LIFE IS A BOOK

One never really stops to think that life is a book. It has more romance and excitement, joy and sorrow, exultation and despair, laughter and tears, than any book ever written. For, in reality, books are the enlarged reproductions of thumbnail sketches of life.

We, The Class of '51, have just completed four chapters in our "Life Book." Our high school years have been the "Best Years of Our Lives" and although we may not fully realize it now, someday these chapters will be most vivid and memorable. These have been the days of laughter; these have been the days of "World Enough and Time."

On the following pages you will find a record of the year — our senior year. Each leaf is a book within a book, each word tells a thrilling story. Therefore, each divider and many pictures are captioned with the title of a book.

Come with us now through the pages of our youth. Laugh a little, frown a little, for these are the trials of a child. Now in June of '51 we are no longer children. We are adults — faced with the problems of the future.

"LEADERS"

B. Northling-Swemmer

*The road is narrow, hard and long,
But ever present at our side
Are the "Leaders", our true guides,
To help keep us from going wrong.*

MR. WILLIAM J. KRUM, JR.
Superintendent of Schools

Many things may be said for Mr. Krum, but they have all, at one time or another, been spoken. Thus we can only point out that he maintains Lowell's principle and, in so doing, has become a definite leader in the field of progressive education.

"But it was in making education not only common to all, but in some sense compulsory on all, that the destiny of the free republics of America was practically settled."
—Lowell

MISS MARY L. PITKIN
Principal

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops."
—Henry Adams

Miss Pitkin, too, is an advocate and leader of high scholastic standards. She influences all who come in contact with her because she is a "teacher" of the highest dignity. Under her guidance we are gaining the knowledge so necessary for the future.

MR. DEWITT S. WOODARD
Associate Principal

"The direction in which Education starts a man will determine his future."
—Plato

To Mr. Woodard falls the job of keeping us on the path of Education. A hard task, indeed. We shall not forget his words of advice, for they are sure to help us, no matter upon what career we embark.

IN MEMORIAM ELIZABETH J. SMITH

Elizabeth J. Smith began her teaching at Union Endicott High School in 1922. She taught constantly during this time with only one year's leave of absence.

Miss Smith had not only great teaching ability in mathematics, which she taught at the time of her death, but she possessed an appreciation of music, art, and literature and excelled in these fields as well as numerous others.

A very fitting tribute to Miss Smith is found in the words spoken on October 28, 1950, by William J. Krum, Jr., Superintendent of Schools. In the presence of the people assembled to see the U-E vs. Olean football game, he said:

" . . . As a person, she was the embodiment of absolute integrity in her everyday life. She was honest; she was loyal; she was thoughtful. She was a real Christian and she truly loved her neighbor as herself.

As a teacher, she was a professional person of the highest calibre. No job was too difficult; the hours were never too long. She loved not only the subjects which she was teaching but also the young men and women whom she was teaching." . . .

The example of Miss Smith's life will long remain in the minds and hearts of those persons privileged to come in contact with her.

SENIORS AND UNDERCLASSMEN

"THE BEST YEARS OF OUR LIVES"

Robert E. Sherwood

It's over now,

Yet we're not glad.

"The Best Years Of Our Lives" are gone;

Still, fond memories linger on.

JANUARY CLASS, 1951

SENIOR OFFICERS

Seated: Mary Ann Miller, secretary;
Mary Hudcovich, president.
Standing: James Sammon, treasurer;
Robert Battaglini, vice-president.

The January Seniors of 1951 close their school books only to open the book of life. Their numbers are few, but their aims are high, and on their way they plan to help write a new chapter in the history of the world. Each one of them will have his chance to inscribe in the book of life some small bit for posterity. They will gather fond recollections as they journey through life, for they already have a large volume of memories.

The president of the Mid-year Class was Mary Hudcovich, and elected to assist her in the executive offices were Robert Battaglini, James Sammon, and Mary Ann Miller.

Class colors were maroon and white; the class flower, the carnation. On January 27, the Senior Banquet was held at Harris' Rumpus Room, while, for the first time in the school's history, Johnson City High School and U-E had a joint prom. The gala affair took place at the George F. Pavilion, January 30, to the music of Hal Powell and his orchestra.

The commencement itself was held January 29. Barbara Bennett, Mary Hudcovich, and Joseph Schwarz, the honor students, presented their senior essays.

JUNE CLASS, 1951

SENIOR OFFICERS

Seated: Angela Kavanagh, secretary;
Cornelis deVente, president.

Standing: Lawrence Bursch, treasurer;
Earl Bloom, vice-president.

Through the doors of U-E this year will pass 320 students, talented leaders for the future.

The class officers were Cornelis deVente, president; Earl Bloom, vice-president; Angela Kavanagh, secretary; and Larry Bursch, treasurer. A finer choice couldn't have been made.

Student Government became a rapidly improving and smoothly working unit under the leadership of William Carmine, school President.

Our Athletic Advisory Council members were Rose LaSorte and Michael Wesko. The honor of representing U-E at the Syracuse Citizenship Conference went to Cornelis deVente, William Carmine, Dorothy Allen and Olga Komanowski.

Tri-Hi had a prosperous year under the guidance of Carol Cornell, while F. F. A. under Rolland Vallese, and F.H.A., under Joanne Kocak, reached new heights.

The list of honor students was outstanding and surely each pupil on that list deserved the praise he received.

There are too many more activities and accomplishments of the June Seniors to mention, but the class members have demonstrated definite abilities. We believe they will go forward, for "theirs is the challenge of this life, theirs is 'A World To Win'."

JUNIORS

"THE TREMBLING YEAR"

We, prospective Seniors, bid our Junior year "farewell." It was a "Trembling Year" of looking forward and hoping all the joys of a Senior would soon be ours. Now the goal is in sight and suddenly we realize what pleasures we have had this year.

We selected our representatives to the Athletic Advisory Council, helped nominate the U-E Queen and distributed caps and gowns to the graduating Seniors.

Tri-Hi, Key Club and other organizations saw our smiling faces at their meetings. Thanksgiving night each Junior girl dreamed that next year she might be Queen. Each Junior boy dreamed of that coveted position on the Varsity.

We have finished the chapter which precedes the climax of our high school career. Now we must look to the future — finished is "The Trembling Year."

SOPHOMORES

"THE COMEDY OF ERRORS"

"You aren't Mrs. Roberts, are you?"

