UNION-ENDICOTT HIGH SCHOOL, ENDICOTT, NEW YORK

SUPERINTENDENT

TO THE HONORED GRADUATES OF 1965:

Your Superintendent, on behalf of the Board of Education and all of your teachers, extends to you hearty congratulations upon attaining this important educational milestone. Many of you will go on to further education in colleges and universities throughout the fifty states. Some of you will begin the long and sometimes frustrating competition of the business world. A few of you have already made arrangements to enter the military service, and some of our girls are contemplating marriage in the immediate future.

It is appropriate for your elders to extend advice to you at this important time. I cannot help but think of a poem by Everett W. Hill which, in my opinion, describes the best advice that I know.

GIVE OF YOURSELF

Give of yourself that you may have knowledge of how to live.
Give of yourself that you may know the meaning of how to give.
Give of yourself that you may know when others may be in need.
Give of yourself that you may lose desire for selfish greed.
Give of yourself that you may love and friendliness be shown.
Give of yourself that you may ask God's Will to be your own.

Graduation from High School is not the end of something, but rather it is the beginning of a way of life in a democratic society that will permit you to be a participating, cooperating member. Hence, the word commencement. Each of you will now commence the long path of life that you have chosen to follow. We sincerely hope that you travel this path with dignity, honor, and in happiness.

The Class of 1965 will always hold fond memories for me because this was the first graduating class during my tenure as School Superintendent of the Union-Endicott Central School District. Good luck, and God bless each and every one of you.

