FEBRUARY @ THE GFJ LIBRARY

Poetry Workshop @ The George F. Memorial Library
 Friday, February 12th 2-3 PM

Join The Memory Maker Project to discuss the topic of the season: love. The group will share stories and collectively write beautiful love poetry. This program is free and designed especially for people with Alzheimer's or other kinds of memory loss, but is fun and open to all. Preregistration required. Call or e-mail Christina Muscatello at 607 240-6204 or Christina@memorymakerproject.org to register by February 8.

The AARP Tax preparers will begin February 2 on Tuesdays and Thursdays, 10-2 in the upstairs meeting room of the Library. Walk-ins only. Please note: there will be limited Federal and State tax forms this year. Forms can be printed at the Adult Information Desk for $.15 per page.

We've just added the Endicott Daily Bulletin newspaper years 1947-1951 to our Digital Archives. Our local newspaper coverage now includes years 1856-1960, along with the fantastic Endicott-Johnson Workers Review magazine and other E-J and U-E publications. It's a portal in time - enter the time machine at www.gfjlibrary.org and click on GFJ's Digital Archives.

The Four County Library System and its member libraries would like to welcome Flipster to our Research Center lineup. Flipster is your one-stop-shop for Digital Magazines. It allows you to browse the latest or back issues of our most popular magazines and download them to either your computer or tablet. Flipster is easy to use, download the free app to your favorite device to read anywhere offline. Check out times are seven days for monthly magazines and two days for weekly ones. Check out Flipster at our web page : www.gfjlibrary.org.

GFJ Book Club: Next meeting will be

Wednesday, February 24, from 1-2 in the upstairs meeting room. We will be discussing Still Life With Bread Crumbs by Anna Quindlan.

BARK-9 Dogs will be at the library on Saturday, Feb. 13th & 27th in the Youth Services Dept. Read a favorite book to a favorite dog!

Have you tried Mango, GFJ's online foreign language learning suite? Here's a brief introduction video. Click the Mango icon on our web site (www.gfjlibrary.org) to begin (requires a GFJ-issued library card).
