FOREWORD

"Unity is the goal toward which mankind moves ceaselessly." Unity is found in the heart of the home, it grows in the curriculum of our vast educational system; it is carried by man into all fields.

Unity is conceived in the family. As a child depends upon his parents for love, security, and guidance, similarly parents depend upon each other for the best welfare of their home and children. Unless their thoughts and actions are harmonious this unity cannot be nurtured. This lesson taught and lived in the home establishes a pattern which we follow in life.

Our vast educational system continues this lesson. Although there is no subject called "unity" nor any classroom instruction on "unity," the lesson is still there. The loyalty of a student to his school and to his instructors, and the interest a teacher takes in the student and the guidance he gives are like a thread interwoven into the fine tapestry of unity.

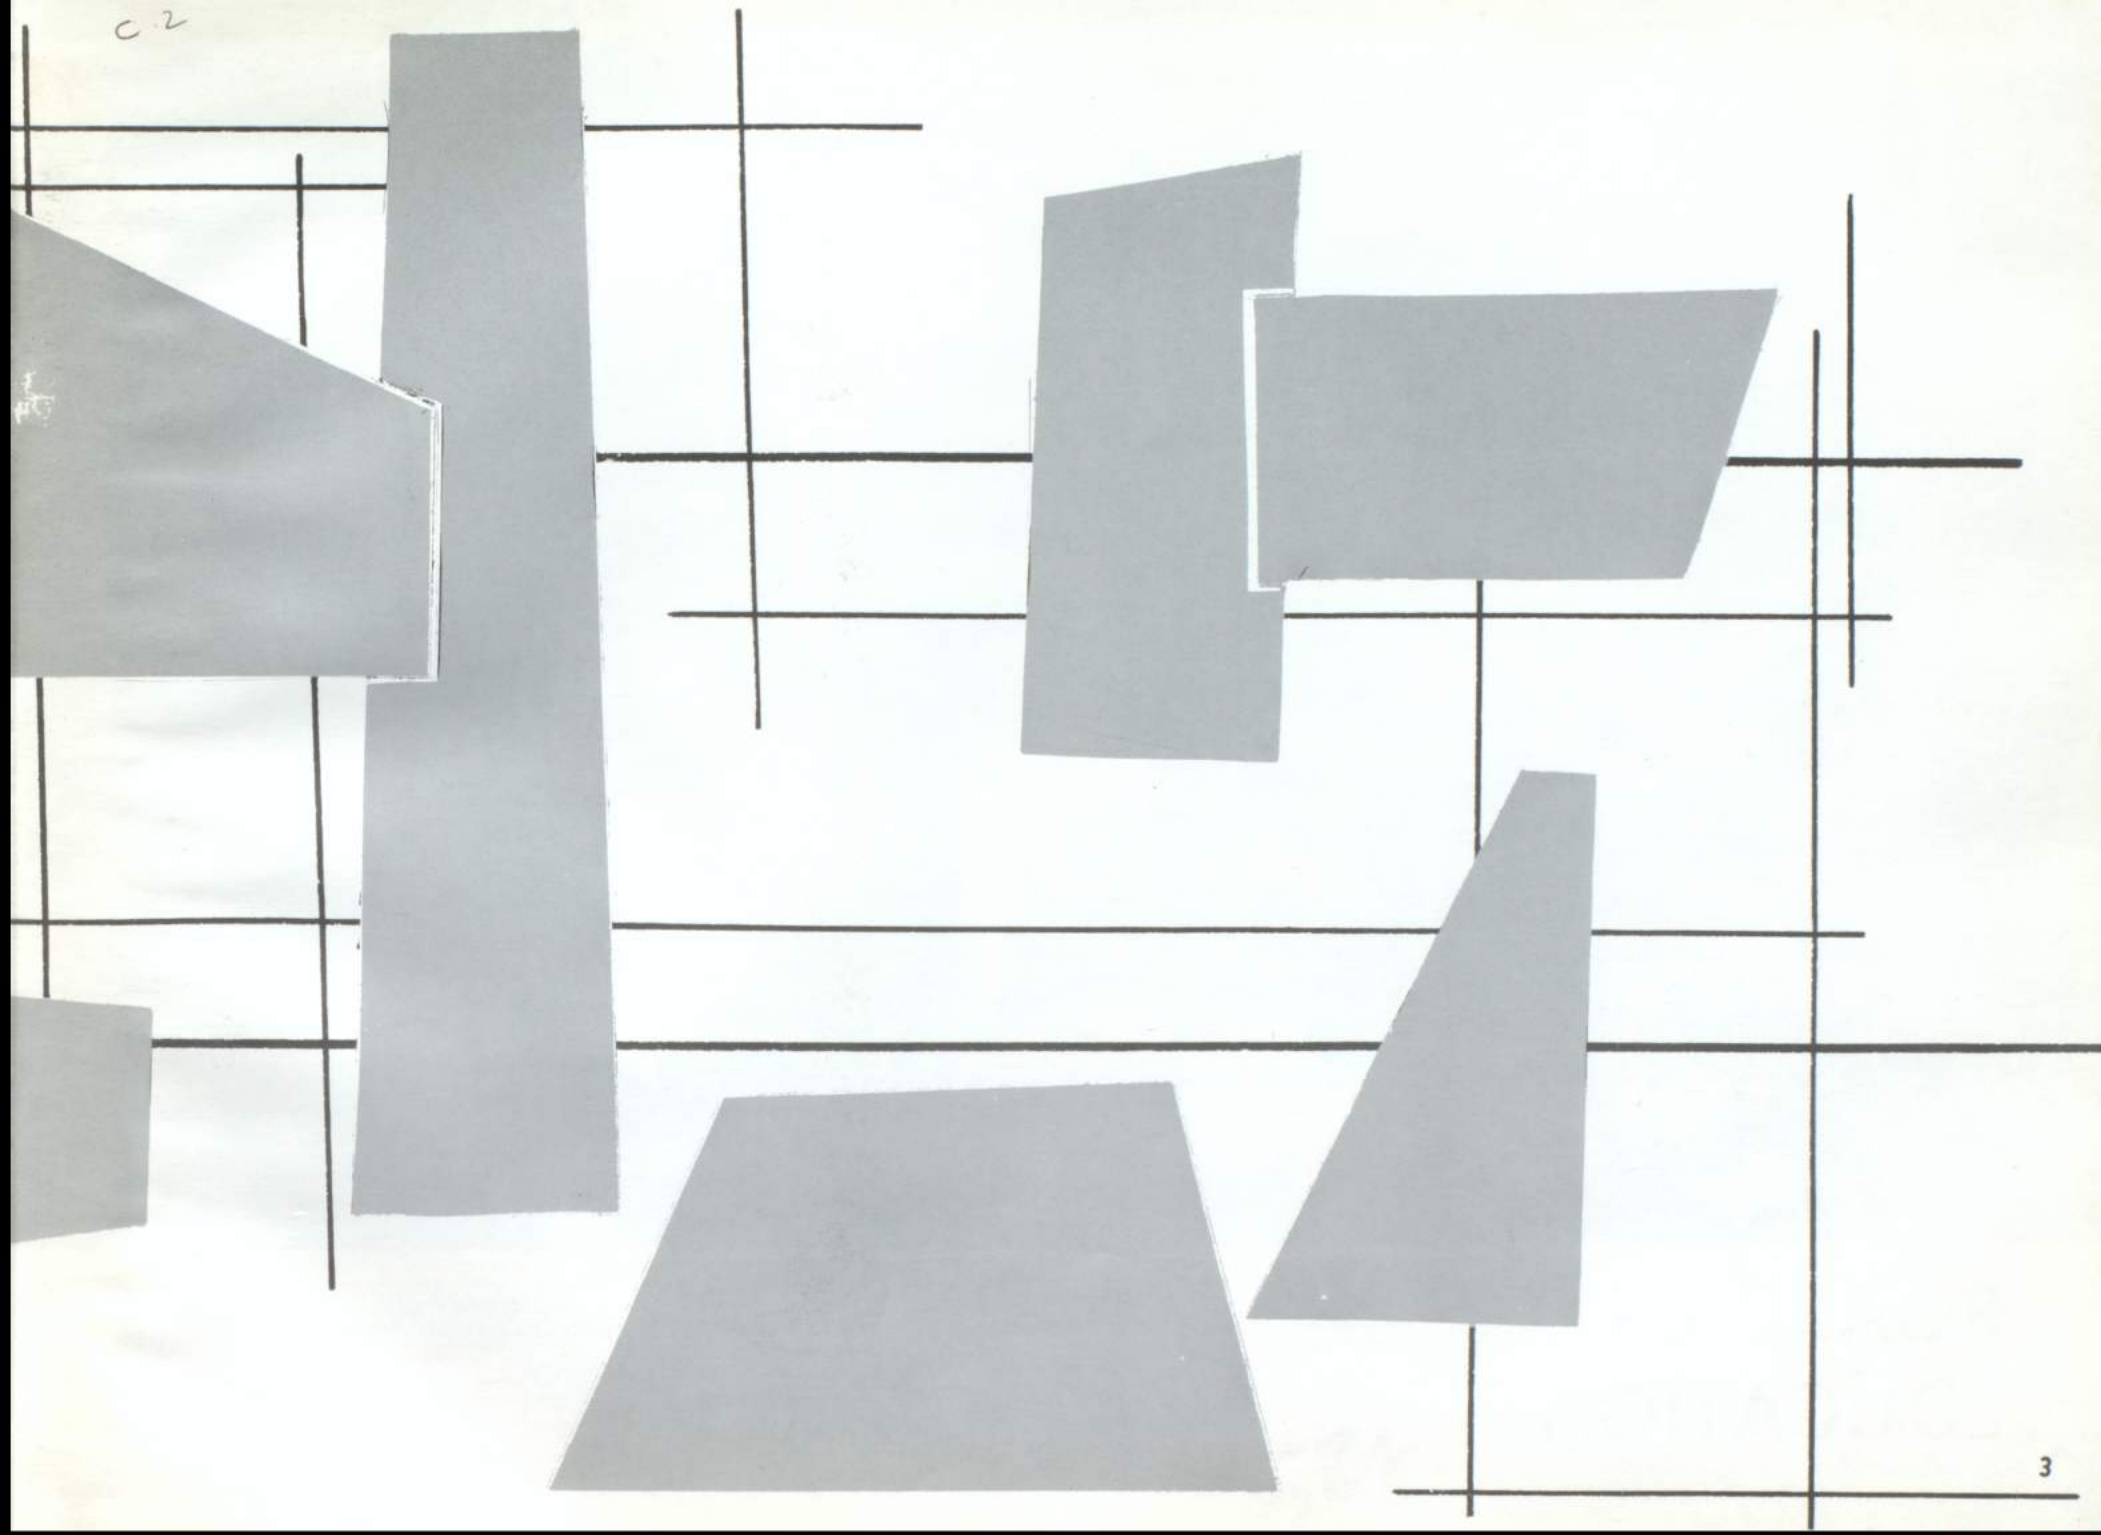

"Unity" is a small word impregnated with tremendous meaning. Throughout the world today we see evidence of disunity, dissension, disagreement, and discord contributing to a perpetual state of unrest and upheaval. Yet, in the word "unity" we find strength, harmony, and agreement. The thirteen original colonies fought together for a common purpose—freedom from English rule. From the unification of these states evolved the United States of America. In turn, cooperation among the various countries in the world has resulted in the formation of the United Nations. In this organization lies our hope for peace and harmony in the world. In unity there is strength and men who work and strive together towards a common goal can achieve great things.

TO THE CLASS OF 1963

I appreciate having the opportunity to direct a few statements to the members of the the Class of 1963, the class which entered its freshman year of high school at the time I assumed the Superintendency of the U-E School District.

The past four years have been important ones for you as individuals because these have been critical years in the growth and development toward young womanhood and young manhood. Likewise, the past four years have been important and critical ones for education in general. Sputnik and the space-age which presaged made it clear to many that education must move ahead, rapidly and decisively, if this nation is to have the clear-thinking, well-informed and well-educated citizenry necessary for the effective functioning of our democratic society and for successfully meeting the advances of the communistic ideology committed to destroying our way of life.

More effective teaching, more opportunities to develop critical thinking, advanced subject matter in all academic fields, better equipped classrooms and laboratories, a stronger physical fitness program, the assuming of a greater degree of responsibility by students through the administration of a carefully prepared student behavior code and stepped-up requirements for the high school diploma are only several of the steps which have been taken in our schools during the past four years to improve the quality of our educational program. Much more needs to be done if we are to carry out to the fullest our responsibilities to the thousands of pupils now enrolled in our schools.

