953 GRADUATES:

As children you have enjoyed the happiness of home and family.

As young people you have gained many friends, learned to make decisions and shared the fears, the worries caused by countries at war.

May you, as young adults, be instrumental by your words, deeds and contributions in establishing peace in your home, the world.

Associate Principal
St. Lawrence University, B.A.
New York State Teachers College
at Albany, M.A.

Many plans for promoting peace have been proposed during the twentieth century. Some have had merit but none have succeeded. Peace begins in the hearts of men. There can be no peace until individuals, families, communities and nations believe in and practice the Golden Rule, "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you." Any plan for peace which is not based upon this principle is bound to fail.

SENIOR OFFICERS

Another year has come and gone, and with it another Senior class.

Time, it seems, is the only proof of "success", but we of the class of '53 believe that times will prove that we have reached our goal.

Bruno Colapietro, our hard-working president, has led student government to a new height of prominence. Key Club, Tri-Hi, the language clubs, and the Technical Club, as well as all the numerous organizations of our Alma Mater, have prospered under capable supervision and able leadership.

Our only regret is that we seldom realize the value of our object until we are about to lose it.

Front: Edward Bilik, president; Suzanne Mersereau, secretary.

Back: Sara Jane Duffy, vice-president; Victor Decker, treasurer.

JUNIORS

The Junior Class officers of 1953: William Ivan, president; James Cuddy, vice-president, and Rita Wickizer, secretary-treasurer, are training to be our leaders of peace for tomorrow. In their hands lies great responsibility.

Our class contributed the most money for the polio fund of any U-E class, thus helping to elect Joan Meeker, a Junior, to be "Miss March of Dimes" of the Triple Cities.

Mary Sementilli and Mario Sylvestri lived through the worst of World War II in Italy. They saw their friends killed and homes destroyed. After the war, they came to America, where they could distinguish the contrast between war-torn Europe and untouched America. They can understand, better than we, the true meaning of peace.

SOPHOMORES

Hopefully admiring the senior rings are Patricia Brown, Michael Beirne, Barbara Welsh (seated), Thomas Cullen, Nancy Malowicky.

Peter Sylvester, vice-president; Joseph Funari, president; Patricia Hopko, secretary.

The word "sophomore" itself means striving for more and better learning. This fact is little known or believed, but we have definitely tried to improve our knowledge this year.

In past years, the sophomore class has presented itself as a confused and bewildered group. We stake no claims as to our brilliance this year, but we feel that for once, sophomores should be recognized as fairly helpful people in the vast organization of U-E, in its clubs, sports, music, and finally in its interest in world betterment. Perhaps one indication of our recognition is the fact that we, contrary to former practices, have our own officers this year.

Mrs. Roberts gives books to sophomores Donald Pullano, Patrick O'Brien, Carol Spangenberg, Susan Murray, Robert Parke.

FRESHMEN

This is a representative group of the approximately 35 freshmen here this year. Some were not present for the picture.

To us, the freshmen of U-E, our first year in high school has been filled with excitement, dreams of the future, hope, and ambition. But, contrary to these ideals, the fact that we were new and unaccustomed to the traditions of U-E caused us to be extremely conspicuous as "greenhorns". However, after enduring initiation, we began to feel more like a part of U-E and acquired the feeling of school spirit. Now we have become sophomores and can look back upon the mistakes we made as freshmen and hope not to make these mistakes again in the future; the future we hope will bring peace and security to the world as well as the students of U-E.

