Tech Classes for May

We are transitioning from Screenleap to Zoom. You will still be able to watch our presentation and use a chat box to ask questions, but now we will have more presentation features to make our classes even better! These include more participants, the ability to use videos in presentations, and we will offer closed captioning!!! Signing in will be similar to before. Instructions to use Zoom can be found on our website, www.gfjlibrary.org/tc. Please note that there may be some bugs to work out and procedures may change over time in order to make the best experience for you. As always, contact the Tech Center or the Adult Reference Desk if you need any assistance.

Adult Events—May 2021

The GFJ Book Club will meet via Zoom on May 26 at 1 p.m. to discuss The Guest List by Lucy Foley. On an island off the coast of Ireland, guests gather to celebrate two people joining their lives together as one. The groom: handsome and charming, a rising television star. The bride: smart and ambitious, a magazine publisher. As the champagne is popped and the festivities begin, resentments and petty jealousies begin to mingle with the reminiscences and well wishes. The groomsmen begin the drinking game from their school days. The bridesmaid not-so-accidentally ruins her dress. The bride's oldest (male) friend gives an uncomfortably caring toast. And then someone turns up dead. Who didn't wish the happy couple well? And perhaps more important, why?

Dear GFJ Community: As you may have noticed, the library has recently gone through some renovations. The list of projects includes the installation of a new roof, a new security system, an ADA operator for our lobby doors, and the replacement of a garage door. Shortly, we will also be replacing a basement exit door. These renovations would not have been possible without your support. I'm so grateful to live in a community that understands the value and importance of our library. Thank you for your continued patronage.