Our Sophomore year is over. As we look back, we realize that we made many mistakes, but that is only human.

We became active members of the various clubs. We worked hard and some of us even held offices. Our representatives in Student Government did a fine job in keeping us informed.

When we attended the dances and games, we thought how wonderful it was to be part of this gay crowd.

Our classes were new and interesting and if we didn't do as well as expected, it was only because of our shyness. Next year we're going to do better.

Yes, we're going to do better in everything. We know our way around now. No more errors for us! From here on in it's "Smooth Sailing."

"Are you sure this is the library?"

FRESHMEN

"YOU CAN ALWAYS TELL A FRESHMAN"

We don't know what it is, but people can always pick out a Freshman. Is it the fact that we didn't know whether to turn right or left that gave us away? Or perhaps it was our frightened looks. No matter the cause, we were labeled Freshmen.

A year has passed — a year of fun and excitement. We participated in the school events, took part in the school government and made ever so many new friends.

Now we are ready to become Sophomores. We are no longer the tell-tale Freshmen.

President of School
President of Senate
Speaker of House

Student government at U-E is patterned after the Federal Government of the United States.

It has a constitution which provides for a Senate, House of Representatives, Student Court and an Awards Committee.

The Senate is composed of fourteen members elected in the following manner: two from the freshman class, four each from the sophomore, junior and senior classes. The House is composed of representatives from each homeroom. The President, who has charge of the Senate and is chairman of the joint sessions of the Senate and House, is elected by the entire student body.

Under the leadership of William Carmine, this year's president, many projects were undertaken. These include the freshmen initiation, talent shows, the Miss Smith Memorial Assembly, exchange assemblies, dances, elections, concession stands at the games and the Christmas Party. The organization also established the Elizabeth J. Smith Loan Fund.

The Student Government takes part in the activities of U-E, especially those promoting a closer relationship between students and faculty and inspiring better citizenship.

FRENCH CLUB

First Row: Rose LaSorte, Sandra Newing, Miss Mealy, Nancy Ashman, Louise Sturzenegger.

Second Row: Christine Ferrara, Shirley Havrilka, Delores Dobon, Corrine Konchar, Donna Burt.

Third Row: Marie Ferrante, John Hardman, William Carmine, JoAnne LeBaron.

Early in the fall the French Club elected its officers for the school year. They are: president, Nancy Ashman; vice-president, Louise Sturzenegger; secretary-treasurer, Jack Hardman; and social chairman, Sandra Newing.

Activities this year have been plentiful and considerable participation has been received from the members. Club meetings are usually held in 206 during the 5th period every other Tuesday under the supervision of Miss Janet Mealy, adviser. A play was presented in French by the members at a meeting and directed by Rose La Sorte. In December, a successful dance called "La Pirouette Noel" was held in the boys' gym. February was a busy month, as a dinner consisting of French foods was served at the home of Corinne Konchar. The food was prepared by a committee of the members from a menu compiled by Louise Sturzenegger. During another meeting, Monsieur Rose, a native of France and owner of Rose May Dress Shop, spoke to the members. In June, a picnic will be held to complete the year's activities.

SPANISH CLUB

First Row: Judy Callahan, Barbara Baltzel, Barbara Becker, Barbara Hopko, Lula Karedes, Marlene Pugh.

Second Row: Beverly Occhiato, Constance Hronis, Elizabeth Matola, Sheila Mobley, Harriet Bierly.

Third Row: Marilyn Frey, Virginia Waterman, Ann Henneman, Janet Bradbury.

Fourth Row: Mary Ann Shonosky, Kathleen Cahill, Beneth Brigham.

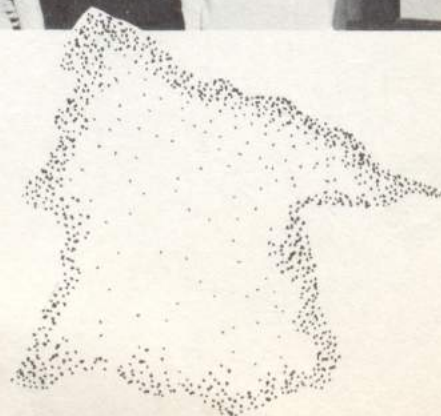

Established fact has it that this year's Spanish Club is bigger and better than ever.

Under the supervision of Carl Zonio, faculty adviser, the club had a well-planned season of activities. Pins were bought for all the members and a fiesta was given.

This year's hard-working officers were: president, Barbara Hopko; vice-president, Jeanette Richards; secretary, Beneth Brigham; and treasurer, Judy Callahan.

According to custom, the finale for '51 was the June Picnic for members and guests.

ITALIAN CLUB

Around Desk: Beverly Occhiato, Mena Tarricone, Marian Franta (seated), Stella Alessi, Rachel Sbarra.

Back Row: Mary Hudcovich, Marie Sbarra, Faith Signor, Filomena Grassi, Donna Lou Tilton.

The Italian Club under the direction of Mr. Carl Zonio strives to promote understanding and appreciation of Italian culture.

To further this end, prizes are awarded at the end of the year to the Senior with the highest marks in Italian I and II.

Although the club was small, guided by their hard-working officers, Marian Franta, president; Mene Tarricone, vice-president; and Stella Alessi, secretary-treasurer, they participated in several dances and a picnic.

LATIN CLUB

First Row: Virginia Waterman, Mary Bouton, Theresa Bendert, Mary Beirne, Maida Russell, Teresa Beirne, Donna Brigham.

Second Row: Jack Hardman, Louis Nichols, Beneth Brigham, Francis Angeline, Leon Eiswerth.

Third Row: Janet Goodwin, May Giannuzzi, Patricia Sawicki, Joseph Nestor, Barbara Cox, Lucille Conti, Mary Walters.

The Latin Club of Union-Endicott High School was officially established under the supervision of Miss Frederica Hollister, faculty adviser, on February 5, 1951. The purpose of this organization as stated in its constitution is the furtherance of cultural language appreciation.

Distinguishing it from other organizations of U-E is the provision for office-holding by which each member has the opportunity of holding a club position because of frequent elections. The Consul is the head of the club. Two tribunes, representing the plebians (Latin III members), have the privilege of attending meetings of the Senate (Latin IV members) while two aediles work with the consul in planning the program. The initial officers were:

Consul—David Calleo

Tribunes—Teresa Bierne and Francis Angeline

Aediles—Donna Brigham and Joseph Nestor

Scribe—May Giannuzzi

Membership in the club has as a prerequisite the attainment of a 90 per cent average in Latin. All students maintaining this average are eligible for election in their third year of study of the language.

