On the wings of Eagles you now soar. From my heart comes a mighty lion's roar.

You were a heavenly light upon this earth, Growing brighter every day since your birth. Why you were taken at such a young age, Has sent me into a mortal rage. I don't know when I will silence this feeling. And allow myself to begin my inner healing. I try to pray to God to relieve the pain I have within, But I fear the healing will never begin. For I respect the path in life you had chosen. Net my personal relationship with God seems frozen. I am not sure how long it will be before I make peace with Him. But until then you must be my heaven's friend. Someday I will gather the strength to ask why. But for now only silence comes when I try. I think of the things you will never get to do. And am reminded that our days together were too few.

> On the wings of Eagles you soar. While my soul continues to release the mighty roar.

Knowing that rainy December day I will always rue.

I ask myself if I had done right by you.

I am not sure how I will endure my life without you.

But each day I will try to make do.

I will do my best to emulate your life.

Open my heart, give a generous smile, and give myself to others as you have given yourself.

From my heart comes a mighty lion's roar. Every day until together on the wings of those Eagles we soar.

JUNICES

The class of 2013 is so happy to be Juniors! They started the year off, welcoming our new freshmen and their senior mentors, with a Freshmen Orientation Dance. In preparation of senior year activities, the junior class officers have worked very hard raising funds! The class sold t-shirts, giant pixie sticks and chocolate bars. Unfortunately, September brought a destructive flood that destroyed Mom's House, a local daycare center. The Junior Class rose to the occasion and sponsored a toy drive to help restock the toy bins at the new location. A class trip to Coney Island with a dinner cruise out of New York City was an amazing end to an amazing year!

Biology Club & Envirothon

Students who join Biology Club have opportunities to participate in the Riverbank Cleanup as well as activities designed to investigate biology outside the classroom. Students have cultured Venus Flytrap plants and have investigated DNA electrophoresis. In addition, students can participate in Envirothon, a competition where students learn about the environment and work in teams of five to answer questions having to do with wildlife, forestry, soils, aquatics, and a current environmental issue. In 2011, the UE team, The Angry Ashborers, won the Regional Competition, out-competing 30 schools from five counties. They participated in the State Envirothon competition in May and placed in the top 25 out of 50 schools. 2011 Regional Champions are: Allison Kelly, Lauren Smales, Liz Anderson, and Michelle Knuepfer.

Book Club

The Book Club consists of a small but loyal group of students dedicated to reading and discussing books that are not usually taught in the classroom. From myths to mysteries, from philosophy to fantasy, the club prides itself on reading the books that people are talking about. This year's choices have included Jonathan Safran Foer's, Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close, Michael Crichton's, Next, and Joanne Harris's, Gentlemen and Players. The club meets monthly for approximately an hour after school, and meetings are open to anyone interested in the book scheduled for discussion.

Chinese Exchange

This was the inaugural year for the Chinese Exchange Program with Kunming High School Number 1. Over the summer, 15 Chinese students and two chaperones came to U-E and stayed with our families. We did many cultural activities, such as a baseball game, Corning Museum of Glass, and trips to Washington D.C., Boston, and New York City. This summer our students will go to China for two weeks. We will start with Beijing, seeing sights such as the Great Wall and the Forbidden City. Then we will go to Kunming and experience their home life.

Mathletes

If you hear someone talking about Mathletes, you're probably thinking it's something like you see in the movies; a bunch of nerds doing hard math problems. In reality, we are just normal kids doing math problems. We are a team and family and we're always laughing and supporting each other. When we go to a competition we are competing against other schools. We answer a series of questions, and for every correct question we get a point. After they add up all the points, we are ranked, but we don't really let the rank bother us because we are busy having fun.

