FOREWORD

In a world divided with hatred and suspicion, unity is our only hope. Our present is a time of strife; our future must be a time of unity. For unity is the harmony and concord we must have to face the problems which lie before this troubled world.

Unity is the individual. For we are as pebbles tossed into a pond; our high school. Since our rings of contact and influence are continually spreading, we cannot remain wrapped in ourselves.

Unity is the community. Our school has helped us build a bridge for us to cross and look to our nation and to our world.

What will give us this unity? Courage, strength, hope, and faith . . . faith in the unseen and all-powerful force which shapes and molds our lives . . . faith in every person's place in life.

Let us set forth! Life beckons! May each of us achieve unity with himself, his fellow man, and his God.

DEDICATION

For thirty years Miss Pitkin has been principal of Union Endicott High School. Knowingly or not, graduates of this school—those who have already been graduated and those who will be graduated in the future—owe much to her. She has labored unselfishly to further the interests of this school and its students.

The staff of the '61 Thesaurus respectfully dedicates this yearbook to one who has greatly enriched the traditions of our alma mater. And with this tribute go our sincere good wishes to Mary L. Pitkin in all her future endeavors. We can never hope to repay her for all these years of service; we can only say, "Thanks for a job well done!"

Eighty-five young "Latini" form the Latin Club, whose faculty advisor is Miss Frederica Hollister. This group of third and fourth year students sponsor a banquet, a carnival activity, and various fund raising activities throughout the year. This year the club has had the leadership of Diana Cole and Keith Coleman as consuls, Peter Pazzaglini as quaestor, and Betsey Barney as scribe.

DEBATE CLUB

The U-E Debate Club, only in its second year, is one of the most active and beneficial in the entire high school. Under the leadership of president Alida Wattles, and vice-president Charles Paddock, the club debates frequently with each other and with other schools. As the advisor, Mrs. Janet Smith says, "Debate has many purposes. Among them are learning self control, sportsmanship, judgment, cooperation, initiative, tact, honesty, and leadership. This is why debating is so valuable and so popular here at U-E." This year's group, after winning the regional championship last year, is looking with anxiety to the March regional tournaments and the state tournaments in May.

SPANISH CLUB

A newly reactivated club this year is the Spanish Club under the guidance of Mr. Carl Zonio. The main purpose of the club is to familiarize its members with Spanish life and customs and to further their knowledge of the Spanish language.

Projects include the presentation of educational films and records in Spanish, and lecturers to speak about the various aspects of the Spanish way of life. A banquet and picnic mark the end of the year's activities.

This year Diane Henderson served as president, Judy Thomas as vice-president, Jill Clark as secretary, and Janet Loudon as treasurer.

STANDING: Daniel Huff, Loren Puterbaugh, Paul Mitchell, Joan Testa, Carol Rogers, Pamela Forbes, Edmond Jones, Russell Frey, John Mastroe. SITTING: Carol Lombardo, Judith Thomas, Jill Clark, Joan Shenton, Janet Loudon, Frances Kondrack, Diane Henderson, Diane Cole.

"A teacher never knows how far his influence might extend." With this thought in mind, the Future Teachers of America are now becoming familiar with responsibilities that confront all teachers. Many times during the year, this group had guest teachers speak to them at informal meetings. Mr. Francis Goss is the faculty advisor while Roberta Taylor serves as president; Joyce Nelson, vice-president; Elizabeth Casey, secretary; and Patricia Nash, treasurer.

Tri-Hi, one of the largest clubs in U-E, is composed of about 200 girls. Membership is open to any girl who wishes to join an active and useful organization. The officers this year have been Susan Hill as president, Janice Vartuli as vice-president, Barbara Hayes as treasurer, and Alida Wattles as secretary.