Tri-Hi has reached a significant milestone with the coming of '51, for this year marks two decades of service to U-E. All twenty years have been under the able leadership of a friend and counselor, Miss Gladys Mersereau.

The club membership now totals 230. "All U-E Night" on Thanksgiving, at which time the football queen is crowned, is one of the traditional dances sponsored by Tri-Hi. The Christmas and Spring Formals are also sponsored by this Club. During the winter and spring months, some girls enjoy dips at the "Y" while others form bowling teams.

The College Loan Fund assists girls in further education by lending them money without interest until they have finished school. The Loan Fund this year is helping three girls through college. Money-raising projects for the Fund are the Carnival and various dances.

Each year, at graduation, Tri-Hi also gives two or three awards to outstanding girl graduates.

Our sincere wish is that the Club will move forward to ever-widening vistas in the coming years.

THE KEY CLUB

First Row: John O'Loughlin, Eugene Alderman, Cornelius deVente, Leon Smith, Lewis Morrow, David Calleo.

Second Row: James Tait, Lawrence Bursch, Robert Carman, Morris Wheat, David Sterling.

Third Row: John Cunningham, Joseph Nestor, Harlan Reynolds, William Carmine.

Fourth Row: Richard Eldredge, William Daly, Delano Cimino, Donald Cox.

Fifth Row: Ronald Patton, Joseph Beirne, Earl Bloom.

The Key Club is an international organization sponsored by the Kiwanis International. There are approximately eight hundred and fifty clubs with seventeen thousand two hundred and fifty members spread throughout the United States and Canada.

Key Clubbers are boys of high school age who maintain a satisfactory scholastic average as well as possess qualities of leadership, character, and good citizenship. The purpose of Key Clubs is to be a service club for the school as the Kiwanis Club is to the community.

The U-E Key Club holds its luncheon meetings Monday noons. They have had as their guests outstanding men in the community and several representatives from various colleges.

Such services as ushering for social events at school, helping in the March of Dimes campaign, raising money for the Underprivileged Children, and assisting in fire drills, have been rendered by the Key Club.

With the help of the Kiwanis Club and Mr. Thurber, its faculty adviser, the Key Club has had another successful year. The officers for 1951 were: Cornelis deVente, president; Gene Alderman, vice-president; Lewis Morrow, secretary; Leon Smith, treasurer. David Calleo was Lieutenant Governor for New York State District 4.

LIBRARY CLUB

Seated: June DeGues, Mary Jane Corkran, Sallyanne Stevens.

Since education involves personal growth and intellectual development, it is quite impossible to make a quantitative measurement of the value of library club training. One of the most valuable assets of club membership is the constant contact with books, and through them, an intimate acquaintance with Pulitzer prize authors, the leading scientists, biographers, poets, musicians, and fiction writers.

Under the training and supervision of Miss Adona Sick, the school librarian and Club Adviser, the student librarians engage in many activities, such as book displays, inventory, filing, bulletin board arrangements, and library grooming. In addition, a special library interest activity is developed.

Membership in the Library Club is a pre-vocational orientation course in librarianship. The club members become discriminating readers—not only knowing how to read, but what to read.

TECHNICAL CLUB

First Row: Boris Sarachinsky, David Patch, Ervin Babcock, Jerry Wright, Earl Bloom, Joseph Roma, Garfield Cooper, John McGarry.

Second Row: R. Z. Klett, Willard McCarty, Robert Venner, Eugene Arnold, Irvin Blakeslee, William Barno, David Clark, James Taylor, James Longwell.

Third Row: William Dayton, Leonard Havel, Tony Koukides, Peter Uhrnec, Leland Sanford, Benadetto Muggeo, Vincent Picciano, Roger Hart, Paul Mann, Robert deVente.

2nd prize given by the Technical Club to Thomas North.

The Technical Club, under the guidance of Mr. Richard Klett and Mr. James Longwell, proposes to instill into its members a higher knowledge of technical work. This is accomplished by trips through various industries and colleges.

In November, the members took a three-hour tour of International Business Machines Corporation. Trips to Morse Chain Works, Cornell University, Ithaca Gun Works, Links Aviation, General Electric, and New York State Institute of Applied Arts and Sciences at Binghamton were also taken.

The annual Alumni Night Meeting was held in March.

The officers are: president, Earl Bloom; vice-president, Jerry Wright; and secretary-treasurer, Joe Roma.

Recreational programs, such as bowling, softball and basketball, are carried out during the course of the year.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

First Row: Mildred Valenta, Jane Puchalek, Joan Walker, Beverly Bulman, Dorothy Brunick, Vivian Cattarulla, Nancy Adams.

Second Row: Dorothy Retman, Agnes Felo, Marion Lemoncelli, Florence Hills, Antoinette Argento, Beverly Reaves.

Third Row: Jean Lillie, Ruth Py-luck, Sally Lou Reed, Alberta Barr, Dolores Camarda, Marilyn Avery.

The purpose of the Commercial Club is to help its members become better acquainted with the business world in our community. During the past year, the club has had guest speakers from various Personnel Departments who have explained such fields of business as preparation for jobs, applications and interviews.

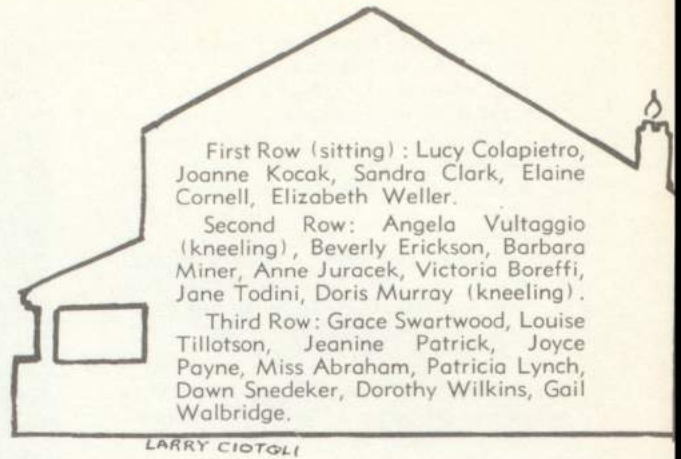

The club has also taken trips through the I.B.M. offices, E-J Offices, the Post Office and the Radio Station. These tours were interesting as well as educational.