INFORMATIO

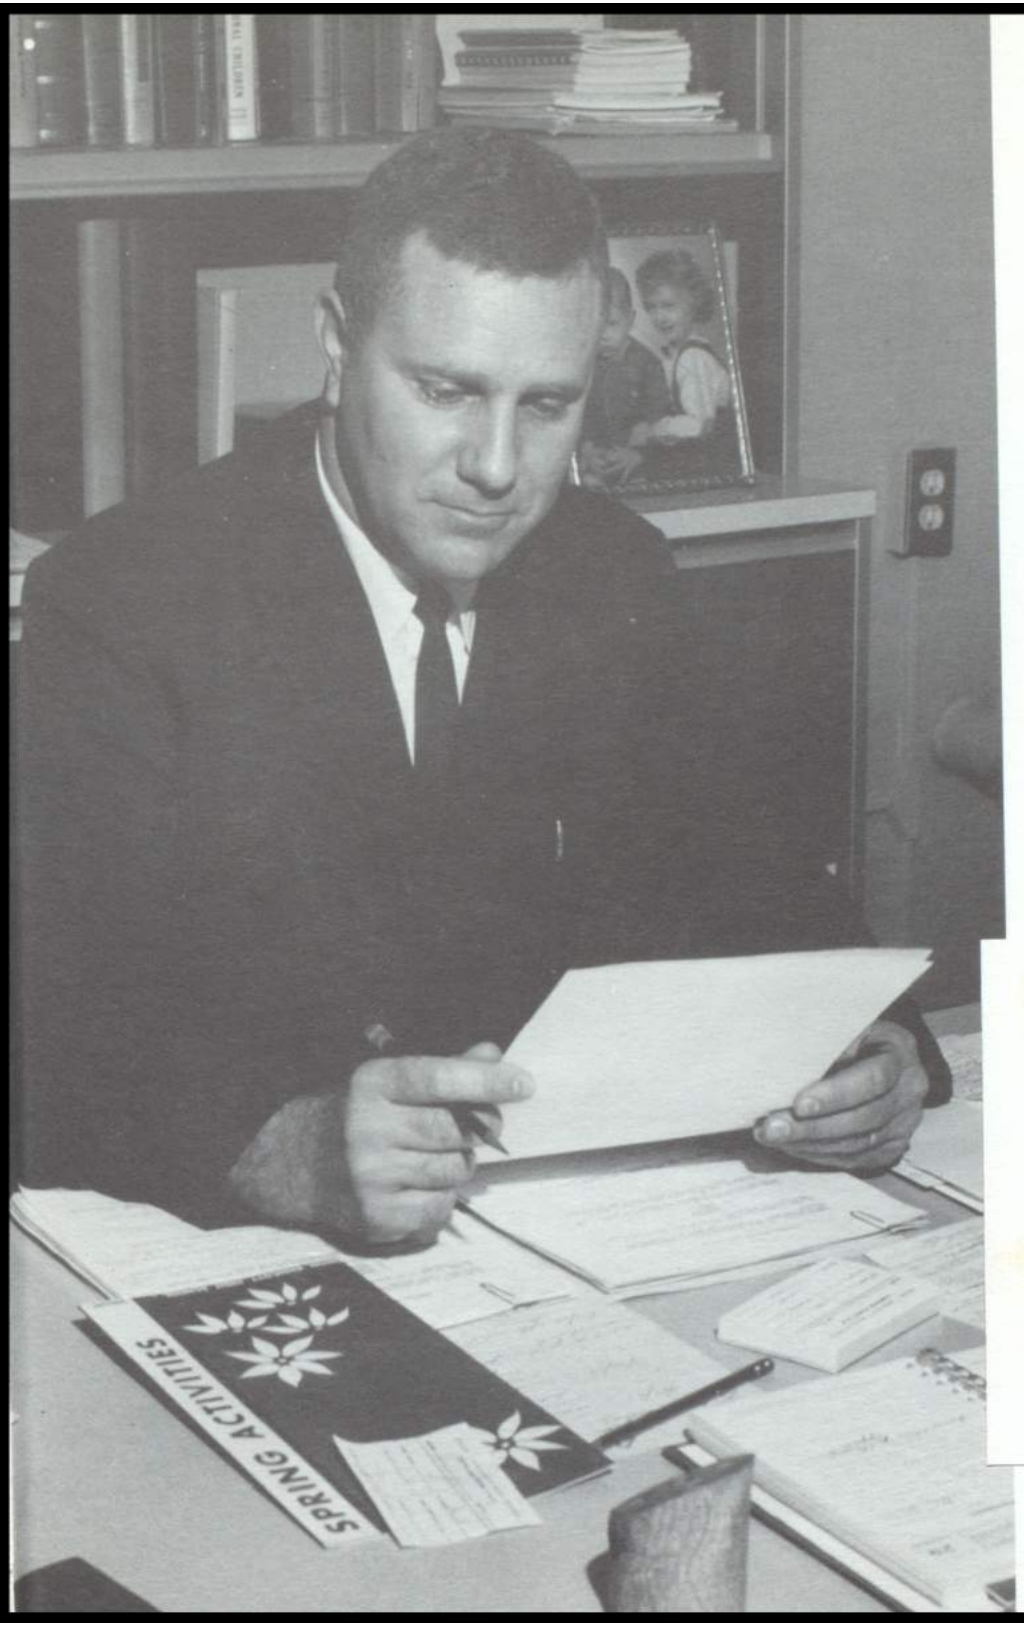

Whether it be at work or at play, whether it be with friend or foe, we are constantly being challenged. Challenge seems to be the everlasting, self-winding spring that coils us into action.

To dare, to venture, or to contest is man's way of accepting the challenge in his search for a better tomorrow. Yet, the same challenge can be man's way of destroying himself and tomorrow.

You, the students, are our challenge and knowledge is our main spring for better understanding. We trust that today's challenges are memorable stepping stones for a successful future in a peaceful world.

PRINCIPAL

MARTIN BORTNICK JR.

We have been destined to live our lives in a time of great world turbulence and change; a time that has been characterized as a race in human history between education and catastrophe.

One of the prime challenges of education in these turbulent times - for all Americans - is the global challenge for us to assume our potential role as the leader of the international community of nations. This is a role which demands of us as a nation and as individuals a far greater understanding of other peoples and places than we have ever known. To paraphrase President Kennedy, the great currents of history are carrying the world away from communism and towards national independence and freedom. No one can doubt that the wave of the future is not the conquest of the world by a single dogmatic creed but the liberation of the diverse energies of free nations and free men. We must seize the vision, the challenge of a free and diverse world, and shape the policies of our country to speed the progress toward a more flexible world order.