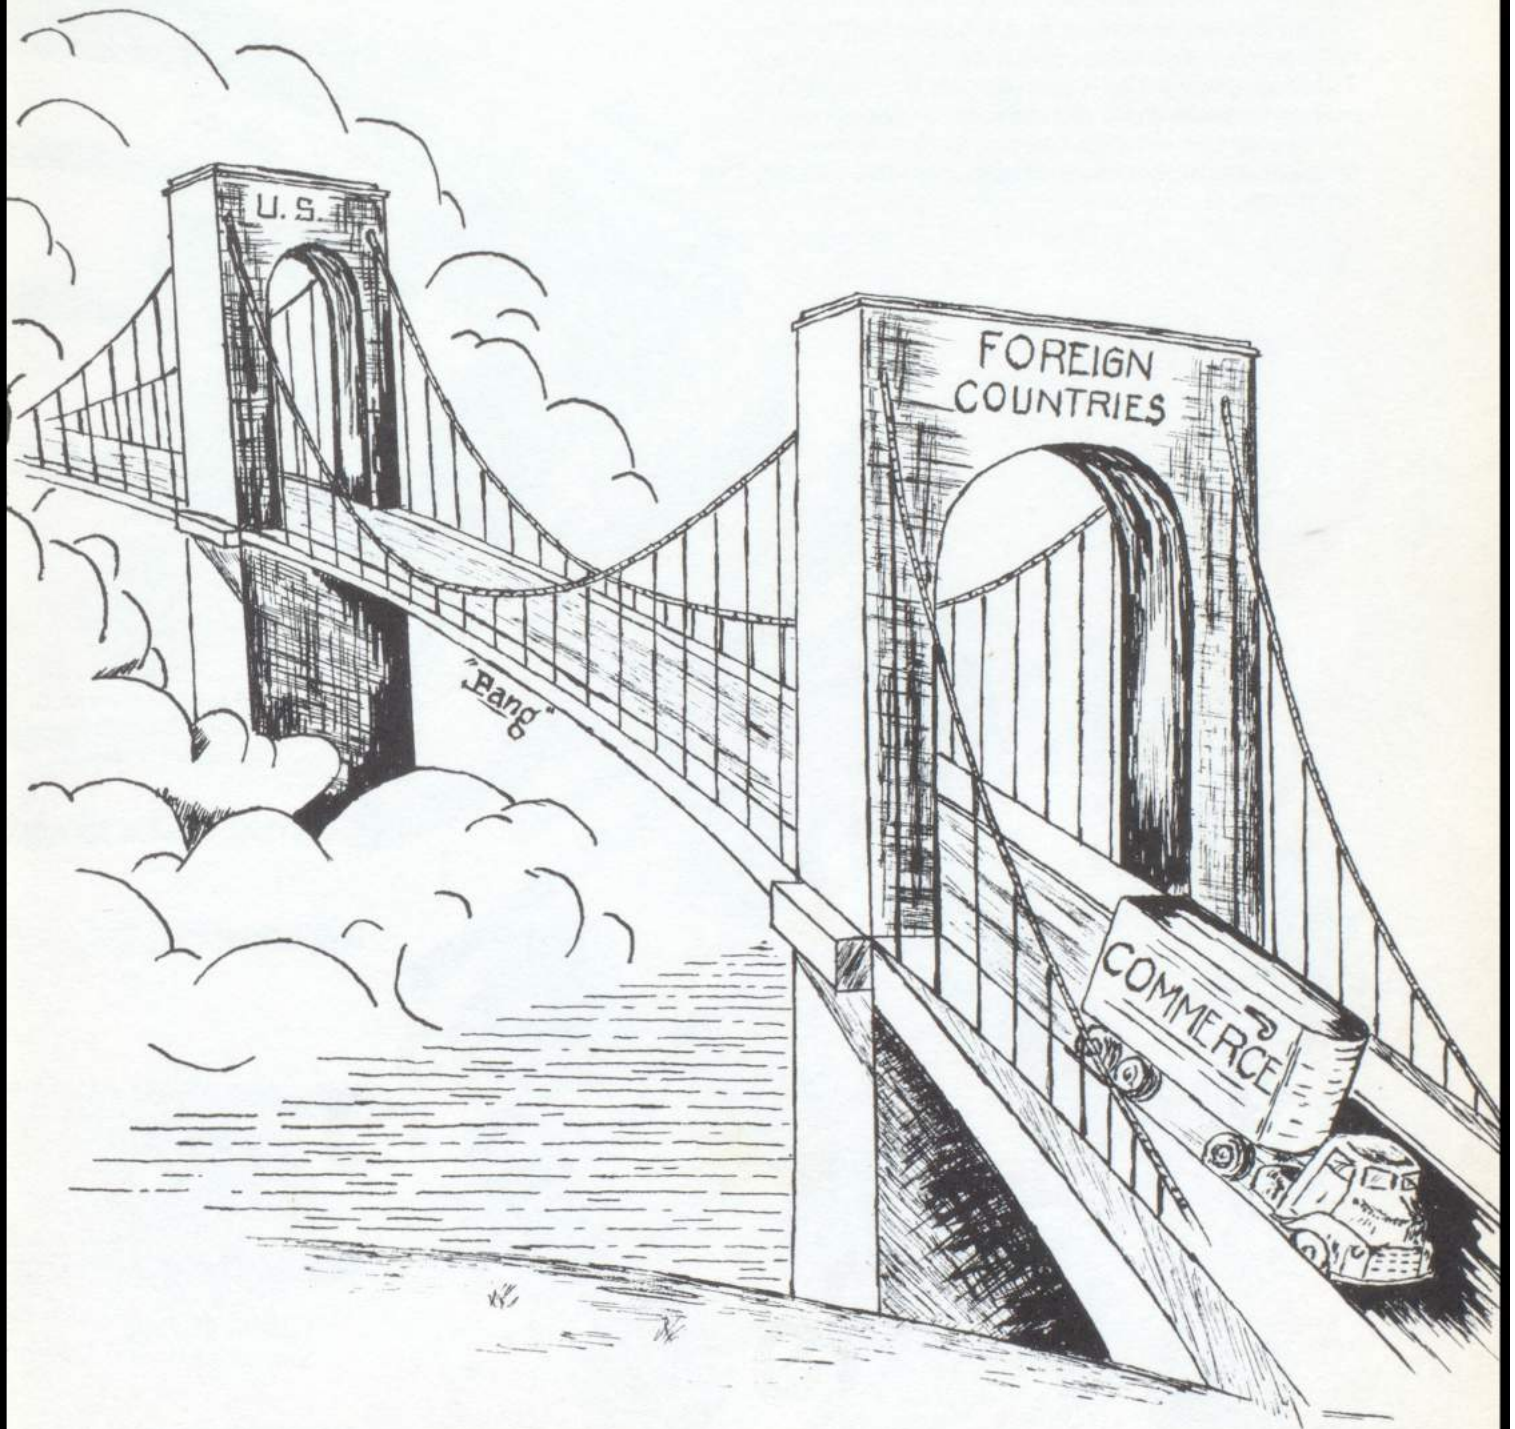

Seated: Joyce Jurczak. Standing: Robert Humphreys, Myra Harris, David Stevens.

Looking over a 1950 yearbook, these energetic freshmen are discussing the possibilities for a 1956 book.

ORGANIZATIONS

In unity, behold — a dream of peace
A dream to make futile wars cease.
We gathered with one thought in mind
To tolerate others and friendship find.

This year marks the fourth year that the student government at U-E has been patterned after the Federal Government of the United States. The Senate is composed of fourteen members elected in the following manner: Two from the freshman class and four each from the sophomore, junior and senior classes. The House of Representatives is composed of representatives from each homeroom.

The Senate meets each Monday during the fifth period, while the House meets every other Tuesday during the fifth period. Bruno Colapietro, president of the school, presides over the Senate meetings, and Charles Butchko, speaker of the house, presides over the House meetings.

*To Helen - best

GOVERNMENT

Under the energetic leadership of Bruno, many projects were undertaken and accomplished. These include for the first time the lighting and decoration of the outside of the school during the Christmas season, the sponsoring of numerous school dances throughout the year, and the planning for many interesting assembly programs. All of these activities are in addition to yearly duties of the Congress.

The Student Congress has had a profitable year; and through the combined efforts of the students and the cooperation of the teachers, continues to improve each year by experience. Each year this organization, the "voice of the people," also succeeds in promoting a closer relationship between students and faculty and in inspiring better citizenship.

KEY CLUB

 Second row: John Larnerd, Charles Butchko, Edward Dinga, Kevin Conwicke, Robert Hultslander, Eugene Arnold, Michael Maxian.
 Third row: Clayton Lowe, Acton Ostling, John Robble, Martin Leukhardt, Philip Forde, Bruno Colapietro, Donald Natoli, Peter Uhrinec.
 Not present: George Magur.

The Key Club is an organization designed by Kiwanis, in cooperation with the school, to build the leaders of tomorrow by service and experience today.

Citizenship, in its many and varied forms, is the sole qualification for membership. Service, throughout the school and community, is the club's sole criterion.

Although the club meets each Monday noon for a dinner meeting in Room 14 under the direction of Victor Decker, president; John Cullen, vice-president; Robert deVente, secretary, and Willard McCarthy, treasurer, most of its work is accomplished in committees. Mr. Thurber is the club's able adviser and Mr. Klett, the chairman of the Kiwanis Key Club Committee.

