MEMORIES

Great philosophers have said that each fleeting moment of time speeds by us so swiftly that "there is no present, no now." Even so, our high school days have slipped into the past. Now, in June 1954, we realize that they are but vivid memories.

So, when, like the Bard of Avon, we retreat to "sessions of sweet silent thought," and summon up "remembrance of things past," our book of memories will open before us, and our high school days will pass in review. They will always be a cherished part of our lives, to be treasured as priceless gems.

All to myself I hold and know
All of the days of long ago —
Wonderful days when you and I
Owned all the sunshine in the sky:
The days come back as the old days will,
And I keep their tingle and their thrill
All to myself.

Wilbur Dick Nesbit

School days, school days, dear old golden rule days,
Readin', and writin', and 'rithmetic
Taught to the rule of the hickory stick.

MEMORIES OF HIGH SCHOOL DAYS

Trying to record the most meaningful memories of one's high school days becomes increasingly difficult as the years pass by and other pleasant memories crowd in upon the mind. However, these things I do remember clearly: My first day in high school; the genuine affection which I had for all of my teachers, even though I liked some better than others; playing in my first football game; my first attempt to write poetry and the teacher who encouraged me to try; the senior play and the senior banquet; and graduation night.

I can also remember most of my classmates, and occasionally I look at my class picture to renew old acquaintances. However, there is one classmate whom I remember above all others. She is my wife.

MEMORIES

In September 1951, some four hundred bright-eyed teenagers came to U. E. Much was the bustling, the laughter with making new friends and the dismay with lost schedule cards and with rooms that seemed to have changed location overnight.

The following year, this same group became more independent in the use of study time, more active in participation of sports, music and student government.

As the senior year started, designs for the future began to take more definite shape. Some were making plans for continued schooling, some were preparing for industry, some had thoughts of homemaking, and others had in mind, service for their country.

Now that you, the members of the class of 1954, join the ranks of the alumni of U. E. H. S., may your treasure chest contain the roots, the ideals, the tools, and the knowledge from your three years at U. E. that will aid you in being a true member of society.

MARY L. PITKIN

MEMORIES

Memories are based upon our life experiences. Many of these experiences seem pleasanter as time goes on. However, time cannot erase all unpleasant memories.

So it is with our high school memories—some will be pleasant, others not so pleasant. We should strive as we go through high school to do those things which will leave pleasant memories—to make lasting and worth-while friendships, to try to get the most out of our school work, to build a good character and a healthy body. Thus we will have pleasanter memories and less regrets.

SENIOR MEMORIES

Each member of the class of '54 will carry with him, into the future, memories of his Alma Mater. We, as individuals, have widely differing abilities and inclinations; and have entered in varying degrees in the work and play of U-E in classes and extra-curricular activities which have covered a wide scope of interests. In a large measure, our memories of our high school years will be gauged by what we have given of ourselves to our school. The diploma given at graduation will be the material symbol of each individual's achievement. His memories of a job well done will bring him lasting satisfaction.

JUNIORS

The leaders of tomorrow are the builders of today. With this in mind, U-E's juniors have striven throughout the school year to lay a firm foundation for the construction of tomorrow's better citizens. In the many activities planned by the student body, they have readily lent their support, from cheering the team on to victory to shouldering the responsibilities of student government and cooperation.

One of their members was chosen to represent U-E in the annual March of Dimes contest and achieved the honor and distinction of becoming queen, a real credit to the junior class.

The juniors have also staged their own talent show for the enjoyment of the entire student body, an event which was extremely well received.

The theme of the junior class activities throughout the school year has been that of "building a better U-E." Through their many achievements, it may be seen that they have indeed laid a firm foundation toward that end.

SOPHOMORES

"Dissect a crayfish? Oh my!"

"It's getting to be a habit!"

"And then we had our first formal."