Principle, understanding, knowledge and wisdom, not expediency, must guide our decisions. All people must be treated with the dignity and humanity which we want for ourselves.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

MICHAEL E. GANCE

Faculty Profile

Mr. Bortnick graduated from U-E in January, 1941, as the president of his senior class.

Out of school, he worked in the payroll office at Endicott-Johnson. In September, 1942, he decided to return to school and attended New York State Teachers' College at Albany.

In the Spring of 1942, he joined the armed forces, serving the 34th Infantry, stationed in Africa. He received the Bronze Star for heroic action at the Battle of Cassino and was discharged in November, 1945.

School Aid Hike Could Help Tier

The State Education Department will ask the New k Legislature for a $151,673,000 increase in its dget.

If the newly Democratic-dominated Legislature roves a program for 1965-1966 unveiled today by Board of Regents, nearly every school district in ome County would get a good-sized increase in e aid.

The Regents' legislative proposals, announced today, will be a problem for Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller, whose government was deep in financial trouble already.

The governor faces the task of meeting a gap of $300,000,000 to $400,000,000 between the present rate of state spending and its expected income next year.

The Board of Regents says its budget request of $1,300,000,000 would mean an increase in taxes. But it says the people of the sstate must spend more for education, with rising enrollment and mounting needs and problems.

Albany — (AP) — The Legislature's fiscal experts planned to advise Republican leaders today to give up hopes of enacting a substantial increase in state aid for education this year.

The chairmen and staffs of the Senate and Assembly fiscal committees reached this conclusion after a month-long study of Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's $2,920,000,000 budget.

Although Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney was willing to acdept the verdict, Assembly Speaker Joseph F. Carlino was reported to be still hopeful of coming up with a plan to provide more aid.

U-E Cadet Teachers

U-E has two cadet teachers this semester. Mr. Jeff Sherer and Mr. Robert Yesselman, both seniors at Cortland State, have many things in common.

Mr. Sherer, who is from the Bronx, is an English major working under Mr. McCracken. His minor is theater and he has appeared in numerous plays on the Cortland campus. He is a past president of the dramatic club, Masquers, and has had the opportunity to direct a play. He also has worked on the staff of Cortland's school newspaper.

He was very impressed with U-E when he first arrived, particularly with the general atmosphere and attitudes of the students and teachers. In comparing the relationship between students and faculty here with that of schools in New York City, he remarked that there, the two groups are very wide apart and the teachers do not have the chance to get to know and help the students at all. He said that at U-E the classes are small enough and this relationship is close enough that this wall or barrier does not exist. He believes that, as a result, it is easier for a teacher to get his point across to the students during a class period.

Mr. Sherer, who would not be considered as a substitute in lowing story: During his first week at U-E, while still unfamiliar with the layout of the of our entire student body, he appreciates the smaller classes which we have. He thinks that they promote a better student-faculty relationship, which is very important. As far as the U-E students are concerned, he has only had the opportunity to know those in his four C.P. classes so far, but he likes their attentiveness and eagerness to learn. One of the ideas Mr. Yesselman enjoys most at U-E is the system of 8th period. He believes that this is an excellent way to take care of discipline, extra help, clubs, and so on.

We hope that both cadets enjoy their stay at U-E and will take with them many fond memories when they leave.

Faculty Profile

Our assistant principal, Mr. Michael Gance, is a January 1946 graduate of Union-Endicott High School. While he was attending U-E, he lettered in football as left-halfback and safety.

Upon graduation, Mr. Gance enlisted in the Marine Corps. During his two years in service, he had the opportunity to "see the world" or at least a good part of it. His tour of duty took him into the Pacific area and included China, Saipan, Guam, the Pagan Islands, the Philippines, and Hawaii.