The task of providing the best possible educational program is one that needs the help of many individuals. All of you can assist by demanding and helping to support strong educational programs in the years immediately ahead. Some of you will, I hope, be able to help more directly by returning to Endicott as well-educated and experienced teachers and administrators ready to take your place alongside so many of our present staff members who have served you so well.

Best wishes for good health and success to all of you.

Sincerely,

Robert D. Agone
Superintendent of Schools

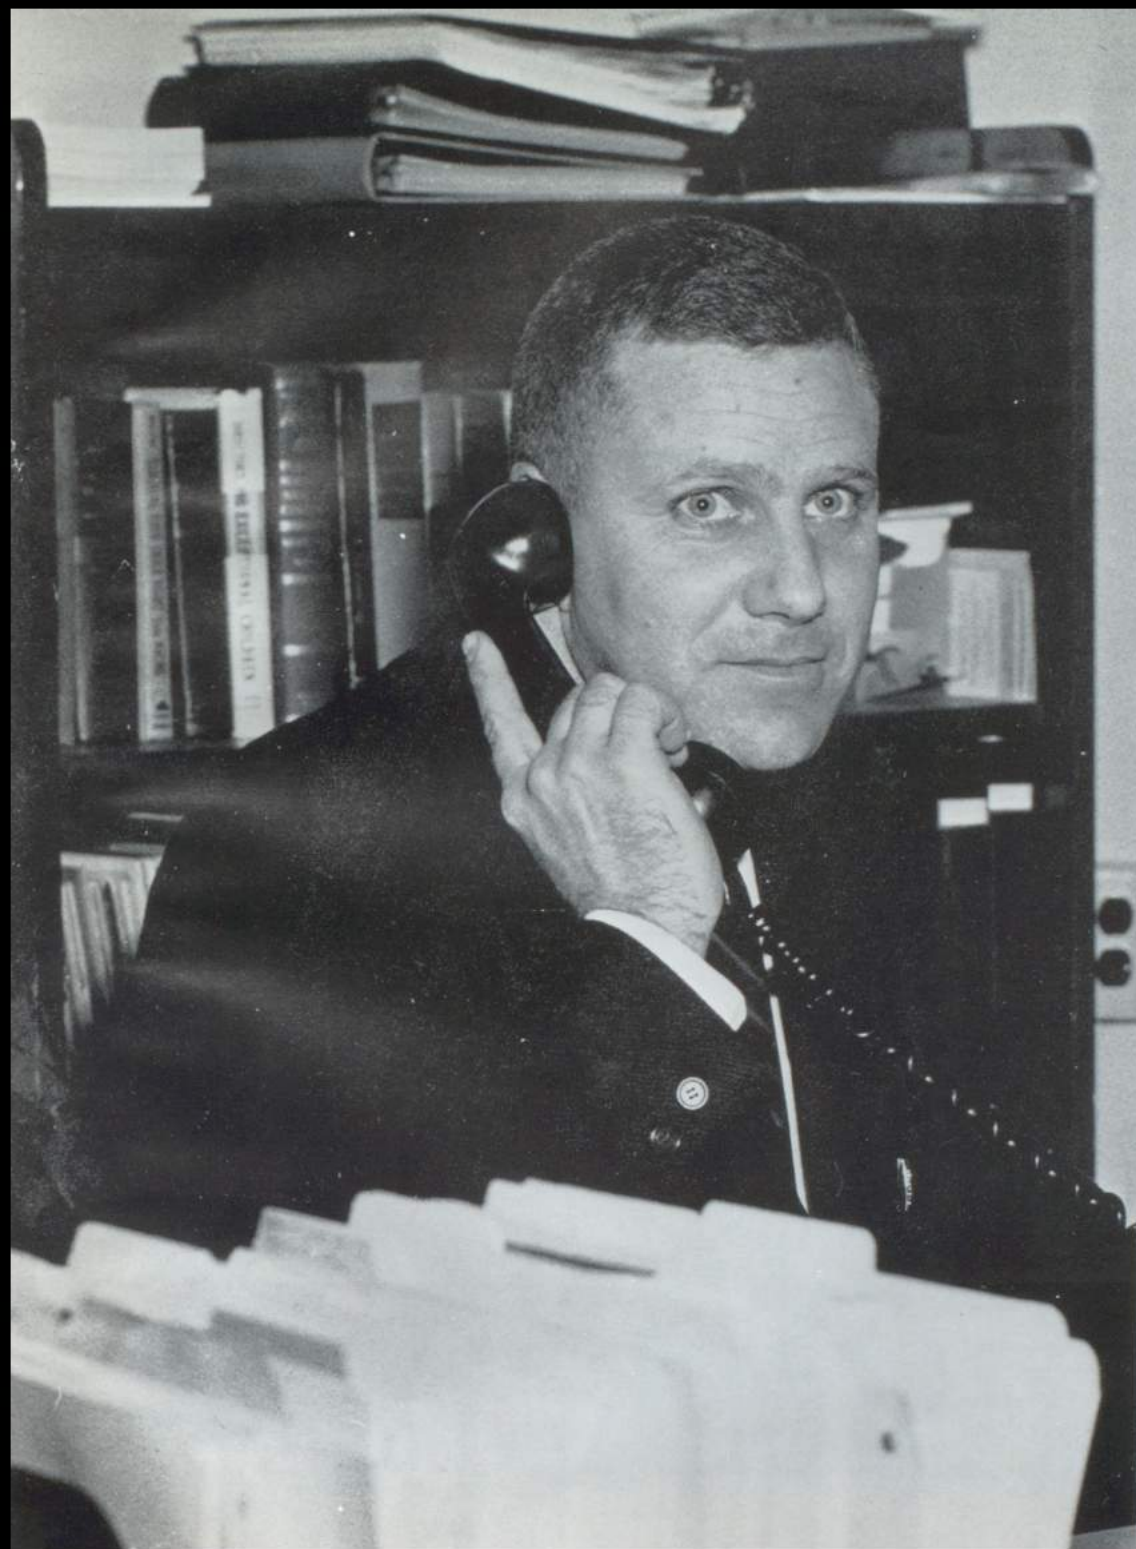

PRINCIPAL

Much has been said and written about the complexities of life in this, our space age. Fear not—better tomorrows are the result of today's dreams and aspirations.

