Look to this day!

Newspaper editor, Melinda Mossew, supervises as Brent Korba puts the finishing touches on the largest collage in U-E.

For it is life,
The very life of life.
In its brief course
Lie all the verities
And realities of your existence:

Through artwork, Karen Bruce finds her means of self-expression.

The senior class got the jug by displaying the most enthusiasm at the fall pep rally.

The bliss of growth,
The glory of action;
The splendor of beauty;

Quarterback Rod Zur prepares a handoff to running back Tom Baleno while the offensive line blocks Maine-Endwell.

Chrissy Zayac, a tiny, charming, and captivating cheerleader shows a great deal of spirit for the football and soccer teams.

*Look well,
therefore, to this day.*

For yesterday is already a dream, and tomorrow is only a vision;
But today, well lived
Makes every yesterday
A dream of happiness,
And every tomorrow
a vision of hope.

Joanne Martin

Football cheerleaders enthusiastically root for U-E's teams during the first pep rally.

Look also to a new tomorrow.

To behold a whole new day aborning.
To heed the call of
dawn's creation.
To peer inward and see soul.
To gaze outward and see hope.

Rich Olson

Lorrie Fish

To feel new meaning in the life you know.
 To find purpose in being.
 To sense challenge in becoming.
 To find summer in winter, spring in fall.

A view of the Susquehanna River from the Endicott-Johnson parking lot.

Truly the Tiger's Pride, U-E's 120 piece marching band, which placed fifth at the New York State Fair Competition, perform their "Greatest Show on Earth" halftime routine.

To wonder at the life you are about to know.
To quest for who you are and what you are to be.
To seize the present.
To chart the future.
To accept your place in today.
To assert your place in tomorrow.
To become.

Administration seeks innovation and change.

Golf is the favorite pastime of Mr. Bortnick, the Assistant Superintendent of Instruction.

The Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Zimmerman, would ski more if he had the time.

Mr. Powell, Assistant Superintendent of Business, enjoys fishing.

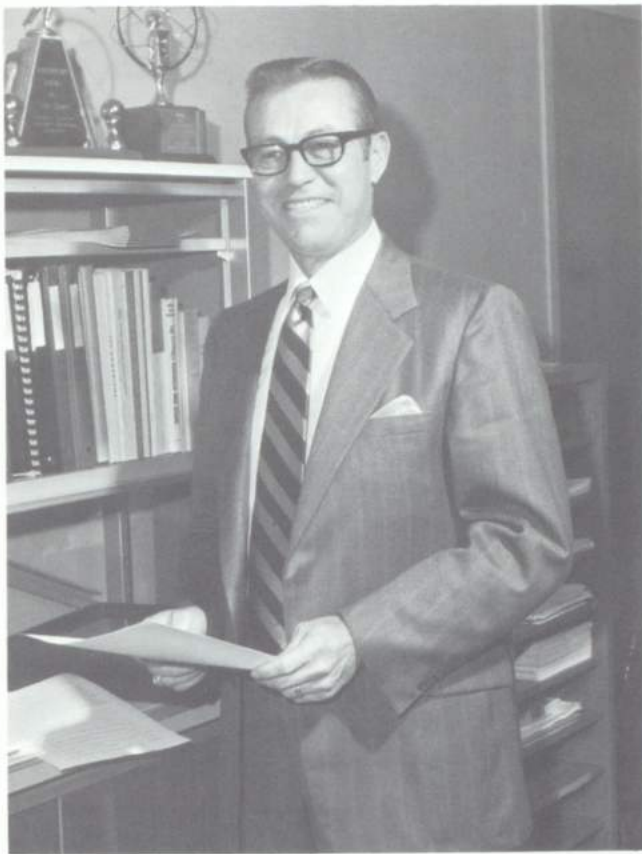

The Director of Personnel, Mr. Thomas, spends his free time working in his garden.

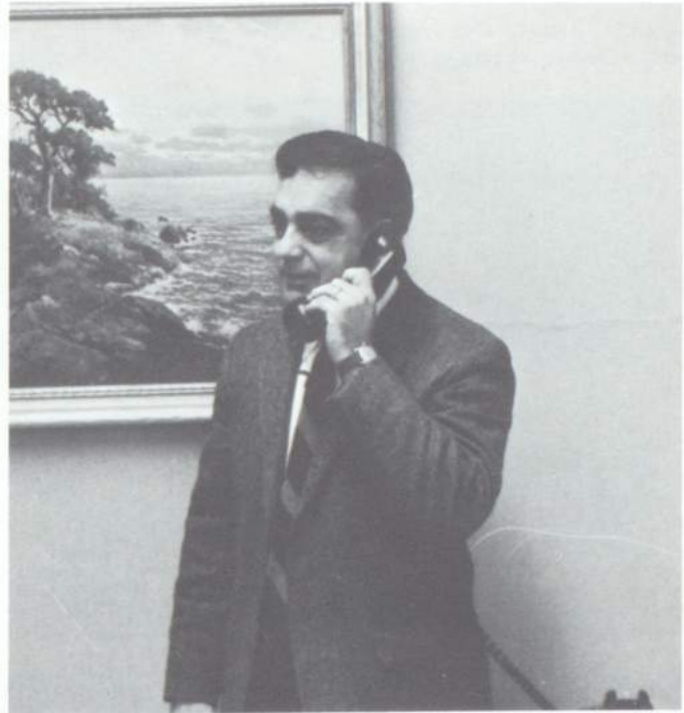

The administration has been busy with plans for renovating the high school to accommodate the increased enrollment. They also put into operation a plan to alleviate overcrowding in the elementary schools which entailed closing the grade school portion of JFS. Also, the board decided to give teachers who worked through the summer their increase in wages; this has resulted in a test case of the president's wage-price freeze.

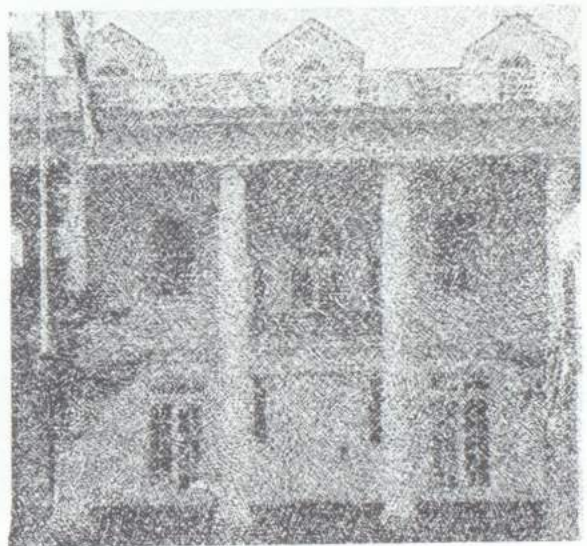

Mr. Popelka, our principal, spends most of his free time on the golf course. He also enjoys walking.

Mr. Cardone likes to be with his family when he is not working.

Administrative Assistant Mr. Clayton enjoys golf and bowling.

BOARD OF EDUCATION: George A. Butz, President, Charles G. Reavis, S. Paul Brewer, David J. Dopp, Mrs. Gene George, Gregory Saraceno, and Charles Zur.

English Department experiments

In his pursuit of excellence in the spoken word, Mr. Gallagher teaches Theater Arts, Public Speaking and Debate, and coaches the Drama Club.

When Mr. Fiorenza isn't teaching Advanced Reading Techniques, he probably is hunting, fishing, or boating.

Miss Chaffee, who collects folk ballads, was one of the first teachers to include science fiction in her English courses. She now teaches Mystery and the Supernatural.

Mr. Freschette spends his time off from teaching Modern American Literature and Science Fiction by working on cars and riding motorcycles.

with phase electives.

Advisor to the Film Club and the Ski Club, Mr. Anichiarico teaches Contract English and Communication and the Media.

Mr. Rabois spent six months in Sierra Leone for the Peace Corps.

Mr. Toton, who teaches Outdoor Life, is a hunter and a fisherman as well as a conservationist.

Mrs. Katusak, a new teacher to U-E, enjoys outdoor sports.

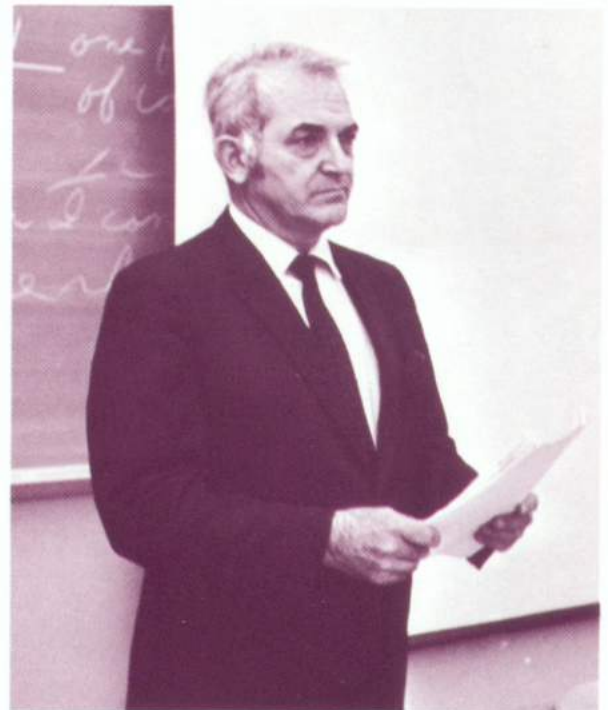

Mrs. Manker's love is opera. She sings with the Motet Singers, the Binghamton Choral Society, and the opera workshop at SUNY Binghamton.

A wood-worker and poet, Mr. Hoesel teaches Creative Writing and Reading Skills.

Mr. Fanning is a bridge player, hiker, wood-worker, chess-player and hunter.

Mr. Bottino, who hunts and fishes occasionally, is writing his thesis for his Ph. D. on the DUBLINERS by James Joyce.