After he was discharged from the Marines, Mr. Gance enrolled in Champlain College and, at the end of his sophomore year, transferred to Harpur College, from which he graduated in 1953. He was a science major and minored in history. For the next few years he worked for his masters de- [illegible] State and his Masters equivalents in guidance and in administration at Cornell University. He now holds permanent certificates in both of these areas. During this time he taught at an elementary school in Vestal for one year and science and mathematics at Jennie F. Snapp School for three years. He then became a guidance counselor at J.P.S., a position he held for three years before coming to U-E as assistant principal in 1962.

He said that he and Mr. Sergi will reevaluate the present program a year hence.

This quotation was taken from an article written in 1944. The U-E Football Queen was Arlene Knickerbocker who was crowned by football captain, Angelo Grassi, of the undefeated, untied football eleven of 1944. More than 1,000 fans turned out to honor the football players and to enjoy the All U-E Night Dance.

The first recorded date of the football dance was 1934. Tri-Hi, supervised by Miss Gladys Mersereau and the Hi Club, a boys' club, jointly sponsored the football dance after the annual U-E vs. Central game. All the dances in subsequent years were put on to honor the football players.

"Now with Thanksgiving drawing near, they look forward to the All U-E Nite, a dance given by Tri-Hi and Hi Clubs. This is one of the biggest sports events of the year."

Union Endicott Adult ion Department has uf 350 letters to high drop outs who hich the eligible voters of he School District would ote on a proposal calling or the purchase of four adtional new buses.

Most of the petitions received were from parents whose children were affected by the transportation policy change of last year. Many of the students were eliminated from riding school buses when the ol B[illegible] allowable walking distance for kindergarten thru the third grades from .7 to .9 of a mile.

In addition to this, Superintendent of Schools Richrd P. McLean announced hat there are about 300 more students riding the buses this year over last year.

The cutback in the transportation policy was brought about mainly due to the fact that district voters defeated a proposition last year which would have authorized the District to purchase 2 new buses at that time.

The new proposal which is to be voted upon on October 15, if passed, would authorize the District to purchase four new buses at a cost of

Rotary Exchange Student Arrives Here From Japan

Shigeru Kawakami, a 17-year-old exchange student from Kumamoto, Japan, invited by the Endicott Rotary Club to promote better relations between the United States and Japan, arrived at Broome County airport on Friday evening, Sept. 4. He was greeted there by Roy [illegible] president of Endi- [illegible] stein, chairman of the Student's Exchange Service, B. Worth Dittrich, a past president of Endicott Rotary Club, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Delaney, at whose home the young student will be staying, and other members of Endicott Rotary.

Shigeru was president of his senior class in high school last year, is a leader of a religious club and attended the World Boy Scout Jamboree when held in Marathon, Greece two years ago. He can read and write English at the university level and intends to study medicine upon his return home. While in Endicott he will attend either Union-Endicott High School or Harpur College depending on his desires.

U-E High School Band Boosters Nominate Slate of New Officers

Officers have been nominated for the U-E High School Band Boosters. They will be elected at the June Meeting, the date of which is to be announced later.

The slate is as follows: For president, Lawrence Goodwin; for vice-president, Mrs. Charles Smalzer; for secretary, Mrs. Donald Fuller; for treasurer, Mrs. Lawrence Goodwin.

At the May 14 meeting, the Boosters were shown more band uniforms and discussed plans for future activities of the band.

The U-E Band, that won an A-5 rating in the state tests at Binghamton North High School May 16, will play its annual concert in the school auditorium May 22.

Latin Club Active

Latin Club, under the supervision of Mrs. Davis, a Latin II teacher, recently held its organizational meeting. George Hudock was elected consul, or president; Lon Luizzi is this year's scribe, and Morty Schwartz and Harry Baker are ediles, or entertainment chairmen.

Latin Club meets once a month, with a planned program for each meeting. They hope to have a Harvest Program, a Saturnalia Party, a Roman New Year Party, and a program with Miss Hollister showing various slides of her trips abroad. A successful bake sale was held, and other projects are planned to raise funds for refreshments at the meetings and the [redacted] many Latin [redacted] in having an authentic Roman feast, with the members clad in

Tribute To A X-Countryman Defeat Auburn, Tigers Turn to Vestal Contest

Scoring seven points in the first quarter and seven more in the fourth was enough for Fran Angeline's U-E Tigers to pick up their seventh victory of the season last Friday evening at Auburn. The final score was 14 to 6.