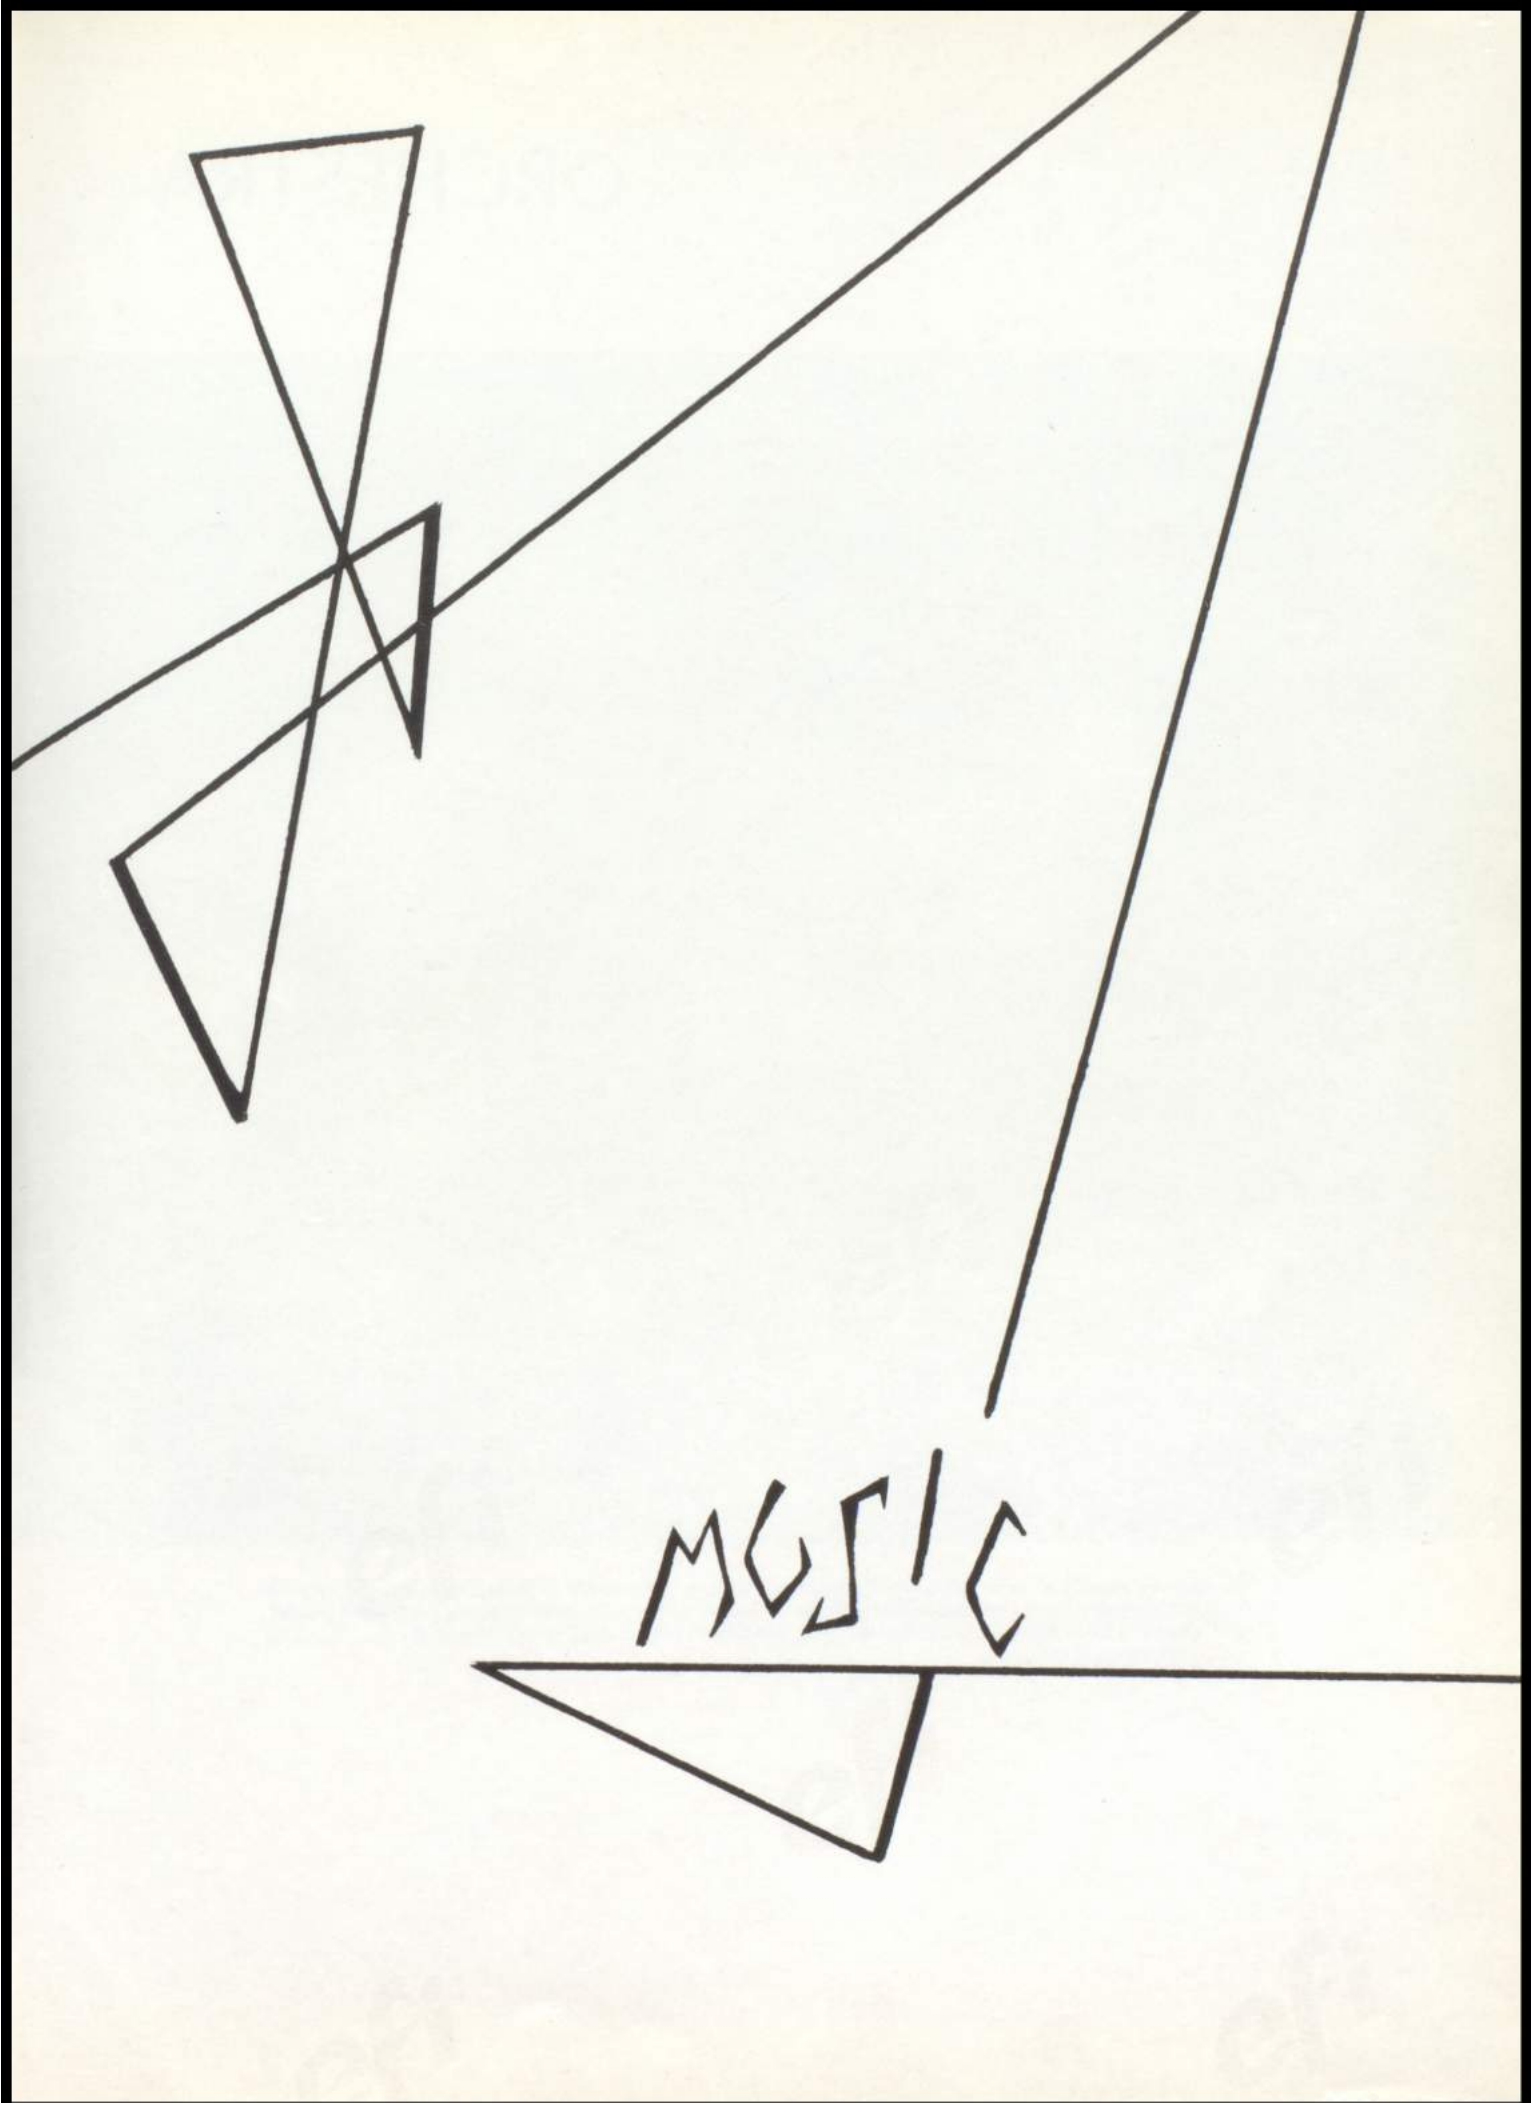

The proceeds from numerous worthwhile projects are used in a loan fund for girls who wish to further their education at a college or university. Mrs. Maude Vartuli serves as the faculty advisor.

TECH CLUB

Rodney Dryer, Peter Babuka, Rodney Moore, John Conklin, Russell Caforio, Ronald Macan, Raymond Hardy, Richard Matyas, Emil Kotasek, James Harvey, Walter Faber, Gerald Smith.

Under the leadership of Emil Kotasek, president; John Conklin, treasurer; and Mr. John Woodruff, faculty advisor, Tech Club plans another active year. This will include visits to industrial plants and college campuses in order that its members might discover opportunities in various technical careers.

TIME OUT

If there is anything that is immortal it is influence. Just as a rebuff can eventually build a mountain of hate, an outstretched hand, a kind deed, an encouraging word can forge a chain of kindness that increases with each generation.

Barney Goodfellow's influence was this latter type. For the most part it was unnoticed, even by those who received it; but sometime in the future, a man will be tempted and he will resist because of what Barney had taught him. Someone else will give help without thought of return and thus spread his influence.

It is with this knowledge that with great sincerity and admiration we of the Thesaurus take time out to pay our last respects to our own beloved Harold S. Goodfellow.