Besides hunting and fishing, Mr. Palka serves as advisor to the TIGEREYE.

Mrs. Minor plays bridge and cooks.

Self-proclaimedly a voracious reader, Mrs. Pizante considered being a biology teacher before she decided to teach English.

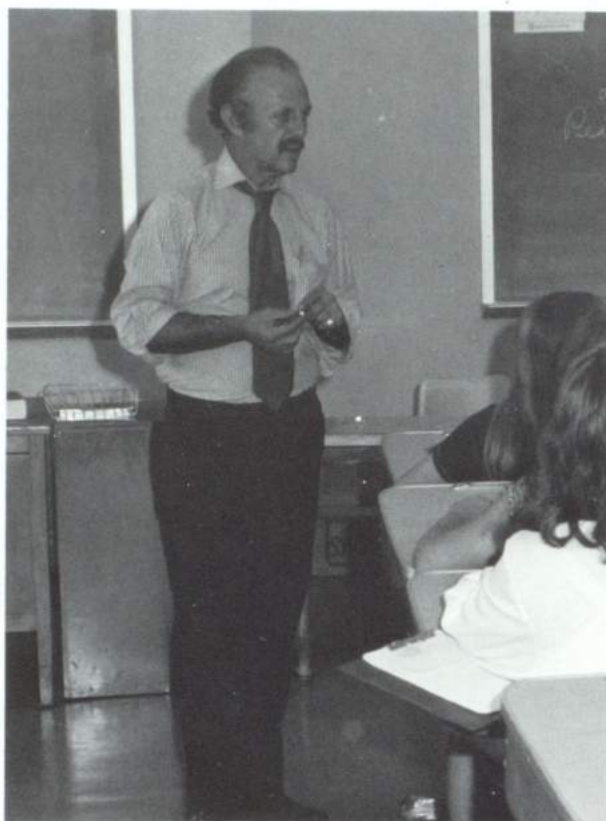

The English Department marched boldly and forcefully forward with its Phase Elective English program, a method by which more diversity in courses was available and more response to the students individual needs was possible. From almost every aspect, the program was an overwhelming success. Student interest in English reached a new peak, and teacher awareness of students' special requirements was enhanced. Both groups cooperated to stun each other with the effectiveness of the program.

Mrs. Algava, who once lived and taught in Argentina, spends her free hours drawing and reading.

A modern Odysseus, Mr. Gianakouros travels to Greece every summer.

The trio of Richard Gasbarra, Tim Burke, and Richard Ciccirelli ponder over some new vocabulary words in the library.

Bill Garrett enjoys a moment of outdoor study.

Library swells to 18,000 volumes.

Mrs. Little, Librarian, lived in Iran for three years.

Mrs. Tellep attended the Scranton Conservatory of Music and Wyoming Seminary. She enjoys handicrafts, reading, and, of course, music.

Besides being an avid reader, Mrs. Collona is also an expert at crocheting.

Mrs. Griffith, Librarian, spends the summer months gardening, swimming, sailing, and golfing.

Mrs. Gale loves music and horticulture.

Mrs. Atkinson reads, embroiders, and does ceramics.

History Department offers Advanced Economics.

Mr. Everts, who is interested in vine culture, has started his own wine cellar.

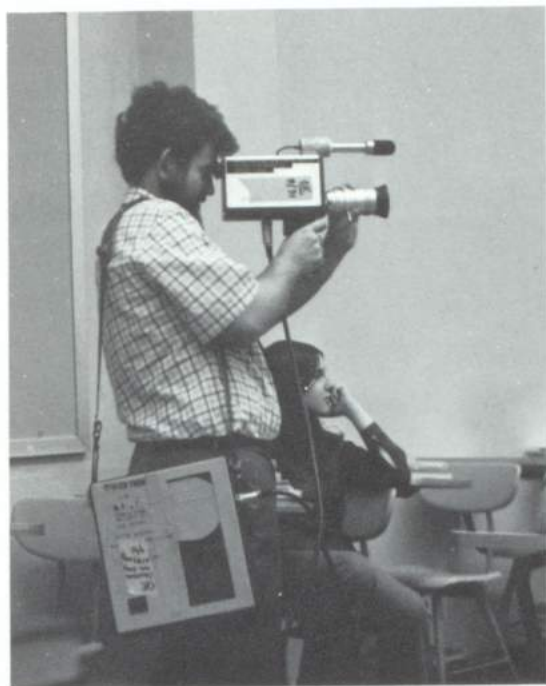

Advisor to the Young Americans for Freedom, Mr. Harvey, runs to keep in shape.

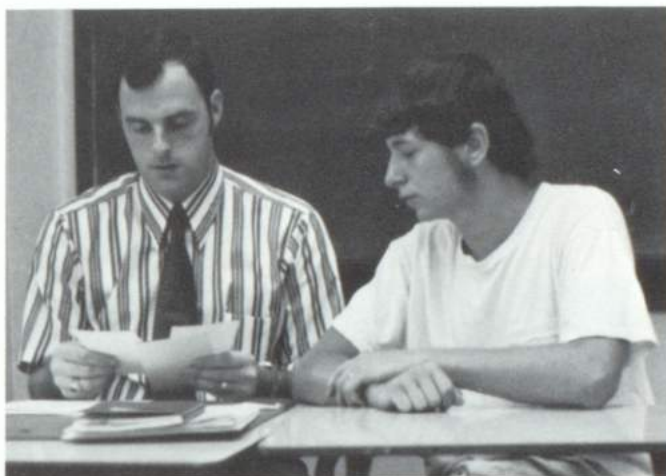

A photographer, Student Government advisor, Sunday school teacher, and announcer for U-E basketball and wrestling matches, Mr. Wilson teaches World History and Russian Studies.

Formerly a Vista Volunteer, Mr. Teplitsky now teaches Human Behavior and Minority Groups.

Mr. Archer coaches J.V. Basketball for Seton Catholic High School.

Mr. Alesandro teaches World and American History and advises the debate club.

Dick Curvto and Tom Olshefski, two American History students, make use of the audio-visual equipment in the multi-media center.

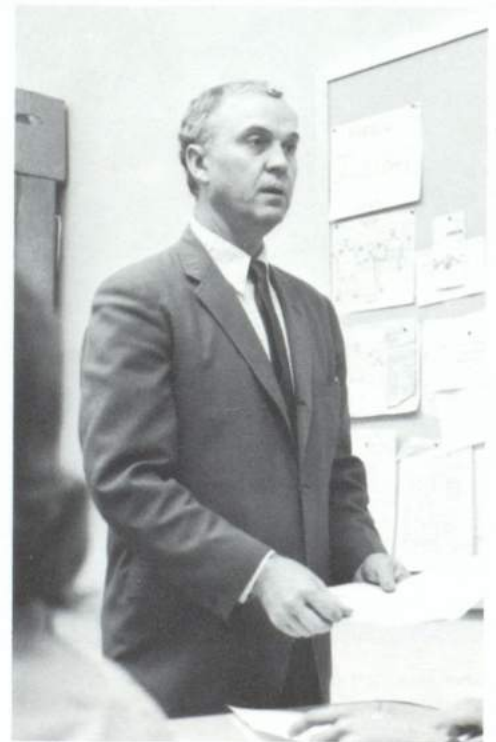

Miss Coccetti is reputed to be a great swimmer.

Mr. Smith enjoys hunting and riding his motorcycle.

Continuity and change were the words for the History Department this year. Sophomores were again presented with World History, but with a new method — team teaching. This involved two teachers working together to conduct lectures and to hold seminars. Over 40% of the seniors continued their education in social studies and once again had a variety of electives from which to choose. The newest, Advanced Economics, was a serious course on national economic theories although the first unit was introduced by a comic book.

Mr. Kennedy devotes his time to teaching American History and Human Behavior.

Mr. Barno, who teaches World History and Sociology, hunts and fishes in his free time.

Mr. Ketcham is the head of the Social Studies Department.

Mr. Studick has traveled to Russia, and has done work for the American Embassy there.

Business Department gains I.B.M. Selectric typewriters.

Mr. Strauss likes to travel, bowl, and make cabinets.

Supervisor of the Business Department, Mr. Dupkanick is quite a sports enthusiast, playing golf, softball, and basketball and bowling. He also reads, follows the stock market, and directs the program of continuing education at U-E.

Yearbook advisor, Mrs. Stone, enjoys camping, sewing, knitting, and serves as secretary to the ETA.