U-E, scoring from the opening kickoff, ran its consecutive quarters-scored-in to 30 as the Tigers picked up the seven points. But the string was broken shortly after, when, due to a fumble, and [redacted] the Tigers again

Monday night, it was revealed that, starting in September, students of the Union-Endicott High School will be eating their lunches in their own school. Bag lunches will be made available. Also it was said that elementary students who were bused or escorted to the Colonial Hall cafeteria previously, will be eating in nearby schools this year.

Acting superintendent Joseph Ringers, told the members of the board that the cafeteria in Colonial Hall will be closed down because the machinery and equipment is old and will probably disposed of.

Officials of the school district were also concerned with the high school students crossing the heavily traveled Main Street and Lincoln Avenue to get to the cafeteria.

A disciplinary problem also arose with the bus students on the way to the cafeteria. Mr. Ringers stated that it is the desire of the administrators to keep the children in their own school or one close by.

High school students will be eating their bag lunches, which although cold, will be a Type A lunch and will cost the same price as that paid last year, in the En-Joie clubhouse for the first part of the term. After the term starts folding tables will be placed [redacted] material [redacted] he luncheon will be made available there.

Boys and girls from the Broad Street school who want a lunch will be escorted to H. B. Endicott School; George W. Johnson pupils will go to the George H. Nichols and students from the George F. Johnson school will most likely go to Jennie Snapp School, although

Two other extra-inning games were played in the circuit that afternoon. Maine-Endwell downed Binghamton Central, scoring twice in the eighth for a 12-10 decision. Also in 10 frames, Vestal Central subdued Johnson City, 8 to 7.

Binghamton North took Susquehanna Valley in regulation distance, 2-0.

Chenango Valley got a run in the seventh to deadlock U-E, 4-4. Three scoreless stanzas followed. Then U-E broke out for two in the eleventh but CV came back for three in its half of that inning. Marv Berg drove across two runs to make it 6-6 in the home half of the eleventh, then Chris Shafersingled him across with the winning tally. Shafer, who went to the mound in the ninth, was credited with being the winning pitcher. Jones, who relieved Brewer for the Tigers in the Vestal scored its decidin run in the tenth with squeeze play.

Dan Springer's homer wi two on in the seven brought M-E into a 10-10 with Central and Herm Ca hit a two-run homer in t eighth that won for the Sp tans.

THE REED

This year, the Reed, which is U-E's literary magazine, is following its year-old traditions. The organization consists of a small group of students who are trying to find, evaluate and publish creative expressions throughout the school. Diane Charnetsky is the Editor with Rick Sabot, Assistant Editor, Barb Brooke, Secretary and Randy Short, Treasurer. Mr. Fiorenza is the Reed's advisor.

DEBATE CLUB

The U-E. H. S. Debate club, whose advisor is Mr. McCracken, will have participated in several tournaments in the spring debate season. In its first encounter at a Vestal-sponsored match U-E came in tied for first in a field of ten, and its debaters scored high on individual points. This year's topic, the creation of an international nuclear control agency, will be debated at the Debate League's semi-finals, to be held at Harpur, and U-E hopes are that our teams will go on to the finals at Albany.

DRAMA

A group of more than fifty students interested in theatre are members of the U-E Drama Club. This year the club directed much of its attention to the production of "My Fair Lady".

In their meetings, the thespians and back-stage workers discuss current plays, acting and production problems, and hear excerpts from classic works on records.

The group also attends area productions of plays and musicals. One such enchanted evening was a trip to the Masonic Temple to see "South Pacific".

MUSIC CLUB

The Music Club, organized for the first time this year, has been very successful. Money to finance their activities has been raised by selling U.E.H.S. license plates to the community and by two pizza sales held at the club house.