This year's officers were Beverly Bulman, president; Joan Walker, vice-president; and Dorothy Brunick, secretary-treasurer.

The final get-together which climaxed the year's activities was the annual June banquet for both club members and Alumni, who are still honorary members.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The "State of the Union" is in fine hands, one will say, after attending a meeting of the Future Homemakers of America. With the able supervision of Miss Joan Abraham, faculty adviser, this organization has sponsored two Bake Sales and a Fashion Show. At Christmas time, a box was sent to teen-age girls at the Susquehanna Valley Home in Binghamton. Mrs. Walker, fashion adviser from McLean's, was a guest speaker at one meeting.

During the summer, two girls chosen by the members are to be sent to summer camp.

In October an Installation Tea was held at which time Miss Joan Kocak, president; Beverly Erickson, vice-president; Lucy Colapietro, secretary; and Gracy Swartwood, treasurer, took office.

The FHA's chief aim is to provide training and experience needed for everyday life.

F.F.A. OFFICERS

The Endicott chapter of the Future Farmers of America is the oldest student club in U-E. It is likewise the oldest F.F.A. club among some 300 clubs in the State of New York.

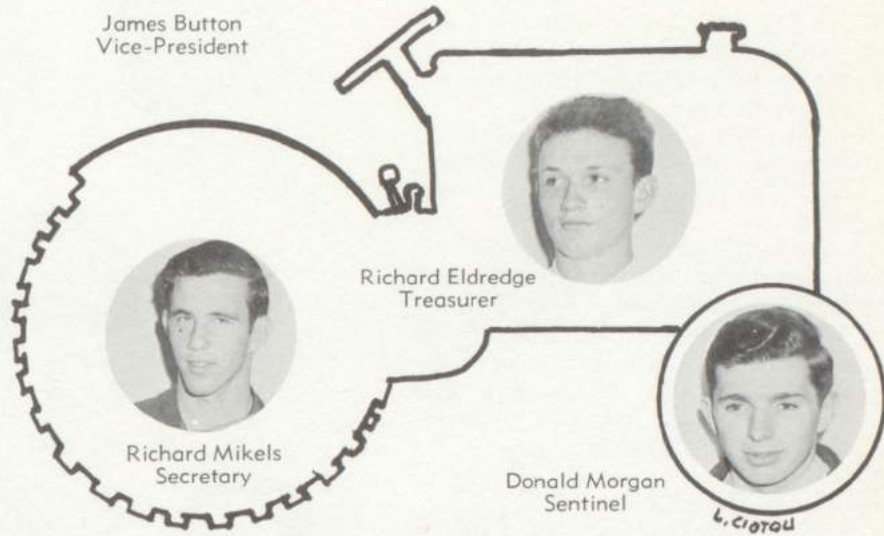

The F.F.A. is a group banded together for teaching cooperation among future leaders of agriculture in this community and state. The club sponsors a basketball team, holds parties, puts on pancake suppers, and hires buses for trips to "Farm and Home Week" at Cornell each spring.

Monthly meetings are held and the members learn parliamentary procedure through action in conducting a meeting.

Delegates are elected to attend the annual state meeting each year. The club sponsors judging teams at various "ag" school contests, such as at Delhi and Morrisville State Schools and State and County Fairs.

Representatives also are eligible to spend a week at the New York State F.F.A. camp at Oswegatchie Lake in the Adirondacks for leadership training.

The present officers are: president, Rolland Vallese; vice-president, James Button; secretary, Richard Mikels; treasurer, Richard Eldredge; sentinel, Donald Morgan; adviser, Henry White.

First Row: Glenn Simpson, Richard Eldredge, James Button, Richard Mikels, Mr. Henry C. White (adviser), Rolland Vallese, Clyde Terry, Donald Morgan, Dale Berry.

Second Row: William Corley, Ray Correll, Fred Decker, Carlson Jones, Frank Decker, Harold Weber, Joseph Kotek.

Third Row: Robert Roosa, Dana Ross, Harold Benjamin, Clarence McLain, Charles Bobbitt, Frank Tovornik, Alexander Zevan.

CREATIVE WRITING CLUB

Have you ever heard this slogan, "Numbers don't count?" Let's associate this quotation with the Creative Writing Club of '51. Although it has had the smallest membership in its history, the activities this year have not been few.

Officers elected this year were Marylou Korcykoski, president, and Olga Wolfe, secretary-treasurer.

Inspired by their liking for writing, the club motivated and wrote the following: Miss Smith's Memorial Assembly, part of the Exchange Assembly to Binghamton North High and our own Thesaurus Assembly. Poetry, short stories, essays, and radio scripts were also among the projects of the club.

The Creative Writing Club is one of U-E's honorary organizations and the present members, as well as former ones, are proud of the many national and local honors bestowed upon them.

Again we say, we feel "Numbers don't count," but enthusiasm and creative interest do.

CHOIR

The U-E Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Edson, has completed another successful season of vocal music. The Choir with 142 members has presented selections at local civic affairs. Their first public appearance during the 1950-51 season was at the International Kiwanis meeting on October 12 in Johnson City.

In place of the annual Spring Concert, the Choir presented an operetta by Gilbert and Sullivan called "The Gondoliers." It was a humorous selection which received the same gratifying recognition that has been given to all Choir presentations.

This season has been unique in every way and next year's holds the promise of lively music and deserving rewards for the Choir—the dream of the sophomore, the accomplishment of the senior.

U-E GLEE CLUB

The all-girl Glee Club of Union Endicott High School under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Edson has 106 members to its credit. The Glee Club participated in the annual Christmas concert, presented the Sunday before Christmas, and received very high praise for their efforts.

The girls in the Glee Club possess very fine voices and are as much a part of U-E's vocal music groups as the Choir. Nearly all of the girls in the Glee Club aspire to belong to Choir and realize that they are now receiving the training necessary to good choirs of the future.