Venture forth with confidence! Dare to wonder, to challenge—for now you must realize that the end of high school is only the beginning of a new and wonderful experience.

We at U.E. will remember you and trust that in some small way we have started you on the road to success and happiness.

Martin Bortnick, Jr.

To your generation lies the challenge of a new era beset by the complexities of many problems. The expansion of population, the burst of technology, space exploration, the discovery of new forms of energy, the rise of new nations, and the world-wide rivalry of ideologies are new problems to which your generation must apply new knowledge.

The resolution to these problems and to all problems will come only from the minds of men, from education. We all need to be more cognizant of this fact.

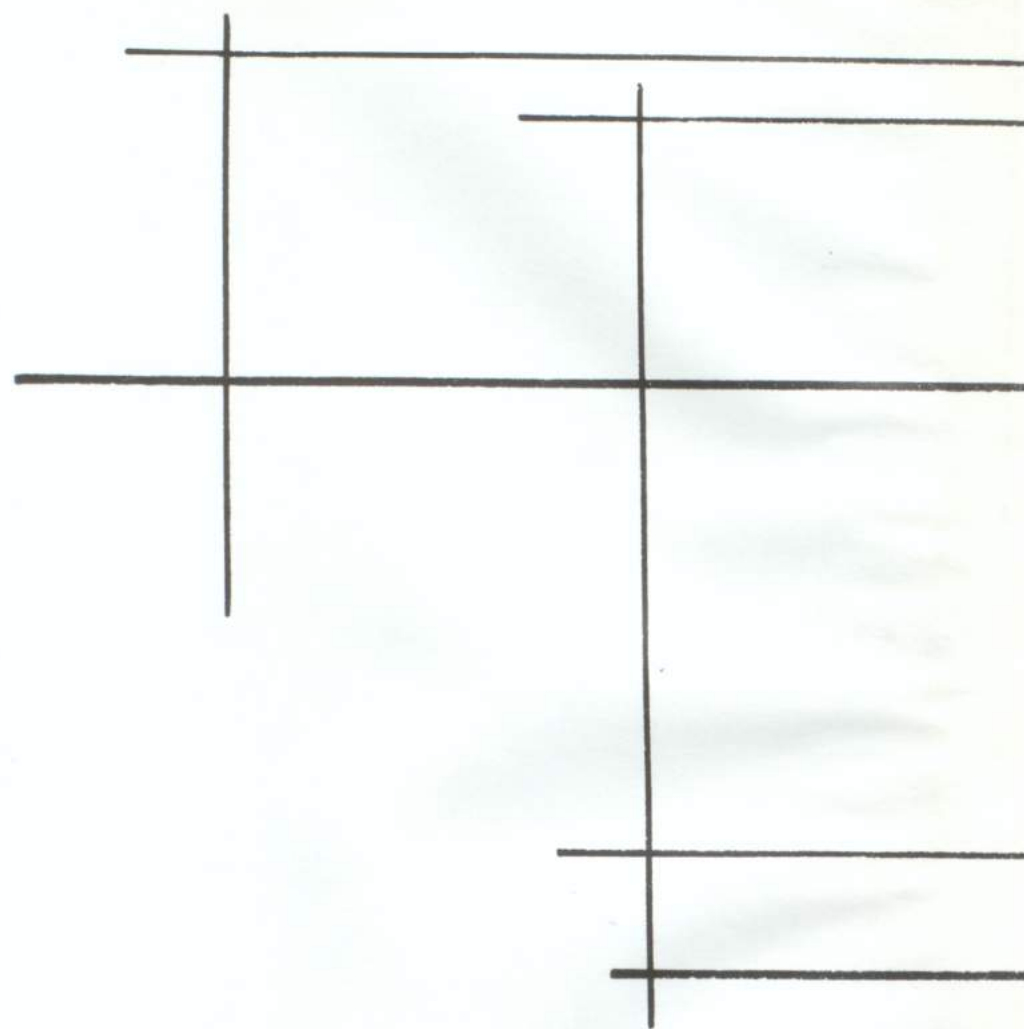

As learners, we should strive to the maximum attainment of our abilities and to be aware that education is a process that continues throughout our lives.

The optimism of a truly incomprehensibly bright future is yours, but attainment of this is no simple task. It requires the energies and responsibilities of statesmen, doctors, teachers, laborers, parents, indeed all those who will accept the challenge. Each should contribute his fair measure.

EXHORTATION

Courage! Courage! Oh Africa,
The country that will ever be.
Oh, Africa, thou art the beloved of all.
Thy future is seen—it is flowing;
Thy seed is multiplied.
Africa, thy creation is not in vain;
For we all see what is coming of thee.
The youth of Africa, courage!
Courage! young men; courage! young women,
For Africa is looking for your help.

Africa, Africa, thou art blessed;
Thy land is rich; the riches of thy land is foreseen.
We know for sure that God knows thy future,
as He does the past.
Thy outlook upon the world and all its tumultuous happenings can never be the same, until thy day shall come that thou shall rejoice,
And thy wealth will fill the hearts of thy children.

Oh ye children of Africa,
Rejoice, rejoice, for God declares the new things which it is His will to declare.
He sees the end from the beginning.

Courage! Courage! Oh! Africa,
There is no reason for anxiety or despair.
Anon our need for knowledge, understanding, love and power will be fulfilled.
Trust, Trust, Africa, for thy children are out in the fields;
Thy seek and seek for the long waited day when they shall feel the secret of thy riches.

What shall we fear? For we are sure that we are led. Thus as the gathering storm bursts upon us, our hearts may be at peace, filled with courage from above, knowing all will come right at the end.

Thy sons ran and stood

On the high mountain and looked.

Out of the dark continent they saw the light glowing from thy hills, lands, mountains, rivers and lakes.

And when they saw it, they wiped the sweat from their faces and bodies; for thy brightness is blowing as gently as a sea breeze, blowing from the ocean to warm the land; it is warming the hearts of thy children.

Africa, why art thou wondering?

They are not lost; these sons and daughters are not away for nought.

It is their will to serve thee and make thee known among nations.

Who is he that will call thee weak?

For out of this weakness, strength is born.