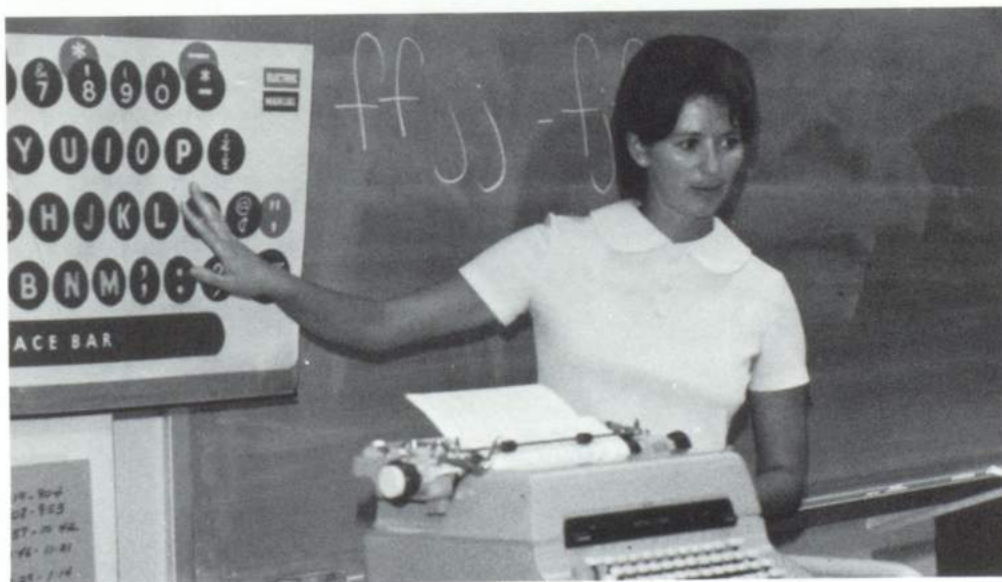

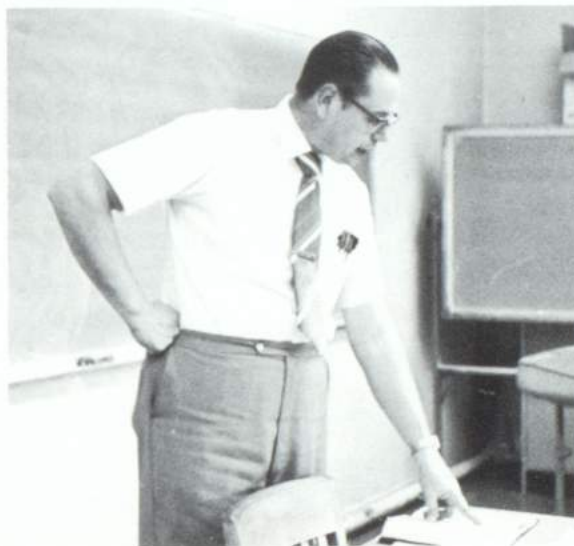

Mrs. Resciniti teaches Personal Typing and Office Practice.

An art enthusiast, Mrs. Prew collects antiques and travels.

Beginning typists enjoyed typing on new electric typewriters for the first time in U-E history. Half of the room was equipped with IBM Selectrics. If you ever heard groans coming from Room 104, it meant that the students were switched from an electric to a manual.

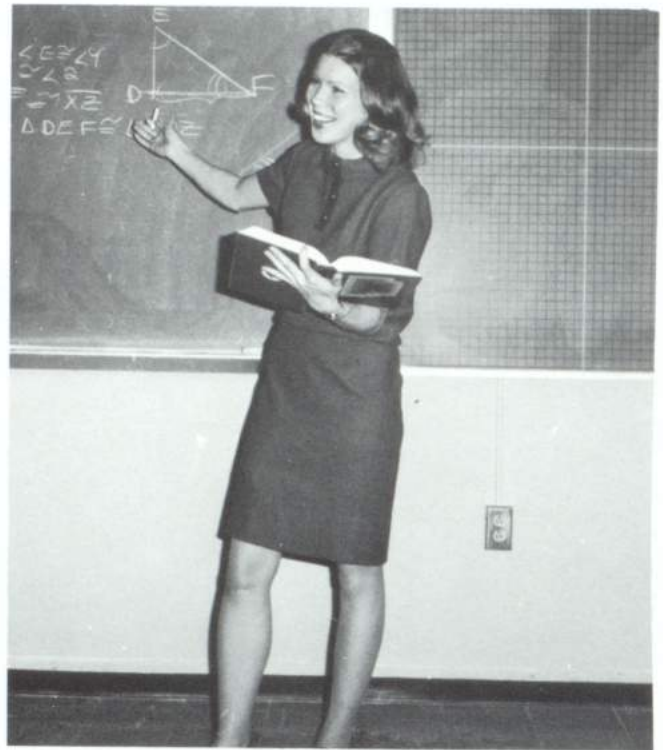

Besides teaching Accounting and Business Arithmetic, Mr. Merriam works at the ticket office for sports events.

Mrs. Yoder, a Secretarial Practice and Typing teacher, likes to ski.

Math Department obtains new books.

Miss Hartnett skis, bowls, plays the clarinet, and sews.

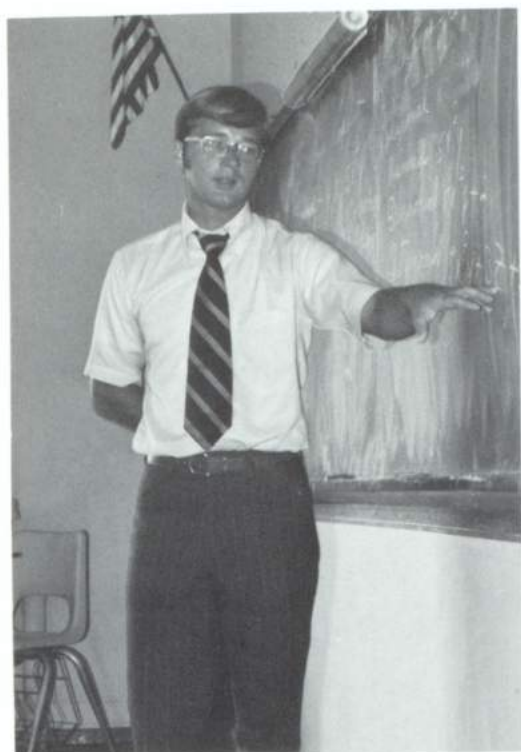

Mr. Pullano bowls, golfs, and does card tricks.

Snowmobiles and snowmobiling occupy Mrs. Collins' Saturday evenings during the winter season.

Tennis, golf, basketball, hunting, and riding make up the spare time activities of Mr. Holcomb.

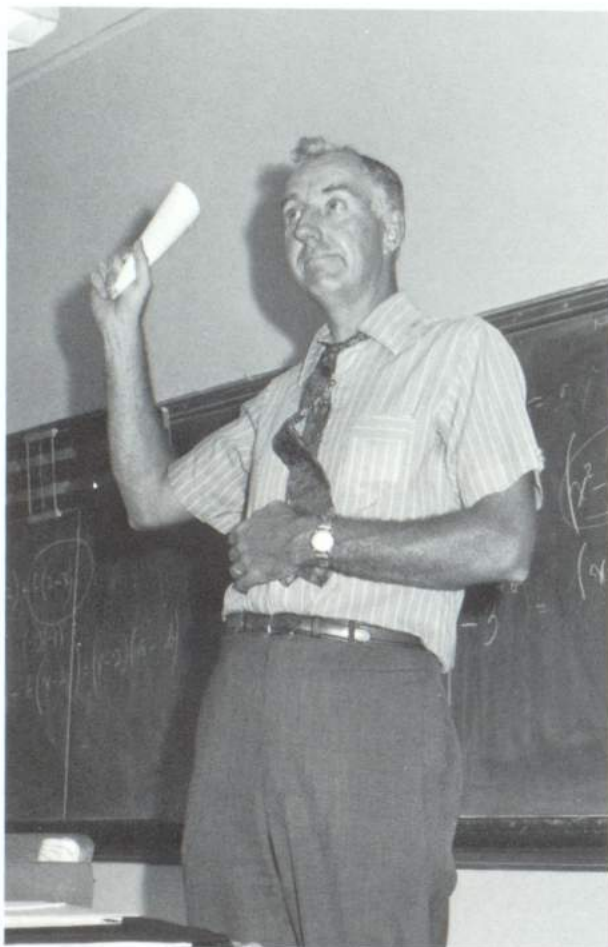

In charge of Oceanographic and Meteorology Programs of the Coast Guard when he retired in 1969, Mr. Zinck became interested in education when he was the Executive Officer of a large Coast Guard Training Center from 1962-1966.

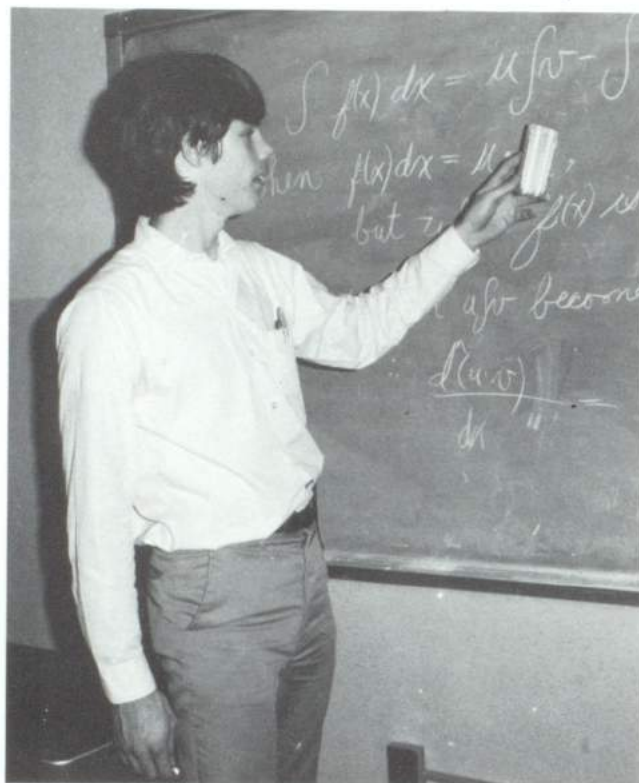

Mr. DeMars, a U-E graduate, came back to teach Math 9 and 10 because he enjoyed those subjects so much when he was here.

New books for Math 9 and Math 10 and a set of experimental books for Math 11 added to the curricula of the Math Department. The new Math-Science resource center, a great help to all, was in constant use by mathematics scholars.

Mathletes' coach, Mr. Goodnow, teaches Math 12 and Calculus.

Class Brain and Most Studious boy, John Seebe, solves a calculus problem on the board.

Mr. Loso, who teaches Math 10 and Math 11, swims at noontime.

Music Department gains more recognition.

Director of Bands, Mr. Scagnoli attends Syracuse University part time for his doctorate in music, he also plays golf.

Mrs. Forbes, who once started flying lessons, now confines herself to golf & gardening.

Excellence on the oboe resulted from long hours of rehearsals for Kirk Erickson, class musician, and Nancy Jelinek.

Art Department arouses creativity.

Mrs. Bryden, President of the Endicott Teachers Association, collects stamps and paints in her spare time.