FIFE AND DRUM CORPS

An echo from the days when the revolutionary armies marched into battle amid the clatter of drums, the tread of feet, and the shrill music of fifes has floated down through the years and appeared again here at our own Union-Endicott high. The same clatter of drums, the same tread of feet, and the same music of the fifes again can be heard here at U-E. When Mr. Acton E. Ostling came from Connecticut in 1936 to join the instrumental music department of our school system, he brought with him an idea for a Corps unique in this section of the country. Mr. Ostling, who is not only the director of this organization but also a nationally-known composer and arranger of band music, has again this year most ably directed the Corps in their fine displays of formation drill and precision marching. The twenty members of the outstanding organization with the aid of the drum sergeant, Richard Scudder, showed in their regular Tuesday afternoon rehearsals and everyday after school during the football season the spirit and desire for perfection which have made our high school so outstanding.

FOOTBALL BAND

It seems that every year the Football Band improves — if that can be possible. This year thousands thrilled to the novel and complex formations staged by the band. The four seasonal sports of the year served as the theme for one show with formations of a boat to the tune of "Sailing," a shotgun to "Peter and the Wolfe," a complete skating rink to "The Skaters' Waltz," and a race track to "Hi-Ho, Silver, Musique."

Who dreams up these clever ideas? Mr. Stahl, the director, of course, with the aid of Mr. Randall and Mr. Schmolli. Under their combined efforts and with the enthusiasm displayed by the students, it is no wonder that the band is acclaimed one of the best marching bands in the Triple Cities.

Every Monday evening these accomplished musicians meet to plan and to practice the lively music which they play at our school dances. Besides making a few dollars for their work, the members of this organization gain practical experience which may be of use later in life. To this fine group with their wide and varied selection of popular music and to their able director, Mr. Leonard Panaro, we, the students of U-E, address a heartfelt "Thank you."

The student body saw its historically famed football team end the season with a break-even. Union-Endicott's Tornado had a season's standing of four wins and four defeats.

Everything for the future looked fine after our team, led by Co-captains Alex Rita and Mike La Sorte, gave a strong Hornell team a 27-20 setback in the season's opener.

However, after a two weeks' vacation, our boys didn't look like the same team as they tasted their initial defeat at the hands of the "Redmen" from Binghamton North. The "Indians" took the "Tigers'" hide to the cleaners, 6-0.

Gridders of the orange and black bounced right back again, though, the next week, handing the hosts of Elmira's Southside a 20 to 14 complimentary defeat.

Unbeaten Johnson City's Kittens were next in line and grandstanders predicted if anyone could stop this powerhouse, it would have to be U-E. At the end of three, hard-fought quarters, the scoreboard in Johnson Field read 7-13 in the Kittens' favor. The prediction would have been almost true if the orange and black had held out to the end. Fate stepped in, however, and a few errors and breaks made for a disastrous fourth quarter. With wounded hearts, the sulky "Tigers" trod from the "Cat's" den, bearing scars of another loss: 27 to 7.

The schedule gave the Cobbmen some recuperating time the following week. A winless Olean team came to Endicott and in a matter of hours were on their way back to Olean, still winless. The Endicott reserves saw plenty of action as the Tornado breezed over the upstate team at a gale of 44 to 21.

Two weeks were spent in preparing for the invasion of Elmira Free Academy, but the Blue Devils placed a 13 to 21 wreath of sorrow around our heads.

It took another game to put up another win. The Tiger roared and the quake struck the Ithaca team to the tune of 33 to 18.

Coincidence took over on Turkey Day. The whole season was evenly divided; first a win, then a loss. The clash with our old rival, Central, happened to be the loss's turn. Naturally we couldn't let the jinx down. Those Central Bulldogs chewed the Orange and Black Tiger's ear almost off and then ran back to their kennels with a 26-6 win under their collars. All of this made for distasteful Turkey eating in Endicott.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

Finished in third position this fall with a record of two wins and four losses. Binghamton North High won the championship with Johnson City second, U-E third, and Binghamton Central fourth. U-E had an entirely new team this year as most of last year's champions were graduated to the Varsity Squad. Tatusko, Parisi, Pezzutti, Battaglini, and Colonna play very well.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

After winning three straight, things didn't turn out so well for U-E's basketball squad this year. The breaks were against Coach Roland Friderich's charges, as they wound up the season with a record of five wins and eleven losses in conference play. One of these wins was a game to be remembered by Triple Cities basketball fans. It happened the night of December 13, 1950. The score was tied in the closing seconds when big Don Cantone let go a one-hander that decided the contest. Vestal's high-scoring ace, Dick Miller, followed up with a quick basket, but it was too late. The clock had stopped and U-E was the victor, 57 to 55. Although the total record was not in our favor, we did see many hard-fought and well-played contests with close scores. In the long run, it's not always the victory that counts; instead, it's the lesson well-learned and the beating well-taken that wins the game of life.

J. V. BASKETBALL

• Second Row: Gerald (Jerry) McCormack, Michael (Mike) Maxian, William (Prop) Popelka, Lou Karedes, Edward (Ed) Bilek, William (Bill) McManus, Luigi Giordano, Harvey Cady.

The Junior Varsity, by winning the Conference Championship, proved beyond doubt that they are champions. While winning 16 and losing only 2, they showed speed, skill, spirit, and also teamwork, the most important possession of a championship team. With these boys in mind, things look very good for a tough varsity squad in the coming year.

"TAKE MY ADVICE"

Coach Friderich gives advice to would-be players.

TRACK 1950

Third Row: James Cheer, Joseph Burns, Kevin Conwicke, Jerry O'Donnell, Donald McManus, George Mann, William Little, William Fedasko, Reginald Dellapenta, William Clegg, Joseph George, Eugene Monaco, Manager.

Second Row: Earl Bloom, Edward Sochor, Vince Picciano, Robert Crane, Frank Desko, Richard English, Robert Ellis, Lawrence Harris, Paul Ives, Edward Shattuck.

U - E VS. VESTAL (DUAL MEET 1950)

Capt. John Kotsubka's 1950 track team will go down in history as one of the fastest on U-E records. It pulled the upset of the year by winning the Triple Cities Sectional Meet. With this win behind them, John took his relay team to West Point to represent the Triple Cities in the all-state track meet.

Richard Swartz (at extreme left) winning 220-yard dash, Bernard Caciola (extreme right) in second place, Larry Harris (in center) winning third place.

CROSS COUNTRY

Lawrence (Larry) Gibbs, Andrew (Andy) Herceg, Roosevelt Fiori, Myron Menichetti, Lawrence (Larry) Ciotoli, Rudolph (Rudy) Polisensky, Thomas (Tom) Fink, Coach Mr. Henry White.