Oh! Africa, once thou was called a dark continent; now is stirred the hearts of thy children. And up are they on their feet, for they have seen thy brightness.

They will stand, they will fight, they will speak for thy sake.

Thou art risen. Thy children look and see thee; by day they smile: By night they dream of thee and thy future.

Poor! thou art not poor; poverty is not our goal; nor are riches our goal. Our goal is peace, joy, love and victory.

Forth thy sons come with the songs of UHURU and courage is the cup they drink from.

Under the shadow of that oak tree

Onyango and Njoroge sat;

They rested there.

Onyango wept and Njoroge was sweating.

Why? How long shall this continue?

The two boys stood; There was courage in their hearts.

They took their luggage and off went the boys.

"Children! Children!" their mothers cried. "Lost! Lost!"

Oh no. they are not lost. They have gone to see the world.

Filled and tired of the answers "NKIYO BWANA", they sought for the improvement of their beloved country.

Africa, thou art advancing fast.

Thy advancement is as a wild, howling, tempestuous wind

Which fills the air with sand of change

Sent across the sky.

Forward! Forward young men!

Forward! Forward young women!

Why watch you in a wonderment?

For we now know our future.

For as the wind rises suddenly,

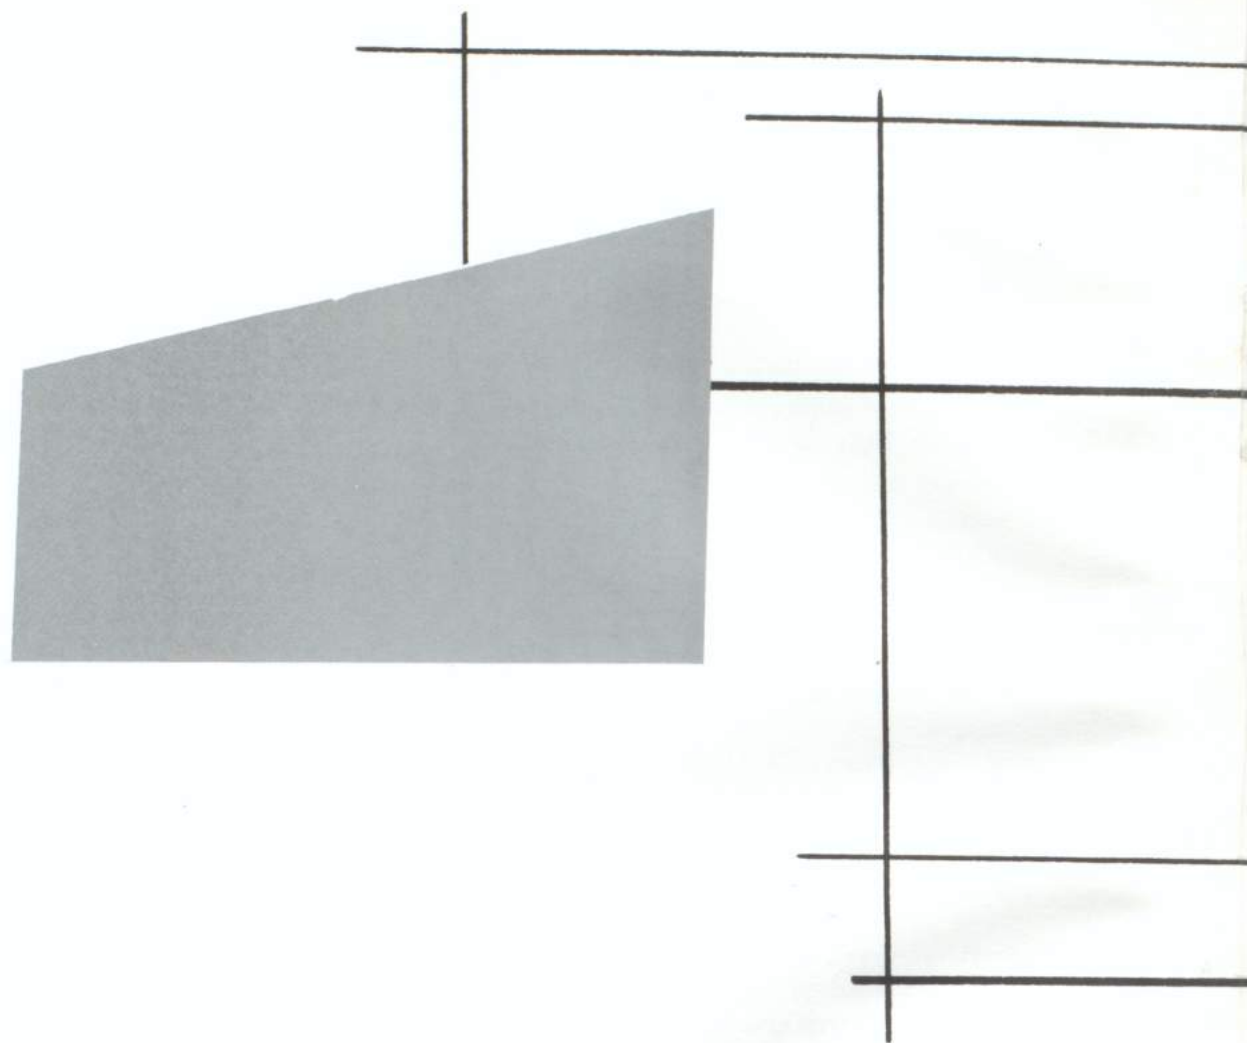

Increasing to a hurricane of tremendous force,

Hurling giant rocks against each other,

So is this, our beloved country.

Courage! Courage! ever more.

We shall rejoice in thy beauty.

CO-OP

An abstract geometric composition featuring a white background with a network of thin black lines. These lines form a grid-like structure with varying line lengths and intersections. Overlaid on this grid are four solid gray shapes: a tall, narrow rectangle in the upper center; a parallelogram to its right; a trapezoid in the lower left; and a triangle in the lower right. The word 'ACTIVITIES' is printed in a black, sans-serif font on the left side, positioned between two horizontal black lines.