Talented Mike Palombo uses the paintbrush as his instrument of expression.

Lori Neschleba and Shirley Bundga employ their creative talents in the quest for artistic achievement.

A new technique for inking is discovered by Gayle Saddlemire.

Miss Chomyszak teaches Studio in Art, Crafts, and Photography.

Karen Bruce critically examines her completed work in oil.

The silent thoughts of Laurie Minich pose a contrast with the busy painting of Joanne Hover.

Art students experimented in exciting new ideas in graphic techniques. They also participated in the Scholastic Art Exhibit. Evening sessions were held during which students were able to work with a model for a few uninterrupted hours.

Home Economics moves with the times.

Mrs. Vartuli sews, gardens, and enjoys being with her grandchildren.

Mrs. Dunham swims and sails as well as being involved in her teenager's activities.

Pam Veruto and Robin Sullivan demonstrate the proper method of becoming a world-famous chef or just a good homemaker.

In trying to keep up with the times, the Home Economics Department instituted a new course — Home Economics III. This entailed discussions regarding preparation for marriage, family crises, and the everyday problems of clothing and cooking. Progress in sewing was made with the use of new knits and velvets while boys participated in Foods class for the second year.

Ann Sick develops the arts of a fine seamstress in Home Economics class.

Industrial Arts offers technical training.

Mr. Rossi teaches electronics and auto electronics.

Mr. Caveney likes to bowl.

An enthusiastic bicyclist, Mr. Makoske keeps busy running a bicycle shop and participating in races.

Not pictured: Mr. Vergona.

Dave DeMartine, Mike Bilik, and Gary Edwards gain experience from the equipment in electronics class.

Science Dept. emphasized concept over fact.

Mrs. Mueller, a biology teacher with her Ph.D, sails with her family in her spare time.

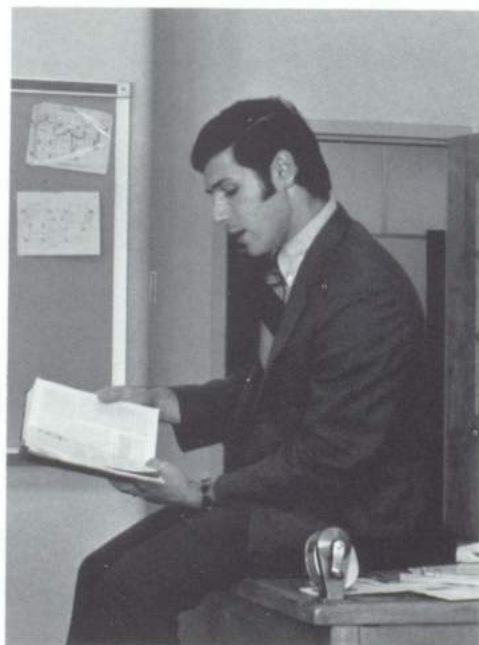

Mr. Lawton sings in the Believers Quartet and finds racing fascinating.

The Science Department, in spite of inadequate space, budget, and equipment, managed some innovations this year. The biology labs acquired a two and one-half foot iguana as well as a new sterilizer and incubator. The chemistry students had new books and the physics students a whole new course. Project Physics — where students learn by doing rather than by memorizing — made physics much more interesting than in the past.

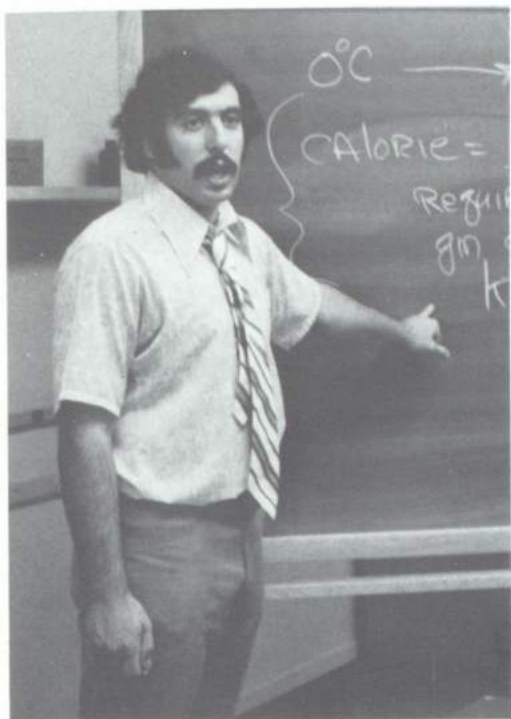

Mr. Gutman enjoys working with videotape.

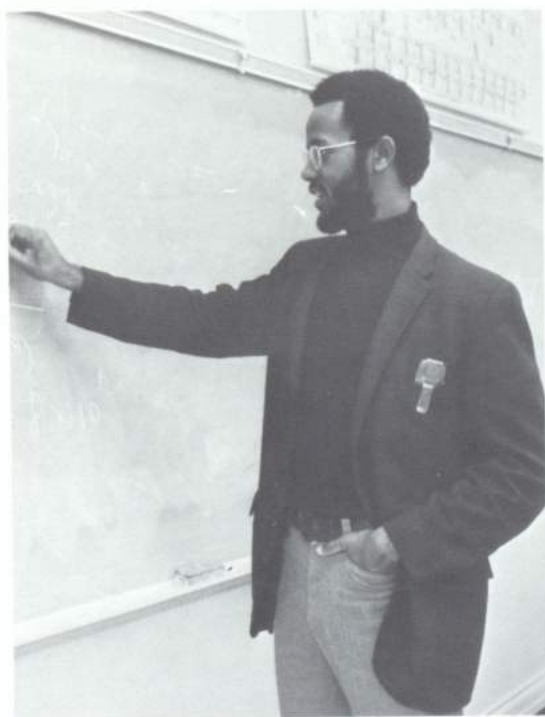

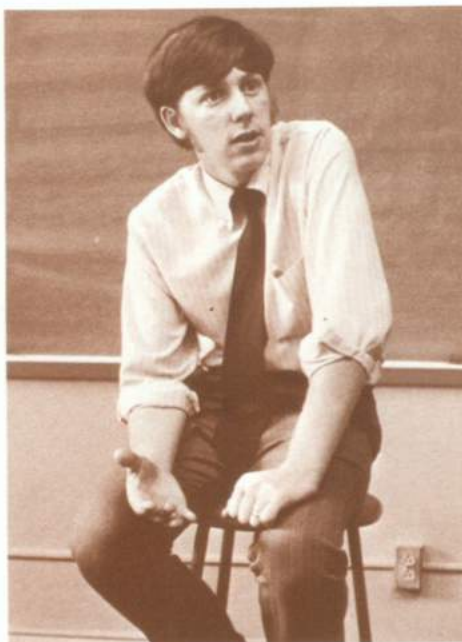

A bicyclist, Mr. Cavese is Membership Chairman of ETA.

Advisor to the Key Club, Mr. Ferris, who played football in college, takes pleasure in his stereo set and collects records.

Appropriately enough, Mr. Teubert, advisor of Students for Environmental Action, takes pictures of pollution.

Mr. Hobgood, a M.A.T. in physics and math, is learning how to play the guitar.

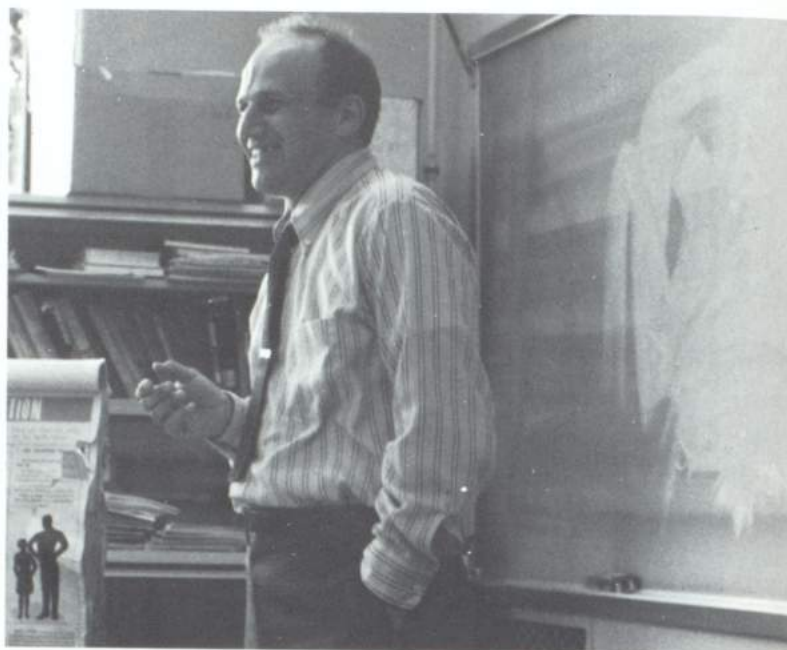

In addition to holding a brown belt in Judo, Mrs. Echols raises Akita dogs, one of which won the title "Best Dog in the Show" in mid-west competition this year. She also advises the National Honor Society.

In order to extract accurate results from his biology experiment, Ray VanAlstine employs industrious care in his computation.

Mr. Nicosia, back coach for the Varsity football team, hunts and fishes.

Steve Vaughn develops a precise technique for preparing slides.

Formerly a hospital lab technician, Mrs. Freeman calls herself a car racing fan.

Not pictured: Mrs. Rutkowski.

School nurse, Miss Lesko, an incessant reader, likes to embroider and do arts and crafts.

Sandy Cooper delicately prepares to examine one of the many botanical specimens in biology lab.

An expert hunter, Mr. Sorochinsky coaches varsity wrestling.

An organist and bicyclist, Mr. Pallazo teaches Physics.

Individual involvement stressed by Language Department.

The Language Department stressed the use of the audio-lingual approach. The Language lab became a hub of activity as students used the new equipment to improve their reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills.