U-E's hill and dalers, under the wing of Coach Henry White, and captained by Myron Menichetti, had another top flight year. Their spirits were high as Tom Fink led the pack to second place in Triple Cities Competition and third in the Southern Tier Sectionals. Congratulations to a hard-working team with a will to win.

BASEBALL 1950

UE's 1950 baseball squad, although dropping the majority of its contests, played fast and fair and displayed the old "fight" tradition in every game. The long right arm of Don Atwood won him top honors in the pitching department, while Phil Pero had the best batting average. The most important fact, however, is that every player earned his letters, and well deserved the honor they signify.

VOLLEY BALL

Within the last few years, Volley Ball has become an important sport at U-E. Spearheaded by their Captain Gene Alderman, the team chalked up an impressive record. The last game was played against the faculty. That was quite an event!

BOWLING

Sitting: Wallace Blazicek, Donald Huffsmith, Paul Chaddock, James Schuttak, James Morlando, Nicholas Holobosky.

Standing: Albert Randesi, Richard Cooper, Donald Williams, George Peabody, Richard Valent, Richard Walburger, Anthony Selle.

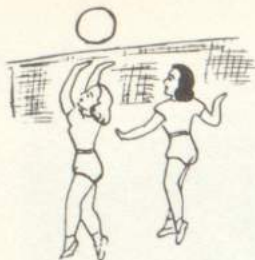

Coach McCormack's Keglers, at the half-way mark, were in second place with eight wins and half as many losses. Five veterans have given the evidence that experience is the best teacher, as the win column steadily enlarges. Without a doubt, another successful year has been well-earned.

CHEERLEADERS

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

MISS BURNS

MISS BILIK

Line Up!!! . . . No suit, eh? Next Tuesday night after school for you. . . . You call those sneaks clean? Take 'em home again. . . . Do you realize you've had four months to get your name on that suit? Next Thursday or else. . . . So maybe there was frost this morning and it's raining a little bit now? So what? We're going out. . . . Cold in this gym? Only your imagination. Just bring your snow suits next time. . . . One-Two-Three-Four. Come on, bend those knees. Even if you won't be able to walk upstairs tomorrow, this is good for you. . . . For Pete's Sake TAKE THOSE SUITS HOME AND WASH THEM!!

A year of Physical Education is completed and with it a lot of groans and grumbles and gripes. But there were a lot of laughs, too, and a lot of good times. And now we share some wonderful memories made possible by a wonderful bunch of girls.

Hockey . . . Soccer . . . Volleyball . . . Basketball . . . Softball . . . a year full of fun and good times for those who participated in girls' intramurals.

The year started with a BANG with hockey and soccer. Hard-fought games were won by close scores.

Cold weather came and activity was brought indoors with volleyball. A nip-and-tuck battle raged as each team fought to gain possession of the title —"Winning Intramural Team." Junior and Senior faces were very red after the Sophomores won the play-off game. A game with the girls from Central and from Vestal . . . U-E unbeatable. A game with the women faculty members . . . and the girls still the victors!

Basketball was a little late in getting started. Games were played during noon hour as well as after school. Keen competition . . . lots of fun . . . friendly rivalry was displayed as each team strove to win games.

Spring . . . Softball . . . outdoors again in spite of muddy fields and cold weather. The cooperation of the girls made possible the success of Triple City Softball Sports Day held at U-E.

I would say, an eventful year . . . one which will in years to come bring back happy thoughts and fond memories.

THEY'RE WORKING!

Josie Hazen, Kay Downs, Angela Kavanagh and Ann Henneman, girls' sports managers, check the locker room after one of the intramural games.

HOCKEY and SOCCER

YEA . . . YEA, TEAM!

HEAVE — HO

Margaret Baber throws the ball to her eager teammate.

HOORAY! WE WON!

The winning team carries their captain, Josie LeBaron, victoriously from the field.

DRIBBLE IT!

Angela Kavanagh uses a smart dribble play to pass off to waiting teammate, Betty Kelm.

. . . READY . . . GO!!

Rosemary Ocilka and Elizabeth Matola face each other in that tense moment before the bully. Watch it!

VOLLEYBALL

ALL TOGETHER

U-E's Girl All-Star Team practices before the big game with Vestal High. Team work is their by-word.

WATCH IT!

Nancy Strusz, acting referee, watches closely for fouls during an exciting intramural play-off.

THIS IS VOLLEY-BALL?

Miss Burns of the Faculty Team serves the ball during the Faculty - Student Game—well, a reasonable facsimile to a game anyhow.

SET IT UP!

Shirley Chura sets the ball up with the aid of Mary Rossi and Liz Vavra. Here is the essence of teamwork.

BASKETBALL

I SAW YOU!
Pat Mohnney calls
a violation on Joyce
Getman.

CATCH IT!
Harriet Bierly handles the ball with skill and finesse in the pre-game warm-
up.

LARRY COTOLI

SWING YOUR PARTNER

Sylvia Fiori provides the music and the girls waste no time in putting it to good advantage.

WADDLE THAT PADDLE

Sara Jane Duffy and Sue Mersereau, the beaming winners of the ping-pong tournament. Nice going, girls!

LAY IT DOWN!

Mena Tarricone and Jean Cheer plan a tricky pitch for unsuspecting Bev Occhiato.

SWEATERS . . . AT LAST!

The big night's here at last when U-E sweaters and letters are awarded to deserving girls. This is one of the proudest moments in a high school girl's life. For her it's a job well done, a pleasure to look back on.

ENTERTAINMENT

"VANITY FAIR"

Whilliam Thackeray

*All a-flutter getting ready.
Still, take the greatest care,
For the entertainment of the evening
May bring a "Vanity Fair".*

ALL U-E NIGHT

The most important event of the school year — the Thanksgiving Dance when the U-E Queen is crowned. Pictured are the Queen, her court and their attendants.

CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Homemaking Department once again sponsors that fabulous Christmas Party for the little ones. Even Santa Claus came!

"BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!"

The weird sounds that echoed through our halls for weeks were later discovered to be caused by the Drama Class practicing for its assembly. Vachel Lindsay's "The Congo" was an admirable selection for choral speaking.

YOURS TRULY!