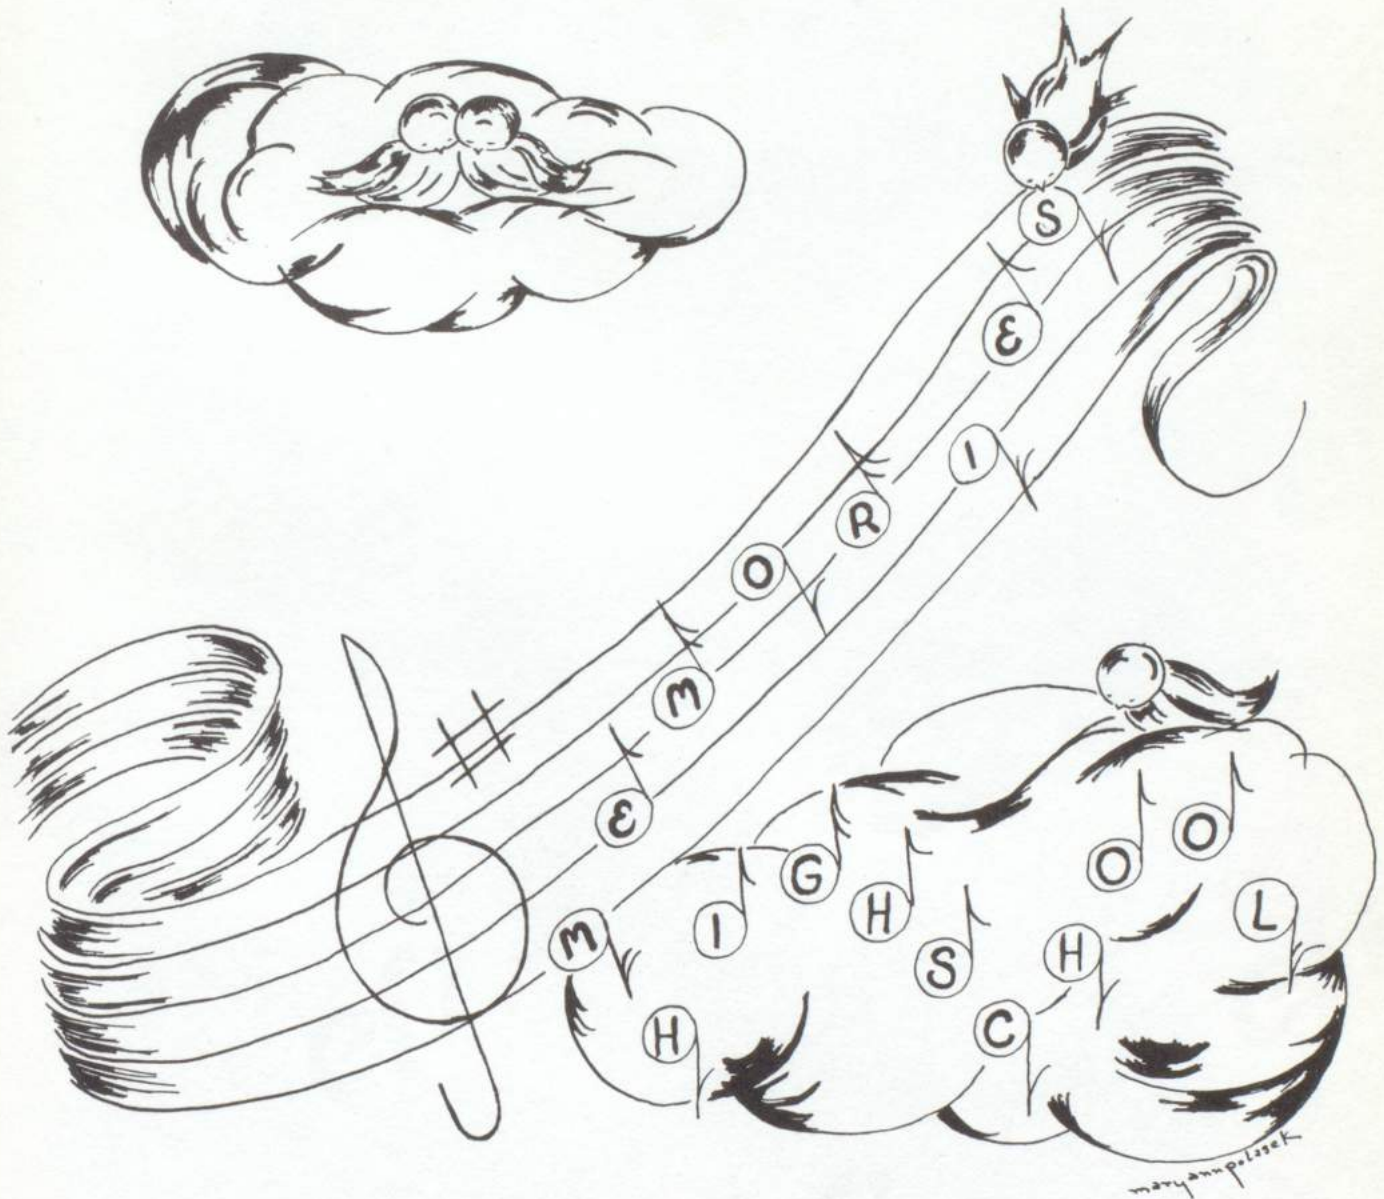

Our president, Ralph Titus, recalls just a few of the many real memories of our first year in U-E. As sophomores we believe that this year has been most important in laying the foundation for happy memories throughout our high school career. We're off to a good start.

MUSIC

"One man with a dream at pleasure can go out and conquer a crown,
And two with an old song's measure can topple a kingdom down."

—An old couplet.

Under the skillful direction of Mrs. Ruth Hughes, the U-E Choir has presented a number of successful programs this year. Although there was no Christmas concert this year, the Choir sang at the Kiwanis and Rotary Christmas luncheons, as well as presenting a Christmas program for an assembly. They also recorded at the local radio station, WENE, Christmas songs which were played throughout the holiday season.

The U-E Orchestra has completed one more successful season after participating in numerous activities. Besides playing for the many school assemblies, it has presented two annual programs. At the Winter Concert, the orchestra played "Waltz of the Flowers" from the "Nutcracker Suite," "El Relicario" by Jose Patilla, and "The Russian Sailor's Dance" by Gliere. Aldo Borromei was trumpet soloist in "Pavanne" by Morton Gould, and Mario Darpino played Von Weber's "Concertino" for clarinet.

At the Spring Concert, the orches-

"DOWNBEAT"

A trombonist who composed and scored a march gets a chance to direct the orchestra's performance of his composition.

"SECOND TO NONE"

Leigh Allard, Patricia Airey and Luciano Rizzi, last year's Arion Music Award winners admire this token of their outstanding achievements in the music organizations.

"SLIDUS TROMBONUS"

Mr. Ostling and his trombone class are the only ones who get along by letting things "slide."

BAND DAY AT CORNELL

For many years the University of Michigan has sponsored a "Band-Day," and many high school bands in the vicinity of the University have been invited to attend a game and put on a half-time show. Cornell University decided to start a similar movement this year and invited over thirty high school bands to Schoellkopf Field for the Cornell-Rice game. The bands all gathered on the field before the game and played two marches. They also played a few marches during the quarter time-outs and after the Cornell band's half-time show. As you can see from the picture, U-E had the largest band attending this first "Band-Day" at Cornell.

"ALL-SET FOR ALL-STATE"

CELEBRATING TWENTY-FIVE

"TOKEN OF REMEMBRANCE"

Committee Chairman Richard Lamon presents Mr. Ostling with a trophy representing the sections of the organizations he has taught. In the foreground is guest speaker Elvin Freeman.

THE BANQUET

On May 1, 1953, occurred the celebration of twenty-five years of U-E high school bands. In honor of Mr. Acton E. Ostling, who has directed the band each of these twenty-five years, a committee, made up of band and drum corps alumni, planned a tribute banquet. This committee, headed by Mr. Richard Lamon, worked for over a year in order to make this dinner a success, sent out letters and telegrams, made phone calls, and tried to contact every past member of these two organizations, even those in other parts of the world. Mr. Elvin Freeman, a friend of Mr. Ostling's in college, a sousaphone player for many years with the Sousa and Pryor bands, a man who has been very active in New York State school music, was selected as guest speaker. On banquet night, over five hundred past members of the band and drum corps with their friends and families filled the E-J Recreation Center for a ham dinner in Mr. Ostling's honor. Mr. Freeman gave a very amusing and interesting talk, which contained some experiences he had had and stories he knew about the honored guest. Richard Lamon, chairman, presented Mr. Ostling with a unique trophy which contained parts of three instruments to represent the various groups that Mr. Ostling has taught. Mr. Ostling was also given a three-speed console record player from the alumni and present band. Band and drum corps alumni who made up the general committee were: Mr. Douglas Burt, Mr. Francis Goss, Mr. Richard Lamon, Mr. Edgar Marthens, Mr. Philip Taylor, Mr. Lee Bishop, and Mr. Banks Koch. It was a very enjoyable occasion for all who turned out to pay tribute to Mr. Ostling's twenty-five years as "Our Director."

Mr. Elvin Freeman acknowledges the applause and presents the band after his appearance as guest conductor.

"THE OLD AND THE NEW"

This is a balcony view of the returning alumni, combined with the high school band to present the second portion of the concert.

THE CONCERT

Since this was the twenty-fifth band concert and also Mr. Ostling's twenty-fifth year, it was decided that the tribute banquet and band concert should be a combined affair. It was also decided that the alumni should be invited back to perform at this concert. After many months of preparation, the "all-band" concert was ready. The first part of the concert was presented by the regular high school band. This portion was highlighted by the reappearance of Mr. Elvin Freeman, who conducted two numbers. It is interesting to note that the band had never been over these numbers with the guest conductor, but they were on their toes and followed him almost as if he were Mr. Ostling.

In Part II of the concert, all the alumni who wanted to return and play a group of selections with the high school band were invited. They played a program which included the first march ever played by a U-E Band, the first descriptive piece, the first novelty, etc. Peter Turkow, a drum soloist who once won first division at a national contest, repeated the performance of that solo. A cornet trio, whose members live in this area and still play their instruments, repeated the performance of a trio that also received a first division at a national contest. The whole concert was ended by the playing of a stirring march. This piece was written by Mr. Ostling and is the only march of its kind, for in the finale it combines the colonial fifes and drums with the band. All in all, the banquet and concert combination proved a thrilling evening and a grand experience for all concerned.

"FEATURING ENDICOTT'S FIRST CITIZEN"

BUILDING A BAND SHOW

PLANNING

The picture above shows the device that is used by our directors, Mr. Ostling and Mr. Stahl, for planning a half-time pageant. This set contains a scale-model football field and a number of small metal men and is used to observe just how a formation will look from the stadium. Figure A is a replica of a chart Mr. Stahl uses to aid him in placing band members. This chart shows a football field as if one were directly over the fifty-yard line. Note that the formation looks too high and elongated. This is necessary so that the formation will look right when viewed from the stadium as in Figure B. This formation is one that was part of the marching band's "Heart of the West" show, the western steer complete with rolling eyes. More planning goes into a football show than one would realize, and our hats are off to Mr. Ostling and Mr. Stahl, who have planned and will continue to plan the best half-time pageantry in this area.

REHEARSING

This picture at the right shows Mr. Stahl conducting the band during a Tuesday rehearsal. Planning is just part of building a band show, and drilling on the field is only part of producing this show. A "perfectly marched" show is very ineffective with poor music; this also works the other way. Although most of the drill goes on marching, the band must still spend one rehearsal on the "music for half-time" during the football season. Mr. Stahl and Mr. Harrison Schmoll are the "drill masters" of the band, and we are grateful to them for their outstanding job.

ORGANIZATIONS

I cannot but remember such things were,
that were most precious to me.—Shakespeare

TRI-HI CLUB

The Tri-Hi Girls' Club is the largest and the most active of our school's organizations. This, its twenty-third year, was successfully completed under the direction of its founder, Miss Gladys Mersereau, girls' counselor. This year two hundred girls joined Tri-Hi.