Mr. Angeline, head coach of the Varsity Football Team, teaches Latin.

Mrs. Hunt passes her vacations by traveling to such places as Nassau, Puerto Rico, and Europe.

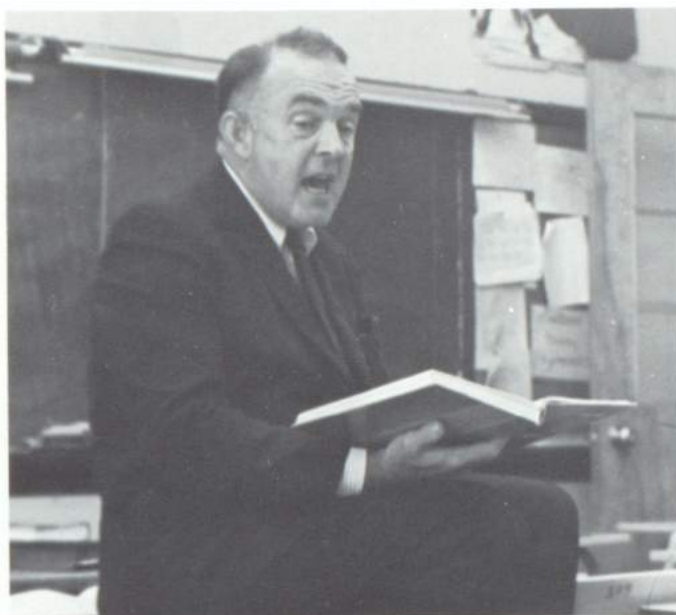

Mr. Vitale, who taught in Guam for five years, now plays the mandolin and guitar and sings in his spare time.

Miss Lord finds satisfaction in sewing and traveling.

Mr. O'Connell, the Foreign Language supervisor, likes to travel in his leisure time.

Although he enjoys viewing televised sports, Mr. Zonio participates in his own physical fitness program which includes tennis and two miles of walking every day.

A naturalized citizen since 1959, Mrs. Dodson, a teacher with varied tastes, enjoys classical music, bike riding, and camping.

Phys. Ed. adds new programs for girls.

Mrs. Honnick enjoys swimming, camping, and scuba diving.

Great bursts of energy alternated with moments of rest during the vigorous soccer games in gym class.

Competition drives Marty Rangel and Tom Parks to strive for victory, even in a friendly basketball game.

Mrs. Marshall's family enjoys camping.

Head coach of the baseball team, Mr. Hamilton is a member of the Endicott Auxiliary Police Force, teaches the "Learn to Swim" program during the summer, and is active in the intramural sports programs at U-E.

Girls participated in interscholastic competition in tennis, volleyball, gymnastics, basketball, swimming, softball, and track and field. This was the first year that the boys were able to play golf during gym class.

Director of Athletics, Mr. Wurtenburg golfs and recently re-modeled his kitchen.

Mr. Sylvester, advisor of the Varsity Club, coaches the J.V. Basketball and J.V. Baseball teams, and is in charge of intramurals.

Quality point system initiated by Guidance Department.

Mr. Cowan was a pilot in the Navy for four years.

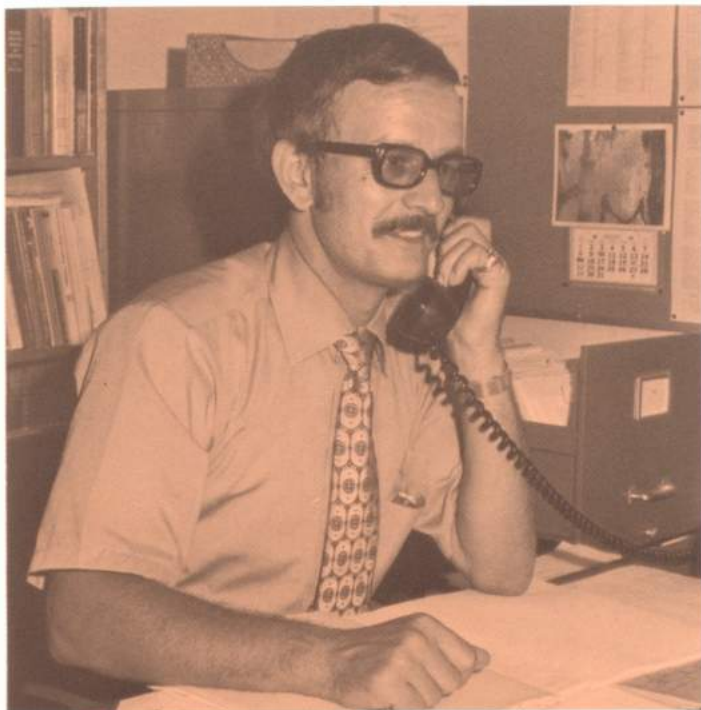

Miss Griffith spends her spare time buying and selling antiques.

A golf nut, Mr. Mitten also hunts and fishes.

Editor of ETA newsletter, Mr. Helt golfs, bowls, and collects model cars.

The Guidance Department, supervised by Mr. Popelka, acting Director of Guidance, also has its novelties. For the first time the quality point system is being used to compute student ranking in the hopes that a truer picture of individual academic ability may be reflected.

Special Education teacher, Mr. Franklin, runs a small summer resort in the Pocono Mountains during the summer.

Secretaries acquire their own lounge.

Miss Brainerd, a graduate of U-E and a secretary here for thirty-four years, acts as librarian for the Union Presbyterian Church.

Appropriately enough, Mrs. Starring, the secretary in the athletic office, enjoys football.

Mrs. Hughes, the Supervisors' secretary, likes to read magazines and to knit.

After a hard day in the office, Mrs. Hubbell relaxes by listening to chamber music.

Mrs. Hufford collects stamps, does work in porcelain, and does china painting.