For a change, some of the hard-working Yearbook staff members receive a little limelight. Gene Alderman, Charles Morgan, Alex Brown, David Hildebrant and Irene Laszewski take part in an assembly to increase Thesaurus circulation.

INITIATION TIME AGAIN

Under the stern eye of the Senior Judges, Bruno Colapietro leads the "German Band" in a rousing march. Of course, after such fine entertainment, how could we refuse to take the freshmen into our fold?

"LIGHT COMPETITION"

The play, "Light Competition," was presented at this year's Christmas Assembly. Gene Alderman and Jane Puchalek aptly handled the lead roles.

FACULTY TEA

This is one time the students serve the faculty. Betty Jane McFadden, Miss Coveney, Miss Steele, Betty Jo Scrufari, Mr. Richardson, Janet Doo-little, Mrs. Cobb and Mrs. Vartuli seem to be enjoying themselves.

SHADES OF FRED ASTAIRE

Friendly relations among our school and others were promoted by a series of exchange assemblies. Tom Fink and Paul Shattuck help to spread good will with their performance at North High.

THE FAMILY PORTRAIT

This looks like an old-fashioned cut! It might be, at that, for it's the cast of the June Senior play, "Life With Father."

"GOOD MORNING, STUDENTS?"

Eva McManus and Richard James are two of the energetic students who rise early in the A.M. to bring the U-E news to you. These programs are presented twice weekly from radio station WENE.

'51 SENIOR PROM

Another January graduating class has left behind the glamour of its last dance. Need we say it was a wonderful evening?

"DOES JOHN LOVE MARY?"

Many incidents had the audience worrying, but it was finally proved that John (Charlie Morgan) was in love with Mary (Beverly Bulman) Under the direction of Miss Thayer, the play, "John Loves Mary," was a definite success.

"CAN'T WAIT 'TIL TONIGHT"

A prom is nothing without decorations. . . . Barbara Starr, Mary Ann Miller, Mary Hudcovich and Joyce Block help prepare for the formal at the Pavilion in Johnson City.

THE JANUARY SENIOR BANQUET

The '51 Graduates enjoying themselves at their get-together, the last for a long time to come. Good luck, guys and gals!

BASKETBALL DANCE

VOTERS' JIG

SADIE HAWKIN'S DANCE

We all thoroughly enjoy dancing and there was no lack of entertainment this year at U-E. This page reflects five of our gay times. Yet it is not so much the picture, but the pleasure the picture recalls that leads us unerringly to this page.

VALENTINE DANCE

THE MAYOR'S BALL

MISCELLANEOUS

"ROOM FOR ONE MORE"

Anna Perrot Rose

*Push and pull, crowd and squeeze!
There must be "Room For One More."
But did you really stop to ponder
How you'll ever close the door?*

"THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND"

The highlight of the school presidential campaign was this parade on Washington Avenue staged for Candidate Bob Carman.

"JUSTICE"

Howard Winslow is briefed before he takes over his duties as Police Chief for a day.

"THE VOICE OF THE CITY"

After a spirited election, Gene Alderman was proclaimed "Mayor for a Day."

"OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN"

Dick Angeline at snappy attention while receiving his Chief's badge. Too bad it was only for a day.

"GUYS AND DOLLS"

It's a square dance at the Victory Hop in honor of "Mayor For a Day," Gene Alderman.

"MR. PRESIDENT"

Stanley Binkewicz congratulates Bill Carmine, U-E's new president, while runner-up, Robert Carman, looks on.

"THE STATE OF THE UNION"

Cornelis deVente, Rose LaSorte, David Calleo, James Tait, Earl Bloom, Arthur Illg and Larry Bursch, last year's representatives to Empire State.

"THOUSANDS CHEER"

Each girl wishes that that coveted position on the Cheering Squad will soon be personally hers.

"ADVENTURES IN APPRECIATION"

Polly Mollica, Mrs. Popelka, Mrs. Friderich, Coach Friderich, Coach Popelka, and Mr. Cobb smilingly watch the dancers, after a basketball game.

"GENTLEMAN'S AGREEMENT"

Republican Mayor Parkhurst and Democrat Trustee Forbes shake hands. After all, both teach at the same school.

"THE CRISIS"

U-E students view actual speed tests to help them realize the danger of speeding.

"FAREWELL TO ARMS"

Don't get excited. It's only Beverly Burke, Joanne Hronis and Edward Bilik in Biology Lab, finishing their report on "Jo Jo," the mannikin.

"NO PLACE TO HIDE"

Rita Cunningham conducts a new chemistry experiment. Here's hoping!

"WE TOOK TO THE WOODS"

"Hard work is the price of success," these boys declare, and they should know, for all are Industrial Art winners.

"THE AGE OF INNOCENCE"

Mr. Hill explains the mechanism to Mary Incitti, John Sedlock, Barbara Hopko and Jack Baldwin, who didn't realize it was so-o-o complicated.

"THE GUIDING LIGHT"

Mr. Brandt and Miss Mersereau, Student Counselors, busy at work as usual.

"THE GOOD EARTH"

Earl Rathbun, Rolland Vallese, Emil Stastney and Henry White meditate on the innate stubbornness of machinery.

"CRIME AND PUNISHMENT"

Joan Williams, Diane Lloyd and Nancy Barnes smilingly insist they didn't do it.

"ABOVE SUSPICION"

Vito Popelka carefully checks slips at the Library entrance. Wonder no more why peace and tranquility reign there.

"OUR TOWN"

Community Problems Class ventures forth to look into another current problem. From the looks of things, they seem to have solved the issue.

"THE STORY OF G. I. JOE"

The Services, represented by Major Kennedy, Sergeant Dean, Sergeant Markovich and Chief Petty Officer Thompson, get together to advise the boys about the future chance of being drafted.

"THE DESIGNING WOMEN"

Rosemary Ocilka, Elizabeth Vavra, Joan Stevens and Angela Vultaggio design that new spring dress.

"FRENZIED FINANCE"

Miss Brainard sells tokens to Joyce Petrovsky, Betty Farwell and Larry Gibbs. That's where all your money goes!

"GONE WITH THE WIND"

Carol Sammon, Anna Juracek, Ronald Kriger, Ralph Marinello, Lola Bates, Patrick Luciani and Joan Hickey busy at work on a new issue of the school paper, the Zephyr.

"BEHIND THE SCENES"

The stage crew of "John Loves Mary" proves the old maxim that the hardest work is done before the curtain rises.