Two Kiwanians and a guest speaker are present at all Key Club meetings. In return, two Key-Clubbers attend each Kiwanis meeting.

Thus far this year, committees have printed, published and sold all football programs; operated check rooms for community affairs; ushered at open house; monitored at fire drills; organized a pep band for basketball games; held student body dances; and compiled a talent show troupe to represent our school.

Key Club International, of which our organization is a member, meets annually somewhere in North America. This year's convention is in Los Angeles, and the state convention, in Syracuse.

Last year, the club's activities placed them second in the state. With continued hard work, and able members and leaders, the club is destined for another year of success.

President Victor Decker swears in new members: Robert Bovier, Reese Kintzing, David Bouton, Philip Colella, Robert Hendrich, James Cuddy, David Titus, Carlos Evangelisti, and Raymond Fratino, as adviser. Mr. Edgar Thurber looks on.

LIBRARY CLUB

First row: Mary Emmons, Sandra Benner, Joan Jopson, Constance Carlson.
Second row: Mary Bailey, Phyllis Nichols, Teresa Zimmer, Patricia Nagle.

What is the work of the club? Is it activity, projects, problems or units of work? It may be any or all of them.

The outstanding characteristics of the club program are self-activity and opportunity for responsive effort on the part of club members. This highly selective group of students discover and go about their library duties systematically and understandingly with the co-operation and participation of the librarian, who acts in the capacity of club adviser.

All activities emphasize group or social effort as well as individual accomplishments. The members have experiences in which assuming responsibility, making decisions, and directing their own work secure pleasure for the group.

Officers of the club for 1952-1953 are: Sandra Benner, president; Phyllis Nichols, vice president; Harry Koutoukas, secretary; Mary Bailey, treasurer.

CREATIVE WRITING CLUB

With sixteen energetic members, more than in any recent year, the Creative Writing Club has proudly carried on the tradition of past years in writing as well as studying literature of all varieties, short stories, essays, poems and narratives.

In September, the club efficiently organized itself by electing Barbara Welsh as president; Pat O'Hara, vice president, and Anita Dobon, secretary-treasurer. Although some members were not always able to attend, the principles of good creative writing were carried on under Mrs. Finch's able direction.

First row: Mary Cicchini, Harry Koutoukas, Barbara Welsh, Nancy Malowicky, Susan Murray.

Second row: Carol Chestnut, Patricia Brown, Gloria Malowicky, Garfield Cooper, Paul Koutoukas, Anne Fay Casey, Angela Rizzuto.

Officers, seated: Anita Dobon, Barbara Welsh, Patricia O'Hara.

TRI-HI

Tri-Hi, one of U-E's most successful organizations, is enjoying its twenty-second year under the guidance of its founder, Miss Gladys Mersereau. The club has a membership of 203 girls.

U-E's three traditional dances are sponsored each year by Tri-Hi—the "All U-E Night," a dance held Thanksgiving night, at which the football queen is crowned and the team honored; the Christmas Formal; and the Spring Formal, at which our basketball queen is crowned and the basketball team honored.

Such sports as archery, team bowling, and swimming are offered to members during the winter and early spring months.

A College Loan Fund is maintained by the club. This fund is to assist former members in their quest for higher education by lending them money and charging no interest until the girls have been out of college for two years. A money-making project for the College Loan Fund which Tri-Hi resumed this year was its Carnival. The classes made the booths under the direction of their respective presidents, officers and committees. The prize of credit towards their class plaque was given to the best booth.

Last year, Tri-Hi girls made an educational trip to New York City, and since all who attended found the trip very enjoyable, a similar one was made possible this year. This project may be established as an annual affair. Another educational affair is the presentation of awards by the Tri-Hi to the outstanding girl graduates.

Tri-Hi has definitely enjoyed another successful year.

ARCHERY

Third row: Suzanne Mersereau, Dolores Swagler, Sara Jane Duffy, Joyce Griffith, Nancy Strusz, Marilyn Rodgers, Jean Foy.

'52-'53 BASKETBALL QUEEN

Joan Hickey and Marilyn Frey.

OFFICERS

Seated: Barbara Phillips, Sara Jane Duffy.

Standing: Donna Burt, Theresa Monaco, Joyce English.

SENIOR LATIN CLUB

Once again the Senior Latin Club has been organized with its customary officers of consul, quaestor and aedile being appointed for their month long terms. Its members include Latin IV students, Latin III graduates, and Latin III students who have maintained honor marks.

This year the Senior Club had the honor to present the community ambassador to all language students, their parents, and teachers at an evening meeting. The monthly meetings are all planned with a Latin holiday or theme as a background.

First row, left to right: Cathleen Cahill, Suzanne Mersereau, Camille Maggiore, Mary Lee Karl.

Second row: Gloria Malowicky, Hazel Depew, Bruno Colapietro.

Third row: James Hertel, James Cuddy, Bob Bovier.

Fourth row: Victor Decker, Michael Maxian.

JUNIOR LATIN CLUB

With quite an increase in membership this year, the enterprising Junior Latin Club established itself more securely as an organization by joining (for the unbelievable price of $ .25 for life) the Junior Classical League, a national group. Although the club was not organized directly at the beginning of the year, it started well in electing Mike Beirne and Mike Colella as counselors; Matt Brown, Quaestor; Harriet Paul, scribe, and as aediles, Jane Cole and Bill Cunningham. Under Miss Hollister's skilled direction, the club had an unusual first meeting at which they heard an informative talk by the community ambassador, Peter Mistretta. More interesting and beneficial meetings will be forthcoming.

SPANISH CLUB

First row: Lorraine Blackman, Carolyn Bierly, Mary Louise Picciano, Dana Barton, Albina Coccetti, Kevin Conwicke, Joan Piatt, Joan Cornell, Marlene Gray.

Second row: Sandra Lee, John Cullen, Charles Eiswerth, Edward Bilik, Edward Dinga, Robert Venner, David Patch, Paul Koutoukas, Robert Hanafin, Gayle Wood.

Third row: Patricia Nestor, Sharon Roberts, June Yacunsky, Sandra Clark, Shirley Barnes, Joyce Anderson, Barbara Bonnell, Grace Wage, Cynthia Harwood, Carol Chestnut, Barbara Loftus, Verna Lou Banks, Delores Nelson, Doanne Chwalow.