Among its numerous activities are sports. Last year in June, six girls who had the highest final scores in archery were chosen to compete at Syracuse with others from the state. Archery, bowling, card-playing, and swimming have been popular this year.

Tri-Hi sponsors three annual dances—the "All U-E Night," the Christmas Formal, and the Spring Formal, which were all successful this year.

Last year in April, a group of girls, with Miss Hollister and Mrs. Vartuli as chaperons, took an educational trip to New York City, where they visited the United Nations Building, the Statue of Liberty, the Haydn Planetarium, and other interesting sights. This second affair was so successful that plans were made this year for a third trip.

As this club realizes the importance of further education, it has maintained the College Loan Fund. Several former Tri-Hi members have been assisted by this fund.

Best of luck to Tri-Hi Club, '54-'55!

Clockwise: Agnes Barno, Joan Ciotoli, Susan Daly, Georgiana Decker, Kay English, Barbara Kositsky, Barbara LaBelle, Joan

Meeker, Jo-Anne Miner, Theresa Monaco, Marjorie Moore, Rose Marie Pitarra, Patricia Rossi, Gay Rought, Debra Simmonds, Julie Suchy, Rita Wickizer.

FRENCH CLUB

Seated: Catherine McNaughton, Mary Bussa, Georgia Machotka, Robert Parke, John Selner, Barbara Welsh, Susan Murray.

Standing: Susan Daly, Sandra Stone, Debra Simmonds, Frances Fairchild, Carolyn King, Barbara Phillips, Carol Hanafin, Margaret Malia, Celeste Maggiore, Miss Mealy, Ruth Anne Selner, Barbara Silway, Nancy Sawicki, Rose Marie Pitarra, Jo-Anne Miner, Paula Bochnak.

"Le Cercle Francais," as the French Club is called by its members, began in the autumn of '53. Under the excellent direction of Miss Janet Mealy, it continues to be as enterprising a group as it was in the past. With two male members and more sophomores than usual helping to form the club, the members elected John Selner, president; Barbara Welsh, vice-president; Susan Murray, secretary; and Robert Parke, treasurer.

The French Club met each first and third Friday of the month and held its annual French Cafe Dance in the spring of '54. It also endeavored to be more of an unselfish and beneficial group by sending a CARE package to a family in France. Although French has never been spoken at the meetings, the group attempted to improve itself in the understanding of French and the country of France. They were aided in this when they attended a lecture for all the language groups, given by Miss Josephine Rano, Community Ambassador.

SENIOR LATIN CLUB

The Senior Latin Club, although late this past year in forming, accomplished much in the meetings held monthly. As there were three groups of members within the club, James Cuddy was elected consul, representing the fourth year students; Michael Beirne was elected tribune from the Cicero students; and John Mee was elected aedile to represent those who had taken third year Latin but were not continuing into a fourth year. The group of about twenty-nine, not only learned more interesting facts about Latin and its history, but also endeavored to be a good social club as well. Under Miss Hollister's experienced guidance, the club celebrated St. Valentine's Day with reports about the history of the day and true lovers from mythology. They celebrated the Ides of March with reports and a discussion of Caesar's life. Also, they attended the lecture for language groups, given by Miss Josephine Rano, Community Ambassador, and benefited much from her talk about her trip to Europe.

First row: Alice Shaffer, Susan Fish, Nancy Malowicky, James Cuddy, Michael Beirne, John Mee, Hazel Depew, Nancy Sawicki, Tina Starikov.

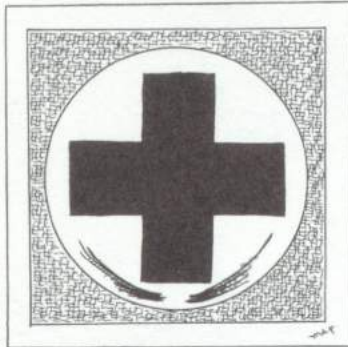

Second row: Ethel Harmon, Phillip Colella, Bob Walters, Bruce Dent, David Titus, Jerry Orman, Robert Clune, Michael Colella, Mary Emmons.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB

The Friendship Club, under the guidance of Miss Coveney, had a very busy year. It joined the National Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America. During the year the members raised money for the club by putting on a bake sale. The girls had a party at Christmas time. The club sent a CARE package to a needy person in Europe. The officers of the club, chosen by the members, are Susan Fish, president; Antoinette Scrufari, vice-president; and Sandra Varga, secretary.

Front row: Susan Fish, Antoinette Scrufari, Sandra Varga, Joanne Materese, Judy Armstrong.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

Under the direction of Mrs. Vartuli, the Junior Red Cross undertook several projects this year. First, it elected its officers: Carol Lawton, president; Marlene Becker, vice-president; Irene Fetcenko, secretary; Jack Benjamin, treasurer.

Next, it held a drive in the form of a membership contest. Miss Vogelgsang's 110 and Mrs. Dodge's 213 won, with Mr. Anderson's 102 close-by in third place. This drive resulted in the enrollment of the entire school for the first time in the Junior Red Cross.

Next, the Junior Red Cross sponsored the Sadie Hawkins' Day Dance to which members from the high schools in the Triple Cities were invited.

Lastly, the club sponsored the Art Project, in which they exchanged posters with a European country. The purpose of this project was to promote better relations between countries.

Mr. Crooks-Faculty Adviser

The Student Government, which has become an institution of the highest standing in U-E, has proved to be a government organized in the finest American tradition. There are two bodies—the Senate, elected from the individual classes, and the House of Representatives, elected from each homeroom. The Senate meets the fifth period each Monday, and the House of Representatives meets the fifth period each Tuesday, under the skilled direction of Mr. Crooks.

GOVERNMENT

House of Representatives

With William Ivan as president, presiding over the Senate, Theresa Monaco as secretary of the Senate, and with Ray Fratino as Speaker of the House, the group attended this year several Student Council conferences for all high schools in the Triple Cities. During the Christmas season, it continued last year's policy and decorated the school with lights, thus adding to the town's decorations. The many dances which contributed to the Council's treasury, established a scholarship fund and was most proud of its adopting a war orphan.

TECHNICAL CLUB

Standing in second row: Mr. Richard Klett, faculty adviser; Richard Youmans, Robert Seniska, Rodney Swartwood, Richard Klett, Dominic Felice, Ronald Mrva, Ralph Kocik, Wayne Lindblom, Ray Fahring, Robert Lorence, Edward deVente, Richard Tyler, Earl Jackson, Richard DeMore, Mr. John Woodruff, faculty adviser.

Third row: Mr. James Longwell, faculty adviser; Lloyd Correll, Kenneth Jones, Ronald Jordan, Walter Szarchara, Charles Sakowsky, Paul Koman, Charles Bradt, Bruce VanHorn.

Mr. J. N. Longwell and Emery Gasparek about to board the plane en route to Detroit, as outstanding award winners of The National Industrial Arts Awards Contest.

Emery Gasparek was one of the three students in New York State who were winners of outstanding achievement awards in 1953. Mr. Longwell was one of two teachers in New York State to win this honor.

The winning project was a drill jig on which Emery worked in Machine Design Class and Machine Shop. Emery and his shop teacher were awarded outstanding achievement awards for the high quality of workmanship shown in building the project.

Technical Students who received recognition for shop projects and drawings entered in the National Industrial Arts Awards Contest.

Seated, left to right: Joseph Giallo and Richard Starr.

Standing: Dale Bennett, Joseph Funari, and Donald Weller.

Others honored but not in the picture are John Nosal, and Emery Gasparek.

The area chapter of the American Society of Tool Engineers awarded a "Tool Engineer's Handbook" to Robert de Vente, who was selected by a committee of technical teachers as the technical graduate of the year judged to be most likely to succeed in technical work.

The Technical Club awarded $5 to Willard McCarty, who was selected by the committee of technical teachers as the outstanding technical graduate of the year.

ITALIAN CLUB

Front row: Philomena Santarelli (standing), Gina Diorio, Palma Vivona, Albina Foglia, Christina Cannavino, Shirley Vallone, Delia Todini, Agatha Curatolo.

