Tech Classes for March: Virtual classes via Zoom.

We are still offering great virtual classes via Zoom

Zoom Link: tinyurl.com/GFJTC-class

Using Gmail - Thursday, 3/10 at 3:00pm It seems that we need an email address to do anything online, and Gmail is an easy and free service that anyone can use.

Microsoft Word & Google Docs: Comparing Online Word Processors - Wednesday, 3/16 at 3:00pm One of the most common ways people use computers is to create documents and presentations. While many of us have been using Word for decades to write documents, Google Docs' web-based platform contains many interesting features and benefits, and is easy to use.

Ancestry Library Edition: An Overview - Tuesday, 3/22 at 3:00pm

Ancestry is the world's most popular consumer online genealogy resource. This workshop will present an overview of the FREE Ancestry Library Edition site and offer tips on how to navigate through the different sections

Using YouTube to Watch Videos: Tips and Shortcuts - Thursday, 3/31 at 3:00pm

YouTube provides a source for free videos about basically everything from historical news footage to current events, technology advice, shopping tips, how to fix just about anything, and much more.

Tech Help— An appointment is required for a 15-minute session with a Tech Center staff member to help with technology issues. Call or email the Tech Center in advance for more information and to make an appointment. (607)757-5359 or gfjtechcenter@gmail.com.

The downstairs meeting room (Scott room) is getting an update (new heating/cooling system, new carpet and an interactive display board). We will also be adding a bathroom adjacent to the meeting room. Due to the construction, there has not been any meeting rooms or study rooms available. Construction is almost complete. Keep checking our website: www.gfjlibrary.org for information on when you may start reserving meeting rooms again.

AARP Tax -Aide Program

Ask the Librarian:

Dear Librarian: Do you have any resource that will tell me what new books are coming soon and includes recommendations? Loves new books

Dear Loves New Books—

We have a wonderful free magazine called "BookPage" that reviews new books and audiobooks. It comes out monthly and is available at our library.

You can browse by genre to find reading recommendation in fiction, nonfiction, romance, children's, book club reads and much more!

Monthly columns include : book clubs, audio, romance, lifestyles, well read and for mystery lovers a "whodunit" column.

There are also interviews with authors. The March issue includes an interview with children's author Paula Cohen, author of "Big Dreams, Small Fish. For our adult readers: Erika Krouse, her latest book is a memoir titled "Tell Me Everything", which is a true story on how she became a private investigator. So stop by and pick up your copy !

I'd Rather Read YA Book Club

GFJ Library and Your Home Public Library (JC) and the Vestal Public Library have created a virtual book club for those who love Young Adult books. This month's book is Last Night at the Telegraph Club by Malinda Lo