The Spanish Club is a school organization which consists of any first, second, or third year Spanish students. Meetings are held every two weeks and dues are collected.

Under the supervision of Mr. Carl Zonio, the Spanish Club elected this year the following officers: President, Albina Coccetti; vice-president, Kevin Conwicke, and secretary-treasurer, Dana Barton.

The club's accomplishments this year were: a dance at U-E and a skating party at the Johnson City Pavilion. The group also studied some interesting points about Mexico through slides and finished off the year with its annual picnic.

ITALIAN CLUB

First row, seated: Elvira Pittarelli, Angela Musa, Steffie Hanakovich, Angela Rizzuto, Maureen Coleman, Carolyn Vicinus, Marie Catucci.

Second row: Michael Bottino, Anthony Ciaravino, Gregory Fusco, Theodore Brown, Philip Colella, Kyrle Isenburg, Joseph Ligouri, Philip DeStefano, Anthony Nirchi, Victor Recchia.

Third row: Gina Fiacco, Lucille Pero, Beatrice Ripic, Mary Cicchini, Marjorie Seely, Margaret Driscoll, Filomena Santarelli, Theresa Monaco, Anne Ciacelli, Virginia Mollica.

To promote better understanding of Italian culture and of the Italian language is one of the aims of the Italian Club. This year the club held its initial meeting in September of 1952. The officers elected were: Angela Rizzuto, president; Maureen Coleman, vice president, and Steffie Hanakovich, secretary-treasurer. Meetings were held on alternate Tuesdays under the guidance of Mr. Carl Zonio.

Several activities have been planned throughout the year. A "Pizza Party" was held in March. Members of the club were allowed to bring a guest. The party was featured by an Italian folk dance, several songs, and delicious Italian food. A dance in April was held in the U-E boys' gym to raise funds in order to send aid to an orphanage in Italy. The club plans to end its year with a picnic to be held at a nearby lake.

There are tentative plans with Harpur College's Italian Club and with the Sons of Italy to sponsor an evening of Italian culture. We feel there are so many beautiful items of Italian culture that we want people to share their beauty with us.

LE CERCLE FRANÇAIS

Standing: Marilyn Rodgers, Paula Bochnak, Barbara Baltzel, Anne Fay Casey, Kay Yeingst, Barbara Phillips, Elizabeth Worster, Barbara Welsh, Susan Murray, Susan Daly, Debbie Simmonds.

Membership to Le Cercle Français is open to those persons who are taking French or have taken it. The club meets every two weeks in room 205 and is supervised by Miss Mealy, its faculty adviser.

The sixteen feminine members of this club have succeeded in sponsoring a most successful dance, "Cafe de Paris". On this occasion, a few members of the Le Cercle Francais took part in entertaining the guests with can-can dancing and singing French songs.

A CARE package was sent to a needy family in France at Christmas. On the agenda for this year were also a dinner and a picnic.

Officers are: Ione Ramer, president; Camille Maggiore, vice president; Marie Ferrante, secretary-treasurer; Angela Rizzuto, social chairman.

FRIENDSHIP CHAPTER OF FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

First row: Julia Kicsak, Frances Curatolo, Sandra Varga, Lois McDonald, Anna Labanc, Janet Mack, Antoinette Scrufari, Joyce Edson.

Second row: Anastacia Pastrokos, Barbara Bird, Shirley Teed, Susan Fish, Mrs. Joan Rybak, Lois Johns, Mary Cheevers, Florence Roge, Gina Noce.

Third row: Joyce Fitch, Charlotte Havrilka, Annette Roma, Marian Blatnick, Rosemary Bachynski, Carol Young, Dawn Vergason, Marilyn Payne, Mamie Roma, Johanna Gehl, Beverly Bird, Jean Bosley.

Fourth row: Josephine Scanlon, Pearl Eldredge, Marna Miner, Delores Ciotoli, Theresa Yurecka, Ann Marie Cavese, Jo Ann Elliott, Jane Atwood, Patricia Vill, Marilyn Rodgers, Joan Kuenzli.

In September, the Friendship Club, under the supervision of Mrs. Rybak, held a meeting in the living room of the homemaking department to welcome new members.

From then on a meeting was held every second and fourth Tuesday of the month during fifth period. At the organization's second meeting, the members elected these officers: President, Lois Johns; vice president, Susan Fish; secretary, Mary Cheevers; treasurer, Shirley Tweed; sergeant at arms, Barbara Bird.

During the past summer, Susan Fish and Jean Bosley attended for a week the F.H.A. camp at Oswegatchie, New York. They came back with new ideas on how to make the club more successful.

Besides sending two girls to camp, the organization sent a box to Korea and made Christmas favors for Ideal Hospital. Some of the club's other activities include bake sales, fashion previews, and parties.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

First row: Jean Bosley, Lois Johns, Anna Labanc, Arlis Ellison.
Second row: Marilyn Rodgers, Hazel Depew, Mrs. Vartulli, Kay Yeingst, Alice Lewis.
Third row: Nancy Holland, Joyce Anderson, Paul Koutoukas, Gerald Campbell, Barbara Bonnell, Carol Lawton.

Under the direction of Mrs. Vartuli, the Junior Red Cross has sponsored many projects this year. The first thing the members did was to elect their officers: Kay Yeingst, president; James Thorne, vice president; Marilyn Rodgers, secretary; and Hazel Depew, treasurer.

A drive was held to send a CARE Package to some needy country in Europe. Another worthy project was the Christmas Party for the orphans. This party was sponsored by the Junior Red Cross for the Susequehanna Valley Orphans. A dance, held February 13, 1953, was another project to raise money for packages to be sent abroad.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Second row: Margaret Baker, Joan Saddlemire, Mamie Roma, Helen Shady, Martha Robinson, Joanne Bradshaw, Joan Kristoff, Mae Avery, Joan Hanns, Joyce Kiser.

Third row: Diane Deuel, Shirley Crane, Doris DeGroat, Gina Noce, Ann Marie Cavese, Shirley Reardon, Margaret Donovan, Emelia Ziemba, Elizabeth Stephens, Mary Louise Hammond.

The purpose of the Commercial Club is to help its members become better acquainted with the business world in our community. During the past year, the club has had guest speakers from Personnel Departments who have explained such preparations for business as qualifications for jobs, applications and interviews. Field trips to business concerns are a part of the program.