MUSIC ACTIVITIES

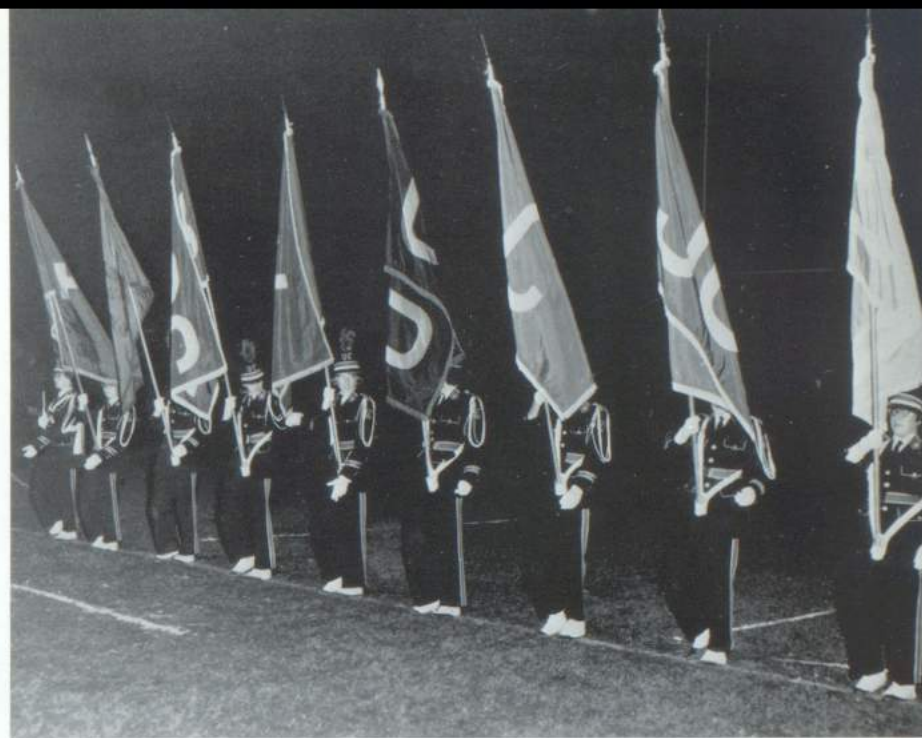

"AM AHL"

The Union-Endicott Instrumental Music department has attained a healthy status of growth and musical activity during this school year. The marching band unit took an active part in all football games and was rewarded by a trip to the Middletown game with a dinner at the Mitchell Inn. The first snowstorm of the year made it a day the band will long remember.

The concert band presented their annual concert in May and also participated in the NYSSMA festivals and State contest.

The high school orchestra, playing music of the "pops" variety, played for the Amateur Show sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. They played also for the high school amateur show. With the concert band, the high school chorus and Glee Club made the annual spring concert a fine evening of music.

KEY CLUB

The Key Club, primarily and fundamentally a service organization, is sponsored by the Endicott Kiwanis Club. The Club has, as its objectives, the development of initiative and leadership, provision of experience in living and working together, service to school and community, cooperation with the school principal, and preparation for useful citizenship.

Membership in the Key Club is dependent upon the judgment and opinion of the faculty. A candidate for membership must exhibit good scholarship, qualities of good character, and leadership ability. Becoming an active member of the Key Club provides a sound foundation for community leadership and service. Membership is restricted to approximately 46 boys who are selected from the upper classes.

In carrying out the Key Club motto, "We Build," the organization functions on an international scope with clubs both in the United States and Canada. In coordination with the international organization, conventions and training conferences are held annually.

During the year Key Club members sold football programs, ushered at school functions, sponsored a drive for the Binghamton State Hospital and presented programs for the Endicott Kiwanis Club. Other activities such as the Student-Faculty Basketball Game were carried out through committees and organized at weekly meetings of the club. The club also continued its editorship of the New York State Key Club publication, the "Empire Key."

Advisors of the organization are Mr. Bruce Ellis of the high school faculty and Mr. Harry Deyo of the Endicott Kiwanis Club. Officers for the 1962-1963 school year were Jerry Albrecht, president; Jerome Niles, vice-president; Thomas Morris, secretary; and Alan Shawkey, treasurer.

MODEL UN

Cuba, Hungary, Iceland, Cameroun, Burma, Tunisia and Australia were represented by students from U-E at the annual Model United Nations Meeting held at Harpur College. The students participating and countries represented include respectively: Ed Castro, Jeff Burke, Dave Cook, William Thayer, Joseph Dean and James Economidies.

The alternates were: Fred Cosin, Linda Jean Dollmetsh, Elsie Bradbury, Linda Tompkins.

Two resolutions were debated during the meeting. They were: Resolved: That all special assessments voted and levied by the General Assembly of the United Nations Organization shall be binding on all members and any member failing to pay an assessment shall be denied its voting privilege until its financial obligation shall have been met, and: Resolved: That the city of Berlin be internationalized and placed under the administration and protection of the United Nations organization.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

The schedule of activities included caucuses, rebuttles and the formation of various blocs, the two resolutions were divided into two sessions. Each major country was entitled to a seven minute speech. The remaining countries were allowed three minute speeches.

PURPOSE

A duplicate of the United Nations Meetings, the Model United Nations is an organization formed to benefit the students in learning and understanding the functioning of this assembly of nations.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club is quite active at U.E. The club is designed to develop the French student's ideas about France, its language, and its customs.

Alice Illg, the president, aided by Elaine Hoffman, vice-president, and Mrs. Farnham, advisor, plan various activities throughout the year such as soirees, bake sales, and entertainment for club meetings and the student body.

The French Club, called Le Cercle Francais, requires various qualifications of its members. Members must either be French students or students who are interested in becoming acquainted with France and its background.

Kathy Casey, Vicki Randall, and Joanne Kaplan hold the offices of secretary, treasurer, and publicity chairman, respectively.

Alice Illg sells some baked goods to Ron Cherinko as Diana DuMont and Elaine Hoffman total up the receipts from the annual bake sale.

BOYS' STATE

During the first week of summer vacation, a group of boys from all over New York State is given the opportunity to participate in the Boys' State program. Sponsored by the American Legion, Boys' State is held on the campus of Colgate University.

The main purpose of Boys' State is to teach, by actual example, the functioning of New York State government. The boys, over one thousand in number, are divided into cities, counties and mock political parties. Boys may run for any office from Commissioner of Sanitation to Governor. When established, Boys' State functions exactly like our state government.