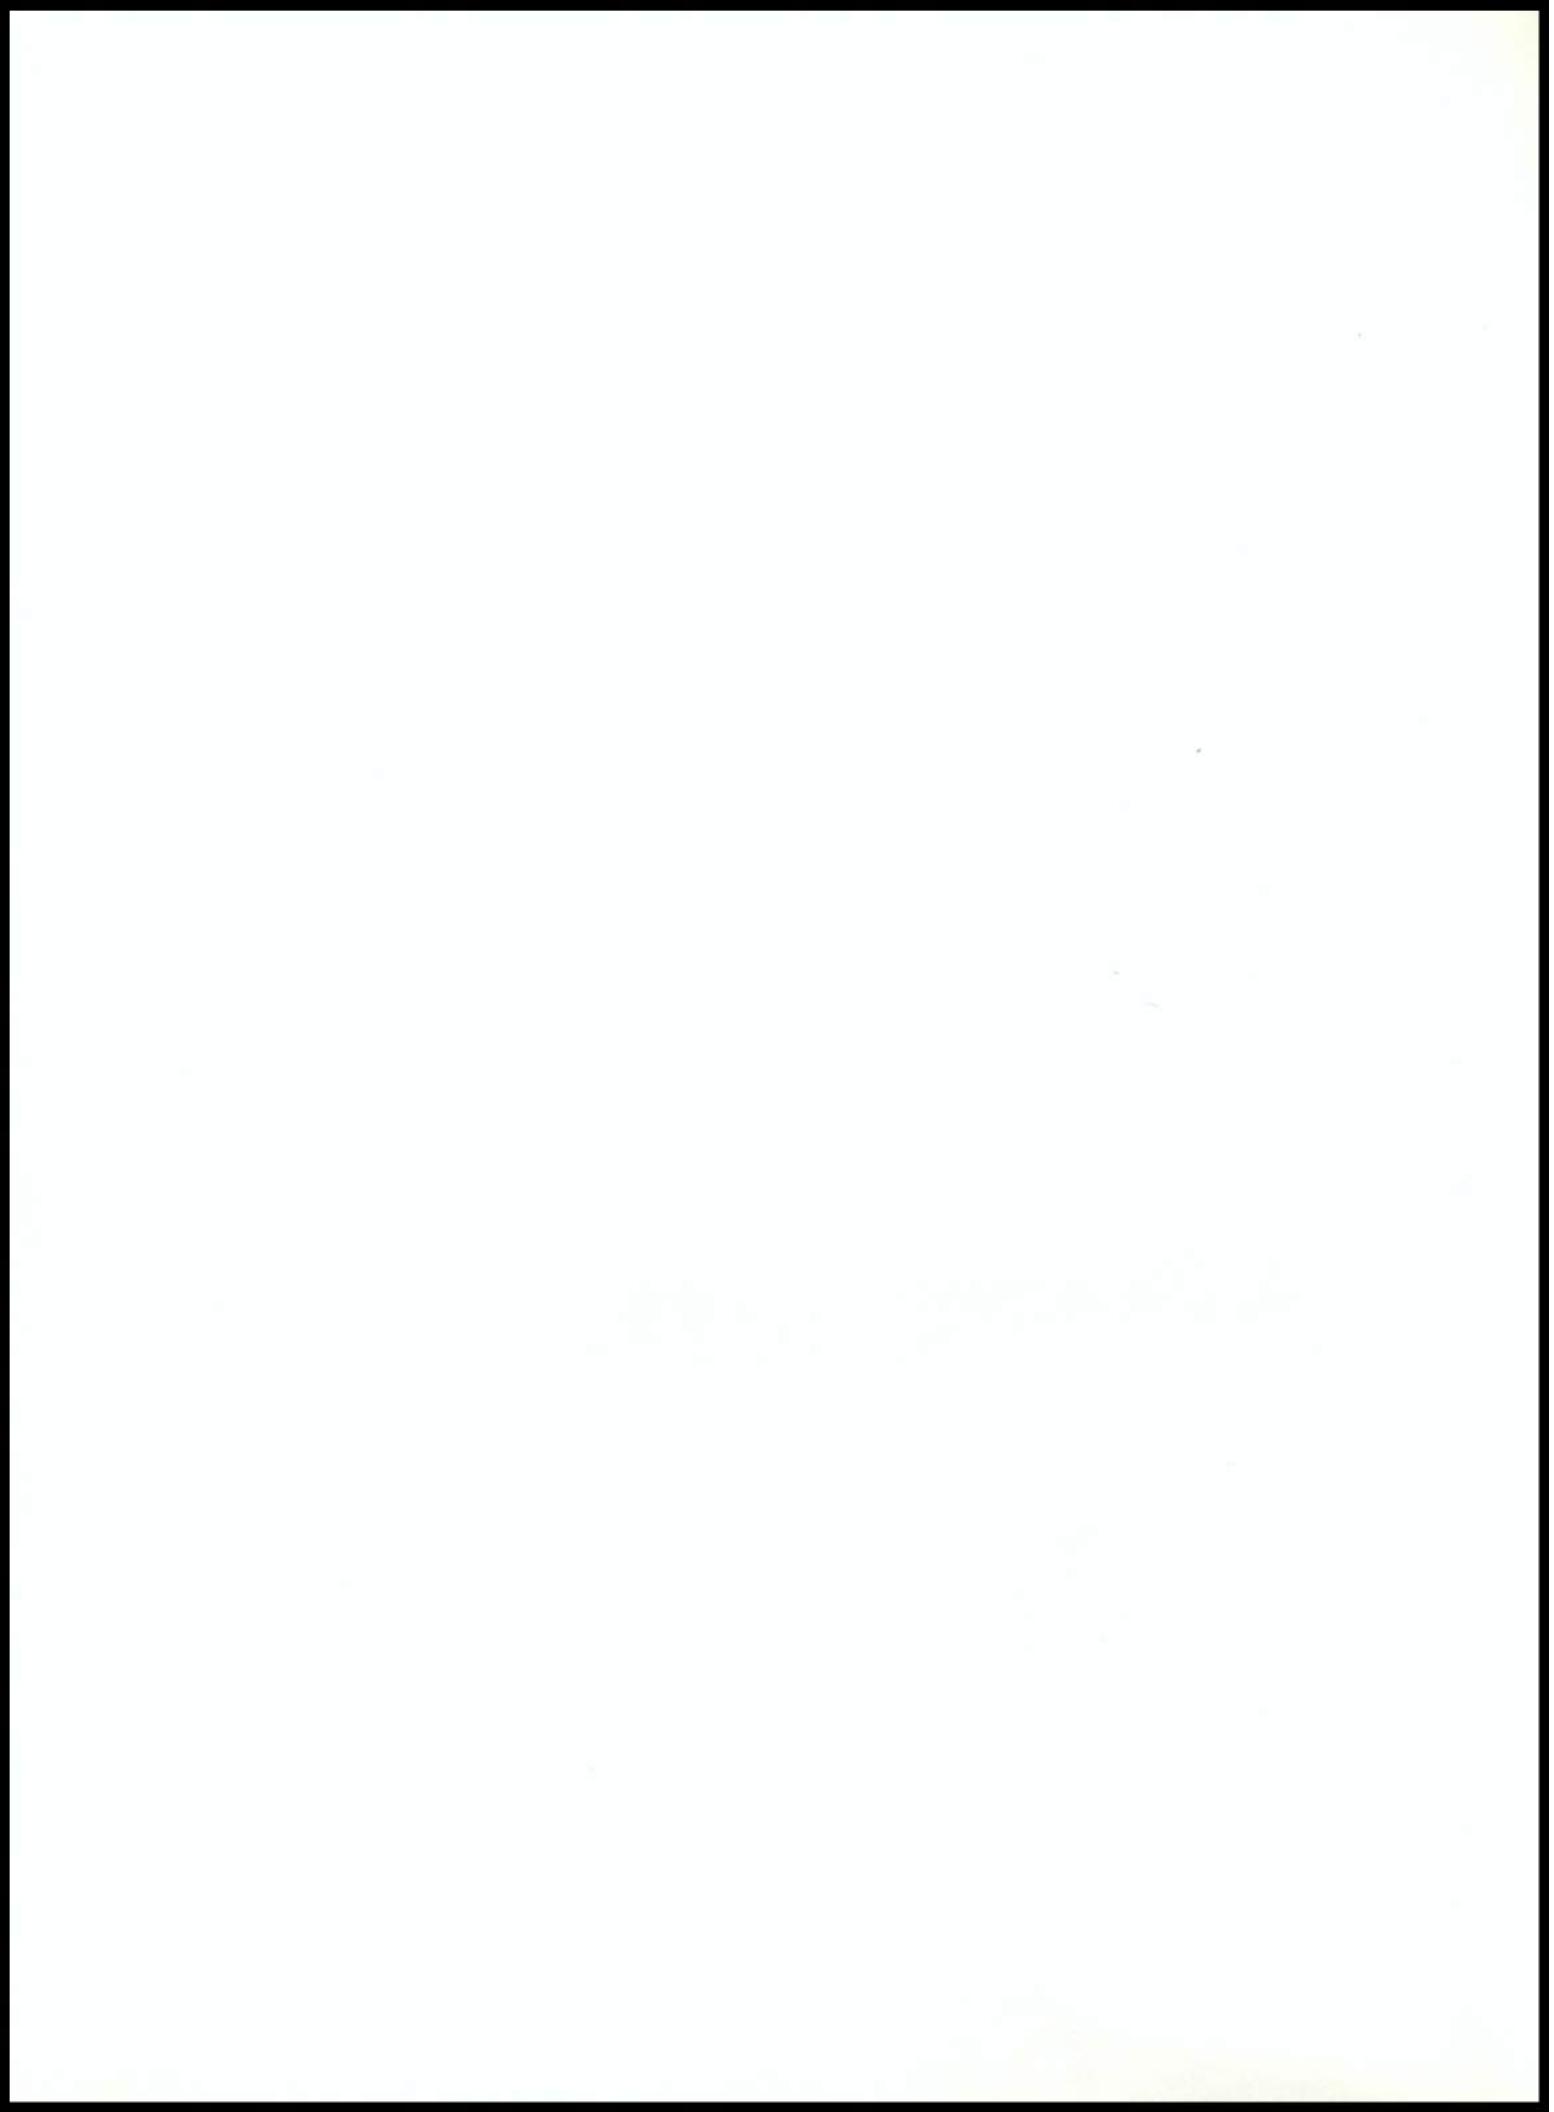

Mrs. Morrissey travels and reads.

Mrs. Bush likes to work in her garden, sew, and go antiquing.

Mrs. Kopic enjoys gardening, baking, and travel.

Marching Band performs on national television.

Buffalo Bills half-time show closed with a shield formation and the band playing "America the Beautiful."

At the 1971 State Fair Band Competition held at Syracuse, the band placed 5th out of 30 participating bands. But this was only the beginning of an exciting year. The highlight of the year was the band's performance at the Buffalo Bills — St. Louis Cardinals football game. This honor has never been bestowed on any other band in the Triple Cities area. The band is hoping that this honor will become an annual tradition. Good Luck, band with the beginning of an exciting era.

The Tigerettes, about to perform their little dance routine to, "I Say a Little Prayer."

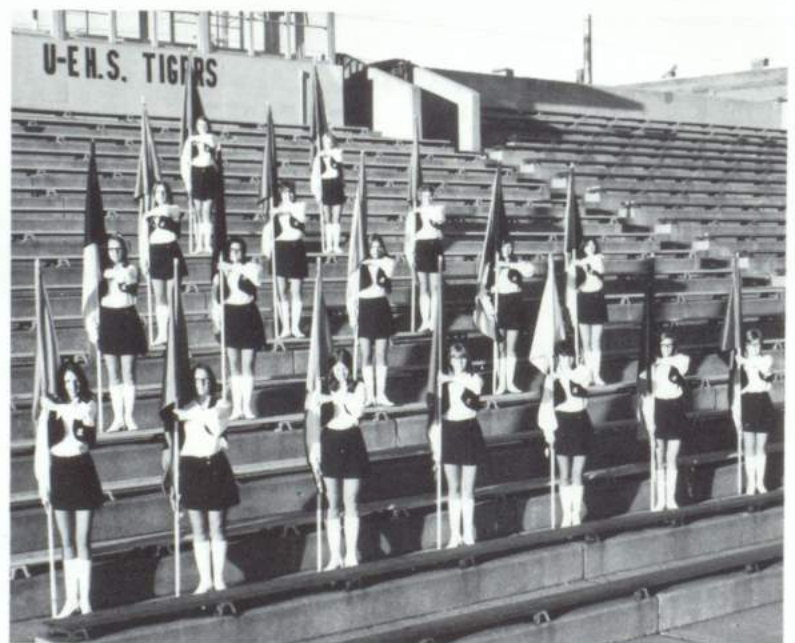

Mr. Scagnoli, silhouetted against the sky on top of his tower, was a familiar sight at rehearsals.

At the Binghamton North halftime show, the band formed the three rings of the "Greatest Show on Earth."

Mr. Slecta, Assistant Director of Bands, works just as hard as the rest of the band members.

Tigerettes and "Silks" gain status.

"The Tigerette Corps is, without a doubt, the finest high school girl chorus line in the country today." The Tigerettes have earned their title as the "Rockettes of the Gridiron." The American Association of Judges at the 1971 New York State Fair Marching Band Competition commented that, "the Tigerettes are the best drilled dance corps ever seen at the Competition." Seldom mentioned, but always there to add color, are the "Silks". This year we have decided to give them recognition for their hard work. Congratulations, Silks and Tigerettes!

The steam shovel formation was part of the band's show at Buffalo.

Winter Concert highlights the band season.

Sarah Singer and Sue Ward, the band's choices for outstanding sophomore and junior band members respectively, join forces on a melodic piece for stage band.

Chris Putrino, the stage band's lead guitarist, practiced just as hard as everybody else.