The production of "My Fair Lady" gave the club a chance to be of assistance by arranging the publicity and by selling tickets.

The club has arranged a trip to Philadelphia to hear the Symphony Orchestra. This opportunity was open to all students at U-E High.

This year's officers were: Steve Couch, president; Chuck Cole, Vice President; and Christine Dietrich as Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Bryden and Mrs. Hughes acted as advisors.

As long as there are two men left on earth, there will be challenge. Existence without challenge is impossible.

Since the beginning man has had to face challenges. He has met them head on and given his best. Because of this, we have reached our present civilization. There are still many challenges to be met. Some will seem unconquerable, but we must not falter in our faith. Strong minds, stout hearts and sincere faith are needed to conquer these challenges. We must train ourselves to meet the challenge of the future, for as sure as the sun will rise tomorrow a challenge will arise with it.

The future can be accurately and precisely summarized in one word, "Challenge." Let us take up that challenge!

Anthony Monticello
President

U-E hosts Southern Tier Inter-Scholastic Association of Student Councils.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Student Government, under the outstanding leadership of Anthony (Mony) Monticello, president, Marge Cregger, vice president, Donna Erat, president pro tempore, George Brigham, secretary, and Lon Luzzi, treasurer, has given U-E an unforgettable record for the year of 1965.

The first duty undertaken by the Student Government was the semi-annual conference of the Southern Tier Inter-Scholastic Association of Student Councils held at U-E in early fall. Fourteen area high schools aired their views on such topics as sororities and fraternities, honor system, community vs. student government, clubs within the Student Government, and school rivalry. Friendlier relations among schools was one result gained by our Student Government.

The constitution was amended so that Student Government might operate more effectively; for the second year they contributed to the support of Kim Yung Kil, their Chinese Foster Child; they added to the Christmas decorations; the annual Christmas Charity Drive netted $500; they campaigned for the student lounge; and they sponsored a dress-down day and also the Talent Show.

School spirit runs high at U-E due mainly to the effort of the school spirit committee. A neon sign reflecting the word TIGERS in our new gym greets any foe who trespasses on the courts of the U-E gym. Money was also given to our cheerleaders by the Student Government for new uniforms.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

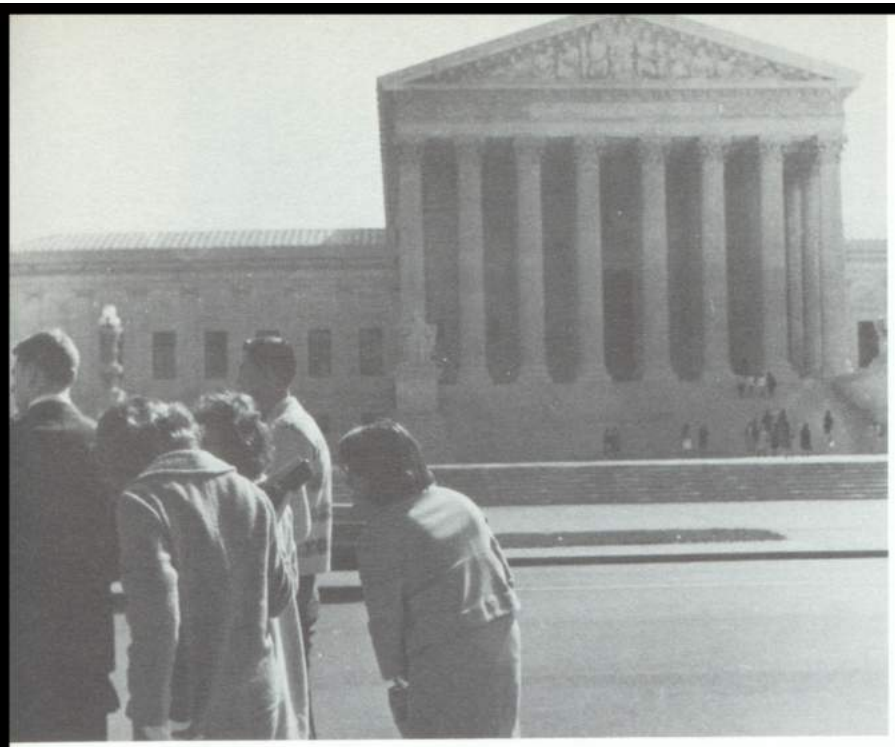

U-E's chapter of the National Honor Society, one of the many spread across the country, is comprised of juniors and seniors with a general average of 92 (juniors) or 90 (seniors). Membership in National Honor Society also requires outstanding character, leadership, and service.