The club elects the president for the coming year at an annual meeting which is held at the end of the school year. Last year, Kay Hansell was elected president. The other officers were elected after everyone interested in the commercial field was allowed to join. They are as follows: Vice president, Julia Suchy; secretary, Joan Swindler; treasurer, Joyce Mandyck.

Miss Kniskern is the club adviser.

TECHNICAL CLUB

1952 annual prizes for Technical students judged likely to be most successful in technical fields were awarded as follows:

First place: Andrew Komar—a "Tool Engineer's Handbook," presented by American Society of Tool Engineers.

Second place: David Saunders — a $5.00 award presented by the Technical Club.

The Technical Club is an organization composed of the students taking the technical course. Its members have a luncheon meeting every Wednesday under the supervision of the technical teachers.

The aims of the club are to broaden the industrial knowledge of its members and to promote greater interest in the technical field. To carry out these aims it has taken several trips to local industries and has planned an exchange trip with Mount Pleasant High School in Schenectady. For its final out-of-town trip it visited the industries in Syracuse.

These industrial trips and the annual picnic at Lily Lake are financed by the profits of the candy sales at the basketball games.

The Technical Club, under its officers, Robert DeVente, president; Michael Tarcha, vice president, and Irving Blakeslee, secretary-treasurer, hopes that in the following years it will be both successful and beneficial to the technical course.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

First row: Warren Norton, Roger Ward, Joseph Kotek, Mr. White, Robert Roosa, Alex Zevan.

Second row: Robert Clouse, Gerald Coleman, Alva Silvernail, Edward Kopansky, Dean Ford, John Ripic, James Driscoll.

Third row: Joseph Smith, John Mushock, David Haines, Glenn Simpson, Gordon Loveless, Daniel Terwilliger, Gale Bennett, Richard Seely.

The Future Farmers of U-E have had an active year. They have two members who are officers in the County Association. Joe Kotek is vice president and Gale Bennett is the county reporter.

The regular F.F.A. officers are: Joe Kotek, president; Harold Weber, vice president, and Alex Zevon, treasurer; Bob Roosa, secretary; Roger Ward, reporter, and Bud Norton, sentinel.

The boys took several trips during the year. One took them to Waverly, where they toured the Kasco Feed Mills. A trip to Cornell was later planned during Farm and Home Week. To raise funds for their treasury, they sold seeds, and put on a pancake supper.

The two top seed salesmen were sent to the State F.F.A. camp at Oswegatchie Lake in the Adirondacks, with all expenses paid.

The agriculture basketball team of last year were champions of their league and from all indications will be champs again this year.

MUSIC

If music lives in the heart of man,
Love also within his heart must dwell,
And if love rest inside this man
He'll sing of peace and its virtues tell.

"GIVE ME YOUR TIRED,
YOUR POOR . . ."

CHOIR

The U-E Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Edson, presented many successful appearances this year. The Choir performed in the annual Christmas concert, in addition to singing at the Kiwanis luncheon and an assembly.

The annual spring concert was highlighted by the choir's rendition of the "Roumanian Rhapsody" by Georges Enesco. They also sang "Lil Liza Jane" as arranged by Mr. Ivan Bryden of Henry B. Endicott school.

The graduating seniors have a wonderful season to remember, and the underclassmen look forward to another successful year.

As in 1952, and all years preceding it, a fine group of musicians gathered on Monday and Thursday afternoons to work on numbers for the U-E Orchestra's many activities. The orchestra presented a concert with the choir groups in March this year, instead of its usual May concert with the band. Some of the numbers worked on for this event were "The Merry Wives of Windsor

CONCERT

These are pictures of the twenty-fifth U-E Band. Yes, this year was a special one for the band. In 1953 it put on a concert by itself with the alumni of the band joining it during the second half. The alumni also sponsored preceding the concert a banquet honoring Mr. Acton Ostling, the band's director for twenty-five years. A U-E Band Concert has never been without Mr. Ostling's able direction. He started the concerts in 1928 and is still leading the band, but as Director of Music of the Endicott schools. The band has worked on many famous numbers, such as "National Emblem March" by Fred Bagely; "Light Cavalry Overture," by E. It has been quite a year and U-E is proud of Mr. Ostling and the band for what they have done over a twenty-five year span.

THE NEW LOOK

U-E has done it again. It has long been rumored around the Southern Tier Conference that U-E has the best marching band, but last year the band went one more step out in front by adding a Michigan Band marching style to its routines. This year the band took another step by adding to its marching finesse the brilliance of a new uniform. On this page you see Dick Atwood in the three uniforms which the band has owned. In the upper left corner is the cape-style uniform, the "class" of the area in 1928. In the middle is the "Winfield" model obtained in 1938. In the lower right corner is the new uniform. Its many new and flashy features are shown in the picture. Truly U-E now has the best dressed outfit as well as the best marching outfit. We are justly proud of this organization.

The Union-Endicott High School Marching Band again stepped into the football picture with Clayton Lowe, its high-stepping major, at the head. Four sharp "tweets" of the whistle, a snappy introduction, and the U-E Marching Band was off on another in its series of fine shows for the pre-game ceremonies and half-time. A great deal of credit goes to Mr. Ostling and Mr. Stahl, who thought out the routines and to Mr. Stahl and Mr. Schmoll, who drilled the band into the best high school marching outfit in the conference and one of the best in the state.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

First row: Paul DePaolo, Alfred Yankovich, Kevin Conwicke, Albino Paparella, Donald Parke, Robert Horbey, Ernest Rommel, Kurt English.
 Second row: Edward Sochor, Frederick Cunningham, Ralph Weiland, Robert Daglio, Frank Tatusko, Charles Butchko, Wade Clark, Ronald Hummel.

The '52 team will go down in U-E football history as the first "Ty" Cobb team to discard the iron man theory and adopt the newer ideas of specialized football. It will also be known as one of the hardest-fighting and scrappiest teams that the old Alma Mater has ever produced.

Picked to be guardians not of stellar but of cellar positions, the team surprised coaches and authorities alike and completed the season in a tie with Binghamton North for second place. To some observers, and to all U-E fans, the squad was the uncrowned champion of the Southern-Tier Conference.

Losing only to Ithaca in the season's second game, U-E bounced back to sweep the last six games, which, combined with an opening-game tie with North, gave an over-all 6-1-1 record.