Mock Trial

The purpose of Mock trial is to provide students with hands-on opportunities to further their understandings of the law, court proceedings and our legal system while working on their speaking, listening, reading, and reasoning skills. County competitions are held in the spring at the central courts in Binghamton. County champions advance to regional competition, with six teams meeting in Albany for the state wide finals each May. This year's case, People of the State of New York v. P.J. Long, is a criminal case in which the defendant is charged with Assault in the Second Degree for allegedly striking the victim in the head with a lug wrench, aka tire iron, in the parking lot of a popular dance club. Both the defense and the prosecution teams will develop their arguments for the case and come up with their own central theme for court. Officers: Chief Counsels-Ashton Dubey and Sarah Esposito, Secretary- Tanya Bouillon, Treasurer- Adnan Syed, Public Relations- Caitlin Berner

National Honors Society

National Honor Society is an organization established to recognize and appreciate high school students who have gone above and beyond expectations, by maintaining a 90 or above average, participating in extracurricular activities of all sorts, and much more, to demonstrate their exceptional potential. Handpicked by a Faculty Council, these pupils are chosen in the hopes they will donate their time to help tutor their fellow classmates in all major area of learning, and work to becoming leaders who will serve our school and community well.

Medical Pathways

Union-Endicott's Medical Pathway organization is made up of high achieving students interested in careers in the health industry. Through seminars, field trips, shadowing experiences and internships, students have hands on opportunities to explore medical professions and college programs. The program is flexible to meet our students' varied interests. Students have explored careers in the fields of medicine, dentistry, veterinary, pharmacy, nursing and physical therapy. This year's activities have included a field trip to the Mutter Medical Museum in Philadelphia and participating in the first Healthcare Olympiad competition at Upstate Medical College in March.

Tigertronics

U-E's Robotics Team competes in a unique sport of the mind in which students are met with real life engineering challenges. Students in TigerTronics meet with teachers and mentors who give advice on how to solve these problems. Early in January, the FIRST Robotics organization reveals the game for the year. Throughout the next six weeks, the team must decide how to use their skills and materials to build a robot to compete in the game. The first few days are spent doing team building activities and going over basic design ideas. The team works in the tech labs until 8:00 and 9:00 p.m. each day making sure that the robot will be ready on the ship date, forty-two days from the release of the game. The team then has one or two weeks to prepare for the regional competitions. TigerTronics is in its sixth year. This year, the TigerTronics will be competing in the Finger Lakes Regional in Rochester as well as the Buckey Regional in Cleveland, OH. Students in TigerTronics experience the process of designing, building, testing, and using a new product while gaining real world experience and learning to work as a team. Students work with mentors from various local industries and businesses.

Weather Watch is the only club that can predict snow days successfully. We meet everyday after school to predict the weather.

We are usually right! Weather is and Weather Watch is for everyone, anyone can enjoy a sunny day.

Orchestra

The String Orchestra consists of students in grades 9-12 playing violin, viola, cello and bass. Many of these students have been playing since 4th grade. The strings also combine with the wind ensemble to form a Symphonic Orchestra as well as combining with the choral groups for an annual concert of a major Mass. This year's work is the Faure Requiem. Students in the orchestra can also participate in BCMEA County Orchestra, Area All-State Orchestra and NYSSMA Solo Festival.

STUDENT LIFE

This year's Homecoming Pep Assembly had an added special twist - a concert for financial literacy!

In addition to the regular homecoming pep assembly festivities, The Mighty Koyas (a rock band out of NYC featuring Binghamton University alumni), performed. The band had fun entertaining the students during the two-hour long event and gave them a little education, too.

The purpose of the event was to have fun and educate students about financial literacy. The concert was sponsored by Visions Federal Credit Union.

The pep assembly was a success with students, faculty, and administrators getting involved!

FINANCIAL LITERACY

U-E Ventures Into Student Run Bank

Visions Federal Credit Union Joins U-E in Promoting Financial Literacy Efforts

Visions FCU opened a branch in the lobby of Union-Endicott High School this fall. It was the first student-run credit union branch in Broome County.

Four student tellers took deposits and processed loan payments and withdrawals from Visions' members. The students served other students and staff.

The branch office, which Visions installed at no cost to the district, had been in the planning stage for two years but came to fruition this year. It had an outgrowth of other financial literacy efforts, including "Life is a Reality," in which volunteers from local businesses visited the high school to teach students basic financial management, including balancing a checkbook and principles of investing.

Besides the four student tellers, other U-E students were involved in the effort. Students in marketing classes handled public relations. Those in website design adapted a website. Students in business management brainstormed on solutions to any problems that surfaced with the branch.