This year's projects include teacher recognition and ushering at school functions. Plans have also been made for a tutoring system and a program to aid sophomores and juniors in preparing for college.

This year's officers were: Ron Ganim, president; Dave Latta, vice-president; Jill Anderson, secretary; and Diane Charnetsky, treasurer.

The band this year has been quite active with money raising projects. Two bake sales and a dance came off with great success. The money raised was to be used for a trip.

Probably the most successful and exciting affair of the year for the band was the purchase of new uniforms. They consist of a basic uniform of black jackets and trousers for concerts. For a snappy change of appearance, white leather overlays for the jackets and tall white beaver hats round off the marching uniform. A clever drill and tricky music added the final touches to make the band one to remember.

This year, Joyce Smalser held the honor of being President. Sue McDavit presided as Vice President and Jill Anderson held the office of Secretary-Treasurer. With Mr. Bryden as advisor, the band turned out to be one of the best in years.

Congo Troops Press Toward Stanleyville

Kindu, the Congo — (AP) — Congolese troops and their white mercenary leaders raced north- ward today in a drive aimed at capturing rebel Stanleyville. There were no reports of rebel resistance.

Congolese Army Headquarters announced the advancing col- umn, which left Kindu yester- day, had entered the Punia dis- trict 150 miles north of Kindu. They still had 180 road miles between them and Stanleyville.

En route they must cross the 300-yard-wide Lowa River at Yumbi. Normally, there is a motor launch for a ferry, but it was not known if it was in working order.

Shadow of Bomb Lies Over Asia

By UP-International

Washington—The United States faces the urgent task of softening the political impact on Southeast Asia of Red China's initial nuclear test blast.

The problem is diplomatic at this point, not military. But the implications are far-reaching.

Peking's success could well have tremendous psychological effects in the Far East, as well as in other underdeveloped areas. It seriously complicates the multitude of problems al- ready facing the United States.

It could be a factor, too, in ... some of the ...ol of world ...mmunism between Red China and the Soviet Union.

THE EVENTUAL effect on the United States and its allies of this lonely blast in Western China is hard to foresee. It may be disastrous. On the other hand, it could be turned into a plus for the anti-Communist world if skillfully exploited by Western diplomats.

The fact that it will be a long time before Communist China has a real nuclear arsenal is beside the point.

In the eyes of many Asians, it is likely that Red China now ha acquired the capability spreading a cloud of nucles blackmail over her neighbor and will exploit it to the fulles

Administration authori- ties frankly acknowledge that they are uncertain just how much effect these words will have upon the poor and restless masses living in the shadow of the Chinese Communist giant.

But in Thailand, a U. S. ally, a cabinet minister told report- ers, "Quite a lot has changed since yesterday."

A spokesman for the Malay- sian Foreign Ministry said the explosion constitutes "a threat to non-Communist nations in the region."

India fought and lost a bor- der war to Communist China two years ago. Indian premier Lal Bahadur Shastri said the Chinese explosion "has come to me, and I think to the whole world, as a shock and a danger to the maintenance of peace."

Sorensen joined the late Pres- ident when the latter was elect- ed to the Senate in 1952. He went to the White House with him as a special counsel to the President.

THE DAY an assassin's shot ended Kennedy's life, Sorensen was at the White House. He doesn't want to talk about that day, or about his reactions.

In retrospect, Sorensen said he can't put his finger on any one decision or event which will eventually give Kennedy his place in history.