Back row: Gina Fiacco, Mary Cicchini, Dorothea Pitarra, Virginia Mollica, Grace Palmisano, Rosemarie DiTommaso, Rosemarie Ciccarelli, Adelina Alimonti, Edda Mosca, Patricia Hopko, Antoinette Frate.

The goal of the Italian Club is to understand the Italian language better, to promote understanding of another nation, and to plan activities in which the members wish to engage.

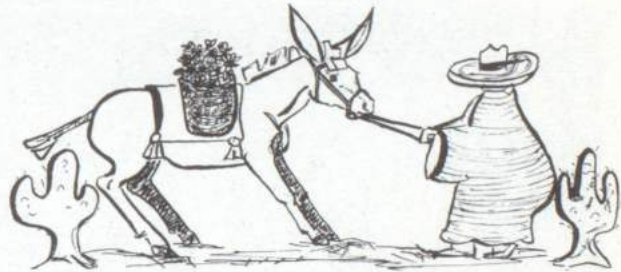

The officers of the club are: President, Judy Pero; vice-president, Filomena Santarelli; secretary-treasurer, Agatha Curatolo.

One of the main activities of the organization is to sponsor a dance, which has become a yearly affair.

SPANISH CLUB

The principal aim of the Spanish Club this year was to promote better understanding of the Spanish language and of Spanish culture. The club is under the supervision of Mr. Carl Zonio. Its officers are John Mee, president; Jo Ann Stage, vice-president, and Albina Foglia, secretary - treasurer.

The group heard several informative talks during the year about Mexico and Spain. Mr. Guiseppe Maccarrone, Chief of the Division of Administrative Career, Ministry of Education, Italy, advised the members how to improve national understanding between our country and those abroad.

KEY CLUB

Second row: Peter Sylvester, Michael Beirne, David Bouton, Reese Kintzing, Robert Hultslander, Patrick O'Brien, Robert Walters, Richard Hover, Robert Bovier, Clayton Lowe.

Third row: Michael Colella, David Stevens, Carlo Evangelisti, David Titus, Hubert Smith, Ronald Terpak, James Cahill, William Cunningham.

The Key Club is an international organization, sponsored by Kiwanis in cooperation with the school, to build the leaders of tomorrow.

Key Club members are chosen according to their leadership ability and scholastic standing in the school.

The Club holds its dinner meetings each Monday in Room 14. The Club's meetings are under the direction of James Cuddy, president; Raymond Fratino, vice-president; Edwin Gent, secretary; Ronald Hummel, treasurer; and Philip Colella, sergeant-at-arms. A large amount of the Club's work is accomplished during the meetings, but most of it is done by organized committees. Mr. Thurber, a member of the high school faculty, and Mr. Leasure, chairman of the Kiwanis Key Club Committee, are the Club's advisers.

Some of the Club's activities this year are: publishing and selling programs at home games, monitoring at fire drills, presenting money to the Christmas fund for needy families, and ushering at Open House.

With its capable leaders and advisers, the Key Club is destined for another year of success.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Front row: Shirley Vallone, Noreen Swindler, Kathleen Oakley, Phyllis Winters, Barbara Slade, Barbara Casteline, Marlene Haycook, Sally Begeal, Mary Bussa.

Second row: Carol Brain, Joyce Reardon, Darlene Wavkulich, Rita Lenka, Anna Quercia, Vivian Gage, Antoinette Tanzini, Nancy Buchek, Jacqueline McPherson.

Back row: Christina Cannavino, Dawn Pierce, Josephine Manoli, Barbara Campbell, Jacquelyn Burbank, Marianne Misulich, Jan Hankison, Joyce Cooper, Sue Lucia, Patricia Zwirek, Annmarie Dzupinka, Alice Szezepanski, Filomena Musa, Carol Hultslander.

This club is for the sophomore, junior, and senior business students. Under the direction of Miss Kniskern, the members try to become better acquainted with the business life of the community.

During the year, the club had various speakers who discussed the business world.

The members went on field trips to observe first hand the business life of our community. Some of these trips took them to the Post Office, E. J. Sales Building, the Radio Station, and the Newspaper Office.

The club's officers are Barbara Casteline, president; Barbara Slade, secretary, and Phyllis Winters, treasurer.

CREATIVE WRITING CLUB

Seated: Irene Fetcenko, Carol Chestnut, Harry Koutoukas, Vincenza DeMatteis.

Standing: Charlotte Vandermark, Paul Koutoukas.

This club of only six members, although the smallest organization in U-E, has diligently carried on the study of writing under the direction of Mrs. Finch, head of the English Department. This small group meets in the cafeteria fifth period every other Monday. As assignments, the members have written word pictures, short stories, essays, poems, and plays. Officers of the club are Harry Koutoukas, president; Vincenza DeMatteis, vice-president, and Carol Chestnut, secretary-treasurer.

LIBRARY CLUB

Left to right: Gwen Labouseur, Mary Saraceno, Mary Bailey, Paul Koutoukas, Nancy Holland, Helene Williams, Edna Davis, Joan Mikolowski, Judith McCarthy, Linda Every.

The Library Club, under the guidance of Miss Sick, learns the fundamentals of library work, such as shelving books, filing catalog cards, and writing reviews of books, at which work each member is responsible for 120 hours.

The club has social events held in private homes. At these get-togethers, they have instructive programs with each pupil taking part. At these meetings, Helene Williams, president, presides.

Mary Bailey presents an artistic Library display.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Bottom row, left to right: Robert Clouse, James Driscoll, Gale Bennett, Charles Manning, Kenneth Baldwin.

Second row: Robert Ayers, George Edmunds, David Haines, Eugene Mason, Gerald Shirley, Gerald Coleman, Albert Fagnoli, John Mushock, Harry Wasnechak.

Third row: Robert Morey, Bruce Rought, Robert Carlton, Raymond Muhlbauer, Edward Sick, Kenneth Robinson, Robert VanBurger.

Future Farmers of America, which has the distinction of being the first club organized in U-E, has always been one of the high school's most active organizations.

The purpose of this club is to teach its members parliamentary procedure and to study local agricultural conditions.

For the past two years, the Future Farmers Club has won the Broome-Tioga Agriculture Basketball Championship and hopes to be victor again next year.

U-E's Future Farmers Judging Team has taken part in judging contests at Delhi, Morrisville, Virgil, Candor and Homer.

The group went in a body to Farm and Home Week at Cornell in March and took a week-end Easter vacation trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo to go on an inspection tour of a feed mill, a slaughter house, and a fertilizer factory.

Fourth row: George Zur, John Cox, Fred Vasilchik, David Wheeler, John Gyles, Cosmo Parisi.

The Orange Tornado of U-E, although its win-loss record did not excel last year's record, was again this year to all U-E fans the uncrowned champion of the Southern Tier Conference.

At the opening of the football season, local newspapers picked U-E as one of the teams most likely to finish the season in the "number-one position" in the Conference; but, as the season progressed, this theory was to be doubted and was later disproved. Although U-E did not succeed in capturing the first place position in the Conference, the team did succeed in providing the fans with thrill after thrill in each game.

Under the guidance of Joe Brill and Tony Ciaravino, halfbacks Ralph Weiland and Paul DePaolo, behind the powerful U-E line, made long and frequent jaunts against opposing teams while Bob Daglio picked up the needed yards when U-E was in distress.