Outscoring its opponents 185-31, "the tigers" proceeded in the following manner: U-E 6-North 6; Champion Ithaca 12-U-E 7 (tasting wildcat meat for the first time in four years); U-E 14-Johnson City 7; (avenging a humiliating first meeting, 0-0); U-E 33-Vestal 0; U-E 7-Utica Proctor 6 (whew!); U-E 66-Elmira South Side 0 (wow!); U-E 19-Last Year's Champs, Elmira Free Academy 0; and finally, in the Turkey Day classic, U-E 33-Binghamton Central 7.

"Ty" Harold Cobb and Captain Al Paparella won "coach" and "player of the year" awards. In addition, Kevin Conwicke, Al Yankovich and Don Parke were placed on the "All S. T. Conference" team.

"The Tiger" has once again risen, roaring. Beyond a doubt this has been a great team, with an excellent coach, a group of top ballplayers, and, most of all, a great fighting heart.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

The U-E Zephyrs last year, coached by Vito Popelka, ended a hard-fought season with 2 wins and 2 losses. Though losing to Johnson City and North, they beat Central and Vestal. To wind up the season, they rolled the Intramural All-Stars, 49-0.

Next year we hope to see many of the J.V.'s on the Varsity, and we are looking forward to a good J.V. squad.

With their largest starter at six feet one inch, the U-E basketball team was considered to be on the small side. In these days of domination by the human skyscraper, the squad had a decided handicap.

Forced to concentrate on ball handling and team play, the cagemen excelled in just that. In compiling a 10-6 record they fought to a fourth place standing in the Conference League.

With Bill McManus, third highest scorer in the Conference, backed up by Ed Bilik and Ed Dinga, U-E lost two two-point decisions to Central and North. The high-spirited squad gave champion J-C their toughest game, going to defeat only in the last minutes of play.

Traveling outside the League for a pair of games with Waverly, U-E twice went down to defeat, but by one of the best all-around teams in the state.

The over-all 10-8 record, while not too impressive, represents eighteen well-played, hard-fought games. Coach Friderich had reason to be proud of his courageous and skillfully-trained ball players.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Second row, standing: George Matola, Bill Coughlin, Mike Bierne, Fred Franta (manager), Mr. Vito Popelka (coach), Emil Seliga, Gabriel Russin.

The Junior Varsity squad this year played together with fine ability and exceptional teamwork which enabled them to capture 4th place in the league. The team, under Coach Vito Popelka, showed fine sportsmanship while winning 9 and losing 9.

This was a tough year after winning the championship for the last two years, but next year, along with the help of the returnees, we are looking forward to another good season.

BOWLING

Last November, the members of the U-E Bowling team elected Charles Fitch their captain. Two secretaries, Jerry Wilcox and David Carlson, were also elected.

This year's "green" bowling team, under the coaching of "Mac" McCormack, has done surprisingly well this season. With the aid of Dominic Pozzi's high triples in four consecutive bowling matches, the Tiger "wood-choppers" are fairly sure of a second place spot.

With many experienced veterans returning next year, the U-E kegglers should come home with the stakes.

Row one: James Morlando, Bryant Wood, John Panko, Charles Fitch, David Carlson, Gordon Loveless.

Row two: Robert Koplik, Joseph Kelly, James Warner, Dominic Pozzi, Richard Honnick, Gerald Wilcox.

TRACK — 1952

First row: Clayton Lowe, Ralph Weiland, Paul dePaolo, Robert Osborne, John Ficke, Gary White, Joseph Taylor, Vincent Picciano, John Blazey.

Second row: Christos Romas, Nicholas Romas, Donald Alamo, Charles Butchko, Myron Menicetti, Joseph George, Theodore Gordon, William McManus.

Fourth row: Mr. Mike Rotondi (coach), Mr. Vito Popelka (coach), Mr. C. Burdette Parkhurst (coach), Bernard Cacciola, Fred Cunningham, Lawrence Ciotoli, Norman Chilson.

The 1952 track squad, under Captain Myron Menichetti, compiled the enviable record of five firsts with but one loss. During the regular season, the squad began the season in fine fashion by taking top honors at a relay meet held at Vestal. They followed it up with another win in the quadrangular meet on the Elmira oval. Central, however, nosed the spirited fellows out in a photo-finish during the Tri-Cities meet. In Section IV competition, U-E placed a close fourth, only a few points behind the top. Bernie Caciola, Fred Cunningham and Gary White helped to carry the Section IV laurels to West Point for state-wide competition.

Fred Cunningham breaks the tape in the 440-yard dash with Jim Pratt of North and John Hudanich on his heels.

CROSS COUNTRY

U-E's Cross Country team would have had a fine season if it were not for Vestal's great team.

In three duel meets, U-E beat North, tied Ithaca, and lost to Vestal. In the big Triple Cities' meet U-E placed second only to Vestal.

Pacing U-E's team this year were Don Alamo and sophomore "Ozzie" Osborn.

First row: Robert Breno, Reese Kintzing, Robert Osborne, Donald Alamo, Raymond Fratino, Gerry Pease.

Second row: Mr. Theodore Conwicke (coach), David Bouton, James Whitely, John Mee, Alvin Reinecke, William McLaughlin.

Third row: Richard Hartman, Donald Reining.

BASEBALL — 1952

First row: Frank Tatusko, Arnold Colonna, Bruno Pagnani, Robert Briggs, Richard Roche, James Forbes, Carmen Crescente, Dominic Quercia, Lawrence Beuter, Gerald Campbell, Leon Eiswerth.
Second row: Joseph Wilson, Norman England, Bruno Colapietro, Edward Bilik, Alfred Yankovich, Anthony Pero, Nicholas Komanowski, Joseph Orlando, John Robble, Robert Walters, Edwin England, Albert Seliga, Gerald Wilcox, George Magur, Ernest Herceg.

U-E's baseball nine displayed hard, fast action throughout the spring season of '52, and when the season drew to a close, the team had chalked up an impressive record of nine victories to only three defeats. Led by the hitting of Jim Forbes and John Robble's pitching, the U-E Tigers placed second in the conference and succeeded in capturing the highly-prized Triple Cities' Trophy.

VOLLEYBALL

First row: Don Short, Gene Roma, Ken Becker, Wade Clark, Glenn Williams, Gene Arnold.

Although the final results of the volleyball team will not be known until the end of the season, the boys on the team have shown good sportsmanship, fine teamwork and an excellent competitive spirit. These qualities should enable them to finish the season in a favorable position in the league. Last year's team occupied the "number two spot" in the league and also in the Sectional Tournament.