This year's representatives had the privilege of hearing Governor Rockefeller speak at a special assembly. Boys' State will be remembered by those who attended as a week of education and fellowship.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ACTIVITIES

Student Government is a school organization which carries out many plans during the year. Each year one person is elected from each homerooms votes on new ideas and are responsible for implementing every month in the small auditorium. The representatives from the homerooms vote on new ideas and are responsible for implementing them.

Student Government carries out the class elections of the sophomores, juniors, and seniors. They sponsor the dances after the basketball games and this year co-sponsored the King of Hearts Dance. This year Student Government set up a Student Court similar to the Supreme Court; there are two members from each class and it is presided over by the President of Student Government.

Jerry Niles is President of Student Government. The President and Vice-President are elected in their junior year and take over meetings in their senior year.

SYRACUSE CITIZENSHIP CONFERENCE

The annual Citizenship Education Conference offers high ranking high school students an opportunity to compete for scholarships at Syracuse University. This competition involves completion of a series of qualifying tests and preparation of a speech on an assigned topic. During the conference, students deliver their speeches, listen to a talk given by a noted lecturer, and participate in discussion sessions. At the close of the conference, scholarships are awarded ranging from $200 to full tuition.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Commercial Club is an organization for girls whose purpose is to provide more information about business. It is a service club and the members belong to business classes. They meet on the first Thursday of every month. This year they had a bake sale, put on a skit in one of the meetings, and from time to time they have speakers at their meetings who talk about the business world. During the spring the girls take field trips to local offices. Some of the club members also work in the student store.

This year, Commercial Club set up a student staff, which consists of a group of girls who spend time doing clerical work for teachers. This staff is proving to be very successful.

The officers are:

President—MARY ANN GRECCI

Vice-President—BERNADETTE BATTAGLINI

Secretary—THERESA PELINO

Treasurer—LINDA ROSSI

RADIO CLUB

The Union-Endicott High School Amateur Radio Club was formed in the Spring of 1962. This year the advisors were Mr. Rossi and Mr. Warnes. During the year the members built a transmitter and receiver to be used in a club radio station. This station should have its own call sign by the time school starts next fall.

The year's activities reached a peak in February when the Endicott Fire Department helped erect an antenna on the school roof.

With a radio station on the air, the club will become active in contests which will be held between clubs of the area. The individual the high school amateur radio clubs will try to contact as many other amateurs as possible within a certain time limit.

THESAURUS

The purpose of a yearbook is to record the events of the past year which are memorable for the student. The 1963 Thesaurus has fulfilled this purpose well. The staff has diligently labored to produce the best yearbook possible and has worked many hours on it during and after school.

Our school yearbook won second place at the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Conference last year and this year the staff has tried to improve upon it. Again, the horizontal form, which is revolutionary in the eastern part of the United States, has been used. The Thesaurus staff received many compliments on it from people who have inspected our annual. The addition of two new sections has been designed to strengthen the coverage and content of the book so that it will truly be representative of U.E.H.S.

The Thesaurus staff sincerely hopes that the memories recorded in this book will in future years bring pleasure to you when you recall the friends and events of 1963 through your yearbook.

MATHLETES

U-E's Mathletes brought honors to U-E by winning the Math trophy in their first year of competition. The other Triple-Cities area schools participating in the competition include Maine-Endwell, Owego, Susquehanna Valley, and Vestal.

At each meet, five problems are given and a specified amount of time is allotted for each problem. One point is received for each correct answer. The school having the highest number of points wins the meet, and the school obtaining the highest number of points at the end of the season wins a trophy.

Under the supervision of their advisors, Mrs. Wood and Dr. Kazlauskas, the Mathletes are encouraged in furthering their study and enjoyment of mathematics.

TORNADO

The Tornado, U-E's school paper, ended its third year of publication this June. Six issues of this four page paper were put out this year. Every paper contained such regular features as "Tiger Tails," "Tiger and Tigress of the Month," a column on school club activities, and school and sports news. The Christmas issue contained literary efforts of the students and Christmas greetings to friends put in by the students themselves along with the regular features and news items.

Tornado's staff members gain journalistic experience with the help of Miss Vogelsang, literary advisor, and Miss Libous. The staff is open to all U.E. students interested in journalism.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Future Teachers of America, chartered by the National Education Association and the New York State Teachers Association, has been an active club since it was organized at U.E. in 1956.

The purpose of this club, according to its constitution, is "To learn about the teaching profession, its opportunities and its important role in our democracy." Also, "To learn how and where teachers receive their training, the cost, scholarships available, number of years required, certification requirements and standards" is another important aspect of the club.

The club managed to realize their aims in a number of ways this year. Club members observed classes in local elementary and Junior High schools. They learned about a teacher's training and teaching experiences from a cadet teacher who was a guest speaker. Movies on teaching were also shown.

Fund raising projects such as a bake sale were held in order to finance a scholarship to be given to a worthy future teacher.

Membership in the F.T.A. is open to all students of U.E. who are interested in exploring teaching as a career and who exhibit the qualities of character, personality, scholarship and leadership which are essential for a good teacher.

Club officers for 1962-1963 were: Donna Schmoll, president; Michael Sevka, vice-president; Patrice Witter, secretary; and Linda Tompkins, treasurer.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

National Honor Society is an organization composed of academically outstanding pupils. Membership is limited to juniors and seniors selected by the faculty during the spring and fall of each school year. Juniors selected must have a general average of 92 or above. Seniors qualify with an average of 90 or above. Both qualified juniors and seniors must also possess qualities of character, leadership and service.

Members of the society honor teachers on Teacher's Recognition Day, usher at various school functions, serve as guides during open house and conduct installation and induction ceremonies.

This club is nationally recognized and since its standards are so high, membership is a great help when applying to the college of your choice.

The National Honor Society officers for 1962-1963 are president, George Jones, vice-president, Joyce Villata, treasurer, Jane Kristoff, secretary, Barbara Kushner. Faculty advisor is Miss Hollister.

The History Seminar is an informal organization of students interested in discussion of current and historical topics. The Seminar meets irregularly during the school year at the discretion of the advisor.

In order to give the students an opportunity to see the application of classroom instruction in economic and political theory annual field trips are scheduled to Washington or New York.

This year's trip to Washington, D. C., included tours of the historic buildings and museums, observance of Veteran's Day Ceremony at Arlington National Cemetery, a special tour of the White House, and a series of lectures by political and educational leaders.