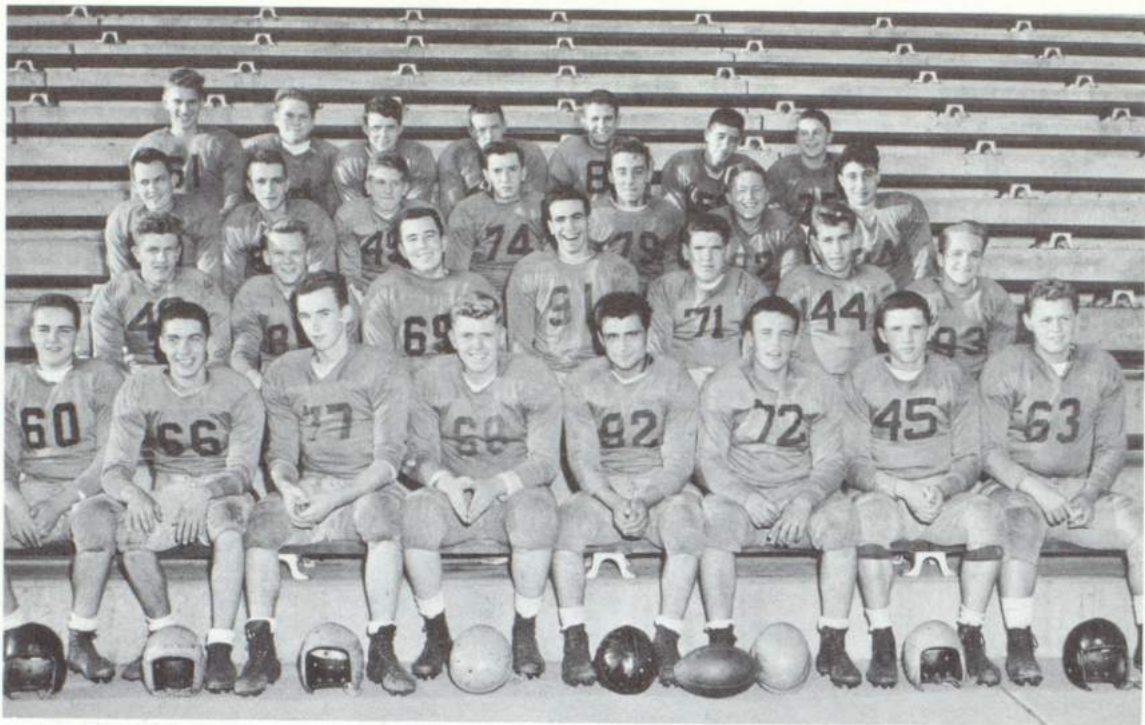

The "Tiger's" over-all record of 5 wins, 2 losses and 1 tie was acquired in the following manner: Elmira Free Academy 31, U-E 12; U-E 25, Binghamton North 25; U-E 7, Vestal 2; U-E 12, Johnson City 0; U-E 26, Utica Proctor 13; U-E 26, Elmira South Side 12; Ithaca 12, U-E 0; U-E 31, Binghamton Central 7.

Two members of this year's hard fighting squad were placed on the All Southern Tier Conference team. They are Bob Daglio and Tony Ciaravino. From this year's team, which was one of the hard-fighting teams that "Ty" Cobb produces annually, Paul DePaolo was chosen the most improved player of the year.

Win or lose, "Ty" Cobb has once again achieved success, not only by winning, but by teaching the boys on his squad the real meaning of sportsmanship and fair play.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

First row: Robert Wolfe, George Evan, David Wheeler, William Crawford, Philip DiOrio, Richard Battista, Thomas Cullen, Robert Parke.

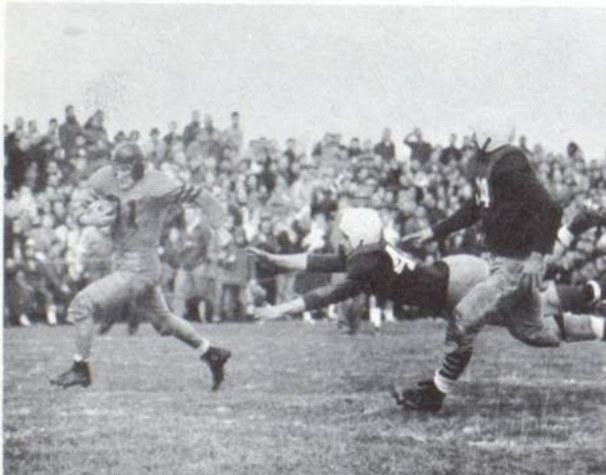

Second row: John Danton, William Dodge, Michael Borelli, Richard Lisi, Thomas Kurkowski, Bruce Hamilton, Mel Saddlemire.

Fourth row: Fred Vasilchik, John Garthner, John Gyles, John Cox, Angelo Bontempo, Robert Paglia, Sam Salvatore.

Under the skillful coaching of Vito Popelka, "the U-E Varsity Team of Tomorrow" ended a rugged and hard-fought season with a record of 3 wins and 2 losses. With losses to Binghamton North and Vestal, the J.V. team, gaining momentum as the season progressed, went on to defeat Johnson City twice and Binghamton Central once.

"NOT QUITE"

Halfback Paul Depaolo successfully eludes two tacklers and goes on into pay dirt for six points.

"ALMOST PERSUADED"

A headless Central defender has almost convinced Ralph Weiland that he has eaten up enough grid-iron yardage.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

First row: Alex Russin, Jack Pete Sylvester, Gene Battaglini, Robert Clune.

Second row: Coach Roland Friderich, Ray Fratino, Emil Seliga, Mike Bierne, Dick Hover, Bill Coughlin, Joe Bendert, Fred Franta, manager.

Starting his last season with only one letter man, Coach Rollie Friderich led his charges to an 11-5 overall record. U-E finished in third place in the Southern Tier Conference race with a 5-5 mark.

Sparked by the aggressiveness of Captain Pete Sylvester, the magic shooting of all-star Gene Battaglini, and the never-say-die spirit of Jack Selner, the Orange Tornado, impressed all as an up-and-coming ball club. In Bill Coughlin, the Tornado had one of the STC's best reserves, whose sharp-shooting at crucial moments pulled many tight games from the fire.

U-E lost to Central in a first round sectional playoff by a score of 57-50. Although leading all the way, the tired Tornado team was outclassed in the last quarter.

Coach Friderich compiled a 131-97 career record at U-E. None of his former players will ever doubt the quality of his coaching ability.

"CONGRATULATIONS"

Jack Lawton, Gene Battaglini, and Bill Coughlin join coach Friderich in praising the basketball squad's elected captain, Pete Sylvester.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

First row: Ronald Greene, George Matola, Mario Sylvester, Tony Ciaravino, Gary Toulson, Art Riegall.
Second row: Coach Vito Popelka, Robert Butchko, Harold Crawford, Ralph Titus, Ken Newcombe, Charles Tarricone, Dick Battista, Bob Humphreys, Gene Pastrick, manager.

The U-E jayvees, showing good sportsmanship all the way, completed the season by matching the varsity's 11-5 record. On Coach Vito Popelka's team, the scoring honors were evenly distributed among the regulars with Tony Ciaravino, Art Riegall, George Matola and Gary Toulson leading the parade.

BOWLING

First row: Ronald Terpak, Richard Mooney, Larry Barton, Dave Carlson, Bryant Wood, Gordon Loveless.
Second row: James Shuttak, Gerry Wilcox, James Warner, Dominic Pozzi, Charles Fitch.

The bowling team, under Coach Paul McCormack, has had another fine season with 19 wins out of 24 games to take the Triple Cities High School crown. This year the team elected Gerald Wilcox as president and Dominick Pozzi and Peter Panko as co-secretaries. Pozzie has bowled over 500 in every match and with the good scores of the rest of the team, they look forward to a good showing at the Sectionals on March 27.

TRACK

Second row: Gary Young, Tom Ede, Ray Fratino, Bob Osborne, Bryant Wood, Bill McManus, Paul DePaolo, coach Vito Popelka.

Third row: Paul Rizzuto, Jack Lawton, Kryle Isenburg, Dick Hoover, David Bouton, Reese Kintzing, Gerald Pease, coach Theodore Conwicke.

Fourth row: Alvin Reinecke, Warren Norton, Ted Gordon, Tom Cullen, Lawrence Green, William Richion, Lou Paglia, coach C. Burdette Parkhurst.

The 1953 track team had a fine season with Kevin Conwicke setting a Triple Cities' discus record of 145 feet, 3 inches. With the exception of a second place in the Quadrangular Meet and a tie with Vestal, the team won all the rest of its meets, beating Central, North, Ithaca, Johnson City and capturing first place in the Section IV Meet at Ithaca.