"There were s said, "and it is which was the most important."

"MAYBE in 20 years, when people look back they will say it was the Cuban crisis, when his decision made the Russians withdraw the missiles from Cuba, because that was the turning point in the Cold War," said Sorensen.

"Maybe in 20 years, the Test Ban Treaty will appear in the same light. Certainly that was a major decision.

A hush falls in Dal

By [illegible] FREEMAN

DALLAS (AP) — The hush of a cathedral fell over Dallas at 1 o'clock CST Sunday. As though led by an unseen hand, the 200 people on the little plaza turned as one and stared at the sun-bathed sixth-floor window of the Texas School Book Depos- itory.

HALLANDALE, Fla.—A year ago, an articulate young President was to deliver an address at the Trade Mart in Dallas. The speech was undelivered. Hundreds of Texans waited patiently. They, and the nation, did not know that the President had a prior engagement.

Today, the Silent Speech has more meaning. Listen:

"America's leadership must be guided by the lights of learning and reason—or else those who confuse rhetoric with reality, and the plausible with the possible, will gain the popular ascendency with their seemingly swift and simple solutions to every world problem.

"There will always be dissident voices heard in the land, expressing opposition without alternatives, finding fault but never favor, perceiving gloom on every side and seeking influence without responsibility. Those voices are inevitable.

Homework Adds Needed Training

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.
University of Southern California

Homework gives a student something the classroom work cannot duplicate—a chance for independent work and study!

Every student needs more learning than can be acquired in a closely supervised classroom. Juggling two open textbooks and a notebook and, at the same time, doing an acceptable job of writing on a tablet armchair is impossible!

It was strange reasoning for a judicial decision, but it isn't new in Mississippi where burning and killing can be done with impunity when the victims are Negroes.

There was a striking rebuttal to the latter in Nassau County. A district court judgeship, a $25,000 job, was at stake. The first count, election night, showed the Republican a winner by 48 votes. An unofficial recount a week later narrowed the margin to 11. This week, the Nassau County Board of Elections announced that the Demothe succeeding days that thought recurred, with i tions. I had a first-hand report on the shock the news brought in a local high school. I know of a promising Triple Cities youth who had been majoring in political science at college. The Dallas tragedy derailed his interest — I hope temporarily — and a period of apathy was followed by tentative efforts at other fields of study. I suspect this case is far from unique.

In all that has been written about John F. Kennedy, before and after his death, the theme of youth reverberates regularly. As a candidate he was accused first of being too immature and then of being a Shining Knight image, drawing votes as a film actor draws teenage cheers. After his election, he and his young family were taken to the hearts of America and the world. After the assassination, the phrase "broken promise" — the lament for achievement uncompleted — was perhaps the most frequent

ALTHO' BING' HAS ALWAYS FAVORED
THE VIOLET'S DARK BLUE
AND THE GENTLE SONS OF ELMIRA
TO THE BLUE AND WHITE ARE TRUE.
WE WILL OWN THE LILIES SLENDER
NOR HONOR SHALL THEY LACK,
WHILE THE TIGER STANDS DEFENDER
OF THE ORANGE AND THE BLACK

THRO' THE FOUR LONG YEARS OF HIGH SCHOOL
MIDST THE SCENES WE KNOW SO WELL,
AS THE MYSTIC CHARM OF KNOWLEDGE
WE VAINLY SEEK TO SPELL,
OR WIN ATHLETIC VICT'RIES
ON THE FOOTBALL FIELD OR TRACK
STILL WE WORK FOR DEAR OLD U-E
AND THE ORANGE AND THE BLACK.

WHEN THE CARES OF LIFE O'ERTAKE US,
MINGLING FAST OUR LOCKS WITH GRAY,
SHOULD OUR DEAREST HOPES BETRAY US,
FALSE FORTUNE FADE AWAY,
STILL WE BANISH CARE AND SADNESS
AS WE TURN OUR MEMORIES BACK,
AND RECALL THOSE DAYS OF GLADNESS
'NEATH THE ORANGE AND THE BLACK.