DEBATE CLUB

This year the U-E DEBATING SOCIETY has enjoyed an extremely productive schedule of activities. These include the club's efforts in originating the Southern Tier Debate Conference, and the club's participation in its first tournament other than the mid-state tournament. This year the club is being sponsored by the Endicott Rotary Club. In STC competition, U-E has compiled a record of five wins and two losses. At the Rochester Invitational Tournament U-E was tied for an amazing seventh place among many of the top teams in the northeastern United States. The Club has put on several programs for various organizations which include Endicott Rotary, Kiwaniqueens, and the Endicott PTA. The Club participated in the Mid-Regional Tournament at Utica, which the entire club attended.

VARSITY CLUB

The U-E Varsity Club is one of the youngest organizations at U-E. Mr. Henry Vetter is the club's advisor at the present time. Membership is open to all boys who have earned one major letter or two minor letters in scholastic sports.

The organization is interested in boys who are good workers. Meetings are on the second Tuesday of each month. Once a student has become a good member he receives a black blazer with an orange shield saying "U-E Varsity Club."

The club is in its third year of functioning at U-E. In years to come it will be one of the top clubs in the school.

ART SEMINAR

U-E's art department has had another productive year. The projects have ranged from hooked rugs to silver jewelry to oil paintings. Frequently art seminars are held on Tuesday nights to provide additional time for students who wish to spend more time on projects. The art students also did the layout and art work for the THESAURUS this year.

When the choir presented "Amahl and The Night Visitors" at Christmas time, the art department built the scenery, which included multi-colored, hanging space modulators.

In March, U-E's art department participated in the Scholastic Art Exhibition at Roberson Memorial, and won a number of gold keys and blue ribbons. The projects awarded blue ribbons are now on exhibit in New York City.

This May a weekend trip to New York is planned, so that the art students may further study original paintings, sculpture, and architectural design.

SPORTS

IN RECOGNITION

A familiar figure at U-E is C. Burdette Parkhurst, better known as "Parky" to teachers and students alike. For over thirty years Parky has dedicated his life to building boys into men here at U-E.

Mr. Parkhurst is a graduate of Union Endicott High School, where he was president of his class, and Springfield College, where he lettered in basketball. Upon leaving college he became assistant track coach at U-E. With the exception of two years spent as athletic director at Newark, New York, and time devoted to the Navy as an athletic officer, Parky has coached and taught at U-E continuously since 1927. In addition to holding the position of head track coach, he was basketball coach for thirteen years and served as assistant football coach under "Ty" Cobb. Parky also has a long record of community service. For eight years he held the honored position of Mayor of Endicott.

Parky has over 300 victories in track and field competition to his credit. This outstanding record has been compiled by the 29 track teams he has coached. For 29 years Parky helped boys to learn sportsmanship. They learned how to win and at times how to lose. Parky taught these boys and helped them to develop character. This influence on both the teams he coached and U-E as a whole will long be remembered.

SEPTEMBER AND FOOTBALL

"Are you ready?" "Yea," was the reply of the forty boys to signify the beginning of another U-E football season. Only this season was to be much different from those of the previous ten years. The Orange Tornado stormed its way through the Southern Tier Conference compiling a record of six wins, one loss, and one tie.

Coaches Fran Angeline, Frank Sorochinsky, and Bob Adams took advantage of the nucleus of the twelve returning lettermen, headed by, Bob Atkinson, Ken Pacioni, John Dellos, and Bill Pickering, by shaping them into a powerful unit that was only beaten by the conference champions, Vestal. The 13-0 loss to Vestal came in a dramatic climax game played before a record STC crowd of 12,000.

The Tigers showed their potentials early in the season as they trounced a highly touted Elmira Southside team 25-7. A great catch by end Mike Nalevanko put the Orange on the winning side of a 13-6 score against the North Indians. A one hundred yard pass interception return by Dick Streno kept the Tigers and Johnson City even at 6-6. Elmira Free Academy and Binghamton Central were the next teams to fall under the wrath of the surging Tornado 27-6 and 34-0. The visiting Little Red from Ithaca were sternly crushed by a 27-7 outcome. The Tiger eleven showed their versatility against the Middletown team as the game was played in two inches of snow, mud, and slush. A touchdown in the last twelve seconds of the game gave the Orange their narrow margin in the 7-0 victory.

In post season voting by coaches and sportswriters U-E players fared very well in coping many of the individual awards. Halfback Bob Atkinson, and lineman Ken Pacioni and Mario Amorese were selected to All Conference Teams. Others such as Dick Streno, Mike Nalevanko, Vic Battaglini, John Dellos and Bill Pickering received honorable mentions in the polls.

The success of a football season is not completely determined by the team's record. Sportsmanship also plays a big part in the value of any given season. Surely, the U-E football squad represented this school well in both departments.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

In mid-November, many of U-E's highly successful gridders traded their football cleats for basketball sneaks. Four-fifths of the starting five, Ken Pacioni, Mike Nalevanko, Bob Atkinson and Fran Pilarcek, were fresh off the football field. Fred Karaman, the team's sharpshooter, completed the quintet.

From November ninth through February twenty-first, the team played 18 regular season games, compiling excellent Southern Tier Conference and Triple Cities Conference records. The Tigers, though plagued by an inconsistent offense, were a recognized threat to all their opponents. They proved this by upsetting highly touted North 58-56 in a late season game at the pit. Among the other victories were two over Vestal. The Tigers, sparked by a "superhuman" sophomore (from Vestal) defeated the Golden Bears 57-34 and 53-45.

The aforementioned five, plus capable reserves and the coaching of Bob Wurtenburg, gave U-E another good season's work.

Other team members who contributed to this success were: Tom Giordano, Fred Zappia, Rodney Moore, Ron Ciotoli, Len Kurkoski, and Bob Cibulsky.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleading squad consists of four junior and four senior girls. Each year four sophomores are selected to take the place of the leaving seniors.

The cheerleaders give their support at all football and basketball games. They have three pep assemblies during the football season.

At football games they sell shakers and banners to raise money. This year they bought new megaphones. They also put on a party for the football players and Mr. Angeline before the last game.

At the end of the basketball season there is an annual Southern Tier Conference Cheerleading contest. Last year it was held at Binghamton Central High School. This year the contest will be held at Vestal Central.

This year the cheerleaders got new football skirts and basketball uniforms. They were purchased by the school.