To wind up the season, several of the teammates traveled to West Point to compete in a statewide meet in which Ed Sochor, faring the best of the Endicotters, placed fourth in the hurdles.

"JUST A LITTLE MORE"

With every muscle strained, U-E's Bob Neira gives his all in order to win the 100-yard dash.

CROSS COUNTRY

Front row, left to right: Donald Piatt, Robert Breno, Robert Osborne, Bryant Wood, Gerry Pease, Richard DePofi.

Second row: Robert Bennett, John Breno, Gerald Orman, Reese Kintzing, David Bouton, John Mee.

Third row: Francis Giacobelli, Leroy Miller, Lawrence Green, Richard Bosket, James George.

Fourth row: Coach Theodore Conwicke, Alvin Reinicke, Nick Ruggieri.

The Cross Country team, during the past season, lost in a single meet to a good Vestal team but won two of its three dual meets. The U-E squad was sparked by a senior, Bryant Wood, and a junior, Bob Osborne, who finished second place and sixth place respectively in the Vestal Invitational Meet. The team rounded out a fine season with Wood placing fourth in the Inter-sectional Meet at Schenectady.

BASEBALL

First row: Gerald Wilcox, Carmine Crescente, Anthony Pero, Nicholas Komanowski, Edward Bilik, Joseph Orlando, Alfred Yankovich.

Second row: Ronald DiPietro, Mike D'Aloisio, Al Seliga, Donald Mundell, Bruno Colapietro, John Robble, Lawrence Beuter.

"ALMOST OUT"

Unless this Vestal first baseman makes a "bobble," it looks as if he will eliminate Joe Orlando.

Sparked by the fine pitching of John Robble and powerful hitting of Ed Bilik, the U-E "Tigers," with a record of 8 wins and 4 losses, won the Eastern Division of the Southern Tier Conference. In the final playoff game for the championship, U-E lost a 9-8 "heartbreaker" to Elmira South Side, winner of the Western Division.

VOLLEYBALL

The U-E volleyball team's 8-19 won-lost record, while not impressive, represents 27 highly-contested games. Under "Ty" Cobb's coaching, U-E finished third in league play and second in Section IV.

GOLF

Second row: Henry Shearer, Charles Putrino, Leroy Shearer, Franklin Sinclair.

Invincible for two consecutive years, the U-E golf team, under Coach Nick DiNunzio, has now extended the number of "unbeaten seasons" to three consecutive years. With almost flawless stroking, the "Tigers" swept every tournament in their path and took first place in the Southern Tier Conference, the Sectionals, and also in the State Intersectional Match at I.B.M. Country Club. Furthering the team's fame was Ron Terpak, who competed in the William Randolph Hearst Tournament at Birmingham, Michigan, and the National J.C.C. Tournament at Ann Arbor, Michigan.

CHEERLEADERS

GIRLS' SPORTS

Among our memories, the friendships made while participating in girls' sports will long be remembered.

U-E's athletic programs promote sportsmanship and good will among the girls. The many sports offered instill a spirit of friendly competition among all who participate.

Now at the close of our experiences in girls' athletics, we share some cherished memories made possible by a wonderful bunch of girls.

"WELL DONE"

The faces of Mrs. Adamek and Miss Burns reflect their pleasure as they scan a score sheet.

AWARD WINNERS

First row: Carol Duffy, Delores Forno.

Second row: Palma Longo, Helen Pipta, Julia Gorczynski.

Third row: Rosalind Bennett, Judy Pero, Waneta Sanford, Carol Podest, Grace Palmisano, Joyce Jurczak, Janet Haag, Ann Plaumann, Florence Ambrose, Jane VanDusen.

SENIOR LEADERS CLUB

First row: Officers: Sandra Benner, Patricia Gyles, Delores Forno, Carol Duffy.

Second row: Judy Pero, Florence Ambrose, Joanne Stage, Jane VanDusen, Martha Wallace, Mary Cicchini, Marie Petrilli, Ellen Swagler.

JUNIOR LEADERS' CLUB

Seated, first row: Beverly Walters, Grace Palmisano, Joyce English, Marilyn Gillette.
 Second row: Ann Ciacelli, Agnes Barno, Joan Ciotoli, Margaret Driscoll, Rosalind Bennett, Mary Frate.

"ON DOWN THE FIELD"

Sandra Benner, Gwen Labouseur, Carol Hultslander, and Margaret Driscoll run in to catch the ball kicked by Beverly Eckert during a game of speed ball.

"THE GAME IS ON"

Anne Ciacelli, Joan Ciotoli, Nancy Ward, and Mary Frate get ready to receive the hockey ball from Margaret Driscoll.

"SPIKE IT!"

One version of volleyball is the "Four-Court Volleyball." Here Sheila Burns is shown spiking the ball.

"UP, UP, IT GOES!"

These girls watch in anxious expectancy as Fran Fairchild shoots for a basket during a game.

"ANOTHER TRY"

The girls practicing basketball lay-up shots are Margaret Driscoll, Agnes Barno, Mary Ellen Weiland, and Linda Christiansen.

WINNING VOLLEYBALL TEAM

First row: Carol Montross, Susan Sturzenegger, Florence Ambrose, Rosalind Bennett, Joanne Stage.
Second row: Irene Fetcenko, Betty White, Mary Ann McQuade, Corrinne Oliver, Margaret Weiss, Agatha Curatolo.

"BALL TWO; STRIKE ONE!"

Dolores Swagler prepares to swing as Florence Ambrose pitches her the ball during a game of softball.

"DANGER—THIN ICE"

—doesn't seem to bother Sandra Stone, Shirley Menard, and Joyce Martens.

"ALL ABOARD"

—is the cry of Donna Granger, Lillian Demand, Carol Duffy, Florence Ambrose, and Waneta Sanford as they prepare to "take off" on the toboggan.

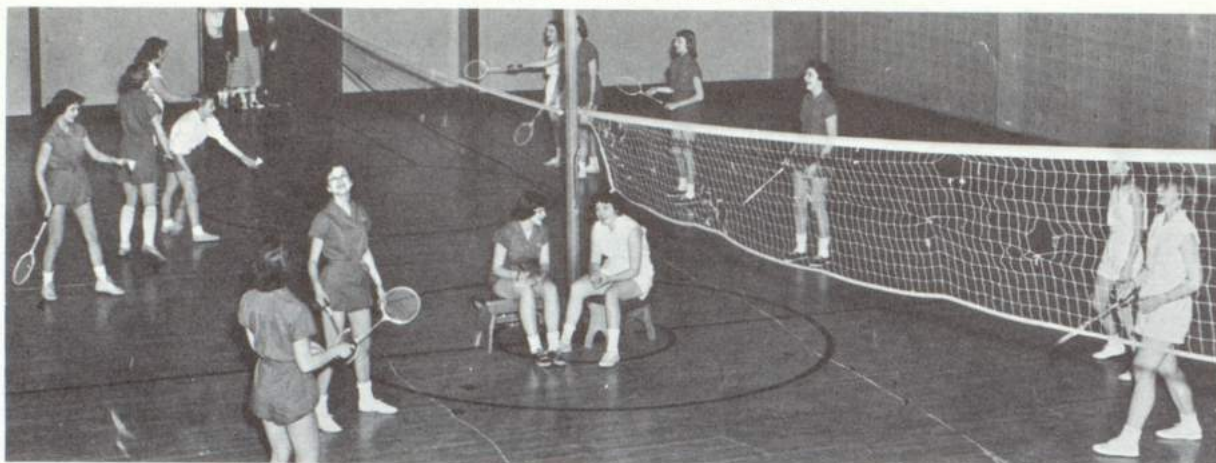

"READY, SET, GO"

Here Waneta Sanford, Jane VanDusen, Judy Pero, and Martha Wallace prepare to run the 100-yard dash during a track meet.

"WHO HAS THE BIRDIE?"

—seems to be the question as the girls engage in a game of badminton.