"GREAT EXPECTATIONS"

Virginia Jopson, Patricia Sawicki, Marilyn McCormick, David Hildebrandt, Gene Alderman and Charles Morgan discuss tentative plans for the Yearbook.

"CAPTAINS COURAGEOUS"

Alex Rita, former U-E football captain, congratulates newly elected captain, Francis Angeline.

"IDEALLY BRED"

They may be hungry, but manners are the keynote in the Cafeteria.

"THE MICROBE HUNTERS"

Nurse Lesko and Doctor Mallory relax after a hard day's work in the school clinic.

" 'T WAS THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS"

Dave Calleo, Clark Jones, William Pulse, Dolores Dobon and Nancy Ashman put the finishing touches on the decorations which won for Room 110 the Christmas Decorating Contest award.

"PINK TEA"

Frank Valletta, Terry Coughlin, Anna Juracek, Nancy Adams, Mary Incitti and James Cheer enjoy themselves at the Boys' Homemaking Tea.

"THE GREAT DEBATER"

Olga Wolfe, winner of the Essay Contest on the Constitution, practices for the sectional finals.

"LITTLE WOMEN"

This chorus line of dollies, James Sammon, William Dayton, William Reardon, Gaspar Palmeri, James Doyle, Raymond Camp and Robert Corbett provided hilarious entertainment for January Class Day.

"THE RIVALS"

Room 214 almost took the prize in the Christmas Contest with these original decorations. It was a close race!

"THE WOMAN IN WHITE"

Janet Harris is congratulated by Stanley Binke-wicz after winning the 1950 American Legion award for being the outstanding student of the year.

"BUSINESS LETTERS THAT CLICK"

U-E's Secretarial Staff — Seated: Miss Jessie Brainard, Miss Raymeta Chaffee. Standing: Mrs. Georgia Bolton, Miss Julia Petrak, Miss Elsie Nystrom, Mrs. Belle Barney and Mrs. Helen Cobb. It's small, but efficient.

"THE RUNNING THREAD"

Mrs. Vartuli instructs John Bikos, Thomas Soltis, Philip Allen and Douglas Bowen, avid students of the Boys' Sewing Class.

"THE POSTMAN ALWAYS RINGS TWICE"

Miss Rasmussen and Mr. McCormack get their mail at the office.

"THE MERCHANT OF VENICE"

Benadetto Muggeo sells candy to Sara Jane Duffy, Nancy Barnes, Diane Lloyd and Jean Williams at the Basketball Concession Stand.

"ADVENTURES IN FRIENDSHIP"

Coach Harvey Harmon of Rutgers University, fourth left, speaker at the U-E Block Dinner, and other honored guests.

"BETTY CROCKER COOKBOOK"

Mrs. Lindsey, Mrs. Saddlemire and Miss Hahn prepare the noon-day meal. The cookbook has given way to experience, though.

"AS YOU LIKE IT"

Mr. Spitalsky and Mr. Panasuk busy at work. Just for us? We do like it

"OUR HEARTS WERE YOUNG AND GAY"

The noon-hour crowd waits for the bell to ring and hopes there's five minutes more.

"LES MISERABLES"

It was a mighty cold Thanksgiving Day but nothing stopped these hardy souls from selling programs at the traditional football game.

"MONEY-GO-ROUND"

Mr. Thurber, well-known history teacher, puts aside his text to become salesman for the home basketball games.

"ALICE IN WONDERLAND"

Miss Elma Pratt, with the aid of Lila Senio, Sharon Hassinger, Marietta Dayton and Joyce Mihalcho, explains to art students the wonder and intricacy of international costumes.

"THE HAUNTED BOOKSHOP"

Mrs. Roberts signs out books to Marguerite Roach, Agnes Bachynski and James Marlin.

"THE GRIDIRON STORY"

At last! The first day of football practice arrived. Ed Shattuck and Coach Ty Cobb check equipment.

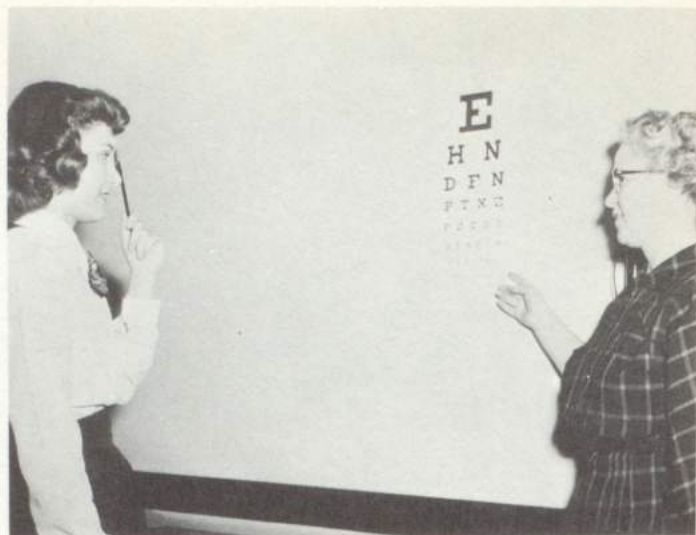

"IF WINTER COMES," (WHO CARES?)

Mr. Krum and his lovely wife make a most attractive couple at the January Senior Prom.

"LOOK TO THE MOUNTAIN"

Nurse Lesko tests Joan Konikowski's eyes. Vision proved quite accurate.

"MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING"

Robert Scalzo gives his performance for the day in Drama Class—where anything can happen and usually does.

"THE KEEPER OF THE WOLVES"

Miss Lawrence seems to be having a difficult time keeping traffic moving.

"THIS HERO BUSINESS"

Tri-Hi girls, Camille Maggiore and Kay Yeingst, practice artificial respiration during their Life Saving Class at the "Y".

FAREWELL

The remaining pages are still to be written. Some of us have much more to experience; others have only to write, "Lived happily ever after." But no matter what is still to be set down, we have spent the first "Green Years" well. We have had our ups and downs, but that is what makes life so interesting.

Now we face the problems of the future in this unsettled world. What it holds for you and me, no one knows. We have reached this turning point, and, as we travel on, let us hold dear the memories of these days together. One more glance, one more word, one more sigh, but not farewell, for . . .

"Often parting paths may cross
Though now we know not where or when.
So let's not say good-bye at all
Let's say "until we meet again."
