Silly Story

Have fun making up a silly story by filling in the blanks below. For even more fun, have someone else fill in your choices, then read the story together. Be sure to check the definitions at the bottom, so you choose the right part of speech.

Going to the Seashore

Today was the day! Donovan and Quinn had their _____ packed and ready to go. They _____ to the car and buckled their seatbelts. "You children are so _____", said Mom.

Donovan saw the _____ first. The kids took off their _____ and ran toward the water. The sand was _____! Quinn built a beautiful _____ using her bucket and _____. Donovan had a great time _____ in the waves. After a while, Mom called out, "Come here kids, I need to put more _____ on you.

Then it was time for lunch. The sandwiches were _____ and the juice was nice and _____. Mom settled down to _____ her book for a while and the kids _____ in the _____ sunshine.

Before long it was time to pack the _____ and head back home. The tired children _____ their mom. Quinn said, "We had a _____ day at the