"AFTER THE GAME IS OVER"

Georgiana Decker, Martha Wallace, and Kay English primp before the locker room mirror.

"HOW GRACEFUL"

Mary Ann Russell and Carolyn Carr, winners of the modern dance contest, pose on the stage.

"FIFTH POSITION"

This group of girls is learning the grace and rhythm of the modern dance.

MISCELLANEOUS:

Think naught a trifle, though it small appear;
Small sands the mountain, moments make the year,
And trifles life.

—Young

Because there is a song that fits every mood and every situation in this complex life of ours, there is nothing that awakens memories oftener than songs. It is for this reason that we have chosen song titles as captions for the pictures in this section of our book.

IT'S CHRISTMAS AT U-E

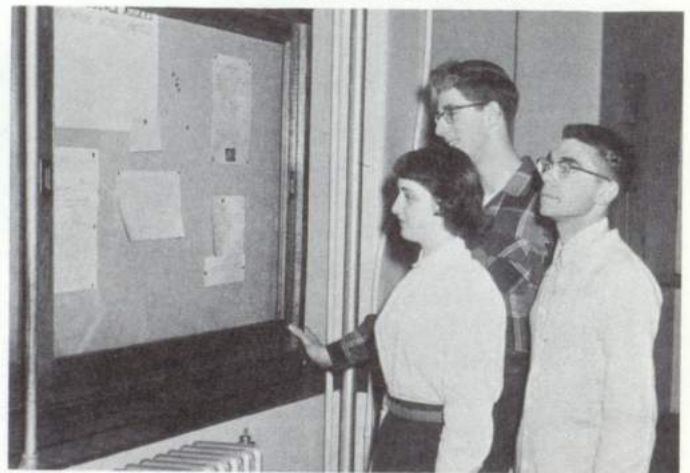

"WORK IS DONE"

Binghamton Press Photo

Judy Slose, Joan Ciotoli, Rosemary Christina, and Maureen Coleman, members of the Zephyr staff, inspect a finished art plate for the paper's cover.

"WHAT'S THE GOOD NEWS TODAY?"

Anna Shular, Bob Hultslander, and Kent Wurth scan the notices on the bulletin board.

"MY WEEK"

Week in, week out, Maureen Coleman and Rosemary Christina, reporters for the school page of the Binghamton Sunday Press, work to meet the deadline.

"SHOW ME THE WAY TO GO HOME"

Miss Brainard sells bus tokens to two of our commuters.

"I'LL BE SEEING YOU"

Mr. Robbins, Mrs. Goss, Mr. Sanford, Mrs. Kay, Mrs. Wood, and Miss Hill, all new U-E teachers, have a "get-acquainted" session.

"I'VE GOT A PAIN IN MY SAWDUST"

Our own doctor and nurse, Dr. Mallory and Miss Lesko, are usually available for all aches and pains.

"AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL"

Maureen Coleman, Tina Starikov, and Theresa Monaco receive awards for their work in the "I Speak for Democracy Contest."

"YOU'RE ON TRIAL"

Miss Mersereau seems pleased as she and her fellow counsellors, Mr. Agone and Mr. Popelka, scrutinize a student's record.

"IT'S A SIN TO TELL A LIE"

Mr. Woodard lends gallant support to Mrs. Cobb as she accepts an excuse from Rae Raymondi, while two fellow students wait their turn.

"IT HAPPENED ONCE BEFORE"

Mr. Sanford instructs a group of budding starlets in drama class.

"RUNNIN' WILD"

Confusion reigns between classes, but soon all will be quiet.

"MAY THE BEST MAN WIN"

Ralph Titus and Joyce English have a friendly sparring session over the yearbook sales competition between the sophomores and juniors.

"TYPEWRITERS' SONG"

Judy Slote, Paula Gutheil, and the other girls in secretarial practice are supervised by Mrs. Roth.

"MY LOVE, MY LIFE, MY HAPPINESS"

The girls in Miss Trainor's shorthand II and transcription class appear dedicated to their chosen vocation.

"TIME ON MY HANDS"

A typical scene in the U-E library where time is "killed" during study periods.

"THE JAPANESE SANDMAN"

Sarah Williams stands by her Japanese display in the library.

"IT'S IN THE BOOK"

As Mrs. Roberts and Joan Green look on, Norma Wallace signs up for a book that will be her companion for the remainder of the year.

"TELL ME"

A group of boys is posted on the merits of a college for men during College Day conferences.

"THREE LITTLE WORDS"

Dave Bouton sells football programs to two of U-E's fans.

"HELLO SUNSHINE"

The boys in "ag" class appear interested as Mr. White discusses modern farming methods.

"MANY TIMES"

Mr. Woodruff is checking a drawing while his students in technical mechanical drawing learn by experience that "practice makes perfect."

"I WAS LUCKY"

The boys of Mr. Norris' shop make sure of a place to hang their hats.

"SCHOOL DAYS"

This group, interested in higher education, listens to a representative from one of the many schools represented on College Day.

"I COULD WRITE A BOOK"

A class in journalism joins in an animated discussion.

"C'EST BON"

This committee from the "Class of '54" is choosing the best style for their senior rings.

"SMILES"

Happiness reigns as these boys put aside the cares of classes and prepare for an athletic event in the locker room.

"I UNDERSTAND"

A representative from Keuka College shows pictures of the school to a group of girls during College Day conferences.

"I WANT WHAT I WANT WHEN I WANT IT"

Early birds buying football tickets before the grand rush begins.

"WHY CAN'T I?"

Mr. Kaskey gives Pat Gyles last minute instructions with the help of Steve Halas, Judy Slose, and Bob Clune.

"IF I KNEW YOU WERE COMING, I'D HAVE BAKED A CAKE"

—but now you'll have to be satisfied with the pizza pie the girls are making as Mrs. Goss helps.

"I'M NEVER SATISFIED"

Julia Petrak pauses with pursed lips, seemingly bewildered by the array of foods from which she may choose, in this cafeteria scene.

"IT'S NICE TO HAVE A MAN AROUND THE HOUSE"

Mrs. Vartuli instructs the boys' homemaking class in the fine arts of baking. We wonder if that pie came out all right.

"PENNIES FROM HEAVEN"

Room 102 took the cake (cupcakes) in the Polio Drive by averaging half a dollar a person. The four students shown sampling the cakes are: Joe Barbara, Agnes Barno, Barbara LaBelle, and Ray Fratino.

"KEEP IT GAY"

Janet Mack, Jane Black, Ronald Kocak, and Ted
Brown enjoy refreshments earned by Miss Vogel-sang's home room 110, as leaders in the Red Cross Drive.

"AH, SWEET MYSTERY OF LIFE"

Junior Crawford, Richard Lisi, George Matola, and James Miller study weights and pulleys in physics "lab."

"SMOKE GETS IN YOUR EYES"

Carol King and Lois Rappaport appear confident that they can do as well in chemistry "lab" as the boys who outnumber them.

"I AIN'T GOT NO BODY"

This is a typical scene in "Doc" Turver's biology "lab."

"WITH THESE HANDS"

In Mr. Becker's class in metal working, the question seems to be, "Is this the right switch?"

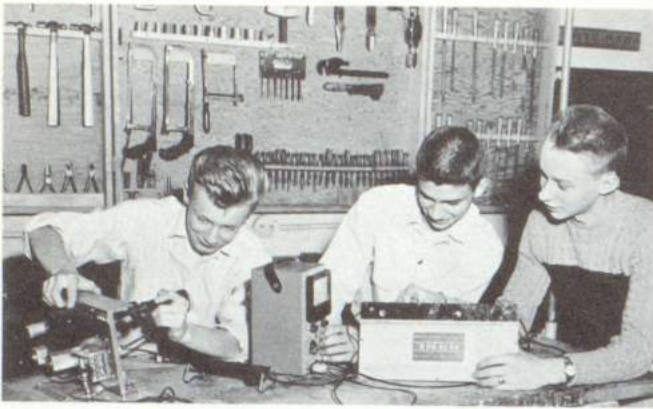

"BILLBOARDS"

An art class puts finishing touches on posters.