The Stage and Concert Bands' Third Annual Guest Artist Winter Concert featured Al Gallodoro on alto saxophone, clarinet, and bass clarinet. Mr. Gallodoro played with the bands on such tunes as "Carnival of Venice" and "Clarinet on the Town." Funds made by the bands went towards their international spring tour to Quebec, Canada. The bands were featured at both junior high schools and many elementary schools within the district, as well as at the Fountains Restaurant for the Founders Day Dinner, with the Syracuse University Symphony Band, at the Mother's Day Concert, and at the Commencement Ceremony.

ROW 1: Jeff Thomas, Lew Lipka, Bob Gritsavage, Bruce Potter, Al LaBarbera. ROW 2: Sue Ward, Sarah Singer, Mike Mastrangelo. ROW 3: Dan Howard, Cheri Cole, Peter Speicher, Steve Wegner, Dan Borsellino, Sam Kelly. ROW 4: Jim Butz, Steve Boettger, Rick Calvasina, Ed Conzola, Chris Putrino, Greg McQuade, Wayne Chadwick.

Michelle Bunnell on the flute and John Scales on the piccolo attentively watch as Mr. Scagnoli directs the band.

The trumpets blared out in rehearsals for both Concert and Stage Band performances.

ROW 1: Maria Pinto, Mike Drejza, Cindy Olsen, Joan Sterling, Shannon Bresson, Michelle Bunnell, John Scales, Laurie Cantwell, Janet Coryell, Cecilia Jakubek, Kathy Corwin. ROW 2: Nancy Giacobelli, Brenda Wells, Sue Pipa, Barbara Haskell, Sherry Chasteen, Nancy Jelinek, Kirk Erickson, Sally Morgan, Sue Ellen Wison, Elaine Livingston, Jeff Thomas, Dave Ulsh, Dan Borsellino, Laurie Winkler, Sarah Singer, Pam Bombard, Sue Ward. ROW 3: Mary Kappus, Kathy Lord, Roxanne Duffek, Diane Byer, Wayne Chadwick, Marc Falcone, Nancy Overstrom, Tom Overstrom, Rob Dutkowsky, Dale Giles, Randy Reece, Chuck Atwood, Bob Gritsavage, Dan Howard, Chuck Beaven, Dan Dunn, Rick Ciccirelli, Mike Mastrangelo, Cheri Cole, Jim Butz, Al Winans, Bruce Potter, Debbie Hrustich, Rich Deland, Bob Deland, Diane Carlson, Karen Morford, Stacy Adams, Krista Washam, Tom Komar. ## Co-op views IBM from the inside.

Barbara Kerr attentively listens to the day's assignments.

Momentarily stopping by her locker, Helen Tingley prepares to report to Co-op.

Co-op, reinstituted after fiscal problems forced its cancellation in mid 1971, is once again in full swing. Those involved work for pay half days at IBM, the only stipulation being that one half of the money earned must be saved. Student progress is reported to the school regularly, and the program proves not only profitable but also enjoyable to all.

ROW 1: Joanne Gasbarra, Sharon Klimek, Colleen Pullano; ROW 2: Judy Harper, Doree Meyers, Sue Arvonio, Sue Hunsinger, Linda Colley.

Cheerleaders display bursts of spirit.

Most Active Girl, Yvonne Roma never fails to keep the crowd's spirits up, even when plagued by an official's untimely call.

Football cheerleaders' enthusiasm at the fall pep rally leads those in attendance to feel pride in their teams.

ROW 1: Mindy Schwartz, Debbie Ciano, Peggy Greene, Diane Prislupsky, Sherry Wike, Roseann Toth. ROW 2: Marcia Moreau, Barbara Hunter, Penny Laskowski, Yvonne Roma, Lucky Kucera, Pam Hendrick.

A moment of tension at the ME game brings Pam Hendrick and Roseann Toth together.

Patty Wilce prepares to launch herself from the floor at the climax of a cheer.

Lori Neschleba concentrates before the start of a victory cheer at the winter pep rally.

Cheerleaders pepped up the crowds.

ROW 1: Carol Lavo, Lorraine Caforio, Diane Brown, Lynn Haddock. ROW 2: Peggy Walczyk, Debbie Folli, Cindy Laskowski, Bonnie LaCourse, Chris Higby.

The stylized choreography of the cheerleaders' movements is displayed by Chris Higby.

Lorraine Caforio marks time before the beginning of the routine.

The energetic cheering of Bonnie LaCourse helps encourage her team to victory.

Skiers were undaunted by scarcity of snow.

A confused grappling for equipment marks the arrival of the Ski Club at its destination.

Four busloads of eager skiers journeyed to Greek Peak for eight Friday nights. One hour lessons consumed only a small part of the skiers' night on the slopes. Frustrated beginners were baffled as to why they had trouble merely standing on their skis whereas the attractive ski instructors managed to whiz down the steepest of slopes with ease.

Frequently the overwhelming nipping and piercing of the cold wind would force skiers to retreat to the lodge for a moment. But not for long because even the most devastating of all winds and snowfalls could not keep most skiers off the slopes. The feeling of tremendous speed, elation, and even relaxation were well worth any suffering incurred.

Timidly leaving the chair lift, two novices prepare to conquer the bunny slope.

Avid skier Tom Christina shows one method of transportation on level ground.

Fully prepared for anything, Dino Greci looks forward to another active evening.

Kathy Kulasza makes a last minute check before heading down the slope.

A group of bold, adventurous skiers assembles to attack the slope.

Key Club joins in community service.

Aside from selling football programs, school cushions and directories, Key Club's greatest accomplishment was the Greg Latta Memorial Basketball game between the faculty and club members held in February. The club collected for the Multiple Sclerosis and Heart Funds, held a fund-raising car wash, ushered at various school functions, and donated Christmas turkeys to needy families.

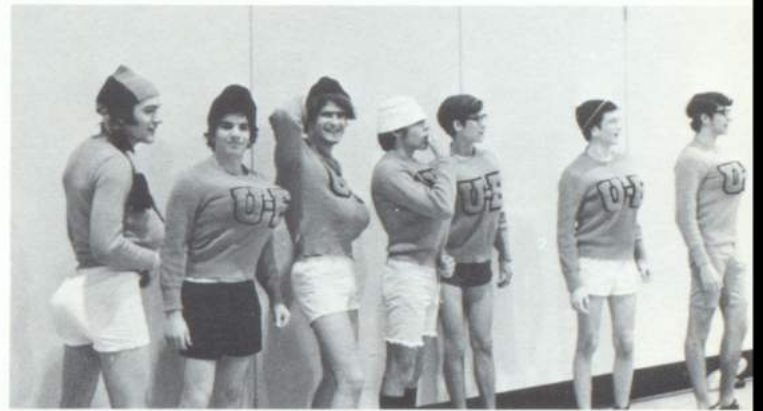

The assembled members rise for the opening ceremonies of their meeting.

Mr. Angeline and Tim Ebbers prepare for a collision as the ball descends.

Vice President Bill Briggs, Secretary Bob Brigham, Treasurer Joe Braccio, and Gary Neville contribute their ideas to a Key Club gathering.

Bill Briggs leaps to attain equality (of height) with Mr. Hobgood.

The lovely line of cheerleaders provides diversion from the game.

A new name provides impetus to the "Tigereye."

This was a year of change for the school newspaper. No longer known as "Tornado," the "Tigereye" excelled to an increased dimension. However, despite several problems encountered with the printer, the "Tigereye" staff determinedly set a goal of six issues for the year.

Robin Mott and Virginia Nyce examine the finished product of their work on the newspaper.

Elaine Miller checks the mistakes in the "Tigereye" in an attempt to see that they do not reoccur.

ROW 1: Shirley Bundga, Mary Mangini, Lori Neschleba; ROW 2: Jayne Hanus, Linnet Tse, Maria Pinto, Maureen Hastings, Elaine Miller; ROW 3: Bob Crabb, Tom Christina, Brent Korba, Melinda Mossew.

Layout Editor Brent Korba exercises his special skill.

Honor Society inducts a record number.

Dave Rossi presents Sandy Ku with a rose at the beginning of the formal fall induction ceremony.

The recitation of the pledge was a proud moment for the fall inductees.

Newly advised by Mrs. Echols, the National Honor Society set a record by inducting 31 students in the fall. Three service scholarships were awarded from money raised by a car wash, bake sale, and spaghetti supper. A Christmas Tea was held in appreciation of teachers' dedication.

Student Government sponsors fall crowning.

Rick Cole calls to order a Student Government meeting.

The Student Government was fairly active in the coordination of school affairs. Sophomore Orientation and class elections were carried out under their guidance, as well as the annual crowning of the Fall Queen. Charity projects included a donation to the United Fund and the supplying of turkeys to welfare families for Christmas dinners. Those projects considered for action included the formation of a Drug Education Program and the evaluation of the new Phase Elective System.

Film Club's first year proves successful.

The U-E. — E.F.A. wrestling match is the subject of filming by avid photographers Greg and Dan Monforte.

Lights! Camera! Action! These three words were often overheard while the newly formed Film Club was busily at work. The increasing of knowledge of special photography techniques dominated the majority of the club's efforts, while a sound film on pollution and movies of typical school situations were their main accomplishments.

Cross Country runs through tough competition.

Steve Scholfield drives ahead to come in fifth.

In dual meets, U-E's Cross Country Team rated a 4-2 record, losing only to Ithaca and Vestal — the top STAC teams. In the U-E sponsored Conwicke Invitational, the team, led by Junior Keith Solomon (who tied for first), took fifth place out of 22 teams. Although riddled by varying maladies, the spirited team overcame a strong Johnson City squad by one point on J.C.'s hilly course. A full and victorious season rewarded the team's taxing work.

Gary Neville moves in as Dom Pisani catches the ball.

Dave Bango refreshes himself as he awaits his return to the game.