GOLF TEAM

Coach Nick DiNunzio, for the second consecutive year, has guided the "Tiger" golf team to victory. By doing a minimum amount of stroking, the team has taken first place in the Southern Tier Conference, the Sectionals, and in the State Intersectional Match at Newburgh, New York. Further fame was brought to the team by Ed Dinga, who competed in the National Junior Golf Tournament at Eugene, Oregon, and placed first in the open driving contest.

CHEERLEADERS

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

Sports, though usually considered unimportant in contrast to many outstanding things in the world today, play a great part in promoting friendship and good will between otherwise hostile countries.

The Olympics, which are an outstanding international cooperation, feature many events in which girls receive even greater prominence than men.

Here at U-E, girls' sports build a continually-growing organization in which all participants share fun and responsibility.

Gathered about the piano are some sophomores who entertained upper classmen on initiation day.

"THE ROARING TWENTIES"

The annual Key Club assembly featured life in the "twenties" with a little bit of the Charleston and "razzmatazz."

"THE QUEEN, HER COURT AND FOOTBALL TEAM 1952"

The keynote of the football season was the traditional crowning of the queen. Here she appears with her court and members of the football team.

"THAT'S A HORSE?"

Members of the Tri-Hi look amused at their reproduction of a horse which was used at the Tri-Hi Carnival.

"OH, TO BE YOUNG AGAIN!"

The annual Hallowe'en party given by child care classes, resulted in fun for teachers, students, children and principal.

"I SAW MOMMY KISSING SANTA CLAUS . . ."

A group of choir members sing at the annual Christmas concert. Dennis Wood, Richard Pratt, Shirley Titus, Barbara Honnick, Marie Ferrante and Dawn Hills, accompanist.

"MERRY CHRISTMAS!"

Miss Pitkin looks touched as the television set from the student body and faculty is given her by Bruno Colapietro, school president.

"THE THIRTEENTH CHAIR"

The cast of the baffling mystery, "The Thirteenth Chair" given as the 1952 senior play, includes: Anna Apalovich as Helen O'Neil; Mary Rossi, Elizabeth Erskine; Joan Hickey, Madame La Grange; Leonard Havel, Roscoe Crosby; Shirley Thomas, Mrs. Crosby; Eugene Pettit, Will Crosby. Student Directors were Donald Muir and Antonio Koukides.

MISCELLANEOUS

O hear my prayer, an earnest one
Wherein I ask great things be done.
I ask not for gold nor a king's mighty power,
Only for peace, love's coveted flower.

"ORGANIZED CONFUSION"

Typical scene between classes.

"HOW ABOUT VASSAR?"

Kurt English seeks advice for his vocational problems from Mr. Agone, boys' counselor.

"WHEN'S MY ENGLISH CLASS?"

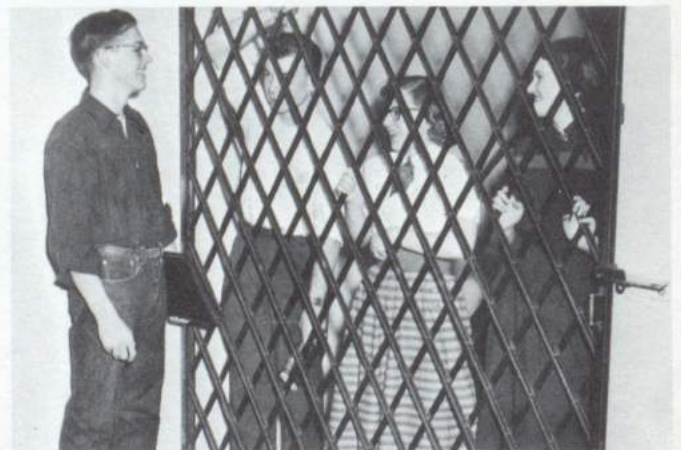

Miss Mersereau offers some more helpful advice to Patricia Winters.

"WHAT NOW?"

Michael Tarcha, Grace Camp and Robert deVente examine the bulletin board to get the latest news.

"CAGED"

Willard McCarty, Theresa Carlini, and Anne Fay Casey plead, "Don't Fence Me In," while Lawrence Merle appears unconcerned.

"SAFE"

Arnie Colonna beats Jim Forbes' tag on third.

"ANYTHING FOR ART"

"MEDICS"

Our hard-working doctor and nurse, Doctor Mallory and Miss Lesko, look over another student's record.

"I THINK I'LL SIGN UP FOR TRACK"

Jane Sandwick adds her name to the list of track enthusiasts while others want to make sure they'll look all right.

"WE CAN EAT IT, TOO"

The boys' homemaking class samples some of their own handiwork.

"THE VALIANT RETURN"

To replace the missing drum corps, these alumni carry on.

The best of luck always Shirley

"LET ME TELL YOU"

Wade Clark, Louis Cioci and Robert Rosemier talk things over as William Ivan and Frank Tatusko open their lockers.

"PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT"

Darla Miller, Agnes Barno and Shirley Vallone prepare for their future work as secretaries.

"FASCINATING WORK"

Mr. Becker's shop boys exhibit perfect concentration.

Barbara Silway casts a last look upon a drawing in "Doc" Turver's biology laboratory.

"TO THE VICTOR, THE SPOILS"

Philip Forde, Lawrence Doran and Hughlafe Conklin regard with pride some of U-E's trophies.

"GIVE A CHEER"

Here are the "gals" who lead the cheers for the tornado rooters.

"WHAT'S NEW?"

Mr. Paolucci and Mr. Woodruff look over their mail.

"IS EVERYBODY HERE?"

Betty Worster, Carolyn Begeal, Delores Forno and Ione Ramer check their gym class roll.

"LOOKS LIKE NEW"

Members of the Key Club use elbow grease as they work to add money to the treasury.

"THE COST OF TRANSPORTATION!"

Glenda Standish and Diane Pennell purchase their bus tokens from Miss Brainerd.

"WHAT CAN I DO FOR YOU?"

Mrs. Roberts peers inquisitively at Carlos Evangelisti as Mary Ann Russell signs for a book.

"DID I DO IT WRONG?"

John Cullen looks puzzled as he works on an experiment in physics lab.

"SKILLFUL HANDS CREATE"

Artistic concentration certainly proved of value to Rembrandt. Will it prove true in the case of these young artists?

"THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH"

Mike Koban quenches his thirst as Steve Lisak waits patiently.

"WHERE'S DR. KRUM'S OFFICE?"

Robert Clune pauses at the information desk to seek the advice of Beatrice Ripic.

"INDUSTRIALISTS OF TOMORROW"

Everyone appears hard at work under the guiding eye of Mr. Woodruff.

"CONGRATULATIONS, CO-CAPTAINS!"

Al Paparella smiles proudly as he shakes the hands of his successors, Bob Daglio and Joe Barbara.

"SAY IT THIS WAY"

"MEOW"

Even the Tiger mascots sound forth for the winning team when held by the cheerleaders.

"FOUR YEARS . . . THE REWARD"

President of the board, Maxwell Clouse, gives Helen Brewer her diploma.

"ACHIEVEMENT"

Last year's pianist for the Choir, Irene Lazewski, claims one of the Arion Awards. Co-winners were Lewis Morrow and Eugene Gonzalez.

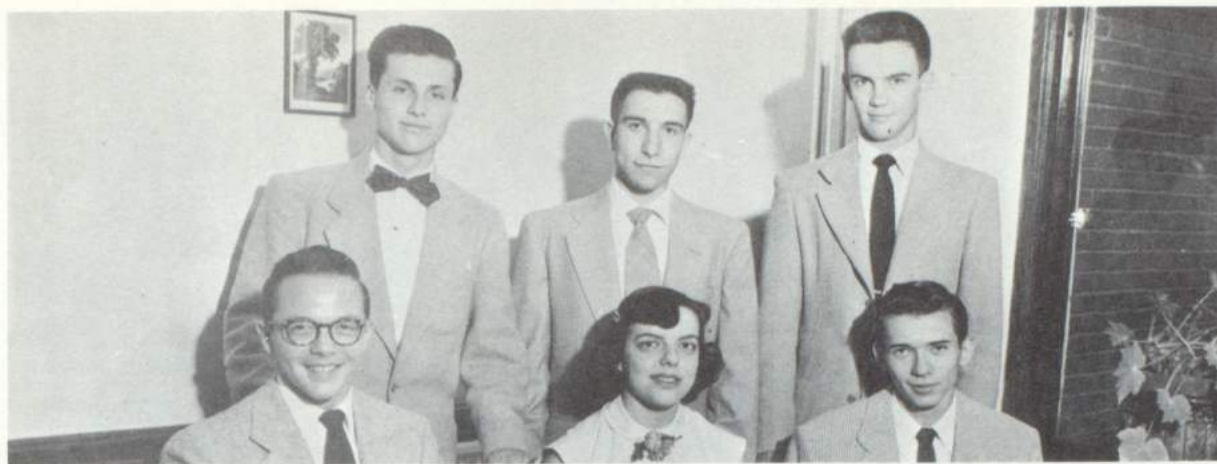

"REALLY, I WAS SICK!"

Mr. Woodard and Mrs. Cobb always have to know the truth, as Vincent Deraco and Virginia Huyck find out.

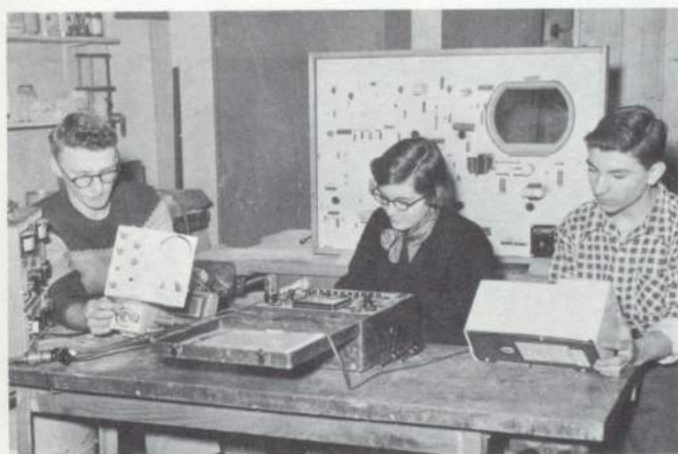

"FRIENDLY RIVALS"

American Legion Award candidates for 1952 are Lewis Morrow, Delores Minni, John Hudanich, Vincent Picciano, Philip Audino and James Forbes.

"WHERE'S THAT CONDENSER?"

Murray Shapiro, Sheril Koon and James Florini check their projects in radio shop.

"LITTLE ANGELS"

Barbara Ash, Nancy Holland and Janet Reeve wonder if children are always like this.

"IT'S A QUARTER INCH LINE"

Robert Gordon checks his compass while the Industrial Arts class works diligently on one of its drawings.

"IS THAT ALL?"

Mr. Richardson smiles as he reaches down in his pocket for change.

"CITIZENSHIP PAYS DIVIDENDS"

James Forbes, the 1952 winner of the American Legion Award for Citizenship, with Lewis Morrow, a close second for the award, gaze at the plaque and the place for Forbes' name.

"WRONG NUMBER!"

Barbara Custer, Joyce Mandyck and Joy Phelps find that the pay phone comes in handy.

"IS THIS WHAT YOU HAVE TO OFFER?"

Cathleen Cahill, Beverly Wylam and Al Papparella ask Mr. John Hafer pertinent questions about Syracuse University.

New graduates, trained to think—eager with new ideas, you are indeed the wealth of the nation in its richest form. Businesses and professions will profit immeasurably from the fresh thought and youthful energy you will bring to them.

This is an appropriate time when every young man and woman might well stop to think, "Now is the moment to be aware of what America is and what it means to live here."

This is the time for us to reaffirm our enduring faith in the free spirit, free life and free enterprise that are America. It is time for us to be grateful for the right to call our own the proud banner that ever has been, and is today, a rallying symbol for free men.

FAREWELL

Farewell—we say to high school days
Which knew of sadness, joy and praise.
Though cannons bellowed and young men died
In far off places—we hold with pride
The thought of those who joined the fight
To bring us peace—guard freedom's light.

Peace is born, not of mankind, but of God. Peace is happiness, success; it is fulfillment. But it bears a challenge as well. To obtain it as an end, we must meet it understandingly. Apathy and neglect have no place in its foundation. Sincerity, honesty, perseverance are its cornerstones.

The time has come, as well it might, to open a door, to cross a threshold. We are at that point; we are the tomorrow, the generation to build the future. The challenge is ours to bear.