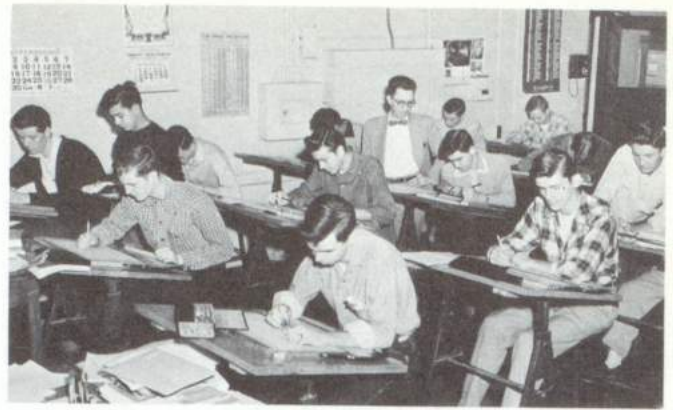

"THERE'S MUSIC IN THE AIR"

Desi McLaughlin, Vincent Deraco, and Robert Guzzey are absorbed in their work in radio shop.

"FOR ALL WE KNOW"

It may be the machine of tomorrow that is being designed by Mr. Klett's class in machine design.

"MY SECRET LOVE"

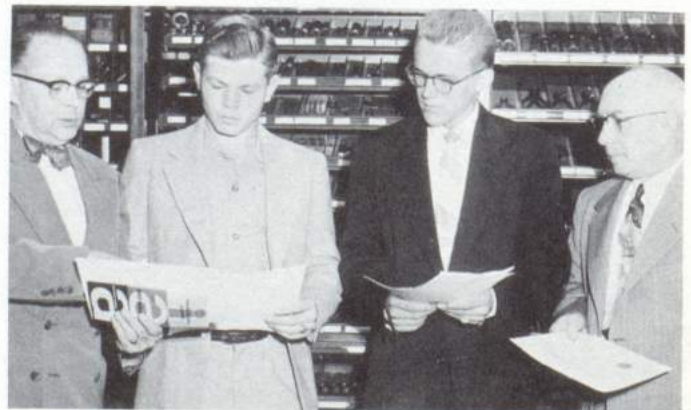

Concentration is the mode in this class in industrial mechanical drawing.

"THE DAY ISN'T LONG ENOUGH"

There is always plenty of work to keep one busy in U-E's machine shop.

"ALWAYS"

Mr. Norris and Mr. Becker discuss the Ford Motor Company Industrial Art Award Contest with the two winners from U-E, Harry Conklin and Anthony Prosinski.

"TOYLAND"

Mrs. Vartuli and Carol Young examine some of the many toys for children.

"AIN'T WE GOT FUN?"

Mr. Paolucci and some of the boys study the intricacies of the school projector.

"THERE'S NO BUSINESS LIKE SHOW BUSINESS"

—seems to be the thought of these people who took part in last year's Senior Play.

"AMERICA FOR ME"

Philomena Santarelli proudly displays her patriotic exhibit in the U-E library.

"THE MASTER PAINTER"

Mrs. Lainhart displays the art room exhibit to a parent at Open House.

"YOU'VE GOT TO BE A FOOTBALL HERO"

Binghamton Press Photo

Joe Barbara and Bob Daglio, co-captains of the football team, get together at the Kiwanis' football dinner to discuss a few plays with "Ty" Cobb and Les Dye, Syracuse University freshman coach.

"CAN'T HELP LOVIN' THAT MAN"

Here the boys carry Ty Cobb off the field after the victorious Thanksgiving Day game.

"ON, OLD U-E"

This is the group of prospective cheerleaders at their tryouts.

"YOUNG AT HEART"

This is Windy, our helpful friend.

"THAT'S FOR ME?"

"Ty" Cobb presents the Best Player of the Year Award to Paul DePaolo.

"OH HAPPY DAY"

The boys of U-E's track team are joyful as Vestal concedes them the victory.

"THIS IS MY COUNTRY"

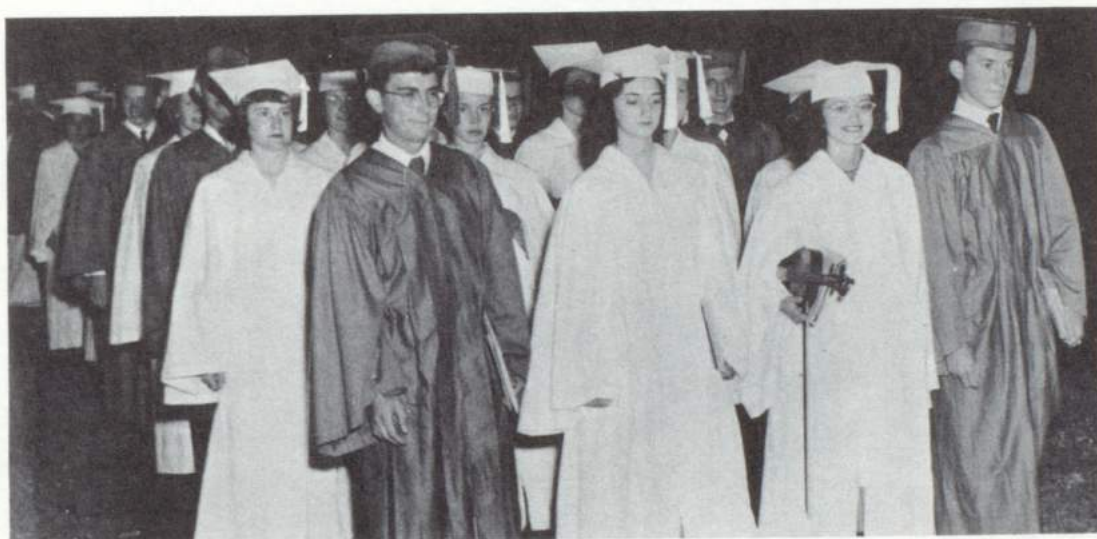

Acton Ostling, Theresa Monaco, David Bouton, Ray Fratino, Bruce Dent, Ronald Hummel, and Reese Kintzing were U-E's representatives at last year's Boys and Girls State Conventions.

"NO MAN IS AN ISLAND"

These people from our school represented us at the UN Conference at the I. B. M.

"IT'S ALL OVER BUT THE MEMORY"

Members of the '53 graduation class, led by Bruno Colapietro, walk away from Commencement exercises with their diplomas.

"THIS NIGHT I'LL REMEMBER"

Dewey Barish, head of the educational division of Ford Motor Company; Emery Gasperek, and Mr. Longwell as they appeared on television in Detroit.

"THANKS FOR THE MEMORY"

1953 winner and runner-up for the American Legion Award, Bruno Colapietro and Sara Jane Duffy, pause with the Legion Commander in front of the Legion plaque.

"THERE'S A SONG IN THE AIR"

A section of the Choir, chosen to compete in the district music contest.

"ALL GOD'S CHILLUN GOT SHOES"

Scarlet VanOrder and Pat Havrilka examine Japanese shoes in the display shown at the school through the courtesy of Endicott-Johnson.

"AT LAST"

Mr. Norris tells Richard Lindloff the correct way to do it.

"SINGING"

Members of the U-E choir receive their robes from Mrs. Roberts.

SNAPSHOTS

When you reminisce, as oft you will,
Of school days long gone by,
Just leaf through your Thesaurus;
O'er these snapshots cast your eye.
Let memories surge through you
'Til the years just waft away,
And you're once again at old U-E
With its lessons and its play.

FAREWELL

As we are turning from the swiftly moving current of our high school experiences to venture forth into different paths of life, it would profit us to keep in mind the old Czech proverb, "As you go through life, try to gain new friends but always hold on to the old ones."

THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1954

As these old Main Stairs now lead us,
The class of '54,
Away from U-E's pulsing life,
And out her open door,
May we, each one, prove worthy
Of our alma mater's name,
And may our lives henceforward
Contribute to her fame.

A. L. S.