Top-scorers on the Varsity Basketball team were seniors Mark Kuzio and Gary Neville. Sparked by their expertise on the court, the team set a new school and STAC record by scoring 111 points against Homer. However the highlight of the season was the defeat of Catholic Central, the second place team of the Eastern Division.

Mark Kuzio joins his opponent in a fight for the ball.

J.V. Basketball captures second in STAC.

Steve Zappia readies himself to release the ball on an attempted foul shot.

As Jim Howard strives to win the tip, his teammates poise themselves for action.

Bob Hamarich shows his soft touch as a shooter at the foul line.

Mike Kelech attempts to pass the ball in heavy traffic under the boards.

Steve Zappia leaps as high as possible to win the tip.

The JV basketball team ended a winning season second only to North. Led by topscorer Phil Demer, the starting team of Mike Kellege, Curt Parvin, Steve Zappia, and Brian Hall held first throughout most of the season. These experts in scoring and rebounding were supported by those on the bench, notably Bob Hamarich and Jim Howard. The complete team provides a bright outlook for next year's varsity.

Brian Hall pauses before bringing the ball upcourt.

Varsity Wrestlers nail down an undefeated season.

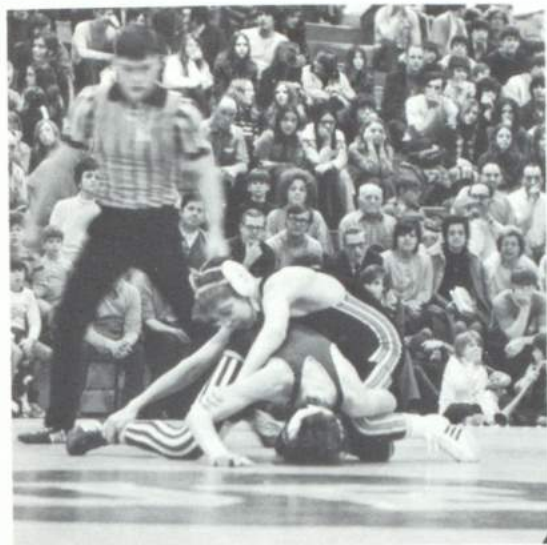

Bob Northrup looks to see his scoring situation.

Don Pembridge welds his opponent to the mat.

Both wrestlers strain every muscle to get an advantage — Larry Taggart comes out on top.

Rick Northrup gets ready for an awkward pinning combination.

From a 7-2 losing predicament, Dan Gaul comes alive in the third period for a pin.

Rick Wilce works a wedge to pin but ends up with a 12-2 victory.

Matmen tie for first in the STAC tournament.

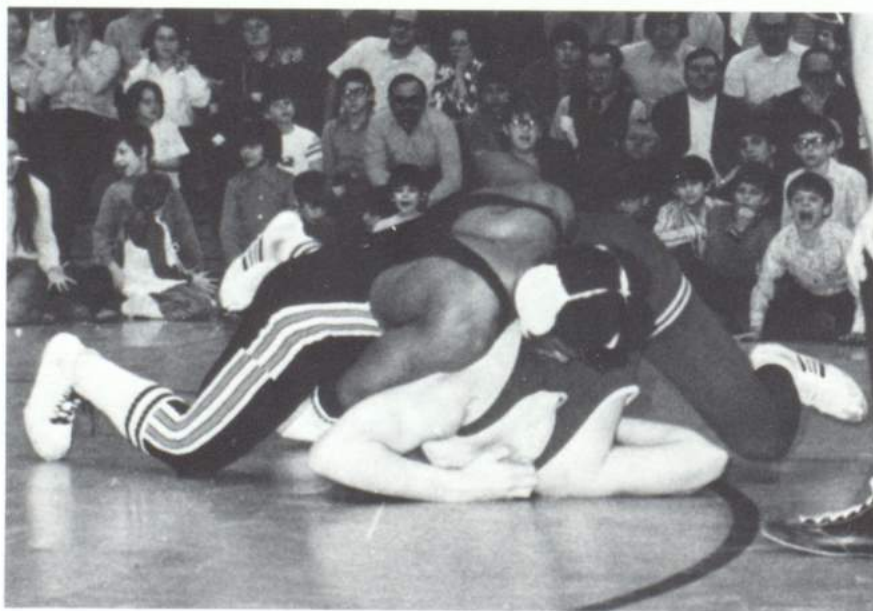

Two more points are awarded to Don Pembridge for a cradle.

Led by Dan Gaul, Tom Baleno, and Fred Felton, all of whom were undefeated in dual meets, the Tigers surprised almost everyone with their perfect season which clinched the Western Division Title. Once again, U-E captured the championship in the STAC tournament with Dan Gaul and Tom Baleno winning first place crowns; Fred Felton took second; Rick Wilce and Don Pembridge earned third place titles, and Rick and Bob Northrup settled for fourth. Wrestler Dan Gaul has an outstanding achievement in that he has not lost a home dual meet in his three years of competition.

Coach Huggins and his J.V. team give their support to a teammate.

Pat Conway staples his opponent to the mat.

U-E Junior Varsity matmen completed another outstanding season this year with a flattening victory over North as the grand finale. With a loss to Ithaca the only one in dual matches, the Tigers were spurred on by five undefeated wrestlers — Tony Ciotoli, Barrett Vaughn, Mark Palumbo, Mike Palumbo, and Tom Krmeneć. Due to a snowfall, STAC championships were cancelled half-way through, preventing U-E from a possible first place title with seven semi-finalists.

Tom Krmeneć muscles his way into a stack.

At the sound of the gun the swimmers take off.

Tim Ebbers gives his all as he counts for a teammate in the 400 freestyle.

Dave Hill swims his way through the waves.

Chris Bonner rests after a tiring race.

Even though two weeks of practice were missed because of the condemnation of the pool, the swim team recovered to finish with a winning season. Joe Braccio, Lou Fabrizio, Walter Pragacz, and Ken Ulsh led the team on to its victories while sophomore Gordy Benninger provided potential for the future. Tim Ebbers broke the school record in the breast stroke.

U-E swimmers cheer as one of their teammates wins a close race.

Girl's Volleyball and Intramurals provide an athletic outlet.

Gene Raymondi and Rick Wheeler go up for a rebound.

Bob Welch decides whether to shoot into the entangled net.

Determined to increase her team's score, Karen Bennett concentrates on her serving technique.

Basketball and Volleyball Intramurals enabled interested students to participate in athletic activities. Teams played each other off with winners playing winners and losers playing losers. Medals were awarded to all participants of the top winning team

This was the story of 1971-1972.

With the school day behind them, four friends are able to escape the hard work for a while.

Red China in the U.N. ...
Taiwan expelled ... Nixon's visit to Russia and China ... creation of Bangladesh ...
Northern Ireland conflict ...
Viet Nam continues ... Okinawa changed hands ... Pakistan floods ... Phase I and Phase II ... election year ...
devaluation of the dollar ...
Howard Hughes ... 18 year old vote ... Caldwell re-elected ... the Farm ... Home for Holidays — Easter ... March of Dimes Walkathon ... $8.8
million approved for U-E renovation ...

Mike Mastrangelo is one of the many seniors who registered to vote.

Altho' Bing' has always favored the violet's dark blue,
And the gentle sons of Elmira
To the blue and white are true.
We will own the lilies slender
Nor honor shall they lack,
While the Tiger stands defender
Of the Orange and the Black.

Thro' the four long years of High School
Midst the scenes we know so well,
As the mystic charm of knowledge
We vainly seek to spell,
Or win athletic vic'tries
On the football field or track.
Still we work for dear old U-E
And the Orange and the Black.

When the cares of life o'ertake us,
Mingling fast our locks with gray,
Should our dearest hopes betray us,
False Fortune fade away,
Still we banish care and sadness
As we turn our memories back,
And recall those days of gladness
'Neath the Orange and the Black.

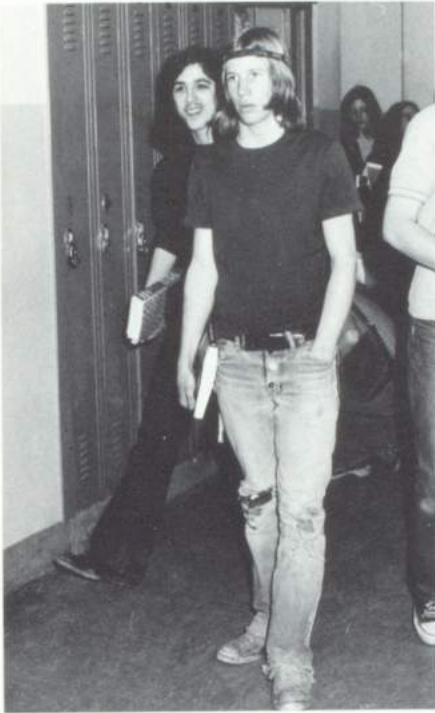

The model of the new school was placed in the library where students and faculty could inspect it.

But as time passes we must look to the future.

Between classes, Rick Emmett walks tranquilly down the hall.

Go placidly amid the noise and haste and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly, and listen to others . . . If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter, for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time . . .

Jim Monaco listens as Claude Valenta tells him a few facts about life in France.

Jay Miner and Dave Snover relax for a chat just before the next bell.

Two friends, Lynne Barnfather and Diane Brown, spend a leisure moment together.

Life is full of happiness for those who seek it.

Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.

Finding a quiet spot, Merry Lea Murphy reflects on the day's events.

Sam Lupo smiles as Sue Machalek exchanges a few words with him.

Darlene Hayes and Tom Mastroe enjoy a happy minute with each other.

Lying quietly on the soft grass, Ed Novelli finds peace in nature.

Tim Dixon looks upward pensively.

Ginny Seadler and Billie Raymond discuss their ideas in the fresh air.

You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. STRIVE TO BE HAPPY.

John Howe gazes outward, perhaps wondering what tomorrow holds.
